41 And with them were ^aHeman and Jeduthun, and ^bthe rest who were chosen, who were designated by name, to ^cgive thanks to the LORD, because His loving-kindness is everlasting.

42 And with them were Heman and Jeduthun with trumpets and cymbals for those who should sound aloud, and with instruments for ^athe songs of God, and the sons of Jeduthun for the gate.

43 ^aThen all the people departed each to his house, and David returned to bless his household.

CHAPTER 17

^aAND it came about, when David dwelt in his house, that David said to Nathan the prophet, "Behold, I am dwelling in a house of cedar, but the ark of the covenant of the LORD is under curtains."

2 Then Nathan said to David, "Do all that is in your heart, for God is with you."

3 And it came about the same night, that the word of God came to Nathan, saying,

4 "Go and tell David My servant, 'Thus says the LORD, ^a"You shall not build a house for Me to dwell in;

5 for I have not dwelt in a house since the day that I brought up Israel to this day, ^abut I have ¹gone from tent to tent and from one dwelling place to another.

6 "In all places where I have walked with all Israel, have I spoken a word ^awith any of the judges of Israel, whom I commanded to shepherd My people, saying, 'Why have you not built for Me a house of cedar?' "

7 "Now, therefore, thus shall you say to My servant David, 'Thus says the LORD of hosts, "I took you from the pasture, from following the sheep, that you should be leader over My people Israel.

8 "And I have been with you wherever you have gone, and have cut off all your enemies from before you; and I will make you a name like the name of the great ones who are in the earth.

9 "And I will appoint a place for My people Israel, and will plant them, that they may dwell in their own place and be moved no more; neither shall the ¹wicked waste them anymore as formerly,

10 even from the day that I commanded judges to be over My people Israel. And I will subdue all your enemies. Moreover, I tell you that the LORD will build a house for you.

11 "And it shall come about when your days are fulfilled that you must go to be with your fathers, that I will set up one of your ¹descendants after you, who shall be of your sons; and I will establish his kingdom.

12 "He shall build for Me a house, and I will establish his throne forever.

CHAPTER 18

NOW after this ^ait came about that David ¹defeated the Philistines and subdued them and took Gath and its towns from the hand of the Philistines.

2 And he defeated Moab, and the Moabites became servants to David, bringing tribute.

3 David also defeated Hadad-ezer king of Zobah as far as Hamath, as he went to establish his ¹rule to the Euphrates River.

4 And David took from him 1,000 chariots and 7,000 horsemen and 20,000 foot soldiers, and David hamstrung all the chariot horses, but reserved enough of them for 100 chariots.

5 ¶ When the Arameans of ¹Damascus came to help Hadad-ezer king ^aof Zobah, David ²killed 22,000 men of the Arameans.

6 Then David put garrisons among the Arameans of ¹Damascus; and the Arameans became servants to David, bringing tribute. And the LORD helped David wherever he went.

7 And David took the shields of gold which were ¹carried by the servants of Hadadezer, and brought them to Jerusalem.

8 Also from ¹Tibhath and from Cun, cities of Hadadezer, David took a very large amount of bronze, with which ^aSolomon made the bronze sea and the pillars and the bronze utensils.

9 ¶ Now when ¹Tou king of Hamath heard that David had ²defeated all the army of Hadadezer king of Zobah,

10 he sent ¹Hadoram his son to King David, to ²greet him and to bless him, because he had fought against Hadadezer and had ³defeated him; for Hadadezer had been at war with Tou. And Hadoram brought all kinds of articles of gold and silver and bronze.

11 King David also dedicated these to the LORD with the silver and the gold which he had carried away from all the nations: from Edom, Moab, the sons of Ammon, the Philistines, and from Amalek.

12 ¶ Moreover Abishai the son of Zeruiah ¹defeated 18,000 Edomites in the Valley of Salt.

13 Then he put garrisons in Edom, and all the Edomites became servants to David. And the LORD helped David wherever he went.

14 ¶ So David reigned over all Israel; and he ¹administered justice and righteousness for all his people.

15 And ^aJoab the son of Zeruiah was over the army, and Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud was recorder;

16 and Zadok the son of Ahitub and Abimelech the son of Abiathar were priests, and Shavsha was secretary;

17 and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada was over the Cherethites and the Pelethites, and the sons of David were chiefs at the king's side.

CHAPTER 19

^aNOW it came about after this, that Nahash the king of the sons of Ammon died, and his son became king in his place.

2 Then David said, "I will show kindness to Hanun the son of Nahash, because his father showed kindness to me." So David sent messengers to console him concerning his father. And David's servants came into the land of the sons of Ammon to Hanun, to console him.

3 But the princes of the sons of Ammon said to Hanun, "Do you think that David is honoring your father, in that he has sent comforters to you? Have not his servants come to you to search and to overthrow and to spy out the land?"

4 So Hanun took David's servants and shaved them, and cut off their garments in the middle as far as their hips, and sent them away.

5 Then certain persons went and told David about the men. And he sent to meet them, for the men were greatly humiliated. And the king said, "Stay at Jericho until your beards grow, and then return."

6 ¶ When the sons of Ammon saw that they had made themselves odious to David, Hanun and the sons of Ammon sent 1,000 talents of silver to hire for themselves chariots and horsemen from Mesopotamia, from Aram-maacah, and ^afrom Zobah.

7 So they hired for themselves 32,000 chariots, and the king of Maacah and his people, who came and camped before ^aMedeba. And the sons of Ammon gathered together from their cities and came to battle.

sent Joab and all the army, the mighty men.

9 And the sons of Ammon came out and drew up in battle array at the entrance of the city, and the kings who had come were by themselves in the field.

10 ¶ Now when Joab saw that the ¹battle was set against him in front and in the rear, he selected from all the choice men of Israel and they arrayed themselves against the Arameans.

11 But the remainder of the people he placed in the hand of ¹Abshai his brother; and they arrayed themselves against the sons of Ammon.

12 And he said, "If the Arameans are too strong for me, then you shall help me; but if the sons of Ammon are too strong for you, then I will help you.

13 "Be strong, and let us show ourselves courageous for the sake of our people and for the cities of our God; and may the LORD do what is good in His sight."

14 So Joab and the people who were with him drew near to the battle against the Arameans, and they fled before him.

15 When the sons of Ammon saw that the Arameans fled, they also fled before Abshai his brother, and entered the city. Then Joab came to Jerusalem.

16 ¶ When the Arameans saw that they had been ¹defeated by Israel, they sent messengers, and brought out the Arameans who were beyond the ²River, with Shophach the commander of the army of Hadadezer ³leading them.

17 When it was told David, he gathered all Israel together and crossed the Jordan, and came upon them and drew up in formation against them. And when David drew up in battle array against the Arameans, they fought against him.

18 And the Arameans fled before Israel, and David killed of the Arameans 7,000 charioteers and 40,000 foot soldiers, and put to death Shophach the commander of the army.

19 So when the servants of Hadadezer saw that they were ¹defeated by Israel, they made peace with David and served him. Thus the Arameans were not willing to help the sons of Ammon anymore.

CHAPTER 20

THEN it happened ¹in the spring, at the time when kings go out to battle, that Joab led out the army and ravaged the land of the sons of Ammon, and came and besieged Rabbah. But David stayed at Jerusalem. And ²Joab struck Rabbah and overthrew it.

2 ¶ And David took the crown of ¹their king from his head, and he found it to weigh a talent of gold, and there was a precious stone in it; and it was placed on David's head. And he brought out the spoil of the city, a very great amount.

3 And he brought out the people who were in it, and cut them with saws and with sharp instruments and with axes. And thus David did to all the cities of the sons of Ammon. Then David and all the people returned to Jerusalem.

4 ¶ ¶ Now it came about after this, that war ¹broke out at ²Gezer with the Philistines; then Sibbecai the Hushathite ³killed Sipai, one of the descendants of the ⁴giants, and they were subdued.

5 And there was war with the Philistines again, and Elhanan the son of ¹Jair ¹killed Lahmi the brother of Goliath the Gittite, the ²shaft of whose spear was like a weaver's beam.

6 And again there was war at Gath, where there was a man of great stature who had twenty-four fingers and toes, six fingers on each hand and six toes on each foot; and he also was descended from the giants.

7 And when he taunted Israel, Jonathan the son of Shimea, David's brother, ¹killed him.

8 These were descended from the giants in Gath, and they fell by the hand of David and by the hand of his servants.

CHAPTER 21

THEN Satan stood up against Israel and moved David to number Israel.

2 So David said to Joab and to the princes of the people, "Go, number Israel from Beersheba even to Dan, and bring me word that I may know their number."

3 And Joab said, "May the LORD add to His people a hundred times as many as they are! But, my lord the king, are they not all my lord's servants? Why does my lord seek this thing? Why should he be a cause of guilt to Israel?"

4 Nevertheless, the king's word prevailed against Joab. Therefore, Joab departed and went throughout all Israel, and came to Jerusalem.

5 And Joab gave the number of the ¹census of all the people to David. And ^aall Israel were 1,100,000 men who drew the sword; and Judah was 470,000 men who drew the sword.

6 ^aBut he did not ¹number Levi and Benjamin among them, for the king's ²command was abhorrent to Joab.

7 And ¹God was displeased with this thing, so He struck Israel.

8 And David said to God, "I have sinned greatly, in that I have done this thing. ^aBut now, please take away the iniquity of Thy servant, for I have done very foolishly."

Ps. 76:1

10 "Go and speak to David, saying, 'Thus says the LORD, "I offer you three things; choose for yourself one of them, that I may do it to you."'"

11 So Gad came to David and said to him, "Thus says the LORD, 'Take for yourself

12 ^aeither three years of famine, or three months to be swept away before your foes, while the sword of your enemies overtakes you, or else three days of the sword of the LORD, even pestilence in the land, and the angel of the LORD destroying throughout all the territory of Israel.' Now, therefore, consider what answer I shall return to Him who sent me."

13 And David said to Gad, "I am in great distress; please let me fall into the hand of the LORD, ^afor His mercies are very great. But do not let me fall into the hand of man."

14 ^aSo the LORD ¹sent a pestilence on Israel; 70,000 men of Israel fell.

15 And God sent an angel to Jerusalem to destroy it; but as he was about to destroy it, the LORD saw and ^awas sorry over the calamity, and said to the destroying angel, "It is enough; now relax your hand." And the angel of the LORD was standing by the threshing floor of ¹Ornan the Jebusite.

16 Then David lifted up his eyes and saw the angel of the LORD standing between earth and heaven, with his drawn sword in his hand stretched out over Jerusalem. Then David and the elders, ^acovered with sackcloth, fell on their faces.

17 And David said to God, "Is it not I who ¹commanded to count the people? Indeed, I am the one who has sinned and done very wickedly, ^abut these sheep, what have they done? O LORD my God, please let Thy hand be against me and my father's household, but not against Thy people that they should be plagued."

18 ¶ Then the angel of the LORD commanded Gad to say to David, that David should go up and build an altar to the LORD on the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite.

19 So David went up at the word of Gad, which he spoke in the name of the LORD.

20 Now Ornan turned back and saw the angel, and his four sons who were with him hid themselves. And Ornan was threshing wheat.

21 And as David came to Ornan, Ornan looked and saw David, and went out from the threshing floor, and prostrated himself before David with his face to the ground.

22 Then David said to Ornan, "Give me the site of this threshing floor, that I may build on it an altar to the LORD; for the full price you shall give it to me, that the plague may be restrained from the people."

23 And Ornan said to David, "Take it for yourself; and let my lord the king do what is good in his sight. See, I will give the oxen for burnt offerings and the threshing sledges for wood and the wheat for the grain offering; I will give it all."

24 But King David said to Ornan, "No, but I will surely buy it for the full price; for I will not take what is yours for the LORD, or offer a burnt offering which costs me nothing."

25 So David gave Ornan 600 shekels of gold by weight for the site.

26 Then David built an altar to the LORD there, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings. And he called to the LORD and He answered him with fire from heaven on the altar of burnt offering.

the angel, and he put his sword back in its sheath.

28 ¶ At that time, when David saw that the LORD had answered him on the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite, he offered sacrifice there.

29 For the tabernacle of the LORD, which Moses had made in the wilderness, and the altar of burnt offering were in the high place at Gibeon at that time.

30 But David could not go before it to inquire of God, for he was terrified by the sword of the angel of the LORD.

CHAPTER 22

THEN David said, "This is the house of the LORD God, and this is the altar of burnt offering for Israel."

2 ¶ So David gave orders to gather the foreigners who were in the land of Israel, and he set stonecutters to hew out stones to build the house of God.

3 And David prepared large quantities of iron to make the nails for the doors of the gates and for the clamps, and more bronze than could be weighed;

4 and timbers of cedar logs beyond number, for the Sidonians and Tyrians brought large quantities of cedar timber to David.

5 And David said, "My son Solomon is young and inexperienced, and the house that is to be built for the LORD shall be exceedingly magnificent, famous and glorious throughout all lands. Therefore now I will make preparation for it." So David made ample preparations before his death.

6 ¶ Then he called for his son Solomon, and charged him to build a house for the LORD God of Israel.

7 And David said to Solomon, "My son, I had intended to build a house to the name of the LORD my God.

8 "But the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 'You have shed much blood, and have waged great wars; you shall not build a house to My name, because you have shed so much blood on the earth before Me.

9 'Behold, a son shall be born to you, who shall be a man of rest; and I will give him rest from all his enemies on every side; for his name shall be Solomon, and I will give peace and quiet to Israel in his days.

10 'He shall build a house for My name, and he shall be My son, and I will be his father; and I will establish the throne of his kingdom over Israel forever.'

11 'Now, my son, the LORD be with you that you may be successful, and build the house of the LORD your God just as He has spoken concerning you.

12 'Only the LORD give you discretion and understanding, and give you charge over Israel, so that you may keep the law of the LORD your God.

13 'Then you shall prosper, if you are careful to observe the statutes and the ordinances which the LORD commanded Moses concerning Israel. Be strong and courageous, do not fear nor be dismayed.

14 'Now behold, with great pains I have prepared for the house of the LORD 100,000 talents of gold and 1,000,000 talents of silver, and bronze and iron beyond weight, for they are in great quantity; also timber and stone I have prepared, and you may add to them.

15 'Moreover, there are many workmen with you, stonecutters and masons of stone and carpenters, and all men who are skillful in every kind of work.

16 'Of the gold, the silver and the bronze and the iron, there is no limit. Arise and work, and I may the LORD be with you.'

17 ¶ David also commanded all the leaders of Israel to help his son Solomon, saying,

18 'Is not the LORD your God with you? And has He not given you rest on every side? For He has given the inhabitants of the land into my hand, and the land is subdued before the LORD and before His people.

19 'Now set your heart and your soul to seek the LORD your God; arise, therefore, and build the sanctuary of the LORD God, so that you may bring the ark of the covenant of the LORD, and the holy vessels of God into the house that is to be built for the name of the LORD.'

CHAPTER 23

NOW when David reached old age, he made his son Solomon king over Israel.

2 And he gathered together all the leaders of Israel with the priests and the Levites.

3 And the Levites were numbered from thirty years old and upward, and their number by census of men was 38,000.

4 Of these, 24,000 were to oversee the work of the house of the LORD; and 6,000 were officers and judges,

5 and 4,000 were gatekeepers, and 4,000 were praising the LORD with the instruments which David made for giving praise.

6 And David divided them into divisions according to the sons of Levi: Gershon, Kohath, and Merari.

7 ¶ Of the Gershonites were Ladan and Shimei.

8 The sons of Ladan were Jehiel the first and Zetham and Joel, three.

9 The sons of Shimei were Shelomoth and Haziel and Haran, three. These were the heads of the fathers' households of Ladan.

10 And the sons of Shimei were Jahath, ¹Zina, Jeush, and Beriah. These four were the sons of Shimei.

11 And Jahath was the first, and Zizah the second; but Jeush and Beriah did not have many sons, so they became a father's household, one ¹class.

12 ¶ The sons of Kohath were four: Amram, Izhar, Hebron and Uzziel.

13 *The sons of Amram were Aaron and Moses. And ^bAaron was set apart to sanctify him as most holy, he and his sons forever, ^cto burn incense before the LORD, to minister to Him and to bless in His name forever.

14 But as for *Moses the man of God, his sons were named among the tribe of Levi.

15 The sons of Moses were Gershom and Eliezer.

16 The ¹son of Gershom was ²Shebuel the chief.

17 And the ¹son of Eliezer was Rehabiah the chief; and Eliezer had no other sons, but the sons of Rehabiah were very many.

18 The ¹son of Izhar was ²Shelomith the chief.

19 The sons of Hebron were Jeriah the first, Amariah the second, Jahaziel the third and Jekameam the fourth.

20 The sons of Uzziel were Micah the first and Isshiah the second.

21 ¶ The sons of Merari were Mahli and Mushi. The sons of Mahli were Eleazar and Kish.

22 And Eleazar died and had no sons, but daughters only, so their brothers, the sons of Kish, took them as wives.

23 The sons of Mushi were three: Mahli, Eder, and Jermoth.

24 ¶ *These were the sons of Levi according to their fathers' households, even the heads of the fathers' households of those of them who were ¹counted, in the number of names by their ²census, doing the work for the service of the house of the LORD ^bfrom twenty years old and upward.

25 For David said, "The LORD God of Israel ^ahas given rest to His people, and He dwells in Jerusalem forever.

26 "And also, ^athe Levites will no longer need to carry the tabernacle and all its utensils for its service."

27 For by the last words of David the sons of Levi were numbered, from twenty years old and upward.

28 For their office is ¹to assist the sons of Aaron with the service of the house of the LORD, in the courts and in the chamber and in the purifying of all holy things, even the work of the service of the house of God,

29 ^aand with the showbread and ^bthe fine flour for a grain of offering, and unleavened wafers or ^cwhat is baked in the pan, or ^dwhat is well-mixed, and ^aal measures of volume and size.

30 And they are to stand every morning to thank and to praise the LORD, and likewise at evening,

31 and to offer all burnt offerings to the LORD, ^aon the sabbaths, the new moons and ^bthe fixed festivals in the number set by the ordinance concerning them, continually before the LORD.

32 Thus ^athey are to keep charge of the tent of meeting and charge of the holy place, and ^bcharge of the sons of Aaron their ¹relatives, for the service of the house of the LORD.

CHAPTER 24

NOW the divisions of the ¹descendants of Aaron were these: ^athe sons of Aaron were Nadab, Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar.

2 ^aBut Nadab and Abihu died before their father and had no sons. So Eleazar and Ithamar served as priests.

3 And David, with ^aZadok of the sons of Eleazar and Ahimelech of the sons of Ithamar, divided them according to their offices ¹for their ministry.

4 Since more chief men were found from the ¹descendants of Eleazar than the ¹descendants of Ithamar, they divided them thus: ¹there were sixteen heads of fathers' households of the ¹descendants of Eleazar, and eight of the ¹descendants of Ithamar according to their fathers' households.

5 ^aThus they were divided by lot, the one as the other; for they were officers of the sanctuary and officers of God, both from the ¹descendants of Eleazar and the ¹descendants of Ithamar.

6 And Shemaiah, the son of Nethanel the scribe, from the Levites, recorded them in the presence of the king, the princes, Zadok the priest, ^aAhimelech the son of Abiathar, and the heads of the fathers' households of the priests and of the Levites; one father's household taken for Eleazar and one taken for Ithamar.

7 [¶] Now the first lot came out for Jehoiarib, the second for Jedaiah,

8 the third for Harim, the fourth for Seorim,

9 the fifth for Malchijah, the sixth for Mijamin,

10 the seventh for Hakkoz, the eighth for ^aAbijah,

11 the ninth for Jeshua, the tenth for Shecaniah,

12 the eleventh for Eliashib, the twelfth for Jakim,

13 the thirteenth for Huppah, the fourteenth for Jeshebeab,

14 the fifteenth for Bilgah, the sixteenth for Immer,

21 Of Rehabiah: of the sons of Rehabiah, Isshiah the first.

22 Of the Izharites, ¹Shelomoth; of the sons of Shelomoth, Jahath.

26 The sons of Merari, Mahli and Mushi; the sons of Jaaziah, Beno.

27 The sons of Merari: by Jaaziah were Beno, Shoham, Zaccur, and Ibri.

28 By Mahli: Eleazar, who had no sons.

29 By Kish: the sons of Kish, Jerahmeel.

30 And the sons of Mushi: Mahli, Eder, and Jerimoth. These were the sons of the Levites according to their fathers' households.

31 ^aThese also cast lots just as their ¹relatives the sons of Aaron in the presence of David the king, ^bZadok, Ahimelech, and the heads of the fathers' households of the priests and of the Levites—the head of fathers' households as well as those of his younger brother.

MOREOVER, David and the commanders of the army set apart for the service some of the sons of ^aAsaph and of Heman and of Jeduthun, who were to ^bprophecy with lyres, ^charps, and cymbals; and the number of ¹those who performed their service was:

2 Of the sons of Asaph: Zaccur, Joseph, Nethaniah, and ¹Asharelah; the sons of Asaph were under the ²direction of Asaph, who prophesied under the ²direction of the king.

3 ^aOf Jeduthun, the sons of Jeduthun: Gedaliah, ¹Zeri, Jeshai-ah, ²Shimei, Hashabiah, and Mattithiah, six, under the ³direction of their father Jeduthun with the harp, who prophesied in giving thanks and praising the LORD.

4 Of Heman, the sons of Heman: Bukkiah, Mattaniah, ¹Uziel, ²Shebuel and Jerimoth, Hananiah, Hanani, Eliathah, Giddalti and Romamti-ezer, Joshbekashah, Mallothi, Hothir, Mahazioth.

5 All these were the sons of Heman ^athe king's seer to ¹exalt him according to the words of God, for God gave fourteen sons and three daughters to Heman.

6 All these were under the ¹direction of their father to sing in the house of the LORD, ^awith cymbals, harps and lyres, for the service of the house of God. ^bAsaph, Jeduthun and Heman were under the ¹direction of the king.

7 And their number who were trained in singing to the LORD, with their ¹relatives, all who were skillful, was ^a288.

8 And ^athey cast lots for their duties, all alike, the small as well as the great, the teacher as well as the pupil.

CHAPTER 26

FOR the divisions of the gatekeepers there were of the Korahites, ¹Meshelemiah the son of Kore, of the sons of Asaph.

2 And Meshelemiah had sons: Zechariah the first-born, Jediel the second, Zebadiah the third, Jathniel the fourth,

3 Elam the fifth, Johanan the sixth, Eliehoenai the seventh.

4 And ^aObed-edom had sons: Shemaiah the first-born, Jehoza-bad the second, Joah the third, Sacar the fourth, Nethanel the fifth,

5 Ammiel the sixth, Issachar the seventh, and Peullethai the eighth; God had indeed blessed him.

6 Also to his son Shemaiah sons were born who ruled over the house of their father, for they were mighty men of valor.

7 The sons of Shemaiah were Othni, Rephuel, Obed, and Elzabad, whose brothers, Elihu and Semachiah, were valiant men.

8 All these were of the sons of Obed-edom; they and their sons and their ¹relatives were able men with strength for the service, 62 from Obed-edom.

9 And Meshelemiah had sons and relatives, 18 valiant men.

10 Also ^aHosah, one of the sons of Merari had sons: Shimri the first (although he was not the first-born, his father made him first),

11 Hilkiah the second, Tebaliah the third, Zechariah the fourth; all the sons and relatives of Hosah were 13.

12 ¶ To these divisions of the gatekeepers, the chief men, were given duties like their relatives to minister in the house of the LORD.

13 ^aAnd they cast lots, the small and the great alike, according to their fathers' households, for every gate.

14 And the lot to the east fell to ¹Shelemiah. Then they cast lots for his son Zechariah, a counselor with insight, and his lot came out to the north.

15 For Obed-edom it fell to the south, and to his sons went the storehouse.

16 For Shuppim and Hosah it was to the west, by the gate of Shallecheth, on the ascending highway. Guard corresponded to guard.

17 On the east there were six Levites, on the north four daily, on the south four daily, and at the storehouse two by two.

18 At the ^{1a}Parbar on the west there were four at the highway and two at the Parbar.

19 These were the divisions of the gatekeepers of the sons of Korah and of the sons of Merari.

20 ¶ ¹And the Levites, their relatives, ²had ^acharge of the treasures of the house of God, and of the treasures of the dedicated gifts.

21 The sons of Ladan, the sons of the Gershonites belonging to Ladan, namely, the Jehielites, were the heads of the fathers' households, belonging to Ladan the Gershonite.

22 The sons of Jehieli, Zetham and Joel his brother, ¹had charge of the treasures of the house of the LORD.

23 As for the Amramites, the Izharites, the Hebronites, and the Uzzielites, 24 Shebuel the son of Gershon, the son of Moses, was officer over the treasures.

25 And his relatives by Eliezer were Rehabiah his son, Jeshaiiah his son, Joram his son, Zichri his son, and Shelomoth his son.

28 And all that Samuel the seer had dedicated and Saul the son of Kish, Abner the son of Ner and Joab the son of Zeruiah, everyone who had dedicated anything, all of this was ¹in the care of ²Shelomoth and his relatives.

29 As for the Izharites, Chenaniah and his sons ^awere assigned to outside duties for Israel, as ^bofficers and judges.

30 As for the Hebronites, ^aHashabiah and his relatives, 1,700 capable men, had charge of the affairs of Israel ¹west of the Jordan, for all the work of the LORD and the service of the king.

31 As for the Hebronites, ^aJerijah the chief ¹(these Hebronites were investigated according to their genealogies and fathers' households, in the fortieth year of David's reign, and men of outstanding capability were found among them at ^bJazer of Gilead)

32 and his relatives, capable men, were 2,700 in number, heads of fathers' households. And King David made them overseers of the Reubenites, the Gadites and the half-tribe of the Manassites ^aconcerning ¹all the affairs of God and of the king.

2 Jashobeam the son of Zabdiel ¹had charge of the first division for the first month; and in his division were 24,000.

3 He was from the sons of Perez, and was chief of all the commanders of the army for the first month.

4 Dodai the Ahohite and his division had charge of the division for the second month, Miklot being the chief officer; and in his division were 24,000.

5 The third commander of the army for the third month was Benaiah, the son of Jehoiada the priest, as chief; and in his division were 24,000.

6 This Benaiah was the mightiest man of the thirty, and had charge of thirty; and over his division was Ammizabad his son.

7 The fourth for the fourth month was Asahel the brother of Joab, and Zebadiah his son after him; and in his division were 24,000.

8 The fifth for the fifth month was the commander Shamhuti the Izrahite; and in his division were 24,000.

9 The sixth for the sixth month was Ira the son of Ikkesh the Tekoite; and in his division were 24,000.

10 The seventh for the seventh month was Helez the Pelonite of the sons of Ephraim; and in his division were 24,000.

11 The eighth for the eighth month was Sibbecai the Hushathite of the Zerahites; and in his division were 24,000.

12 The ninth for the ninth month was Abiezer the Anathothite of the Benjamites; and in his division were 24,000.

13 The tenth for the tenth month was Maharai the Netophathite of the Zerahites; and in his division were 24,000.

14 The eleventh for the eleventh month was Benaiah the Pir athonite of the sons of Ephraim; and in his division were 24,000.

15 The twelfth for the twelfth month was Heldai the Netophathite of Othniel; and in his division were 24,000.

16 ¶ Now in charge of the tribes of Israel: chief officer for the Reubenites was Eliezer the son of Zichri; for the Simeonites, Shephatiah the son of Maacah;

17 for Levi, Hashabiah the son of Kemuel; for Aaron, Zadok;

18 for Judah, Elihu, one of David's brothers; for Issachar, Omri the son of Michael;

19 for Zebulun, Ishmaiah the son of Obadiah; for Naphtali, Jeremoth the son of Azriel;

20 for the sons of Ephraim, Hoshea the son of Azariah; for the half-tribe of Manasseh, Joel the son of Pedaiah;

21 for the half-tribe of Manasseh in Gilead, Iddo the son of Zechariah; for Benjamin, Jaasiel the son of Abner;

22 for Dan, Azarel the son of Jeroham. *These were the princes of the tribes of Israel.

23 But David did not count those twenty years of age and under, *because the LORD had said He would multiply Israel as the stars of heaven.

24 Joab the son of Zeruiah had begun to count them, but did not finish; and because of *this, wrath came upon Israel, and the number was not included in the account of the chronicles of King David.

25 ¶ Now Azmaveth the son of Adiel had charge of the king's storehouses. And Jonathan the son of Uzziah had charge of the storehouses in the country, in the cities, in the villages, and in the towers.

26 And Ezri the son of Chelub had charge of the agricultural workers who tilled the soil.

31 And Jaziz the *Hagrite had charge of the flocks. All these were overseers of the property which belonged to King David.

32 ¶ Also Jonathan, David's uncle, was a counselor, a man of understanding, and a scribe; and Jehiel the son of Hachmoni tutored the king's sons.

33 And *Ahithophel was counselor to the king; and *Hushai the Archite was the king's friend.

34 And Jehoiada the son of *Benaiah, and *Abiathar succeeded Ahithophel; and Joab was the commander of the king's army.

CHAPTER 28

NOW *David assembled at Jerusalem all the officials of Israel, the princes of the tribes, and the commanders of the divisions that served the king, and the commanders of thousands, and the commanders of hundreds, and the overseers of all the property and livestock belonging to the king and his sons, with the officials and the mighty men, even all the valiant men.

2 Then King David rose to his feet and said, "Listen to me, my brethren and my people; I *had intended to build a permanent home for the ark of the covenant of the LORD and for the footstool of our God. So I had made preparations to build it.

3 "But God said to me, 'You shall not build a house for My name because you are a man of war and have shed blood.'

4 "Yet, the LORD, the God of Israel, chose me from all the house of my father to be king over Israel forever. For He has chosen Judah to be a leader; and in the house of Judah, my father's house, and among the sons of my father He took pleasure in me to make me king over all Israel.

5 "And of all my sons (for the LORD has given me many sons), He has chosen my son Solomon to sit on the throne of the kingdom of the LORD over Israel.

6 "And He said to me, 'Your son Solomon is the one who shall build My house and My courts; for I have chosen him to be a son to Me, and I will be a father to him.'

7 "And I will establish his kingdom forever, if he resolutely performs My commandments and My ordinances, as his done now.

8 "So now, in the sight of all Israel, the assembly of the LORD, and in the hearing of our God, observe and seek after all the commandments of the LORD your God in order that you may possess the good land and bequeath it to your sons after you forever.

9 "As for you, my son Solomon, know the God of your father, and serve Him with a whole heart and a willing mind; for the LORD searches all hearts, and understands every intent of the thoughts. If you seek Him, He will let you find Him; but if you forsake Him, He will reject you forever.

10 "Consider now, for the LORD has chosen you to build a house for the sanctuary; be courageous and act."

11 ¶ Then David gave to his son Solomon the plan of the porch of the temple, its buildings, its storehouses, its upper rooms, its inner rooms, and a room for the mercy seat;

12 and the plan of all that I had in mind, for the courts of the house of the LORD, and for the surrounding rooms, for the storehouses of the house of God and for the storehouses of the dedicated things;

13 also for the divisions of the priests and the Levites and for all the work of the service of the house of the LORD and for all the utensils of service in the house of the LORD;

14 for the golden utensils, the weight of gold for all utensils for every kind of service; for the silver utensils, the weight of silver for all utensils for every kind of service;

15 and the weight of gold for the golden lampstands and their golden lamps, with the weight of each lampstand and its lamps; and the weight of silver for the silver lampstands, with the weight of each lampstand and its lamps according to the use of each lampstand;

16 and the gold by weight for the tables of showbread, for each table; and silver for the silver tables;

17 and the forks, the basin and the pitchers of pure gold and for the golden bowls with the weight for each bowl; and for the silver bowls with the weight for each bowl;

18 and for the altar of incense: refined gold by weight; and gold for the model of the chariot, even the cherubim, that spread out their wings, and covered the ark of the covenant of the LORD.

19 "All this," said David, "the LORD made me understand writing by His hand upon me all the details of this pattern

20 ¶ Then David said to his son Solomon, "Be strong and courageous, and act; do not fear nor be dismayed, for the LORD (God, my God, is with you. He will not fail you nor forsake you until all the work for the service of the house of the LORD is finished.

21 "Now behold, ^athere are the divisions of the priests and the Levites for all the service of the house of God, and ^bevery willing man of any skill will be with you in all the work for all kinds of service. The officials also and all the people will be entirely at your command."

THEN King David said to the entire assembly, "My son Solomon, whom alone God has chosen, ^ais still young and inexperienced and the work is great; for ^bthe temple is not for man, but for the LORD God.

2 "Now ^awith all my ability I have provided for the house of my God the gold for the things of gold, and the silver for the things of silver, and the bronze for the things of bronze, the iron for the things of iron, and wood for the things of wood, onyx stones and inlaid stones, stones of antimony, and stones of various colors, and all kinds of precious stones, and alabaster in abundance.

6 ¶ Then ^athe rulers of the fathers' households, and the princes of the tribes of Israel, and the commanders of thousands and of hundreds, with ^bthe overseers over the king's work, offered willingly;

7 and for the service for the house of God they gave 5,000 talents and 10,000 darics of gold, and 10,000 talents of silver, and 18,000 talents of brass, and 100,000 talents of iron.

9 Then the people rejoiced because they had offered so willingly, for they made their offering to the LORD ^awith a whole heart, and King David also rejoiced greatly.

10 ¶ So David blessed the LORD in the sight of all the assembly; and David said, "Blessed art Thou, O LORD God of Israel our father, forever and ever.

16 "O LORD our God, all this abundance that we have provided to build Thee a house for Thy holy name, it is from Thy hand, and all is Thine.

17 "Since I know, O my God, that ^aThou triest the heart and ^bdelightest in uprightness, I, in the integrity of my heart, have willingly offered all these things; so now with joy I have seen Thy people, who are present here, make their offerings willingly to Thee.

18 "O LORD, the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, our fathers, preserve this forever in the intentions of the heart of Thy people, and direct their heart to Thee;

19 "and ^agive to my son Solomon a perfect heart to keep Thy commandments, Thy testimonies, and Thy statutes, and to do them all, and ^bto build the temple, for which I have made provision."

20 Then David said to all the assembly, "Now bless the LORD your God." And ^aall the assembly blessed the LORD, the God of their fathers, and ^bbowed low and did homage to the LORD and to the king.

22 So they ate and drank that day before the LORD with great gladness.

¶ And they made Solomon the son of David king ^aa second time and they ^banointed him as ruler for the LORD and Zadok as priest.

23 Then ^aSolomon sat on the throne of the LORD as king instead of David his father; and he prospered, and all Israel obeyed him.

24 And all the officials, the mighty men, and also all the sons of King David ^bpledged allegiance to King Solomon.

25 And ^athe LORD highly exalted Solomon in the sight of all Israel, and ^bbestowed on him royal majesty which had not been on any king before him in Israel.

THE SECOND BOOK OF THE CHRONICLES

Solomon Worship at Gibeon

NOW ^aSolomon the son of David established himself securely over his kingdom, and the LORD his God was with him and ^bexalted him greatly.

2 And Solomon spoke to all Israel, ^ato the commanders of thousands and of hundreds and to the judges and to every leader in all Israel, the heads of the fathers' households.

3 Then Solomon, and all the assembly with him, went to ^athe high place which was at Gibeon; ^bfor God's tent of meeting was there, which Moses the servant of the LORD had made in the wilderness.

4 However, David had brought up ^athe ark of God from Kirjath-jearim ^bto the place he had prepared for it; for he had pitched a tent for it in Jerusalem.

5 Now ^athe bronze altar, which Bezalel the son of Uri, the son of Hur, had made, ^bwas there before the tabernacle of the LORD, and Solomon and the assembly sought it out.

6 And Solomon went up there before the LORD to the bronze altar which was at the tent of meeting, and ^aoffered a thousand burnt offerings on it.

7 ^aIn that night God appeared to Solomon and said to him, "Ask what I shall give you."

8 And Solomon said to God, "Thou hast dealt with my father David with great lovingkindness, and ^ahast made me king in his place.

9 "Now, O LORD God, ^aThy promise to my father David is fulfilled; for Thou hast made me

10 ^a"Give me now wisdom and knowledge, ^bthat I may go out and come in before this people; for who can rule this great people of Thine?"

11 ^aAnd God said to Solomon, "Because ^byou had this in mind, and did not ask for riches, wealth, or honor, or the life of those who hate you, nor have you even asked for long life, but you have asked for yourself wisdom and knowledge, that you may rule My people, over whom I have made you king,

13 ^aSo Solomon went ^bfrom the high place which was at Gibeon, from the tent of meeting, to Jerusalem, and he reigned over Israel.

14 ^aAnd Solomon amassed chariots and horsemen. ^bHe had 1,400 chariots, and 12,000 horsemen, and he stationed them in ^cthe chariot cities and with the king at Jerusalem.

15 And ^athe king made ^bsilver and gold as plentiful in Jerusalem as stones, and he made cedars as plentiful as sycamores in the lowland.

16 And Solomon's ^ahorses were imported from Egypt and from Kue; the king's traders procured them from Kue for a price.

17 And they ^bimported chariots from Egypt for 600 shekels of silver apiece, and horses for 150 apiece, and ^cby the same means

¹⁷ ¶ And Solomon numbered all the aliens who were in the land of Israel, ^afollowing the ¹census which his father David had ²taken; and 153,600 were found.

18 ^aAnd he appointed 70,000 of them to carry loads, and 80,000 to quarry stones in the mountains, and 3,600 supervisors to make the people work.

CHAPTER 3

^aTHEN Solomon began to build the house of the LORD in Jerusalem on Mount Moriah, where the LORD had appeared to his father David, at the place that David had prepared, ^bon the threshing floor of ¹Ornan the Jebusite.

2 And he began to build on the second day in the second month ¹of the fourth year of his reign.

3 Now these are the ¹foundations which ^aSolomon laid for building the house of God. The length in ²cubits, according to the old standard was sixty cubits, and the width twenty cubits.

4 And the porch which was in front of the house ^awas as long as the width of the house, twenty cubits, and the height 120; and inside he overlaid it with pure gold.

5 And he overlaid ^athe ¹main room with cypress wood and overlaid it with fine gold, and ²ornamented it with palm trees and chains.

6 Further, he ¹adorned the house with precious stones; and the gold was gold from ²Parvaim.

7 ^aHe also overlaid the house with gold—the beams, the thresholds, and its walls, and its doors; and he ^bcarved cherubim on the walls.

8 ^cNow he made ^athe ¹room of the holy of holies: its length, across the width of the house, was twenty cubits, and its width was twenty cubits; and he overlaid it with fine gold, amounting to 600 talents.

9 And the weight of the nails was fifty shekels of gold. He also overlaid ^athe upper rooms with gold.

10 ¹Then he made two ¹sculptured cherubim in the room of the holy of holies and overlaid them with gold.

11 And the wingspan of the cherubim was twenty cubits; the wing of one, of five cubits, touched the wall of the house, and its other wing, of five cubits, touched the wing of the other cherub.

12 And the wing of the other cherub, of five cubits, touched the wall of the house; and its other wing of five cubits, was attached to the wing of the ¹first cherub.

13 The wings of these cherubim extended twenty cubits, and they stood on their feet ¹facing the main room.

14 ^aAnd he made the veil of violet, purple, crimson and fine linen, and he worked cherubim on it.

15 ¹He also made two pillars for the front of the house, thirty-five cubits ¹high, and the capital on the top of each was five cubits.

16 And he made chains in the inner sanctuary, and placed them on the tops of the pillars; and he made one hundred pomegranates and placed them on the chains.

17 ^aAnd he erected the pillars in front of the temple, one on the right and the other on the left, and named the one on the right Jachin and the one on the left Boaz.

CHAPTER 4

THEN ^ahe made a bronze altar, twenty cubits in length and twenty cubits in width and ten cubits in height.

2 ^aAlso he made the cast metal sea, ten cubits from brim to brim, circular in form, and its height was five cubits and ¹its circumference thirty cubits.

3 Now figures like oxen were under it and all around it, ten cubits, entirely encircling the sea. The oxen were in two rows, cast ¹in one piece.

4 It stood on twelve oxen, three facing the north, three facing west, three facing south, and three facing east; and the sea was set on top of them, and all their hindquarters turned inwards.

5 And it was a handbreadth thick, and its brim was made like the brim of a cup, like a lily blossom; it ^acould hold 3,000 baths.

6 ^aHe also made ten basins in which to wash, and he set five on the right side and five on the left, ¹to rinse things for the burnt offering; but the sea was for the priests to wash in.

7 ^aThen ^ahe made the ten golden lampstands in the way prescribed for them, and he set them in the temple, five on the right side and five on the left.

8 He also made ^aten tables and placed them in the temple, five on the right side and five on the left. And he made one hundred golden bowls.

9 Then he made ^athe court of the priests and ^bthe great court and doors for the court, and overlaid their doors with bronze.

10 And ^ahe set the sea on the right ¹side of the house toward the southeast.

11 ^aHuram also made the pails, the shovels, and the bowls. So Huram finished doing the work which he performed for King Solomon in the house of God:

12 the two pillars, the bowls and the two capitals on top of the pillars, and the two networks to cover the two bowls of the capitals which were on top of the pillars.

14 ^aHe also made the stands and he made the basins on the stands,

15 and the one sea with the twelve oxen under it.

16 And the pails, the shovels, the forks, and all its utensils, ^aHuram-abi made of polished bronze for King Solomon for the house of the LORD.

17 On the plain of the Jordan the king cast them, in the clay ground between Succoth and Zeredah.

18 ^aThus Solomon made all these utensils in great quantities, for the weight of the bronze could not be found out.

19 ^a¶ Solomon also made all the things that were in the house of God: even the golden altar, ^athe tables with the bread of the Presence on them,

20 the lampstands with their lamps of pure gold, ^ato burn in front of the inner sanctuary in the way prescribed;

21 the flowers, the lamps, and the tongs of gold, of purest gold;

22 and the snuffers, the bowls, the spoons, and the firepans of pure gold; and the entrance of the house, its inner doors for the holy of holies, and the doors of the house, that is, of the nave, of gold.

CHAPTER 5

^a THUS all the work that Solomon performed for the house of the LORD was finished. And Solomon brought in the ^{1b}things that David his father had dedicated, even the silver and the gold and all the utensils, and put them in the treasuries of the house of God.

2 ^a¶ Then Solomon assembled to Jerusalem the elders of Israel and all the heads of the tribes, the leaders of the fathers' households of the sons of Israel, to bring up the ark of the covenant of the LORD out of the city of David, which is Zion.

3 And all the men of Israel assembled themselves to the king at the feast, that is in the seventh month.

4 Then all the elders of Israel came, and the Levites took up the ark.

5 And they brought up the ark and the tent of meeting and all the holy utensils which were in the tent; the Levitical priests brought them up.

6 And King Solomon and all the congregation of Israel who were assembled with him before the ark were sacrificing so many sheep and oxen, that they could not be counted or numbered.

7 Then the priests brought the ark of the covenant of the LORD to its place, into the inner sanctuary of the house, to the holy of holies, under the wings of the cherubim.

8 For the cherubim spread their wings over the place of the ark, so that the cherubim made a covering over the ark and its poles.

9 And the poles were so long that the ends of the poles of the ark could be seen in front of the inner sanctuary, but they could not be seen outside; and they are there to this day.

10 There was nothing in the ark except the two tablets which Moses put there at Horeb, where the LORD made a covenant with the sons of Israel, when they came out of Egypt.

11 And when the priests came forth from the holy place (for all the priests who were present had sanctified themselves, without regard to divisions),

12 and all the Levitical singers, Asaph, Heman, Jeduthun, and their sons and kinsmen, clothed in fine linen, with cymbals, harps, and lyres, standing east of the altar, and with them one hundred and twenty priests blowing trumpets

13 in unison when the trumpeters and the singers were to make themselves heard with one voice to praise and to glorify the LORD, and when they lifted up their voice accompanied by trumpets and cymbals and instruments of music, and when they praised the LORD saying, "He indeed is good for His lovingkindness is everlasting," then the house, the house of the LORD, was filled with a cloud.

14 so that the priests could not stand to minister because of the cloud, for the glory of the LORD filled the house of God.

CHAPTER 6

THEN Solomon said, "The LORD has said that He would dwell in the thick cloud.

2 "I have built Thee a lofty house, And a place for Thy dwelling forever."

3 Then the king faced about and blessed all the assembly of Israel, while all the assembly of Israel was standing.

4 And he said, "Blessed be the LORD, the God of Israel, who spoke with His mouth to my father David and has fulfilled it with His hands, saying,

5 "Since the day that I brought My people from the land of Egypt, I did not choose a city out of all the tribes of Israel in which to build a house that My name might be there, nor did I choose any man for a leader over My people Israel;

6 but I have chosen Jerusalem that My name might be there, and I have chosen David to be over My people Israel."

man to sit on the throne of Israel, if only your sons take heed to their way, to walk in My law as you have walked before Me.'

17 "Now therefore, O LORD, the God of Israel, let Thy word be confirmed which Thou hast spoken to Thy servant David.

18 ¶ "But ^awill God indeed dwell with mankind on the earth? Behold, ^bheaven and the ¹highest heaven cannot contain Thee; how much less this house which I have built.

19 "Yet have regard to the prayer of Thy servant and to his supplication, O LORD my God, to listen to the cry and to the prayer which Thy servant prays before Thee;

20 that Thine ^aeyes may be open toward this house day and night, toward ^bthe place of which Thou hast said that Thou wouldst put Thy name there, to listen to the prayer which Thy servant shall pray toward this place.

21 "And listen to the supplications of Thy servant and of Thy people Israel, when they pray toward this place; hear Thou from Thy dwelling place, from heaven; ^ahear Thou and forgive.

22 ¶ "If a man sins against his neighbor, and is made to take an oath, and he comes and takes an oath before Thine altar in this house,

23 then hear Thou from heaven and act and judge Thy servants, ^{1a}punishing the wicked by bringing his way on his own head and justifying the righteous by giving him according to his righteousness.

24 ¶ "And if Thy people Israel ¹are defeated before an enemy, because ^athey have sinned against Thee, and they return to Thee and confess Thy name, and pray and make supplication before Thee in this house, 40 ¶ "Now, O my God, I pray Thee, let Thine eyes be open, and Thine ears attentive to the prayer offered in this place.

41 ¶ "Now therefore arise, O LORD God, to Thy resting place, Thou and the ark of Thy might;

let Thy priests, O LORD God, be clothed with salvation, and let Thy godly ones rejoice in what is good.

42 "O LORD God, do not turn away the face of Thine anointed; *remember Thy lovingkindness to Thy servant David."

CHAPTER 7

NOW when Solomon had finished praying, ^bfire came down from heaven and consumed the burnt offering and the sacrifices; and the glory of the LORD filled the house.

2 And ^athe priests could not enter into the house of the LORD, because the glory of the LORD filled the LORD's house.

3 And all the sons of Israel, seeing the fire come down and the glory of the LORD upon the house, bowed down on the pavement with their faces to the ground, and they worshiped and gave praise to the LORD, saying, "Truly He is good, truly His lovingkindness is everlasting."

4 ^aThen the king and all the people offered sacrifice before the LORD.

5 And King Solomon offered a sacrifice of 22,000 oxen, and 120,000 sheep. Thus the king and all the people dedicated the house of God.

6 And the priests stood at their posts and ^athe Levites, with the instruments of music to the LORD, which King David had made for giving praise to the LORD—"for His lovingkindness is everlasting"—whenever ¹he gave praise by their ²means, while ^bthe priests on the other side blew trumpets; and all Israel was standing.

7 ^aThen Solomon consecrated the middle of the court that was before the house of the LORD, for there he offered the burnt offerings and the fat of the peace offerings, because the bronze altar which Solomon had made was not able to contain the burnt offering, the grain offering, and the fat.

8 ¶ So ^aSolomon observed the feast at that time for seven days, and all Israel with him, a very great assembly, who came from the entrance of Hamath to the ^bbrook of Egypt.

9 And on the eighth day they held ^aa solemn assembly, for the dedication of the altar they observed seven days, and the feast seven days.

10 Then on the twenty-third day of the seventh month he sent the people to their tents, rejoicing and happy of heart because of the goodness that the LORD had shown to David and to Solomon and to His people Israel.

11 ¶ ^aThus Solomon finished the house of the LORD and the king's palace, and successfully completed all that ¹he had planned on doing in the house of the LORD and in his palace.

12 Then the LORD appeared to Solomon at night and said to him, "I have heard your prayer, and ^ahave chosen this place for Myself as a house of sacrifice.

13 "If I shut up the heavens so that there is no rain, or if I command the locust to devour the land, or if I send pestilence among My people,

14 ^aand My people ¹who are called by My name humble themselves and pray, and seek My face and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven, will forgive their sin, and will heal their land.

15 ^aNow My eyes shall be open and My ears attentive to the ¹prayer offered in this place.

16 ^aFor ^anow I have chosen and consecrated this house that My name may be there forever, and My eyes and My heart will be there perpetually.

CHAPTER 8

NOW it came about at the end of the twenty years in which Solomon had built the house of the LORD and his own house

2 that he built the cities which Hiram had given to him, and settled the sons of Israel there.

3 Then Solomon went to Hamath-zobah and captured it.

4 And he built Tadmor in the wilderness and all the storage cities which he had built in Hamath.

5 He also built upper Beth-horon and lower Beth-horon, fortified cities with walls, gates, and bars;

7 ¶ All of the people who were left of the Hittites, the Amorites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites, who were not of Israel.

8 namely, from their descendants who were left after them in the land whom the sons of Israel had not destroyed, them Solomon raised as forced laborers to this day.

9 But Solomon did not make slaves for his work from the sons of Israel; they were men of war, his chief captains, and commanders of his chariots and his horsemen.

10 And these were the chief officers of King Solomon, two hundred and fifty who ruled over the people.

11 ¶ Then Solomon brought Pharaoh's daughter up from the city of David to the house which he had built for her; for he said, "My wife shall not dwell in the house of David king of Israel, because the places are holy where the ark of the LORD has entered."

12 ¶ Then Solomon offered burnt offerings to the LORD on the altar of the LORD which he had built before the porch;

13 and did so according to the daily rule, offering them up according to the commandment of Moses, for the sabbaths, the new moons, and the three annual feasts—the Feast of Unleavened Bread, the Feast of Weeks, and the Feast of Booths.

14 ¶ Now according to the ordinance of his father David, he appointed the divisions of the priests for their service, and the Levites for their duties of praise and ministering before the priests according to the daily rule, and ^athe gatekeepers by their divisions at every gate; for ^aDavid the man of God had so commanded.

15 And they did not depart from the commandment of the king to the priests and Levites in any manner or concerning the storehouses.

16 ¶ Thus all the work of Solomon was carried out ¹from the day of the foundation of the house of the LORD, and until it was finished. So the house of the LORD was completed.

17 ¶ Then Solomon went to ^aEzion-geber and to ^bEloth on the seashore in the land of Edom.

18 And Hiram by his servants sent him ships and servants who knew the sea; and they went with Solomon's servants to Ophir, and ^atook from there four hundred and fifty talents of gold, and brought them to King Solomon.

CHAPTER 9

^aNOW when the queen of Sheba heard of the fame of Solomon, she came to Jerusalem to test Solomon with difficult questions. She had a very large retinue, with camels carrying spices, and a large amount of gold and precious stones; and when she came to Solomon, she spoke with him about all that was on her heart.

2 And Solomon ¹answered all her questions; nothing was hidden from Solomon which he did not ²explain to her.

3 And when the queen of Sheba had seen the wisdom of Solomon, the house which he had built,

4 the food at his table, the seating of his servants, the attendance of his ministers and their attire, his cupbearers and their attire, and ¹his stairway by which he went up to the house of the LORD, she was breathless.

Visit of the Queen of Sheba.

5 Then she said to the king, "It was a true report which I heard in my own land about your words and your wisdom.

6 "Nevertheless I did not believe their reports until I came and my eyes had seen it. And behold, the half of the greatness of your wisdom was not told me. You surpass the report that I heard.

7 "How ¹blessed are your men; how ¹blessed are these your servants who stand before you continually and hear your wisdom.

8 "Blessed be the LORD your God who delighted in you, ^asetting you on His throne as king for the LORD your God; ^bbecause your God loved Israel establishing them forever, therefore He made you king over them, to do justice and righteousness."

9 Then she gave the king one hundred and twenty talents of gold, and a very great amount of spices and precious stones; there had never been spice like that which the queen of Sheba gave to King Solomon.

10 And the servants of Hiram and the servants of Solomon ^awho brought gold from Ophir, also brought alnum trees and precious stones.

11 And from the alnum the king made steps for the house of the LORD and for the king's palace, and lyres and harps for the singers; and none like that was seen before in the land of Judah.

12 And King Solomon gave to the queen of Sheba all her desire which she requested besides a return for what she had brought to the king. Then she turned and went to her own land with her servants.

13 ¶ ^aNow the weight of gold which came to Solomon in one year was 666 talents of gold,

14 besides that which the traders and merchants brought; and all ^athe kings of Arabia and the governors of the country brought gold and silver to Solomon.

15 And King Solomon made 200 large shields of beaten gold, using 600 shekels of beaten gold on each large shield.

16 And he made 300 shields of beaten gold, using three hundred shekels of gold on each shield, and the king put them in the house of the forest of Lebanon.

17 Moreover, the king made a great throne of ivory and overlaid it with pure gold.

18 And there were six steps to the throne and a footstool in gold attached to the throne, and arms on each side of the seat, and two lions standing beside the arms.

19 And twelve lions were standing there on the six steps on the one side and on the other; nothing like it was made for any other kingdom.

20 And all King Solomon's drinking vessels were of gold, and all the vessels of the house of the forest of Lebanon were of pure gold; silver was not considered valuable in the days of Solomon.

21 For the king had ships which went to Tarshish with the servants of Hiram; once every three years the ships of Tarshish came bringing gold and silver, ivory and apes and peacocks.

22 So King Solomon became greater than all the kings of the earth in riches and wisdom.

23 And all the kings of the earth were seeking the presence of Solomon, to hear his wisdom which God had put in his heart.

24 And they brought every man his gift, articles of silver and gold, garments, weapons, spices, horses, and mules, so much year by year.

tioned them in the chariot cities and with the king in Jerusalem.

26 And he was the ruler over all the kings from the Euphrates River even to the land of the Philistines, and as far as the border of Egypt.

27 And the king made silver as common as stones in Jerusalem, and he made cedars as plentiful as sycamore trees that are in the lowland.

28 And they were bringing horses for Solomon from Egypt and from all countries.

29 Now the rest of the acts of Solomon, from first to last, are they not written in the records of Nathan the prophet, and in the prophecy of Ahijah the Shilonite, and in the visions of Iddo the seer concerning Jeroboam the son of Nebat?

30 And Solomon reigned forty years in Jerusalem over all Israel.

31 And Solomon slept with his fathers and was buried in the city of his father David; and his son Rehoboam reigned in his place.

CHAPTER 10

THEN Rehoboam went to Shechem, for all Israel had come to Shechem to make him king.

2 And it came about when Jeroboam the son of Nebat heard of it (for he was in Egypt where he had fled from the presence of King Solomon), that Jeroboam returned from Egypt.

3 So they sent and summoned him. When Jeroboam and all Israel came, they spoke to Rehoboam, saying,

4 "Your father made our yoke hard; now therefore lighten the hard service of your father and his heavy yoke which he put on us, and we will serve you."

5 And he said to them, "Return to me again in three days." So the people departed.

6 ¶ Then King Rehoboam ^aconsulted with the elders who had ¹served his father Solomon while he was still alive, saying, "How do you counsel me to answer this people?"

7 And they spoke to him, saying, "If you will be kind to this people and please them and ^aspeak good words to them, then they will be your servants forever."

8 But he ^aforsook the counsel of the elders which they had given him, and consulted with the young men who grew up with him ¹and served him.

9 So he said to them, "What counsel do you give that we may answer this people, who have spoken to me, saying, 'Lighten the yoke which your father put on us'?"

10 And the young men who grew up with him spoke to him, saying, "Thus you shall say to the people who spoke to you, saying, 'Your father made our yoke heavy, but you make it lighter for us.' Thus you shall say to them, 'My little finger is thicker than my father's loins!'

11 'Whereas my father loaded you with a heavy yoke, I will add to your yoke; my father disciplined you with whips, but I will discipline you with scorpions.' "

12 ¶ So Jeroboam and all the people came to Rehoboam on the third day as the king had ¹directed, saying, "Return to me on the third day."

13 And the king answered them harshly, and King Rehoboam forsook the counsel of the elders.

14 And he spoke to them according to the advice of the young men, saying, "My father made your yoke heavy, but I will add to it; my father disciplined you with whips, but I will discipline you with scorpions."

15 So the king did not listen to the people, ^afor it was a turn of events from God ^bthat the LORD might establish His word, which He spoke through Ahijah the Shilonite to Jeroboam the son of Nebat.

16 ¶ And when all Israel saw that the king did not listen to them the people answered the king, saying,

"What portion do we have in David?

We have no inheritance in the son of Jesse.

Every man to your tents, O Israel;

Now look after your own house, David."

^bSo all Israel departed to their tents.

17 But as for the sons of Israel who lived in the cities of Judah, Rehoboam reigned over them.

18 Then King Rehoboam sent Hadoram, who was ^aover the forced labor, and the sons of Israel stoned him ¹to death. And King Rehoboam made haste to mount his chariot to flee to Jerusalem.

19 So ^aIsrael has been in rebellion against the house of David to this day.

CHAPTER 11

^aNOW when Rehoboam had come to Jerusalem, he assembled the house of Judah and Benjamin, 180,000 chosen men who were warriors, to fight against Israel to restore the kingdom to Rehoboam.

2 But the word of the LORD came to ^aShemaiah the man of God, saying,

3 "Speak to Rehoboam the son of Solomon, king of Judah, and to all Israel in Judah and Benjamin, saying,

4 'Thus says the LORD, "You shall not go up or fight against ^ayour ¹relatives; return every man to his house, ^bfor this thing is from Me.' " ' So they listened to the words of the LORD and returned from going against Jeroboam.

5 ¶ Rehoboam lived in Jerusalem and ^abuilt cities for defense in Judah.

6 Thus he built Bethlehem, Etam, Tekoa,

7 Beth-zur, Soco, Adullam,

8 Gath, Mareshah, Ziph,

9 Adoraim, Lachish, Azekah,

10 Zorah, Aijalon, and Hebron, which are fortified cities in Judah and in Benjamin.

11 He also strengthened the fortresses and put officers in them and stores of food, oil and wine.

12 And he put shields and spears in every city and strengthened them greatly. So he held Judah and Benjamin.

13 ¶ Moreover, the priests and the Levites who were in all Israel stood with him from all their districts.

14 For ^athe Levites left their pasture lands and their property and came to Judah and Jerusalem, for ^bJeroboam and his sons had excluded them from serving as priests to the LORD.

15 And ^ahe set up priests of his own for the high places, for the satyrs, and for the calves which he had made.

16 And ^athose from all the tribes of Israel who set their hearts on seeking the LORD God of Israel, ¹followed them to Jerusalem to sacrifice to the LORD God of their fathers.

17 ^aAnd they strengthened the kingdom of Judah and supported Rehoboam the son of Solomon for three years, for they walked in the way of David and Solomon for three years.

18 ¶ Then Rehoboam took as a wife Mahalath the daughter of Jerimoth the son of David and of Abihail the daughter of ^aEliab the son of Jesse,

19 and she bore him sons: Jeush, Shemariah, and Zerah.

21 And Rehoboam loved Maacah the daughter of Absalom more than all his other wives and concubines. For ^ahe had taken eighteen wives and sixty concubines and fathered twenty-eight sons and sixty daughters.

22 And ^aRehoboam appointed Abijah the son of Maacah as head and leader among his brothers, for he intended to make him king.

23 And he acted wisely and distributed ¹some of his sons through all the territories of Judah and Benjamin to all the fortified cities, and he gave them food in abundance. And he sought many wives for them.

CHAPTER 12

IT took place ^awhen the kingdom of Rehoboam was established and strong that ^bhe and all Israel with him forsook the law of the LORD.

2 ^aAnd it came about in King Rehoboam's fifth year, because they had been unfaithful to the LORD, that ^bShishak king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem

3 with 1,200 chariots and 60,000 horsemen. And the people who came with him from Egypt were without number: ^athe Lubim, the Sukkiim, and the Ethiopians.

4 And he captured ^athe fortified cities of Judah and came as far as Jerusalem.

5 Then ^aShemaiah the prophet came to Rehoboam and the princes of Judah who had gathered at Jerusalem because of Shishak, and he said to them, "Thus says the LORD, ^b'You have forsaken Me, so I also have forsaken you ¹to Shishak.'"

6 So the princes of Israel and the king humbled themselves and said, "The ^aLORD is righteous."

7 ¶ And when the LORD saw that they humbled themselves, the word of the LORD came to Shemaiah, saying, "They have humbled themselves so I will not destroy them, but I will grant them some measure of deliverance, and ^bMy wrath shall not be poured out on Jerusalem by means of Shishak."

8 "But they will become his slaves so ^athat they may learn the difference between My service and the service of the kingdoms of the countries."

9 ¶ ^aSo Shishak king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem, and took the treasures of the house of the LORD and the treasures of the king's palace. He took everything; ^bhe even took the golden shields which Solomon had made.

10 Then King Rehoboam made shields of bronze in their place, and committed them to the ¹care of the commanders of the ²guard who guarded the door of the king's house.

11 And it happened as often as the king entered the house of the LORD, the ¹guards came and carried them and then brought them back into the ¹guards' room.

12 And ^awhen he humbled himself, the anger of the LORD turned away from him, so as not to destroy him completely; and also conditions ^bwere good in Judah.

13 ¶ ^aSo King Rehoboam strengthened himself in Jerusalem, and reigned. Now Rehoboam was forty-one years old when he began to reign, and he reigned seventeen years in Jerusalem, the city which the LORD had chosen from all the tribes of Israel, to put His name there. And his mother's name was Naamah the Ammonitess.

15 ¶ ^aNow the acts of Rehoboam, from first to last, are they now written in the ¹records of ^bShemaiah the prophet and of ^cIddo the seer, according to genealogical enrollment? And there were wars between Rehoboam and Jeroboam continually.

16 And Rehoboam slept with his fathers, and was buried in the city of David; and his son ^aAbijah became king in his place.

^a IN the eighteenth year of King Jeroboam, Abijah became king over Judah.

2 He reigned three years in Jerusalem; and his mother's name was Micaiah the daughter of Uriel of Gibeah. ^aAnd there was war between Abijah and Jeroboam.

3 And Abijah began the battle with an army of valiant warriors 400,000 chosen men, while Jeroboam drew up in battle formation against him with 800,000 chosen men who were valiant warriors.

4 ¶ Then Abijah stood on Mount ^aZemaraim, which is in the hill country of Ephraim, and said, "Listen to me, Jeroboam and all Israel:

5 "Do you not know that ^athe LORD God of Israel gave the rule over Israel forever to David ¹and his sons by ^ba covenant of salt?"

6 "Yet ^aJeroboam the son of Nebat, the servant of Solomon the son of David, rose up and rebelled against his ¹master, and worthless men gathered about him, scoundrels, who proved too strong for Rehoboam, the son of Solomon, where ¹he was young and timid and could not hold his own against them.

8 "So now you intend to resist the kingdom of the LORD ¹through the sons of David ²being a great multitude and having with you ^athe golden calves which Jeroboam made for gods for you.

9 ^aHave you not driven out the priests of the LORD, the sons of Aaron and the Levites, and made for yourselves priests like the peoples of other lands? Whoever comes ^bto consecrate himself with a young bull and seven rams, even he may become a priest of what are ^cno gods.

10 ^aBut as for us, the LORD is our God, and we have not forsaken Him; and the sons of Aaron are ministering to the LORD as priests, and the Levites ^battend to their work.

11 ^aAnd every morning and evening ^athey ^bburn to the LORD burnt offerings and fragrant incense, and ^bthe showbread is set on the clean table, and the golden lampstand with its lamps is ready to light every evening; for we keep the charge of the LORD our God, but you have forsaken Him.

12 ^aNow behold, God is with us at our head and ^aHis priests with the signal trumpets to sound the alarm against you. O sons of Israel, do not fight against the LORD God of your fathers, for you will not succeed."

13 ^aBut Jeroboam ^ahad set an ambush to come from the rear, so that Israel was in front of Judah, and the ambush was behind them.

14 When Judah turned around, behold, ^bthey were attacked both front and rear; so ^athey cried to the LORD, and the priests blew the trumpets.

15 Then the men of Judah raised a war cry, and when the men of Judah raised the war cry, then it was that God ^arouted Jeroboam and all Israel before Abijah and Judah.

16 And when the sons of Israel fled before Judah, ^aGod gave them into their hand.

18 Thus the sons of Israel were subdued at that time, and the sons of Judah ^bconquered ^abecause they trusted in the LORD, the God of their fathers.

19 And Abijah pursued Jeroboam, and captured from him several cities, Bethel with its villages, Jeshanah with its villages, and ^bEphron with its villages.

20 And Jeroboam did not again recover strength in the days of Abijah; and the ^aLORD struck him and ^bhe died.

21 ^aBut Abijah became powerful, and took fourteen wives to himself; and became the father of twenty-two sons and sixteen daughters.

22 Now the rest of the acts of Abijah, and his ways and his words are written in ^athe ^btreasure of ^cthe prophet Iddo.

¹ ^aSO Abijah slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the city of David, and his son Asa became king in his place. The land was undisturbed for ten years during his days.

2 ^aAnd Asa did good and right in the sight of the LORD his God.

3 for he removed ^athe foreign altars and ^bhigh places, tore down the sacred pillars, cut down the ^cAsherim,

4 and commanded Judah to seek the LORD God of their fathers and to observe the law and the commandment.

5 He also removed the high places and the ^aincense altars from all the cities of Judah. And the kingdom was undisturbed under him.

6 And ^ahe built fortified cities in Judah, since the land was undisturbed, and ^bthere was no one at war with him during those years, ^bbecause the LORD had given him rest.

7 For he said to Judah, "Let us build these cities and surround them with walls and towers, gates and bars. The land is still ¹ours, because we have sought the LORD our God; we have sought Him, and He has given us rest on every side." So they built and prospered.

8 Now Asa had an army of ^a300,000 from Judah, bearing large shields and spears, and 280,000 from Benjamin, bearing shields and wielding bows; all of them were valiant warriors.

9 ^c Now Zerah the Ethiopian ^acame out against them with an army of a million men and 300 chariots, and he came to ^bMareshah.

10 So Asa went out ¹to meet him, and they drew up in battle formation in the valley of Zephathah at Mareshah.

11 Then Asa ^acalled to the LORD his God, and said, "LORD, there is no one besides Thee to help in the battle between the powerful and those who have no strength; so help us, O LORD our God, ^bfor we trust in Thee, and in Thy name have come against this multitude. O LORD, Thou art our God; let not man prevail against Thee."

12 So ^athe LORD ¹routed the Ethiopians before Asa and before Judah, and the Ethiopians fled.

13 And Asa and the people who were with him pursued them as far as ^aGerar; and so many Ethiopians fell that ¹they could not recover, for they were shattered before the LORD, and before His army. And they carried away very much plunder.

14 And they ¹destroyed all the cities around Gerar, ^afor the dread of the LORD had fallen on them; and they despoiled all the cities, for there was much plunder in them.

CHAPTER 15

NOW ^athe Spirit of God came on Azariah the son of Oded,

2 and he went out ¹to meet Asa and said to him, "Listen to me Asa, and all Judah and Benjamin: ^athe LORD is with you when you are with Him. And ^bif you seek Him, He will let you find Him; but if you forsake Him, He will forsake you.

3 ^aAnd ^afor many days Israel was without the true God and without ^ba teaching priest and without law.

4 ^aBut ^ain their distress they turned to the LORD God of Israel and they sought Him, and He let them find Him.

5 ^aAnd in those times there was no peace to him who went out or to him who came in, for many disturbances ¹afflicted all the inhabitants of the lands.

6 ^aAnd ^anation was crushed by nation, and city by city, for God troubled them with every kind of distress.

7 ^aBut you, ^abe strong and do not ¹lose courage, for there is ^breward for your work."

8 ¶ Now when Asa heard these words and the ¹prophecy which Azariah the son of Oded the prophet spoke, he took courage and removed the abominable idols from all the land of Judah and Benjamin and from ^athe cities which he had captured in the hill country of Ephraim. ^bHe then restored the altar of the LORD which was in front of the porch of the LORD.

9 And he gathered all Judah and Benjamin and those from Ephraim, Manasseh, and Simeon ^awho resided with them, for many defected to him from Israel when they saw that the LORD his God was with him.

10 So they assembled at Jerusalem in the third month of the fifteenth year of Asa's reign.

11 And ^athey sacrificed to the LORD that day 700 oxen and 7,000 sheep from the spoil they had brought.

12 And ^athey entered into the covenant to seek the LORD God of their fathers with all their heart and soul;

13 and whoever would not seek the LORD God of Israel should be put to death, whether small or great, man or woman.

14 Moreover, they made an path to the LORD with a loud voice, with shouting, with trumpets, and with horns.

15 And all Judah rejoiced concerning the oath, for they had sworn with their whole heart and had sought Him earnestly, and He let them find Him. So ^athe LORD gave them rest on every side.

16 ¶ ^aAnd he also removed Maacah, the mother of King Asa, from the position of queen mother, because she had made a horrid image ^aas ^ban Asherah, and ^aAsa cut down her horrid image, crushed it and burned it at the brook Kidron.

17 But the high places were not removed from Israel; nevertheless Asa's heart was blameless all his days.

18 And he brought into the house of God the dedicated things of his father and his own dedicated things: silver and gold and utensils.

19 And there was no more war until the thirty-fifth year of Asa's reign.

CHAPTER 16

IN the thirty-sixth year of Asa's reign ^aBaasha king of Israel came up against Judah, and ^afortified Ramah in order to prevent anyone from going out or coming in to Asa king of Judah.

2 Then Asa brought out silver and gold from the treasuries of the house of the LORD and the king's house, and sent them to Ben-hadad king of Aram, who lived in Damascus, saying,

3 "Let there be a treaty between you and me, as between my father and your father. Behold, I have sent you silver and gold; go, break your treaty with Baasha king of Israel so that he will withdraw from me."

4 So Ben-hadad listened to King Asa and sent the commanders of his armies against the cities of Israel, and they ^aconquered Ijon, Dan, Abel-maim, and all ^athe ²store cities of Naphtali.

5 And it came about when Baasha heard of it that he ceased ^afortifying Ramah and stopped his work.

6 Then King Asa brought all Judah, and they carried away the stones of Ramah and its timber with which Baasha had been building, and with them he ^afortified Geba and Mizpah.

7 ¶ At that time ^aHanani the seer came to Asa king of Judah and said to him, "^bBecause you have relied on the king of Aram and have not relied on the LORD your God, therefore the army of the king of Aram has escaped out of your hand.

8 "Were not ^athe Ethiopians and the Lubim ^ban immense army with very many chariots and horsemen? Yet, ^cbecause you relied on the LORD, He delivered them into your hand.

9 "For ^athe eyes of the LORD move to and fro throughout the earth that He may strongly support those ^bwhose heart is completely His. You have acted foolishly in this. Indeed, from now on you will surely have wars."

10 Then Asa was angry with the seer and put him in ^aprison, for he was enraged at him for this. And Asa oppressed some of the people at the same time.

11 ¶ And now, the acts of Asa from first to last, behold, they are written in the Book of the Kings of Judah and Israel.

12 And in the thirty-ninth year of his reign Asa became diseased in his feet. His disease was severe, yet even in his disease he did not seek the LORD, but the physicians.

13 So Asa slept with his fathers, having died in the forty-first year of his reign.

14 And they buried him in his own tomb which he had cut out for himself in the city of David, and they laid him in the resting place which he had filled with spices of various kinds blended by the perfumers' art; and they made a very great fire for him.

CHAPTER 17

JEHOSHAPHAT his son then became king in his place, and made his position over Israel firm.

2 He placed troops in all the fortified cities of Judah, and set garrisons in the land of Judah, and in the cities of Ephraim which Asa his father had captured.

3 And the LORD was with Jehoshaphat because he followed the example of his father David's earlier days and did not seek the Baals,

4 but sought the God of his father, followed His commandments, and did not act as Israel did.

5 So the LORD established the kingdom in his control, and all Judah brought tribute to Jehoshaphat, and he had great riches and honor.

6 And he took great pride in the ways of the LORD and again removed the high places and the Asherim from Judah.

7 ¶ Then in the third year of his reign he sent his officials Ben-hail, Obadiah, Zechariah, Nethanel, and Micaiah, to teach in the cities of Judah;

8 and with them the Levites Shemaiah, Nethaniah, Zebadiah, Asahel, Shemiramoth, Jehonathan, Adonijah, Tobijah and Tobadonijah, the Levites and with them Elishama and Jehoram, the priests.

9 And they taught in Judah having the book of the law of the LORD with them; and they went throughout all the cities of Judah and taught among the people.

10 ¶ Now the dread of the LORD was on all the kingdoms of the lands which were around Judah, so that they did not make war against Jehoshaphat.

11 And some of the Philistines brought gifts and silver as tribute to Jehoshaphat; the Arabians also brought him flocks: 7,700 rams and 7,700 male goats.

12 So Jehoshaphat grew greater and greater, and he built fortresses and store cities in Judah.

13 And he had large supplies in the cities of Judah, and warriors valiant men, in Jerusalem.

14 And this was their muster according to their fathers' households: of Judah, commanders of thousands, Adnah was the commander, and with him 300,000 valiant warriors;

15 and next to him was Johanan the commander, and with him 280,000;

16 and next to him Amasiah the son of Zichri, who volunteered for the LORD, and with him 200,000 valiant warriors;

17 and of Benjamin, Eliada a valiant warrior, and with him 200,000 armed with bow and shield;

18 and next to him Jehozabad, and with him 180,000 equipped for war.

19 These are they who served the king, apart from those whom the king put in the fortified cities through all Judah.

9 Now the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah were sitting each on his throne, arrayed in their robes, and they were sitting at the threshing floor at the entrance of the gate of Samaria; and all the prophets were prophesying before them.

10 And Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah made horns of iron for himself and said, "Thus says the LORD, 'With these you shall gore the Arameans, until they are consumed.'"

11 And all the prophets were prophesying thus, saying, "Go up to Ramoth-gilead and succeed, for the LORD will give it into the hand of the king."

12 ¶ Then the messenger who went to summon Micaiah spoke to him saying, "Behold, the words of the prophets are uniformly favorable to the king. So please let your word be like one of them and speak favorably."

13 But Micaiah said, "As the LORD lives, what my God says, that I will speak."

14 And when he came to the king, the king said to him, "Micaiah, shall we go to Ramoth-gilead to battle, or shall I refrain?" He said, "Go up and succeed, for they will be given into your hand."

15 Then the king said to him, "How many times must I adjure you to speak to me nothing but the truth in the name of the LORD?"

16 So he said,

"I saw all Israel

Scattered on the mountains,

Like sheep which have no shepherd;

And the LORD said,

These have no master.

Let each of them return to his house in peace."

17 Then the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, "Did I not tell you that he would not prophesy good concerning me, but evil?"

18 And Micaiah said, "Therefore, hear the word of the LORD. I saw the LORD sitting on His throne, and all the host of heaven standing on His right and on His left.

19^a And the LORD said, 'Who will entice Ahab king of Israel to go up and fall at Ramoth-gilead?' And one said this while another said that.

20^a Then a spirit came forward and stood before the LORD and said, 'I will entice him.' And the LORD said to him, 'How?'

21^a And he said, 'I will go and be a deceiving spirit in the mouth of all his prophets.' Then He said, 'You are to entice him and prevail also. Go and do so.'

22^a Now therefore, behold, the LORD has put a deceiving spirit in the mouth of these your prophets; for the LORD has proclaimed disaster against you."

23 ¶ Then Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah came near and struck Micaiah on the cheek and said, "How did the Spirit of the LORD pass from me to speak to you?"

24 And Micaiah said, "Behold, you shall see on that day, when you enter an inner room to hide yourself."

25 Then the king of Israel said, "Take Micaiah and return him to Amon the governor of the city, and to Joash the king's son;

26 and say, 'Thus says the king, "Put this man in prison, and feed him sparingly with bread and water until I return safely."'

27 And Micaiah said, "If you indeed return safely, the LORD has not spoken by me." And he said, "Listen, all you people."

28 ¶ So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat king of Judah went up against Ramoth-gilead.

29 And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, "I will disguise myself and go into battle, but you put on your robes." So the king of Israel disguised himself, and they went into battle.

30 Now the king of Aram had commanded the captains of his chariots, saying, "Do not fight with small or great, but with the king of Israel alone."

31 So it came about when the captains of the chariots saw Jehoshaphat, that they said, "It is the king of Israel," and they turned aside to fight against him. But Jehoshaphat cried out, and the LORD helped him, and God diverted them from him.

32 Then it happened when the captains of the chariots saw that it was not the king of Israel, that they turned back from pursuing him.

33 And a certain man drew his bow at random and struck the king of Israel in a joint of the armor. So he said to the driver of the chariot, "Turn around, and take me out of the fight; for I am severely wounded."

34 And the battle raged that day, and the king of Israel propped himself up in his chariot in front of the Arameans until the evening; and at sunset he died.

CHAPTER 19

THEN Jehoshaphat the king of Judah returned in safety to his house in Jerusalem.

2 And Jehu the son of Hanani the seer went out to meet him and said to King Jehoshaphat, "Should you help the wicked and love those who hate the LORD and so bring wrath on yourself from the LORD?"

3 "But there is some good in you, for you have removed the Asheroth from the land and you have set your heart to seek God."

4 So Jehoshaphat lived in Jerusalem and went out again among the people from Beersheba to the hill country of Ephraim and brought them back to the LORD, the God of their fathers.

5 And he appointed ^ajudges in the land in all the fortified cities of Judah, city by city.

6 And he said to the judges, "Consider what you are doing, for ^ayou do not judge for man but for the LORD who is with you ¹when you render judgment."

7 "Now then let the fear of the LORD be upon you; ¹be very careful what you do, for ²the LORD our God will ^ahave no part in unrighteousness, ^bor partiality, or the taking of a bribe."

8 ¶ And in Jerusalem also Jehoshaphat appointed some ^aof the Levites and priests, and some of the heads of the fathers' households of Israel, for the judgment of the LORD and to judge ¹disputes among the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

9 Then he charged them saying, "Thus you shall do in the fear of the LORD, faithfully and wholeheartedly.

10 "And whenever any dispute comes to you from your brethren who live in their cities, between blood and blood, between law and commandment, statutes and ordinances, you shall warn them that they may not be guilty before the LORD, and ^bwrath may not come on you and your brethren. Thus you shall do and you will not be guilty.

11 "And behold, Amariah the chief priest will be over you in ¹all that pertains to the LORD; and Zebadiah the son of Ishmael, the ruler of the house of Judah, in ¹all that pertains to the king. Also the Levites shall be officers before you. ²^bAct resolutely, and the LORD be with the upright."

2 Then some came and reported to Jehoshaphat, saying, "A great multitude is coming against you from beyond the sea, out of ¹Aram and behold, they are in ^aHazazon-tamar (that is Engedi)."

3 And Jehoshaphat was afraid and ¹turned his attention to seek the LORD; and ^bproclaimed a fast throughout all Judah.

4 So Judah gathered together to ^aseek help from the LORD: they even came from all the cities of Judah to seek the LORD.

5 ¶ Then Jehoshaphat stood in the assembly of Judah and Jerusalem, in the house of the LORD before the new court.

6 and he said, "O LORD, the God of our fathers, ^aart Thou not God in the heavens? And ^bart Thou not ruler over all the kingdoms of the nations? Power and might are in Thy hand so that no one can stand against Thee.

7 "Didst Thou not, O our God, drive out the inhabitants of this land before Thy people Israel, and ^agive it to the descendants of ^bAbraham Thy friend forever?

8 "And they lived in it, and have built Thee a sanctuary there for Thy name, saying,

9 "Should evil come upon us, the sword, or judgment, or pestilence, or famine, we will stand before this house and before Thee (for ^bThy name is in this house) and cry to Thee in our distress, and Thou wilt hear and deliver us."

10 "And now behold, ^athe sons of Ammon and Moab and ¹Mount Seir, ^bwhom Thou didst not let Israel invade when they came out of the land of Egypt (they turned aside from them and did not destroy them),

11 behold how they are rewarding us, by ^acoming to drive us out from Thy possession which Thou hast given us as an inheritance.

12 "O our God, wilt Thou not judge them? For we are powerless before this great multitude who are coming against us; nor do we know what to do, but our eyes are on Thee."

13 And all Judah was standing before the LORD, with their infants, their wives, and their children.

14 ¶ Then in the midst of the assembly the Spirit of the LORD came upon Jahaziel the son of Zechariah, the son of Benaiah, the son of Jeiel, the son of Mattaniah, the Levite of the sons of Asaph;

15 and he said, "Listen, all Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem and King Jehoshaphat: thus says the LORD to you, 'Do not fear or be dismayed because of this great multitude, for the battle is not yours but God's.'

16 'Tomorrow go down against them. Behold, they will come up by the ascent of Ziz, and you will find them at the end of the valley in front of the wilderness of Jeruel.

17 'You need not fight in this battle; station yourselves, stand and see the salvation of the LORD on your behalf, O Judah and Jerusalem.' Do not fear or be dismayed; tomorrow go out to face them, for the LORD is with you."

18 And Jehoshaphat bowed his head with his face to the ground, and all Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem fell down before the LORD, worshipping the LORD.

19 And the Levites, from the sons of the Kohathites and of the sons of the Korahites, stood up to praise the LORD God of Israel, with a very loud voice.

20 ¶ And they rose early in the morning and went out to the wilderness of Tekoa; and when they went out, Jehoshaphat stood and said, "Listen to me, O Judah

21 And when he had consulted with the people, he appointed those who sang to the LORD and those who praised Him in holy attire, as they went out before the army and said, "Give thanks to the LORD, for His lovingkindness is everlasting."

22 And when they began singing and praising, the LORD set ambushes against the sons of Ammon, Moab, and Mount Seir, who had come against Judah; so they were routed.

23 For the sons of Ammon and Moab rose up against the inhabitants of Mount Seir, destroying them completely, and when they had finished with the inhabitants of Seir, they helped to destroy one another.

24 ¶ When Judah came to the lookout of the wilderness, they looked toward the multitude and behold, they were corpses lying on the ground, and no one had escaped.

25 And when Jehoshaphat and his people came to take their spoil, they found much among them, including goods, garments, and valuable things which they took for themselves more than they could carry. And they were three days taking the spoil because there was so much.

26 Then on the fourth day they assembled in the valley of Beracah, for there they blessed the LORD. Therefore they have named that place "The Valley of Beracah" until today.

27 And every man of Judah and Jerusalem returned with Jehoshaphat at their head, returning to Jerusalem with joy, for the LORD had made them to rejoice over their enemies.

28 And they came to Jerusalem with harps, lyres, and trumpets to the house of the LORD.

29 And ^athe dread of God was on all the kingdoms of the lands when they heard that the LORD had fought against the enemies of Israel.

30 So the kingdom of Jehoshaphat was at peace, ^afor his God gave him rest on all sides.

31 ¶ ^aNow Jehoshaphat reigned over Judah. He was thirty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem twenty-five years. And his mother's name was Azubah the daughter of Shilhi.

32 And he walked in the way of his father Asa and did not depart from it, doing right in the sight of the LORD.

33 ^aThe high places, however, were not removed; ^bthe people had not yet directed their hearts to the God of their fathers.

34 Now the rest of the acts of Jehoshaphat, first ¹to last, behold, they are written in the annals of ^aJehu the son of Hanani, which is ²recorded in the Book of the Kings of Israel.

35 ¶ ^aAnd after this Jehoshaphat king of Judah allied himself with Ahaziah king of Israel. He acted wickedly ¹in so doing.

36 So he allied himself with him to make ships to go ^ato Tarshish, and they made the ships in Ezion-geber.

37 Then Eliezer the son of Dodavahu of Mareshah prophesied against Jehoshaphat saying, "Because you have allied yourself with Ahaziah, the LORD has destroyed your works." So the ships were broken and could not go to Tarshish.

2 And he had brothers, the sons of Jehoshaphat: Azariah, Jehiel, Zechariah, ¹Azaryahu, Michael, and Shephatiah. All these were the sons of Jehoshaphat king ^aof Israel.

3 And their father gave them many gifts of silver, gold and precious things, ^awith fortified cities in Judah, but he gave the kingdom to Jehoram because he was the first-born.

4 ¶ Now when Jehoram had ¹taken over the kingdom of his father and made himself ²secure, he ^akilled all his brothers with the sword, and some of the rulers of Israel also.

5 ^aJehoram was thirty-two years old when he became king, and he reigned eight years in Jerusalem.

6 ^aAnd he walked in the way of the kings of Israel, just as the house of Ahab did (^bfor Ahab's daughter was his wife), and he did evil in the sight of the LORD.

7 Yet the LORD was not willing to destroy the house of David because of the covenant which he had made with David, ^aand since He had promised to give a lamp to him and his sons forever.

8 ¶ In his days ^aEdom revolted ¹against the rule of Judah, and set up a king over themselves.

9 Then Jehoram crossed over with his commanders and all his chariots with him. And it came about that he arose by night and struck down the Edomites who were surrounding him and the commanders of the chariots.

10 So Edom revolted ¹against Judah to this day. Then Libnah revolted at the same time ²against his rule, because he had forsaken the LORD God of his fathers.

11 Moreover, ^ahe made high places in the mountains of Judah, and caused the inhabitants of Jerusalem ^bto play the harlot and led Judah astray.

12 Then a letter came to him from Elijah the prophet saying, "Thus says the LORD God of your father David, 'Because ^ayou have not walked in the ways of Jehoshaphat your father ^band the ways of Asa king of Judah,

13 but ^ahave walked in the way of the kings of Israel, and have caused Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem to play the harlot ^{bas}as the house of Ahab played the harlot, and you ^chave also killed your brothers, ¹your own family, who were better than you,

16 ¶ Then ^athe LORD stirred up against Jehoram the spirit of the Philistines and ^bthe Arabs who ¹bordered the Ethiopians;

17 and they came against Judah and invaded it, and carried away all the possessions found in the king's house together with his sons and his wives, so that no son was left to him except ^{1a}Jehoahaz, the youngest of his sons.

18 So after all this the LORD smote him ^ain his bowels with an incurable sickness.

19 Now it came about in the course of time, at the end of two years, that his bowels came out because of his sickness and he died in great pain. And his people made no fire for him like ^athe fire for his fathers.

20 He was thirty-two years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem eight years; and he departed ^{1a}with no one's regret, and they buried him in the city of David, ^bbut not in the tombs of the kings.

CHAPTER 22

^aTHEN the inhabitants of Jerusalem made ¹Ahaziah, his youngest son, king in his place for the band of men who came with ^bthe Arabs to the camp had slain all the older sons. So Ahaziah the son of Jehoram king of Judah began to reign.

2 Ahaziah was ¹twenty-two years old when he became king, and he reigned one year in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Athaliah, the ²granddaughter of Omri.

3 He also walked in the ways of the house of Ahab, for his mother was his counselor to do wickedly.

4 And he did evil in the sight of the LORD like the house of Ahab for they were his counselors after the death of his father, to ^ahis destruction.

5 He also walked according to their counsel, and went with Jehoram the son of Ahab king of Israel to wage war against Hazael king of Aram at Ramoth-gilead. But the ^{1a}Arameans ²wounded ³Joram.

6 So he returned to be healed in Jezreel of the wounds ¹which they had inflicted on him at Ramoth, when he fought against Hazael king of Aram. And ²Ahaziah, the son of Jehoram king of Judah, went down to see Jehoram the son of Ahab in Jezreel because he was sick.

7 ¶ Now ^athe destruction of Ahaziah was from God, in that ¹he went to Joram. For when he came, ^bhe went out with Jehoram against Jehu the son of Nimshi, ^cwhom the LORD had anointed to cut off the house of Ahab.

8 ^aAnd it came about when Jehu was executing judgment on the house of Ahab, he found the princes of Judah and the sons of Ahaziah's brothers, ministering to Ahaziah, and slew them.

9 *He also sought Ahaziah, and they caught him while he was hiding in Samaria; they brought him to Jehu, put him to death, and buried him. For they said, "He is the son of Jehoshaphat, who sought the LORD with all his heart." So there was no one of the house of Ahaziah to retain the power of the kingdom.

spoken concerning the sons of David.

4 "This is the thing which you shall do: one third of you, of the priests and Levites who come in on the sabbath, shall be gatekeepers.

5 and one third shall be at the king's house, and a third at the Gate of the Foundation; and all the people shall be in the courts of the house of the LORD.

6 "But let no one enter the house of the LORD except the priests and the ministering Levites; they may enter, for they are holy. And let all the people keep the charge of the LORD.

7 "And the Levites will surround the king, each man with his weapons in his hand; and whoever enters the house, let him be killed. Thus be with the king when he comes in and when he goes out."

8 So the Levites and all Judah did according to all that Jehoiada the priest commanded. And each one of them took his men who were to come in on the sabbath, with those who were to go out on the sabbath, for Jehoiada the priest did not dismiss any of the divisions.

9 Then Jehoiada the priest gave to the captains of hundreds the spears and the large and small shields which had been King David's, which were in the house of God.

10 And he stationed all the people, each man with his weapon in his hand, from the right side of the house to the left side of the house, by the altar and by the house, around the king.

11 Then they brought out the king's son and put the crown on him, and gave him the testimony, and made him king. And Jehoiada and his sons anointed him and said, "Long live the king!"

12 ¶ When Athaliah heard the noise of the people running and praising the king, she came into the house of the LORD to the people.

13 And she looked, and behold, the king was standing by his pillar at the entrance, and the captains and the ¹trumpeters were beside the king. And all the people of the land rejoiced and blew trumpets, the singers with their musical instruments ²leading the praise. Then Athaliah tore her clothes and said, "Treason! Treason!"

14 And Jehoiada the priest brought out the captains of hundreds who were appointed over the army, and said to them, "Bring her out ¹between the ranks; and whoever follows her, put to death with the sword." For the priest said, "Let her not be put to death in the house of the LORD."

15 So they ¹seized her, and when she arrived at the entrance of ^athe Horse Gate of the king's house, they ^bput her to death there.

16 ¶ Then ^aJehoiada made a covenant between himself and all the people and the king, that they should be the LORD's people.

17 And all the people went to the house of Baal, and tore it down, and they broke in pieces his altars and his images, and ^akilled Mattan the priest of Baal before the altars.

18 Moreover, Jehoiada placed the offices of the house of the LORD under the ¹authority of ^athe Levitical priests, ^bwhom David had assigned over the house of the LORD, to offer the burnt offerings of the LORD, as it is written in the law of Moses—^cwith rejoicing and singing according to the ²order of David.

20 And ^ahe took the captains of hundreds, the nobles, the rulers of the people, and all the people of the land, and brought the king down from the house of the LORD, and came through the upper gate to the king's house. And they placed the king upon the royal throne.

21 So ^aall of the people of the land rejoiced and the city was quiet. For they had put Athaliah to death with the sword.

CHAPTER 24

JOASH was seven years old when he became king, and he reigned forty years in Jerusalem; his mother's name was Zibiah from Beersheba.

2 And ^aJoash did what was right in the sight of the LORD all the days of Jehoiada the priest.

3 And Jehoiada took two wives for him, and he became the father of sons and daughters.

4 ¶ Now it came about after this that Joash ¹decided ^ato restore the house of the LORD.

5 And he gathered the priests and Levites, and said to them, "Go out to the cities of Judah, and collect money from all ^aIsrael to ¹repair the house of your God ²annually, and you shall do the matter quickly." But the Levites did not act quickly.

6 So the king summoned Jehoiada the chief priest and said to him, "Why have you not required the Levites to bring in from Judah and from Jerusalem ^athe levy fixed by Moses the servant of the LORD on the congregation of Israel ^bfor the tent of the testimony?"

7 For ^athe sons of the wicked Athaliah had broken into the house of God and even ¹used the holy things of the house of the LORD for the Baals.

8 ¶ So the king commanded, and ^athey made a chest and set it outside by the gate of the house of the LORD.

9 And ^athey made a proclamation in Judah and Jerusalem to bring to the LORD ^bthe levy fixed by Moses the servant of God on Israel in the wilderness.

10 And all the officers and all the people rejoiced and brought in their levies and ¹dropped them into the chest until they had finished.

11 And it came about whenever the chest was brought in to the king's officer by the Levites, and when ^athey saw that there was much money, then the king's scribe and the chief priest's officer would come, empty the chest, take it, and return it to its place. Thus they did daily and collected much money.

12 And the king and Jehoiada gave it to those who did the work of the service of the house of the LORD; and they hired masons and carpenters to restore the house of the LORD, and also workers in iron and bronze to ¹repair the house of the LORD.

13 So the workmen labored, and the repair work progressed in their hands, and they ¹restored the house of God ²according to its specifications, and strengthened it.

14 And when they had finished, they brought the rest of the money before the king and Jehoiada; and it was made into utensils for the house of the LORD, utensils for the service and the burnt offering, and pans and utensils of gold and silver. And they offered burnt offerings in the house of the LORD continually all the days of Jehoiada.

15 ¶ Now when Jehoiada ¹reached a ripe old age he died; he was one hundred and thirty years old at his death.

16 And they buried him ^ain the city of David among the kings, because he had done well in ^bIsrael and ¹to God and His house.

17 But after the death of Jehoiada the officials of Judah came and bowed down to the king, and the king listened to them.

18 And they abandoned ^athe house of the LORD, the God of their fathers, and ^bserved the ¹Asherim and the idols; so ^cwrath came upon Judah and Jerusalem for this their guilt.

19 Yet ^aHe sent prophets to them to bring them back to the LORD; though they testified against them, they would not listen.

20 ^aThen the Spirit of God ¹came on Zechariah the son of Jehoiada the priest; and he stood above the people and said to them, "Thus God has said, ^bWhy do you transgress the commandments of the LORD and do not prosper? ^cBecause you have forsaken the LORD, He has also forsaken you.' "

21 So ^athey conspired against him and at the command of the king they stoned him ¹to death in the court of the house of the LORD.

22 Thus Joash the king did not remember the kindness which his father Jehoiada had shown him, but he murdered his son. And as he died he said, "May ^athe LORD see and ¹avenge!"

23 ¶ Now it came about at the turn of the year that ^athe army of the Arameans came up against him; and they came to Judah and Jerusalem, destroyed all the officials of the people from among the people, and sent all their spoil to the king of Damascus.

24 Indeed the army of the Arameans came with a small number of men; yet ^athe LORD delivered a very great army into their hands, ^bbecause they had forsaken the LORD, the God of their fathers. Thus they executed judgment on Joash.

25 ^aAnd when they had departed from him (for they left him very sick), his own servants conspired against him because of the blood of the ¹son of Jehoiada the priest, and murdered him on his bed. So he died, and they buried him in the city of David, but they did not bury him in the tombs of the kings.

26 Now these are those who conspired against him: Zabad the son of Shimeath the Ammonitess, and Jehozabad the son of Shimrith the Moabitess.

27 As to his sons and the many ¹oracles against him and ²the rebuilding of the house of God, behold, they are written in the ³treatise of the Book of the Kings. Then Amaziah his son became king in his place.

^aAMAZIAH was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned twenty-nine years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Jehoaddan of Jerusalem.

2 And he did right in the sight of the LORD, ^ayet not with a whole heart.

3 Now ^ait came about as soon as the kingdom was ¹firmly in his grasp, that he killed his servants who had slain his father the king.

4 However, he did not put their children to death, but did as it is written in the law in the book of Moses, which the LORD commanded, saying, "^aFathers shall not be put to death for sons, nor sons be put to death for fathers, but each shall be put to death for his own sin."

5 ^c Moreover, Amaziah assembled Judah and appointed them according to their fathers' households under commanders of thousands and commanders of hundreds throughout Judah and Benjamin; and he ¹took a census of those ^afrom twenty years old and upward, and found them to be ^b300,000 choice men,

6 He hired also 100,000 valiant warriors out of Israel for one hundred talents of silver.

7 But ^aa man of God came to him saying, "O king, do not let the army of Israel go with you, for the LORD is not with Israel nor with any of the sons of Ephraim.

8 "But if you do go, do it, be strong for the battle; yet God will ¹bring you down before the enemy, ^afor God has power to help and to ¹bring down."

9 And Amaziah said to the man of God, "But what shall we do for the hundred talents which I have given to the troops of Israel?" And the man of God answered, "^aThe LORD has much more to give you than this."

10 Then Amaziah ¹dismissed them, the troops which came to him from Ephraim, to go home; so their anger burned against Judah and they returned ²home in fierce anger.

11 ¶ Now Amaziah strengthened himself, and led his people forth, and went to ^athe Valley of Salt, and struck down 10,000 of the sons of Seir.

12 The sons of Judah also captured 10,000 alive and brought them to the top of the cliff, and threw them down from the top of the cliff so that they were all dashed to pieces.

13 But the ¹troops whom Amaziah sent back from going with him to battle, raided the cities of Judah, from Samaria to Beth-horon, and struck down 3,000 of them, and plundered much spoil.

14 ¶ Now it came about after Amaziah came from slaughtering the Edomites that ^ahe brought the gods of the sons of Seir, set them up as his gods, bowed down before them, and burned incense to them.

15 Then the anger of the LORD burned against Amaziah, and He sent him a prophet who said to him, "Why have you sought the gods of the people ^awho have not delivered their own people from your hand?"

16 And it came about as he was talking with him that ¹the king said to him, "Have we appointed you a royal counselor? Stop! Why should you be struck down?" Then the prophet stopped and said, "I know that God has planned to destroy you, because you have done this, and have not listened to my counsel."

17 ¹ Then Amaziah king of Judah took counsel and sent to Joash the son of Jehoahaz the son of Jehu, the king of Israel, saying, "Come, let us face each other."

18 And Joash the king of Israel sent to Amaziah king of Judah, saying, "^aThe thorn bush which was in Lebanon sent to the cedar which was in Lebanon, saying, 'Give your daughter to my son in marriage.' But there passed by a wild beast that was in Lebanon, and trampled the thorn bush.

19 "You said, 'Behold, you have ¹defeated Edom.' And ^ayour heart has ²become proud in boasting. Now stay at home; for why should you provoke trouble that you, even you, should fall and Judah with you?"

20 But Amaziah would not listen, for it was from God, that He might deliver them into the hand of Joash because they had sought the gods of Edom.

21 So Joash king of Israel went up, and he and Amaziah king of Judah faced each other at Beth-shemesh, which belonged to Judah.

22 And Judah was defeated ¹by Israel, and they fled each to his tent.

23 Then Joash king of Israel captured Amaziah king of Judah, the son of Joash the son of ^aJehoahaz, at Beth-shemesh, 25 ¹ And Amaziah, the son of Joash king of Judah, lived fifteen years after the death of Joash, son of Jehoahaz, king of Israel.

26 Now the rest of the acts of Amaziah, from first to last, behold, are they not written in the Book of the Kings of Judah and Israel?

27 And from the time that Amaziah turned away from following the LORD they conspired against him in Jerusalem, and he fled to Lachish; but they sent after him to Lachish and killed him there.

28 Then they brought him on horses and buried him with his fathers in the city of Judah.

CHAPTER 26

AND all the people of Judah took ¹Uzziah, who was sixteen years old, and made him king in the place of his father Amaziah.

2 He built Eloth and restored it to Judah after the king slept with his fathers.

3 Uzziah was ^asixteen years old when he became king, and he reigned fifty-two years in Jerusalem; and his mother's name was ¹Jechiliah of Jerusalem.

4 And he did right in the sight of the LORD according to all that his father Amaziah had done.

5 And ^ahe continued to seek God in the days of Zechariah, ^bwho had understanding ¹through the vision of God; and ²as long as he sought the LORD, God prospered him.

6 ¶ Now he went out and warred against the Philistines, and broke down the wall of Gath and the wall of Jabneh and the wall of Ashdod; and he built cities in the area of Ashdod and among the Philistines.

7 And ^aGod helped him against the Philistines, and against the Arabians who lived in Gur-baal, and the Meunites.

8 The Ammonites also gave ^atribute to Uzziah, and his ¹fame extended to the border of Egypt, for he became very strong.

9 Moreover, Uzziah built towers in Jerusalem at ^athe Corner Gate and at the ^bValley Gate and at the corner buttress and fortified them.

10 And he built towers in the wilderness and ^ahewed many cisterns, for he had much livestock, both in the ¹lowland and in the plain. He also had plowmen and vinedressers in the hill country and the fertile fields, for he loved the soil.

11 Moreover, Uzziah had an army ready for battle, which ¹entered combat by divisions, according to the number of their muster, ²prepared by Jeiel the scribe and Maaseiah the official, under the direction of Hananiah, one of the king's officers.

12 The total number of the heads of the ¹households, of valiant warriors, was 2,600.

13 And under their direction was an ¹elite army of ^a307,500, who could wage war with great power, to help the king against the enemy.

14 Moreover, Uzziah prepared ¹for all the army shields, spears, helmets, body armor, bows and sling stones.

15 And in Jerusalem he made engines of war invented by skillful men to be on the towers and on the corners, for the purpose of shooting arrows and great stones. Hence his ¹fame spread afar, for he was marvelously helped until he was strong.

16 ¶ But ^awhen he became strong, his heart was so ¹proud that he acted corruptly, and he was unfaithful to the LORD his God, for ^bhe entered the temple of the LORD to burn incense on the altar of incense.

17 Then ^aAzariah the priest entered after him and with him eighty priests of the LORD, valiant men.

18 And ^athey opposed Uzziah the king and said to him, "^bIt is not for you, Uzziah, to burn incense to the LORD, ^cbut for the priests, the sons of Aaron who are consecrated to burn incense. Get out of the sanctuary, for you have been unfaithful, and will have no honor from the LORD God."

19 But Uzziah, with a censer in his hand for burning incense was enraged; and while he was enraged with the priests, ^athe leprosy broke out on his forehead before the priests in the house of the LORD, beside the altar of incense.

20 And Azariah the chief priest and all the priests looked at him, and behold, he was leprous on his forehead; and they hurried him out of there, and he himself also hastened to get out because the LORD had smitten him.

21 ^aAnd King Uzziah was a leper to the day of his death; and he lived in ^ba separate house, being a leper, for he was cut off from the house of the LORD. And Jotham his son was over the king's house judging the people of the land.

22 Now the rest of the acts of Uzziah, first to last, the prophet ^aIsaiah, the son of Amoz, has written.

23 So Uzziah slept with his fathers, and they buried him with his fathers ^ain the field of the grave which belonged to the kings, for they said, "He is a leper." And Jotham his son became king in his place.

CHAPTER 27

JOTHAM was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Jerushah the daughter of Zadok.

2 And he did right in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his father Uzziah had done; ¹however he did not enter the temple of the LORD. But the people continued acting corruptly.

3 He built the upper gate of the house of the LORD, and he built extensively the wall of ⁴Ophel.

4 Moreover, he built ⁵cities in the hill country of Judah, and he built fortresses and towers on the wooded hills.

5 He fought also with the king of the Ammonites and prevailed over them so that the Ammonites gave him during that year one hundred talents of silver, ten thousand ⁶kors of wheat and ten thousand of barley. The Ammonites also paid him this amount in the second and in the third year.

6 ⁷So Jotham became mighty because he ordered his ways before the LORD his God.

7 ⁸Now the rest of the acts of Jotham, even all his wars and his acts, behold, they are written in the Book of the Kings of Israel and Judah.

8 He was ⁹twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem.

9 And Jotham slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the city of David; and Ahaz his son became king in his place.

CHAPTER 28

AHAZ was twenty years old when he became king, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem; and ¹he did not do right in the sight of the LORD as David his father had done.

2 ²But he walked in the ways of the kings of Israel; he also ³made molten images for the Baals.

3 Moreover, ⁴he burned incense in the valley of Ben-hinnom, and ⁵burned his sons in fire, ⁶according to the abominations of the nations whom the LORD had driven out before the sons of Israel.

4 And he sacrificed and ⁵burned incense on the high places, on the hills, and under every green tree.

5 ⁶Wherefore, ⁷the LORD his God delivered him into the hand of the king of Aram; and they ⁸defeated him and carried away from him a great number of captives, and brought them to Damascus. And he was also delivered into the hand of the king of Israel, who ⁹inflicted him with heavy casualties.

6 For ¹Pekah the son of Remaliah slew in Judah 120,000 in one day, all valiant men, because they had forsaken the LORD God of their fathers.

7 And Zichri, a mighty man of Ephraim, slew Maaseiah the king's son, and Azrikam the ruler of the house and Elkanah the second to the king.

8 ⁹And ¹⁰the sons of Israel carried away captive of ¹¹their brethren 200,000 women, sons, and daughters; and ¹²took also a great deal of spoil from them, and they brought the spoil to Samaria.

9 But a prophet of the LORD was there, whose name was Oded; and ¹he went out to meet the army which came to Samaria and said to them, "Behold, because the LORD, the God of your fathers, ²was angry with Judah, He has delivered them into your hand, and you have slain them in a rage ³which has even reached heaven.

10 "And now you are proposing to ^asubjugate for yourselves the people of Judah and Jerusalem for male and female slaves. Surely, do you not have transgressions of your own against the LORD your God?

11 "Now therefore, listen to me and return the captives ^awhom you captured from your brothers, ^bfor the burning anger of the LORD is against you."

12 Then some of the heads of the sons of Ephraim—Azariah the son of Johanan, Berechiah the son of Meshillemoth, Jehizkiah the son of Shallum, and Amasa the son of Hadlai—arose against those who were coming from the battle.

13 and said to them, "You must not bring the captives in here, for you are proposing to bring upon us guilt against the LORD adding to our sins and our guilt; for our guilt is great so that His burning anger is against Israel."

14 So the armed men left the captives and the spoil before the officers and all the assembly.

15 Then ^athe men who were designated by name arose, took the captives, and they clothed all their naked ones from the spoil; and they gave them clothes and sandals, fed them and ^bgave them drink, anointed them with oil, led all their feeble ones on donkeys, and brought them to Jericho, ^cthe city of palm trees, to their brothers; then they returned to Samaria.

lages, and Gimzo with its villages, and they settled there.

19 For the LORD humbled Judah because of Ahaz king of ^aIsrael, for he had brought about a lack of restraint in Judah and was very unfaithful to the LORD.

20 So ^aTilgath-pilneser king of Assyria came against him and afflicted him instead of strengthening him.

21 ^aAnd Ahaz took a portion out of the house of the LORD and out of the palace of the king and of the princes, and gave it to the king of Assyria; but it did not help him.

22 ¶ Now in the time of his distress this same King Ahaz ^abecame yet more unfaithful to the LORD.

23 ^aFor he sacrificed to the gods of Damascus which had ¹defeated him, and said, ^b"Because the gods of the kings of Aram helped them, I will sacrifice to them that they may help me." But they became the ²downfall of him and all Israel.

24 Moreover, when Ahaz gathered together the utensils of the house of God, he ^acut the utensils of the house of God in pieces; and he ^bclosed the doors of the house of the LORD, and ^cmade altars for himself in every corner of Jerusalem.

25 And in every city of Judah he made high places to burn incense to other gods, and provoked the LORD, the God of his fathers, to anger.

26 ^aNow the rest of his acts and all his ways, from first to last, behold, they are written in the Book of the Kings of Judah and Israel.

27 ^aSo Ahaz slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the city, in Jerusalem, for they did not bring him into the tombs of the kings of ^bIsrael; and Hezekiah his son reigned in his place.

CHAPTER 29

HEZEKIAH became king when he was twenty-five years old; and he reigned twenty-nine years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Abijah, the daughter of Zechariah.

2 And ^ahe did right in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his father David had done.

3 ^aIn the first year of his reign, in the first month, he ^aopened the doors of the house of the LORD and repaired them.

4 And he brought in the priests and the Levites, and gathered them into the square on the east.

5 Then he said to them, "Listen to me, O Levites. ^aConsecrate yourselves now, and consecrate the house of the LORD, the God of your fathers, and carry the uncleanness out from the holy place.

6 "For our fathers have been unfaithful and have done evil in the sight of the LORD our God, and have forsaken Him and ^aturned their faces away from the dwelling place of the LORD, and have ^bturned their backs.

7 "They have also ^ashut the doors of the porch and put out the lamps, and have not burned incense or offered burnt offerings in the holy place to the God of Israel.

8 "Therefore ^athe wrath of the LORD was against Judah and Jerusalem, and He has made them an object of terror, of horror, and of ^bhissing, as you see with your own eyes.

9 "For behold, ^aour fathers have fallen by the sword, and our sons and our daughters and our wives are in captivity for this.

10 "Now it is in my heart ^ato make a covenant with the LORD God of Israel, that His burning anger may turn away from us.

11 "My sons, do not be negligent now, for ^athe LORD has chosen you to stand before Him, to minister to Him, and to be His ministers and burn incense."

12 ^a Then the Levites arose: ^aMahath, the son of Amasai and Joel the son of Azariah, from the sons of ^bthe Kohathites; and from the sons of Merari, Kish the son of Abdi and Azariah the son of Jehallelel; and from the Gershonites, Joah the son of Zim-mah and Eden the son of Joah;

13 and from the sons of Eliza-phan, Shimri and ¹Jei-el; and from the sons of Asaph, Zechariah and Mattaniah;

14 and from the sons of He-man, ¹Jehiel and Shimei; and from the sons of Jeduthun, Shemaiah and Uzziel.

15 And they assembled their brothers, ^aconsecrated them-selves, and went in ^bto cleanse the house of the LORD, according to the commandment of the king ^cby the words of the LORD.

16 So the priests went in to the inner part of the house of the LORD to cleanse it, and every un-clean thing which they found in the temple of the LORD they brought out to the court of the house of the LORD. Then the Le-vites received it to carry out to ^athe Kidron ¹valley.

17 Now they began ¹the conse-cration ^aon the first day of the first month, and on the eighth day of the month they entered the porch of the LORD. Then they consecrated the house of the LORD in eight days, and finished on the sixteenth day of the first month.

18 Then they went in to King Hezekiah and said, "We have cleansed the whole house of the LORD, the altar of burnt offering with all of its utensils, and the table of showbread with all of its utensils.

19 "Moreover, ^aall the utensils which King Ahaz had discarded during his reign in his unfaithfulness, we have prepared and consecrated; and behold, they are before the altar of the LORD."

20 ¶ Then King Hezekiah arose early and assembled the princes of the city and went up to the house of the LORD.

21 And they brought seven bulls, seven rams, seven lambs, and seven male goats ^afor a sin offering for the kingdom, the sanctuary, and Judah. And he ordered the priests, the sons of Aaron, to offer them on the altar of the LORD.

22 So they slaughtered the bulls, and the priests took the blood and sprinkled it on the altar. They also slaughtered the rams and sprinkled the blood on the altar; they slaughtered the lambs also and ^asprinkled the blood on the altar.

23 Then they brought the male goats of the sin offering before the king and the assembly, and ^athey laid their hands on them.

24 And the priests slaughtered them and purged the altar with their blood ^ato atone for all Israel, for the king ordered the burnt offering and the sin offering for all Israel.

25 ¶ ^aHe then stationed the Levites in the house of the LORD with cymbals, with harps, and with lyres, ^baccording to the command of David and of ^cGad the king's seer, and of ^dNathan the prophet; for the command was from the LORD through His prophets.

26 And the Levites stood with ^athe musical instruments of David, and ^bthe priests with the trumpets.

27 Then Hezekiah gave the order to offer the burnt offering on the altar. When the burnt offering began, ^athe song to the LORD also began with the trumpets, ¹accompanied by the instruments of David, king of Israel.

28 While the whole assembly worshiped, the singers also sang and the trumpets sounded; all this continued until the burnt offering was finished.

29 ¶ Now at the completion of the burnt offerings, ^athe king and all who were present with him bowed down and worshiped.

30 Moreover, King Hezekiah and the officials ordered the Levites to sing praises to the LORD with the words of David and Asaph the seer. ^aSo they sang praises with joy, and bowed down and worshiped.

31 Then Hezekiah answered and said, ^a"Now that you have ¹consecrated yourselves to the LORD, come near and bring sacrifices and thank offerings to the house of the LORD." And the assembly brought sacrifices and thank offerings, and ^ball those who were ²willing brought burnt offerings.

32 And the number of the burnt offerings which the assembly brought was 70 bulls, 100 rams, and 200 lambs; all these were for a burnt offering to the LORD.

33 And the consecrated things were 600 bulls and 3,000 sheep.

34 But the priests were too few, so that they were unable to skin all the burnt offerings; ^atherefore their brothers the Levites helped them until the work was completed, and until the other priests had consecrated themselves. For ^bthe Levites were more ¹conscientious to consecrate themselves than the priests.

35 And there were also ^{1a}many burnt offerings with ^bthe fat of the peace offerings and with ^cthe libations for the burnt offerings. Thus the service of the house of the LORD was established again.

36 Then Hezekiah and all the people rejoiced over what God had prepared for the people, because the thing came about suddenly.

CHAPTER 30

NOW Hezekiah sent to all Israel and Judah and wrote letters also to Ephraim and Manasseh, that they should come to the house of the LORD at Jerusalem to ¹celebrate the Passover to the LORD God of Israel.

2 For the king and his princes and all the assembly in Jerusalem had decided ^ato celebrate the Passover in the second month.

3 since they could not celebrate it ^aat that time, because the priests had not consecrated themselves in sufficient numbers, nor had the people been gathered to Jerusalem.

4 Thus the thing was right in the sight of the king and ¹all the assembly.

5 So they established a decree to circulate a ¹proclamation throughout all Israel ^afrom Beersheba even to Dan, that they should come to celebrate the Passover to the LORD God of Israel at Jerusalem. For they had not celebrated it in great numbers as it was ²prescribed.

6 And ^athe ¹couriers went throughout all Israel and Judah with the letters from the hand of the king and his princes, even according to the command of the king, saying, "O sons of Israel, return to the LORD God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, that He may return to those of you who escaped and are left from ^bthe ²hand of the kings of Assyria.

7" ^aAnd do not be like your fathers and your brothers, who were unfaithful to the LORD God of their fathers, so that ^bHe made them a horror, as you see.

8" Now do not ^astiffen your neck like your fathers, but ¹yield to the LORD and enter His sanctuary which He has consecrated forever, and serve the LORD your God, ^bthat His burning anger may turn away from you.

9" For ^aif you return to the LORD, your brothers and your sons will find compassion before those who led them captive, and will return to this land. ^bFor the LORD your God is gracious and compassionate, and will not turn His face away from you if you return to Him."

10 So the ¹couriers passed from city to city through the country of Ephraim and Manasseh, and as far as Zebulun, but ^athey laughed them to scorn, and mocked them.

11 Nevertheless ^asome men of Asher, Manasseh, and Zebulun humbled themselves and came to Jerusalem.

12 The ^ahand of God was also on Judah to give them one heart to do what the king and the princes commanded by the word of the LORD.

13 ¹ Now many people were gathered at Jerusalem to celebrate the Feast of Unleavened Bread ^ain the second month, a very large assembly.

14 And they arose and removed the altars which were in Jerusalem; they also ^aremoved all the incense altars and ^bcast them into the brook Kidron.

15 Then ^athey slaughtered the Passover lambs on the fourteenth of the second month. And ^bthe priests and Levites were ashamed of themselves and consecrated themselves, and brought burnt offerings to the house of the LORD.

16 And ^athey stood at their stations after their custom, according to the law of Moses the man of God; the priests sprinkled the blood which they received from the hand of the Levites.

17 For there were many in the assembly who had not consecrated themselves; therefore, ^athe Levites were over the slaughter of the Passover lambs for everyone who was unclean, in order to consecrate them to the LORD.

18 For a multitude of the people, ^aeven many from Ephraim and Manasseh, Issachar and Zebulun, had not purified themselves, ^byet they ate the Passover ^cotherwise than ¹prescribed. For Hezekiah prayed for them, saying, "May the good LORD pardon

19 ^aeveryone who prepares his heart to seek God, the LORD God of his fathers, though not according to the purification rules of the sanctuary."

20 So the LORD heard Hezekiah and ^ahealed the people.

21 And the sons of Israel present in Jerusalem ^acelebrated the Feast of Unleavened Bread for seven days with great joy, and the Levites and the priests praised the LORD day after day with loud instruments to the LORD.

22 Then Hezekiah ^aspoke ¹encouragingly to all the Levites who showed good insight in the things of the LORD. So they ate for the appointed seven days, sacrificing peace offerings and ^bgiving thanks to the LORD God of their fathers.

23 ¶ Then the whole assembly ^adecided to celebrate the feast another seven days, so they celebrated the seven days with joy.

24 For ^aHezekiah king of Judah had contributed to the assembly 1,000 bulls and 7,000 sheep, and the princes had contributed to the assembly 1,000 bulls and 10,000 sheep; and ^{ba} large number of priests consecrated themselves.

25 And all the assembly of Judah rejoiced, with the priests and the Levites, and ^aall the assembly that came from Israel, both the sojourners who came from the land of Israel and those living in Judah.

26 So there was great joy in Jerusalem, because there was nothing like this in Jerusalem ^asince the days of Solomon the son of David, king of Israel.

27 Then ^athe Levitical priests arose and ^bblessed the people; and their voice was heard and their prayer came to ^cHis holy dwelling place, to heaven.

CHAPTER 31

NOW when all this was finished, all Israel who were present went out to the cities of Judah, ^abroke the pillars in pieces, cut down the ¹Asherim, and pulled down the high places and the altars throughout all Judah and Benjamin, as well as in Ephraim and Manasseh, ²until they had destroyed them all. Then all the sons of Israel returned to their cities, each to his possession.

2 ¶ And Hezekiah appointed ^athe divisions of the priests and the Levites by their divisions, each according to his service, ^bboth the priests and the Levites, ^bfor burnt offerings and for peace offerings, to minister and to give thanks and to praise in the gates of the camp of the LORD.

3 He also appointed ^athe king's portion of his goods for the burnt offerings, namely, for the morning and evening burnt offerings, and the burnt offerings for the sabbaths and for the new moons and for the fixed festivals, ^{ba}as it is written in the law of the LORD.

4 Also he ¹commanded the people who lived in Jerusalem to give ^athe portion due to the priests and the Levites, that they might devote themselves to ^bthe law of the LORD.

5 And as soon as the ¹order spread, the sons of Israel provided in abundance the first fruits of grain, new wine, oil, honey, and of all the produce of the field; and they brought in abundantly ^athe tithe of all.

6 And the sons of Israel and Judah who lived in the cities of Judah, also brought in the tithe of oxen and sheep, and ^athe tithe of ¹sacred gifts which were consecrated to the LORD their God, and placed them in heaps.

7 In the third month they began to ¹make the heaps, and finished them by the seventh month.

8 And when Hezekiah and the rulers came and saw the heaps, they blessed the LORD and ^aHis people Israel.

9 Then Hezekiah questioned the priests and the Levites concerning the heaps.

10 And Azariah the chief priest ^aof the house of Zadok said to ¹him, "^bSince the contributions began to be brought into the house of the LORD, we have had enough to eat with plenty left over, for the LORD has blessed His people, and this great quantity is left over."

11 ¶ Then Hezekiah commanded them to prepare ^arooms in the house of the LORD, and they prepared them.

12 And they faithfully brought in the contributions and the tithes and the consecrated things; and Conaniah the Levite was the officer in charge ^aof them and his brother Shimei was second.

13 And Jehiel, Azaziah, Nathath, Asahel, Jerimoth, Jozabad, Eliel, Ismachiah, Mahath, and Benaiah were overseers ¹under the authority of Conaniah and Shimei his brother by the appointment of King Hezekiah, and ^aAzariah was the chief officer of the house of God.

14 And Kore the son of Imnah the Levite, the keeper of the eastern gate, was over the freewill offerings of God, to apportion the contributions for the LORD and the most holy things.

Shemaiah, Amariah, and Shecaniah in ^bthe cities of the priests, to distribute faithfully ^{their} portions to their brothers by divisions, whether great or small,

16 without regard to their genealogical enrollment, to the males from ¹a³thirty years old and upward—everyone who entered the house of the LORD ^bfor his daily obligations—for their work in their duties according to their divisions;

17 as well as the priests who were enrolled genealogically according to their fathers' households, and the Levites ^afrom twenty years old and upwards, by their duties and their divisions.

18 And the genealogical enrollment included ¹all their little children, their wives, their sons, and their daughters, for the whole assembly, for they consecrated themselves ²faithfully in holiness.

19 Also for the sons of Aaron the priests who were in ^athe pasture lands of their cities, or in each and every city, ^bthere were men who were designated by name to distribute portions to every male among the priests and to everyone genealogically enrolled among the Levites.

20 ¶ And thus Hezekiah did throughout all Judah; and ^ahe did what was good, right, and true before the LORD his God.

21 And every work which he began in the service of the house of God in law and in commandment, seeking his God, he did with all his heart and ^aprospered.

CHAPTER 32

AFTER these ¹acts of faithfulness ^aSennacherib king of Assyria came and invaded Judah and besieged the fortified cities, and ²thought to break into them for himself.

2 Now when Hezekiah saw that Sennacherib had come, and that he intended to make war on Jerusalem.

3 he decided with his officers and his warriors to cut off the supply of water from the springs which were outside the city, and they helped him.

4 So many people assembled and stopped up all the springs and the stream which flowed through the region, saying, "Why should the kings of Assyria come and find abundant water?"

5 And he took courage and rebuilt all the wall that had been broken down, and erected towers on it, and built another outside wall, and strengthened the Millo in the city of David, and made weapons and shields in great number.

6 And he appointed military officers over the people, and gathered them to him in the square at the city gate, and spoke encouragingly to them, saying,

7 "Be strong and courageous, do not fear or be dismayed because of the king of Assyria, nor because of all the multitude which is with him; for the one with us is greater than the one with him.

8 "With him is only an arm of flesh, but with us is the LORD our God to help us and to fight our battles." And the people relied on the words of Hezekiah king of Judah.

9 After this Sennacherib king of Assyria sent his servants to Jerusalem while he was besieging Lachish with all his forces with him, against Hezekiah king of Judah and against all Judah who were at Jerusalem, saying,

10 "Thus says Sennacherib king of Assyria, 'On what are you trusting that you are remaining in Jerusalem under siege?

12 "Has not the same Hezekiah taken away His high places and His altars, and said to Judah and Jerusalem, 'You shall worship before one altar, and on it you shall burn incense'?"

13 "Do you not know what I and my fathers have done to all the peoples of the lands? Were the gods of the nations of the lands able at all to deliver their land from my hand?"

14 "Who was there among all the gods of those nations which my fathers utterly destroyed who could deliver his people out of my hand, that your God should be able to deliver you from my hand?"

15 "Now therefore, do not let Hezekiah deceive you or mislead you like this, and do not believe him, for no god of any nation or kingdom was able to deliver his people from my hand or from the hand of my fathers. How much less shall your God deliver you from my hand?"

17 He also wrote letters to insult the LORD God of Israel, and to speak against Him, saying, "As the gods of the nations of the lands have not delivered their people from my hand, so the God of Hezekiah shall not deliver His people from my hand."

18 And they called this out with a loud voice in the language of Judah to the people of Jerusalem who were on the wall, to frighten and terrify them, so that they might take the city.

19 And they spoke of the God of Jerusalem as of the gods of the peoples of the earth, the work of men's hands.

20 ¶ But King Hezekiah and Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz, prayed about this and cried out to heaven.

21 And the LORD sent an angel who destroyed every mighty warrior, commander and officer in the camp of the king of Assyria. So he returned ¹in shame to his own land. And when he had entered the temple of his god, some of his own children killed him there with the sword.

22 So the LORD ^asaved Hezekiah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem from the hand of Sennacherib the king of Assyria, and from the hand of all others, and ¹guided them on every side.

23 And ^amany were bringing gifts to the LORD at Jerusalem and choice presents to Hezekiah king of Judah, so that ^bhe was exalted in the sight of all nations thereafter.

24 ¶ ^aIn those days Hezekiah became ¹mortally ill; and he prayed to the LORD, and ²the LORD spoke to him and gave him a sign.

25 But Hezekiah gave no return for the benefit ¹he received, ^abecause his heart was ²proud; ^btherefore wrath came on him and on Judah and Jerusalem.

26 However, ^aHezekiah ¹humiliated the pride of his heart, both he and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, so that the wrath of the LORD did not come on them in the days of Hezekiah.

27 ¶ Now Hezekiah had immense riches and honor; and he made for himself treasuries for silver, gold, precious stones, spices, shields and all kinds of valuable articles.

28 storehouses also for the produce of grain, wine and oil, pens for all kinds of cattle and ¹sheepfolds for the flocks.

had given him very great ¹wealth.

30 It was Hezekiah who ^astopped the upper outlet of the waters of ^bGihon and directed them to the west side of the city of David. And Hezekiah prospered in all that he did.

31 And even in the matter of ^athe envoys of the rulers of Babylon, who sent to him to inquire of ^bthe wonder that had happened in the land, God left him alone only ^cto test him, that He might know all that was in his heart.

32 ¶ Now the rest of the acts of Hezekiah and his deeds of devotion, behold, they are written in the vision of Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz, in the Book of the Kings of Judah and Israel.

33 So Hezekiah slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the ¹upper section of the tombs of the sons of David; and all Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem ^ahonored him at his death. And his son Manasseh became king in his place.

CHAPTER 33

^aMANASSEH was twelve years old when he became king, and he reigned fifty-five years in Jerusalem.

2 And ^ahe did evil in the sight of the LORD according to the abominations of the nations whom the LORD dispossessed before the sons of Israel.

3 For ^ahe rebuilt the high places which Hezekiah his father had broken down; ^bhe also erected altars for the Baals and made ¹Asherim, and worshiped all the host of heaven and served them.

4 And ^ahe built altars in the house of the LORD of which the LORD had said, "My name shall be ^bin Jerusalem forever."

5 For he built altars for all the host of heaven in ^athe two courts of the house of the LORD.

6 And ^ahe made his sons pass through the fire in the valley of Ben-hinnom; and he practiced witchcraft, used divination, practiced sorcery, and ^bdealt with mediums and spiritists. He did much evil in the sight of the LORD, provoking Him to anger.

7 Then he put ^athe carved image of the idol which he had made in the house of God, of which God had said to David and to Solomon his son, "In this house and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen from all the tribes of Israel, I will put My name forever;

8 and I will not again remove the foot of Israel from the land ^awhich I have appointed for your fathers, if only they will observe to do all that I have commanded them according to all the law, the statutes, and the ordinances given through Moses."

9 Thus Manasseh misled Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem to do more evil than the nations whom the LORD destroyed before the sons of Israel.

10 ¶ And the LORD spoke to Manasseh and his people, but ^athey paid no attention.

11 ^aTherefore the LORD brought the commanders of the army of the king of Assyria against them, and they captured Manasseh with ¹hooks, ^bbound him with bronze chains, and took him to Babylon.

12 And when ^ahe was in distress, he entreated the LORD his God and ^bhumiliated himself greatly before the God of his fathers.

13 When he prayed to Him, ^aHe was moved by his entreaty and heard his supplication, and brought him again to Jerusalem to his kingdom. Then Manasseh ^bknew that the LORD was God.

14 ¶ Now after this he built the outer wall of the city of David on the west side of ^aGihon, in the valley, even to the entrance of the ^bFish Gate; and he encircled the ^cOphel with it and made it very high. Then he put army commanders in all the fortified cities of Judah.

15 He also ^aremoved the foreign gods and the idol from the house of the LORD, as well as all the altars which he had built on the mountain of the house of the LORD and in Jerusalem, and he threw them outside the city.

16 And he set up the altar of the LORD and sacrificed ^apeace offerings and thank offerings on it; and he ordered Judah to serve the LORD God of Israel.

17 Nevertheless ^athe people still sacrificed in the high places, although only to the LORD their God.

18 ¶ Now the rest of the acts of Manasseh even ^ahis prayer to his God, and the words of ^bthe seers who spoke to him in the name of the LORD God of Israel, behold, they are among the records of the kings of ^cIsrael.

19 His prayer also and ^ahow God was entreated by him, and all his sin, his unfaithfulness, and ^bthe sites on which he built high places and erected the Asherim and the carved images, before he humbled himself, behold, they are written in the records of the ¹Hozai.

20 So Manasseh slept with his fathers, and they buried him in his own house. And Amon his son became king in his place.

21 ¶ ^aAmon was twenty-two years old when he became king, and he reigned two years in Jerusalem.

22 And he did evil in the sight of the LORD as Manasseh his father ^ahad done, and Amon sacrificed to all ^bthe carved images which his father Manasseh had made, and he served them.

23 Moreover, he did not humble himself before the LORD ^aas his father Manasseh had ¹done, but Amon multiplied guilt.

24 Finally ^ahis servants conspired against him and put him to death in his own house.

25 But the people of the land ¹killed all the conspirators against King Amon, and the people of the land made Josiah his son king in his place.

CHAPTER 34

^aJOSIAH was eight years old when he became king, and he reigned thirty-one years in Jerusalem.

2 And ^ahe did right in the sight of the LORD, and walked in the ways of his father David and did not turn aside to the right or to the left.

3 For in the eighth year of his reign while he was still a youth, he began to ^aseek the God of his father David; and in the twelfth year he began ^bto purge Judah and Jerusalem of the high places, the Asherim, the carved images, and the molten images.

4 And they tore down the altars of the Baals in his presence, and ^athe incense altars that were high above them he chopped down; also the Asherim, the carved images, and the molten images he broke in pieces and ^bground to powder and scattered it on the graves of those who had sacrificed to them.

5 Then ^ahe burned the bones of the priests on their altars, and purged Judah and Jerusalem.

6 And ^ain the cities of Manasseh, Ephraim, Simeon, even as far as Naphtali, in their surrounding ruins,

7 he also tore down the altars and ^abeat the Asherim and the carved images into powder, and chopped down all the incense altars throughout the land of Israel. Then he returned to Jerusalem.

8 ¶ ^aNow in the eighteenth year of his reign, when he had purged the land and the house, he sent Shaphan the son of Aza-liah, and Maaseiah ^ban official of the city, and Joah the son of Joahaz the recorder, to repair the house of the LORD his God.

9 And they came to ^aHilkiah the high priest and delivered the money that was brought into the house of God, which the Levites, the ¹doorkeepers, had collected ²from ^bManasseh and Ephraim, and from all the remnant of Israel, and from all Judah and Benjamin and the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

10 Then they gave it into the hands of the workmen who had the oversight of the house of the LORD, and the workmen who were working in the house of the LORD ¹used it to restore and repair the house.

11 They in turn gave it to the carpenters and to the builders to buy quarried stone and timber for couplings and to make beams for the houses ^awhich the kings of Judah had let go to ruin.

12 And ^athe men did the work faithfully with foremen over them to supervise: Jahath and Obadiah, the Levites of the sons of Merari, Zechariah and Meshullam of the sons of the Kohathites, and ^bthe Levites, all who were skillful with musical instruments.

13 They were also over ^athe burden bearers, and supervised all the workmen from job to job; and some of the Levites were scribes and officials and gatekeepers.

14 ¶ When they were bringing out the money which had been brought into the house of the LORD, ^aHilkiah the priest found the book of the law of the LORD given by Moses.

15 And Hilkiah responded and said to Shaphan the scribe, "I have found the book of the law in the house of the LORD." And Hilkiah gave the book to Shaphan.

16 Then Shaphan brought the book to the king and ¹reported

17 "They have also emptied out the money which was found in the house of the LORD, and have delivered it into the hands of the supervisors and the workmen."

18 Moreover, Shaphan the scribe told the king saying, "Hilkiah the priest gave me a book." And Shaphan read from it in the presence of the king.

19 And it came about when the king heard ^athe words of the law that ^bhe tore his clothes.

20 Then the king commanded Hilkiah, Ahikam the son of Shaphan, ¹Abdon the son of Micah, Shaphan the scribe, and Asaiah the king's servant, saying,

21 "Go, inquire of the LORD for me and for those who are left in Israel and in Judah, concerning the words of the book which has been found; for ^agreat is the wrath of the LORD which is poured out on us because our fathers have not observed the word of the LORD, to do according to all that is written in this book."

22 ¶ So Hilkiah and those whom the king ¹had told went to Huldah the prophetess, the wife of Shallum the son of ²Tokhath, the son of Hasrah, the keeper of the wardrobe (now she lived in Jerusalem in the Second Quarter); and they spoke to her regarding this.

23 And she said to them, "Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, 'Tell the man who sent you to Me, 24 thus says the LORD, "Behold, ^aI am bringing evil on this place and on its inhabitants, even all ^bthe curses written in the book which they have read in the presence of the king of Judah.

26 "But to the king of Judah who sent you to inquire of the LORD, thus you will say to him, 'Thus says the LORD God of Israel regarding the words which you have heard,

27 "Because your heart was tender and you humbled yourself before God, when you heard His words against this place and against its inhabitants, and because you humbled yourself before Me, tore your clothes, and wept before Me, I truly have heard you," declares the LORD.

28 "Behold, I will gather you to your fathers and you shall be gathered to your grave in peace, so your eyes shall not see all the evil which I will bring on this place and on its inhabitants." "And they brought back word to the king.

29 ¶ Then the king sent and gathered all the elders of Judah and Jerusalem.

30 And the king went up to the house of the LORD and ^aall the men of Judah, the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the priests, the Levites, and all the people, from the greatest to the least; and he read in their hearing all the words of the book of the covenant which was found in the house of the LORD.

31 Then the king ^astood in his place and ^bmade a covenant before the LORD to walk after the LORD, and to keep His commandments and His testimonies and His statutes with all his heart and with all his soul, to perform the words of the covenant written in this book.

32 Moreover, he made all who were present in Jerusalem and Benjamin to stand with him. So the inhabitants of Jerusalem did according to the covenant of God, the God of their fathers.

33 And Josiah ^aremoved all the abominations from all the lands belonging to the sons of Israel, and made all who were present in Israel to serve the LORD their God. Throughout his ¹lifetime they did not turn from following the LORD God of their fathers.

CHAPTER 35

THEN Josiah ^acelebrated the Passover to the LORD in Jerusalem, and ^bthey slaughtered the Passover animals on the fourteenth day of the first month.

2 And he set the priests in their offices and ^aencouraged them in the service of the house of the LORD.

3 He also said to ^athe Levites who taught all Israel and who were holy to the LORD, "Put the holy ark in the house which Solomon the son of David king of Israel built; ^bit will be a burden on your shoulders no longer. Now serve the LORD your God and His people Israel.

4 "And ^aprepare yourselves by your fathers' households in your divisions, according to the writing of David king of Israel and ^baccording to the writing of his son Solomon.

5 "Moreover, ^astand in the holy place according to the sections of the fathers' households of your brethren the ¹lay people, and according to the Levites, by division of a father's household.

6 "Now ^aslaughter the Passover animals, ^bsanctify yourselves, and prepare for your brethren to do according to the word of the LORD by Moses."

7 [¶] And Josiah contributed to the lay people, to all who were present, flocks of lambs and kids, all for the Passover offerings, numbering 30,000 plus 3,000 bulls; these were from the king's possessions.

8 His officers also contributed a freewill offering to the people, the priests, and the Levites. Hilkiah and Zechariah and Jehiel, ^athe officials of the house of God, gave to the priests for the Passover offerings 2,600 from the flocks and 300 bulls.

9 ^aConaniah also, and Shemaiah and Nethanel, his brothers, and Hashabiah and Jeiel and Jozabad, the officers of the Levites, contributed to the Levites for the Passover offerings 5,000 from the flocks and 500 bulls.

10 [¶] So the service was prepared, and ^athe priests stood at their stations and the Levites by their divisions according to the king's command.

11 And ^{1a}they slaughtered the Passover animals, and while ^bthe priests sprinkled ²the blood received from their hand, ^cthe Levites skinned them.

12 Then they removed the burnt offerings that they might give them to the sections of the fathers' households of the lay people to present to the LORD, as it is written in the book of Moses. They did this also with the bulls.

13 So ^athey roasted the Passover animals on the fire according to the ordinance, and they boiled ^bthe holy things in pots, in kettles, in pans, and carried them speedily to all the lay people.

14 And afterwards they prepared for themselves and for the priests, because the priests, the sons of Aaron, were offering the burnt offerings and the fat until night; therefore the Levites prepared for themselves and for the priests, the sons of Aaron.

15 The singers, the sons of Asaph, were also at their stations ^aaccording to the command of David, Asaph, Heman, and Jeduthun the king's seer; and ^bthe gatekeepers at each gate did not have to depart from their service, because the Levites their brethren prepared for them.

16 ¶ So all the service of the LORD was prepared on that day to celebrate the Passover, and to offer burnt offerings on the altar of the LORD according to the command of King Josiah.

17 Thus ^athe sons of Israel who were present celebrated the Passover at that time, and the Feast of Unleavened Bread seven days.

18 And ^athere had not been celebrated a Passover like it in Israel since the days of Samuel the prophet; nor had any of the kings of Israel celebrated such a Passover as Josiah did with the priests, the Levites, all Judah and Israel who were present, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

19 In the eighteenth year of Josiah's reign this Passover was celebrated.

20 ¶ ^aAfter all this, when Josiah had set the ¹temple in order, Neco king of Egypt came up to make war at ^bCarchemish on the Euphrates, and Josiah went out to engage him.

21 But ¹Neco sent messengers to him, saying, "^aWhat have we to do with each other, O King of Judah? I am not coming against you today but against the house with which I am at war, and God has ordered me to hurry. Stop for your own sake from interfering with God who is with me, that He may not destroy you."

22 However, Josiah would not turn ¹away from him, but ^adisguised himself in order to make war with him; nor did he listen to the words of Neco ^bfrom the mouth of God, but came to make war on the plain of ^cMegiddo.

23 And the archers shot King Josiah, and the king said to his servants, "Take me away, for I am badly wounded."

25 Then ^aJeremiah chanted a lament for Josiah. And all the male and female singers speak about Josiah in their lamentations to this day. And they made them an ordinance in Israel; behold, they are also written in the Lamentations.

26 Now the rest of the acts of Josiah and his deeds of devotion as written in the law of the LORD, 27 and his acts, first to last, behold, they are written in the Book of the Kings of Israel and Judah.

CHAPTER 36

^a THEN the people of the land took ^{1b}Joahaz the son of Josiah, and made him king in place of his father in Jerusalem.

2 Joahaz was twenty-three years old when he became king, and he reigned three months in Jerusalem.

3 Then the king of Egypt deposed him at Jerusalem, and imposed on the land a fine of one hundred talents of silver and one talent of gold.

4 And the king of Egypt made Eliakim his brother king over Judah and Jerusalem, and changed his name to Jehoiakim. But ^aNeco took Joahaz his brother and brought him to Egypt.

5 ^aJehoiakim was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem; and he did evil in the sight of the LORD his God.

6 Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came up ^aagainst him and ^bbound him with bronze chains to take him to Babylon.

7 ^aNebuchadnezzar also brought some of the articles of the house of the LORD to Babylon and put them in his temple at Babylon.

8 ^aNow the rest of the acts of Jehoiakim and ¹the abominations which he did, and what was found against him, behold, they are written in the Book of the Kings of Israel and Judah. And Jehoiachin his son became king in his place.

9 ¶ ^aJehoiachin was eight years old when he became king, and he reigned three months and ten days in Jerusalem, and he did evil in the sight of the LORD.

10 And ^aat the turn of the year King Nebuchadnezzar sent and brought him to Babylon with the valuable articles of the house of the LORD, and he made his kinsman ^bZedekiah king over Judah and Jerusalem.

11 ^aZedekiah was twenty-one years old when he became king, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem.

12 And he did evil in the sight of the LORD his God; ^ahe did not humble himself ^bbefore Jeremiah the prophet ^cwho spoke for the LORD.

13 And ^ahe also rebelled against King Nebuchadnezzar who had made him swear allegiance by God. But ^bhe stiffened his neck and hardened his heart against turning to the LORD God of Israel.

14 Furthermore, all the officials of the priests and the people were very unfaithful following all the abominations of the nations; and they defiled the house of the LORD which He had sanctified in Jerusalem.

15 And the LORD, the God of their fathers, ^asent word to them again and again by His messengers, because He had compassion on His people and on His dwelling place;

16 but they continually ^amocked the messengers of God, ^bdespised His words and scoffed at His prophets, ^cuntil the wrath of the LORD arose against His people, until there was no remedy.

17 ^aTherefore He brought up against them the king of the Chaldeans who slew their young men with the sword in the house of their sanctuary, and had no compassion on young man or virgin, old man or infirm; He gave them all into his hand.

18 And ^aall the articles of the house of God, great and small, and the treasures of the house of the LORD, and the treasures of the king and of his officers, he brought them all to Babylon.

19 Then ^athey burned the house of God, and broke down the wall of Jerusalem and burned all its fortified buildings with fire, and destroyed all its valuable articles.

20 And those who had escaped from the sword he ^acarried away to Babylon; and ^bthey were servants to him and to his sons until the rule of the kingdom of Persia.

21 ^ato fulfill the word of the LORD by the mouth of Jeremiah, until ^bthe land had enjoyed its sabbaths. ^cAll the days of its desolation it kept sabbath ^duntil seventy years were complete.

22 ¶ ^aNow in the first year of Cyrus king of Persia—in order to fulfill the word of the LORD ^bby the mouth of Jeremiah—the LORD ^cstirred up the spirit of Cyrus king of Persia, so that he sent a proclamation throughout his kingdom, and also put it in writing, saying,

23 "Thus says Cyrus king of Persia, 'The LORD, the God of heaven, has given me all the kingdoms of the earth, and He has appointed me to build Him a house in Jerusalem, which is in Judah. Whoever there is among you of all His people, may the LORD his God be with him, and let him go up!'"

THE BOOK OF EZRA

Cyrus' Proclamation

^a NOW in the first year of Cyrus king of Persia, in order to fulfill the word of the LORD by the mouth of Jeremiah, the LORD stirred up the spirit of Cyrus king of Persia, so that he ^bsent a proclamation throughout all his kingdom, and also put it in writing, saying.

2 "Thus says Cyrus king of Persia, 'The LORD, the God of heaven, has given me all the kingdoms of the earth, and ^aHe has appointed me to build Him a house in Jerusalem, which is in Judah.

3 'Whoever there is among you of all His people, may his God be with him! Let him go up to Jerusalem which is in Judah, and rebuild the house of the LORD, the God of Israel; ^aHe is the God who is in Jerusalem.

4 'And every survivor, at whatever place he may ¹live, let the men of ²that place support him with silver and gold, with goods and cattle, together with a free-will offering for the house of God which is in Jerusalem.' "

6 And all those about them ¹encouraged them with articles of silver, with gold, with goods, with cattle, and with valuables, aside from all that was given as a freewill offering.

8 and Cyrus, king of Persia, had them brought out by the hand of Mithredath the treasurer, and he counted them out to ^aSheshbazzar, the prince of Judah.

9 Now this was their number: 30 ^agold dishes, 1,000 silver dishes, 29 ¹duplicates;

10 30 gold bowls, 410 silver bowls of a second kind, and 1,000 other articles.

11 All the articles of gold and silver numbered 5,400. Sheshbazzar brought them all up with the exiles who went up from Babylon to Jerusalem.

CHAPTER 2

^a NOW these are the ¹people of the province who came up out of the captivity of the exiles whom Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon had carried away to Babylon, and returned to Jerusalem and Judah, each to his city.

2 ¹These came with Zerubbabel, Jeshua, Nehemiah, ²Seraiah, ³Reelaiah, Mordecai, Bilshan, ⁴Mispar, Bigvai, ⁵Rehum, and Baanah.

 58 All the temple servants, and the sons of Solomon's servants, were 392.
 59 ¶ Now these are those who came up from Tel-melah, Tel-harsha, Cherub, Addan, and Immer, but they were not able to give evidence of their fathers' households, and their descendants, whether they were of Israel:
 60 the sons of Delaiah, the sons of Tobiah, the sons of Nekoda, 652.
 61 And of the sons of the priests: the sons of Habaiah, the sons of Hakkoz, the sons of Barzillai, who took a wife from the daughters of Barzillai the Gileadite, and he was called by their name.
 62 These searched among their ancestral registration, but they could not be located; *therefore they were considered unclean and excluded from the priesthood.

63 And the ¹governor said to them ^athat they should not eat from the most holy things until a priest stood up with ^bUrim and Thummim.

64 ¶ The whole assembly ¹numbered 42,360,

65 besides their male and female servants, ¹who numbered 7,337; and they had 200 ^asinging men and women.

66 Their horses were 736; their mules, 245;

4 And they celebrated the ^aFeast of ¹Booths, ^bas it is written, and offered ²the fixed number of burnt offerings daily, ^caccording to the ordinance, as each day required;

5 and afterward there was a ^acontinual burnt offering, also ^bfor the new moons and ^cfor all the fixed festivals of the LORD that were consecrated, and from everyone who offered a freewill offering to the LORD.

6 From the first day of the seventh month they began to offer burnt offerings to the LORD, but the foundation of the temple of the LORD had not been laid.

7 Then they gave money to the masons and carpenters, and ^afood, drink, and oil to the Sidonians and to the Tyrians, ^bto bring cedar wood from Lebanon to the sea at ^cJoppa, according to the permission they had ¹from ^dCyrus king of Persia.

8 Now in the second year of their coming to the house of God at Jerusalem in the second month, ^aZerubbabel the son of Shealtiel and Jeshua the son of Jozadak and the rest of their brothers the priests and the Levites, and all who came from the captivity to Jerusalem, began the work and ^bappointed the Levites from twenty years and older to oversee the work of the house of the LORD.

9 Then ^aJeshua with his sons and brothers stood united with Kadmiel and his sons, the sons of ¹Judah and the sons of Henadad with their sons and brothers the Levites, to oversee the workmen in the temple of God.

10 Now when the builders had ^alaid the foundation of the temple of the LORD, ¹the priests stood in their apparel with trumpets, and the Levites, the sons of Asaph, with cymbals, to praise the LORD ^baccording to the ²directions of King David of Israel.

11 And ^athey sang, praising and giving thanks to the LORD, saying, "^bFor He is good, for His lovingkindness is upon Israel forever." And all the people shouted with a great shout when they praised the LORD because the foundation of the house of the LORD was laid.

12 Yet many of the priests and Levites and heads of fathers' households, ^athe old men who had seen the first ¹temple, wept with a loud voice when the foundation of this house was laid before their eyes, while many shouted aloud for joy;

13 so that the people could not distinguish the sound of the shout of joy from the sound of the weeping of the people, for the people shouted with a loud shout, and the sound was heard far away.

CHAPTER 4

NOW when ^athe enemies of Judah and Benjamin heard that ^bthe people of the exile were building a temple to the LORD God of Israel,

2 they approached Zerubbabel and the heads of fathers' households, and said to them, "Let us build with you, for we, like you, seek your God; ^aand we have been sacrificing to Him since the days of ^bEsarhaddon king of Assyria, who brought us up here."

3 But Zerubbabel and Jeshua and the rest of the heads of fathers' households of Israel said to them, "^aYou have nothing in common with us in building a house to our God; but we ourselves will together build to the LORD God of Israel, ^bas King Cyrus, the king of Persia has commanded us."

4 Then ^athe people of the land ¹discouraged the people of Judah, and frightened them from building.

6 ¶ Now in the reign of ¹Ahasuerus, in the beginning of his reign, they wrote an accusation against the inhabitants of Judah and Jerusalem.

7 ¶ And in the days of ¹Artaxerxes, Bishlam, Mithredath, Ta-beel, and the rest of his colleagues, wrote to Artaxerxes king of Persia; and the ²text of the letter was written in Aramaic and translated ^afrom Aramaic.

8 ¹Rehum the commander and Shimshai the scribe wrote a letter against Jerusalem to King Artaxerxes, as follows—

9 then wrote Rehum the commander and Shimshai the scribe and ^athe rest of their colleagues, the judges and ^bthe lesser governors, the officials, the secretaries, the men of Erech, the Babylonians, the men of Susa, that is, the Elamites,

10 and the rest of the nations which the great and honorable ¹Osnappar deported and settled in the city of Samaria, and in the rest of the region beyond the ²River. ^aAnd now

11 this is the copy of the letter which they sent to him: "To King Artaxerxes: Your servants, the men in the region beyond the River, and now

12 let it be known to the king, that the Jews who came up from you have come to us at Jerusalem; they are rebuilding ^athe rebellious and evil city, and ^bare finishing the walls and repairing the foundations.

13 "Now let it be known to the king, that if that city is rebuilt and the walls are finished, ^athey will not pay tribute, custom, or toll, and it will damage the revenue of the kings.

14 "Now because we are in the service of the palace, and it is not fitting for us to see the king's dishonor, therefore we have sent and informed the king.

15 so that a search may be made in the record books of your fathers. And you will discover in the record books, and learn that that city is a rebellious city and damaging to kings and provinces, and that they have incited revolt within it in past days; therefore that city was laid waste.

16 "We inform the king that, if that city is rebuilt and the walls finished, as a result you will have no possession in the province beyond the River."

17 ¶ Then the king sent an answer to Rehum the commander, to Shimshai the scribe, and to the rest of their colleagues who live in Samaria and in the rest of the provinces beyond the River: "Peace. And now

18 the document which you sent to us has been translated and read before me.

19 "And a decree has been issued by me, and a search has been made and it has been discovered that that city has risen up against the kings in past days, that rebellion and revolt have been perpetrated in it,

20 that mighty kings have ruled over Jerusalem, governing all the provinces beyond the River, and that tribute, custom, and toll were paid to them.

21 "So, now issue a decree to make these men stop work, that the city may not be rebuilt until a decree is issued by me.

22 "And beware of being negligent in carrying out this matter; why should damage increase to the detriment of the kings?"

Jerusalem to the Jews and stopped them by force of arms.

24 ¶ Then work on the house of God in Jerusalem ceased, and it was stopped until the second year of the reign of Darius king of Persia.

CHAPTER 5

WHEN the prophets, ^aHaggai the prophet and ^bZechariah the son of Iddo, prophesied to the Jews who were in Judah and Jerusalem, in the name of the God of Israel, who was over them,

2 then ^aZerubbabel the son of Shealtiel and Jeshua the son of Jozadak arose and began to rebuild the house of God which is in Jerusalem; and ^bthe prophets of God were with them supporting them.

3 At that time ^aTattenai, the governor of the province beyond the River, and Shethar-bozenai and their colleagues came to them and spoke to them thus, "Who issued you a decree to rebuild this temple and to finish this structure?"

4 "Then we told them accordingly what the names of the men were who were reconstructing this building.

5 But ^athe eye of their God was on the elders of the Jews, and they did not stop them until a report should come to Darius, and then a written reply be returned concerning it.

6 ¶ This is the copy of the letter which ^aTattenai, the governor of the province beyond the River, and Shethar-bozenai and his colleagues ^bthe officials, who were beyond the River, sent to Darius the king.

7 They sent a report to him in which it was written thus: "To Darius the king, all peace.

8 "Let it be known to the king, that we have gone to the province of Judah, to the house of the great God, which is being built with huge stones, and ¹beams are being laid in the walls; and this work is going on with great care and is succeeding in their hands.

9 "Then we asked those elders and said to them thus, 'Who issued you a decree to rebuild this temple and to finish this structure?'

10 "We also asked them their names so as to inform you, and that we might write down the names of the men who were at their head.

11 "And thus they ¹answered us, saying, 'We are the servants of the God of heaven and earth and are rebuilding the temple that was built many years ago, ^awhich a great king of Israel built and finished.

12 'But ^abecause our fathers had provoked the God of heaven to wrath, ^bHe gave them into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, the Chaldean, who destroyed this temple and deported the people to Babylon.

13 'However, ^ain the first year of Cyrus king of Babylon, King Cyrus ^bissued a decree to rebuild this house of God.

14 'And also ^athe gold and silver utensils of the house of God which Nebuchadnezzar had taken from the temple ¹in Jerusalem, and brought them to the temple of Babylon, these King Cyrus took from the temple of Babylon, and they were given to one ^bwhose name was Sheshbazzar, whom he had appointed governor.

15 'And he said to him, "Take these utensils, go and deposit them in the temple ¹in Jerusalem, and let the house of God be rebuilt in its place."

16 'Then that Sheshbazzar came and ^alaid the foundations of the house of God ¹in Jerusalem; and from then until now it has been under construction, and it is ^bnot yet completed.'

CHAPTER 6

THEN King Darius issued a decree, and ^asearch was made in the ¹archives, where the treasures were stored in Babylon.

2 And in ¹Ecbatana in the fortress, which is ^ain the province of Media, a scroll was found and there was written in it as follows: "Memorandum—

3 "In the first year of King Cyrus, Cyrus the king issued a decree: 'Concerning the house of God at Jerusalem, let the temple, the place where sacrifices are offered, be rebuilt and let its foundations be ¹retained, its height being 60 cubits and its width 60 cubits;

4 ^awith three layers of huge stones, and ¹one layer of timbers. And let the cost be paid from the ²royal treasury.

5 'And also let ^athe gold and silver utensils of the temple of God, which Nebuchadnezzar took from the temple in Jerusalem and brought to Babylon, be returned and ¹brought to their places in the temple in Jerusalem; and you shall put them in the house of God.'

6 ¶ "Now therefore, ^aTattenai, governor of the province beyond the ¹River, Shethar-bozenai, and ²your colleagues, the officials of the provinces beyond the ¹River, ³keep away from there.

7 "Leave this work on the house of God alone; let the governor of the Jews and the elders of the Jews rebuild this house of God on its site.

8 "Moreover, ^aI issue a decree concerning what you are to do for these elders of Judah in the rebuilding of this house of God: the full cost is to be paid to these people from the royal treasury out of the taxes of the provinces beyond the River, and that without delay.

9^a And whatever is needed, both young bulls, rams, and lambs for a burnt offering to the God of heaven, and wheat, salt, wine, and anointing oil, as the priests in Jerusalem request, it is to be given to them daily without fail.

10 that they may offer ¹acceptable sacrifices to the God of heaven and ^apray for the life of the king and his sons.

11^a And I issued a decree that ^aany man who violates this edict, a timber shall be drawn from his house and he shall be impaled on it and ^bhis house shall be made a refuse heap on account of this.

12^a And may the God who ^ahas caused His name to dwell there overthrow any king or people who ¹attempts to change it, so as to destroy this house of God in Jerusalem. I, Darius, have issued this decree, let it be carried out with all diligence!"

13 ¶ Then ^aTattenai, the governor of the province beyond the River, Shethar-bozenai, and their colleagues carried out the decree with all diligence, just as King Darius had sent.

14 And ^athe elders of the Jews ¹were successful in building through the prophesying of Haggai the prophet and Zechariah the son of Iddo. And ²they finished building according to the command of the God of Israel and the decree ^bof Cyrus, ^cDarius, and ^dArtaxerxes king of Persia.

15 And this temple was completed ¹on the third day of the ^amonth Adar; it was the sixth year of the reign of King Darius.

the priests, the Levites, and the rest of the ¹exiles, ^acelebrated the dedication of this house of God with joy.

17 And they offered for the dedication of this temple of God 100 bulls, 200 rams, 400 lambs, and as a sin offering for all Israel ^a12 male goats, corresponding to the number of the tribes of Israel.

18 Then they appointed the priests to ^atheir divisions and the Levites in ^btheir orders for the service of God in Jerusalem, ^cas it is written in the book of Moses.

19 ¶ And ^athe exiles observed the Passover on ^bthe fourteenth of the first month.

20 ^aFor the priests and the Levites had purified themselves together; all of them were pure. Then ^bthey slaughtered the Passover lamb for all the exiles, both for their brothers the priests and for themselves.

21 And the sons of Israel who returned from exile and ^aall those who had separated themselves from ^bthe impurity of the nations of the land to join them, to seek the LORD God of Israel, ate the Passover.

22 And ^athey observed the Feast of Unleavened Bread seven days with joy, for the LORD had caused them to rejoice, and ^bhad turned the heart of ^cthe king of Assyria toward them to encourage them in the work of the house of God, the God of Israel.

CHAPTER 7

^a NOW after these things, in the reign of ^bArtaxerxes king of Persia, there went up Ezra son of Seraiah, son of Azariah, son of Hilkiah,

2 son of Shallum, son of Zadok, son of Ahitub,

3 son of Amariah, son of Azariah, son of Meraioth,

4 son of Zerariah, son of Uzzi, son of Bukki,

5 son of Abishua, son of Phinehas, son of Eleazar, son of Aaron the chief priest.

6 This Ezra went up from Babylon, and he was a ^ascribe skilled in the law of Moses, which the LORD God of Israel had given; and the king granted him all ¹he requested ^bbecause the hand of the LORD his God was upon him.

7 And ^asome of the sons of Israel and some of the priests, the Levites, the singers, the gatekeepers, and the temple servants went up to Jerusalem in the seventh year of King Artaxerxes.

8 And he came to Jerusalem in the fifth month, which was in the seventh year of the king.

9 For on the first of the first month ¹he began to go up from Babylon; and on the first of the fifth month he came to Jerusalem, ^abecause the good hand of his God was upon him.

10 For Ezra had set his heart to ¹study the law of the LORD, and to practice it, and ^ato teach His statutes and ordinances in Israel.

11 ^a Now this is the copy of the decree which King Artaxerxes gave to Ezra the priest, the scribe, ¹learned in the words of the commandments of the LORD and His statutes to Israel:

12 ¹Artaxerxes, ^aking of kings, to Ezra the priest, the scribe of the law of the God of heaven, perfect peace. And now

13 ^aI have issued a decree that any of the people of Israel and their priests and the Levites in my kingdom who are willing to go to Jerusalem, may go with you.

14 ^aForasmuch as you are sent ¹by the king and his ^aseven counselors to inquire concerning Judah and Jerusalem according to the law of your God which is in your hand,

15 and to bring the silver and gold, which the king and his counselors have freely offered to the God of Israel, ^awhose dwelling is in Jerusalem.

16 with ^aall the silver and gold which you shall find in the whole province of Babylon, along ^bwith the freewill offering of the people and of the priests, who ^coffered willingly for the house of their God which is in Jerusalem;

17 with this money, therefore, you shall diligently buy bulls, rams, and lambs, ^awith their grain offerings and their libations and ^boffer them on the altar of the house of your God which is in Jerusalem.

18 ^aAnd whatever seems good to you and to your brothers to do with the rest of the silver and gold, you may do according to the will of your God.

19 ^aAlso the utensils which are given to you for the service of the house of your God, deliver in full before the God of Jerusalem.

20 ^aAnd the rest of the needs for the house of your God, for which you may have occasion to provide, ^aprovide for it from the royal treasury.

21 ^aAnd I, even I King Artaxerxes, issue a decree to all the treasurers who are in the provinces beyond the ¹River, that whatever Ezra the priest, ^athe scribe of the law of the God of heaven, may require of you, it shall be done diligently.

22 even up to 100 talents of silver, 100 ¹kors of wheat, 100 baths of wine, 100 baths of oil, and salt ²as needed.

23 ^aWhatever is ¹commanded by the God of heaven, let it be done with zeal for the house of the God of heaven, ^alest there be wrath against the kingdom of the king and his sons.

24 ^aWe also inform you that ^ait is not allowed to ¹impose tax, tribute or toll ^bon any of the priests, Levites, singers, doorkeepers, Nethinim, or servants of this house of God.

25 "And you, Ezra, according to the wisdom of your God which is in your hand, ^aappoint magistrates and judges that they may judge all the people who are in the province beyond the River, even all those who know the laws of your God; and you may ^bteach anyone who is ignorant of them.

26 "And ^awhoever will not observe the law of your God and the law of the king, let judgment be executed upon him strictly, whether for death or for ¹banishment or for confiscation of goods or for imprisonment."

27 ¶ Blessed be the LORD, the God of our fathers, ^awho has put such a thing as this in the king's heart, to adorn the house of the LORD which is in Jerusalem,

28 and ^ahas extended loving-kindness to me before the king and his counselors and before all the king's mighty princes. Thus I was strengthened according to ^bthe hand of the LORD my God upon me, and I gathered ¹leading men from Israel to go up with me.

CHAPTER 8

NOW these are the heads of their fathers' households and the genealogical enrollment of those who went up with me from Babylon in the reign of King Artaxerxes:

2 of the sons of Phinehas, Gershom; of the sons of Ithamar, Daniel; of the sons of David, ^aHattush;

3 of the sons of Shecaniah who was of the sons of ^aParosh, Zechariah and with him 150 males who were in the genealogical list;

4 of the sons of Pahath-moab, Eliehoenai the son of Zerahiah and 200 males with him;

5 of the sons of Shecaniah, the son of Jahaziel and 300 males with him;

8 and of the sons of Shephatiah, Zebadiah the son of Michael and 80 males with him;

9 of the sons of Joab, Obadiah the son of Jehiel and 218 males with him;

10 and of the sons of Shelomith, the son of Josiphiah and 160 males with him;

11 and of the sons of Bebai, Zechariah the son of Bebai and 28 males with him;

12 and of the sons of Azgad, Johanan the son of Hakkatan and 110 males with him;

13 and of the sons of Adonikam, the last ones, these being their names, Eliphelet, Jeuel, and Shemaiah and 60 males with them;

14 and of the sons of Bigvai, Uthai and ¹Zabbud and 70 males with ²them.

15 ¶ Now I assembled them at ^athe river that runs to Ahava, where we camped for three days; and when I observed the people and the priests, I ^bdid not find any Levites there.

16 So I sent for Eliezer, Ariel, Shemaiah, Elnathan, Jarib, Elnathan, Nathan, Zechariah, and Meshullam, ¹leading men, and for Joiarib and Elnathan, teachers.

17 And I sent them to Iddo the ¹leading man at the place Casiphia; and I ²told them what to say to ³Iddo and his brothers, ^athe temple servants at the place Casiphia, that is, to bring ministers to us for the house of our God.

18 And ^aaccording to the good hand of our God upon us they brought us a ^bman of insight of the sons of Mahli, the son of Levi, the son of Israel, namely Sherebiah, and his sons and brothers, 18 men;

19 and Hashabiah and ¹Jeshiah of the sons of Merari, with his brothers and their sons, 20 men;

20 and 220 of ^athe temple servants, whom David and the princes had given for the service of the Levites, all of them designated by name.

21 ¶ Then I proclaimed ^aa fast there at ^bthe river of Ahava, that we might ^chumble ourselves before our God to seek from Him a ¹safe journey for us, our little ones, and all our possessions.

22 For I was ashamed to request from the king troops and horsemen to ¹protect us from the enemy on the way, because we had said to the king, "^aThe hand of our God is ²favorably disposed to all those who seek Him, but ^bHis power and His anger are against all those who ^cforsake Him."

23 So we fasted and sought our God concerning this matter, and He ¹listened to our entreaty.

24 ¶ Then I set apart twelve of the leading priests, ^aSherebiah, Hashabiah, and with them ten of their brothers;

25 and I ^aweighed out to them ^bthe silver, the gold, and the utensils, the offering for the house of our God which the king and ^chis counselors and his princes, and all Israel present there, had offered.

26 ^aThus I weighed into their hands 650 talents of silver, and silver utensils worth 100 talents, and gold talents,

27 and 20 gold bowls, worth 1,000 darics; and two utensils of fine shiny bronze, precious as gold.

28 Then I said to them, "^aYou are holy to the LORD, and the ^butensils are holy; and the silver and the gold are a freewill offering to the LORD God of your fathers.

30 So the priests and the Levites ^aaccepted the weighed out silver and gold and the utensils, to bring ^bthem to Jerusalem to the house of our God.

31 ¶ Then we journeyed from ^athe river Ahava on ^bthe twelfth of the first month to go to Jerusalem; and ^cthe hand of our God was over us, and He delivered us from the hand of the enemy and the ambushes by the way.

32 ^aThus we came to Jerusalem and remained there three days.

33 And on the fourth day the silver and the gold and the utensils ^awere weighed out in the house of our God into the hand of ^bMeremoth the son of Uriah the priest, and with him was Eleazar the son of Phinehas; and with them were the Levites, Jozabad the son of Jeshua and Noadiah the son of Binnui.

34 Everything was numbered and weighed, and all the weight was recorded at that time.

35 ¶ ^aThe exiles who had come from the captivity offered burnt offerings to the God of Israel: ^b12 bulls for all Israel, 96 rams, 77 lambs, 12 male goats for a sin offering, all as a burnt offering to the LORD.

36 Then ^athey delivered the king's edicts to ^bthe king's satraps, and to the governors in the provinces beyond the ¹River, and they supported the people and the house of God.

CHAPTER 9

NOW when these things had been completed, the princes approached me, saying, "The people of Israel and the priests and the Levites have not ^aseparated themselves from the peoples of the lands, ^baccording to their abominations, those of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Jebusites, the Ammonites, the Moabites, the Egyptians, and the Amorites.

2^aFor ^athey have taken some of their daughters as wives for themselves and for their sons, so that ^bthe holy ¹race has ^cintermingled with the peoples of the lands; indeed, the hands of the princes and the rulers have been foremost in this unfaithfulness."

3 And when I heard about this matter, I ^atore my garment and my robe, and pulled some of the hair from my head and my beard, and ^bsat down appalled.

4 Then ^aeveryone who trembled at the words of the God of Israel on account of the unfaithfulness of the exiles gathered to me, and I sat appalled until ^bthe evening offering.

5 ¶ But at the evening offering I arose from my ¹humiliation, even with my garment and my robe torn, and I fell on my knees and ^astretched out my ²hands to the LORD my God;

6 and I said, "O my God, I am ashamed and embarrassed to lift up my face to Thee, my God, for our iniquities have ¹risen above our heads, and our ^aguilt has grown even to the heavens.

7^aSince the days of our fathers to this day we have been in great guilt, and on account of our iniquities we, our kings and our priests have been given into the hand of the kings of the lands, to the sword, to captivity, and to plunder and to ^{1b}open shame, as it is this day.

10^aAnd now, our God, what shall we say after this? For we have forsaken Thy commandments.

11 which Thou hast commanded by Thy servants the prophets, saying, 'The land which you are entering to possess is an unclean land with the uncleanness of the peoples of the lands, with their abominations which have filled it from end to end and ^awith their impurity.

12 'So now do not ^agive your daughters to their sons nor take their daughters to your sons, and ^bnever seek their peace or their prosperity, that you may be strong and eat the good things of the land and ^cleave it as an inheritance to your sons forever.'

13^aAnd after all that has come upon us for our evil deeds and ^aour great guilt, since Thou our God hast requited us less than our iniquities deserve, and hast given us ^ban escaped remnant as this,

14 ^ashall we again break Thy commandments and intermarry with the peoples ¹who commit these abominations? ^bWouldst Thou not be angry with us ²to the point of destruction, until there is no remnant nor any who escape?

15^aO LORD God of Israel, ^aThou art righteous, for we have been left an escaped remnant, as it is this day; behold, we are before Thee in ^bour guilt, for ^cno one can stand before Thee because of this."

CHAPTER 10

NOW ^awhile Ezra was praying and making confession, weeping and prostrating himself ^bbefore the house of God, a very large assembly, men, women, and children, gathered to him from Israel; for the people wept bitterly.

2 And Shecaniah the son of Jehiel, one of the sons of Elam, answered and said to Ezra, "We have been unfaithful to our God, and have ¹married foreign women from the peoples of the land; yet now there is hope for Israel in spite of this.

3 "So now ^alet us make a covenant with our God to put away all the wives and ^btheir children, according to the counsel of ²my lord and of ^cthose who tremble at the commandment of our God; and let it be done ^daccording to the law.

4 "Arise! For this matter is ¹your responsibility, but we will be with you; ^abe courageous and act."

5 ¶ Then Ezra rose and ^amade the leading priests, the Levites, and all Israel, take oath that they would do according to this ¹proposal; so they took the oath.

6 Then Ezra ^arose from before the house of God and went into the chamber of Jehohanan the son of Eliashib. Although he went there, ^bhe did not eat bread, nor drink water, for he was mourning over the unfaithfulness of the exiles.

7 And they made a proclamation throughout Judah and Jerusalem to all the exiles, that they should assemble at Jerusalem,

8 and that whoever would not come within three days, according to the counsel of the leaders and the elders, all his possessions should be forfeited and he himself excluded from the assembly of the exiles.

9 ¶ So all the men of Judah and Benjamin assembled at Je-

11 "Now, therefore, ^amake confession to the LORD God of your fathers, and ^bdo His will; and ^cseparate yourselves from the peoples of the land and from the foreign wives."

12 Then all the assembly answered and said with a loud voice, "That's right! As you have said, so it is ¹our duty to do.

13 "But there are many people, it is the rainy season, and we are not able to stand in the open. Nor can the task be done in one or two days, for we have transgressed greatly in this matter.

14 "Let our leaders ¹represent the whole assembly and let all those in our cities who have married foreign wives come at appointed times, together with the elders and judges of each city, until the ^afierce anger of our God on account of this matter is turned away from us."

15 Only Jonathan the son of Asahel and Jahzeiah the son of Tikvah ¹opposed this, with Meshullam and Shabbethai the Levite supporting them.

16 ¶ But the exiles did so. And ¹Ezra the priest selected men who were heads of fathers' households for each of their father's households, all of them by name. So they ²convened on the first day of the tenth month to investigate the matter.

17 And they finished investigating all the men who had married foreign wives by the first of the first month.

Nehemiah's Grief for the Exiles

THE words of *Nehemiah the son of Hacaliah.

1 Now it happened in ^bthe month Chislev, ^cin the twentieth year, while I was in ^dSusa the ^ecapitol.

2 that *Hanani, one of my brothers, and ¹some men from Judah came; and I asked them concerning the Jews who had escaped and had survived the captivity, and about Jerusalem.

3 And they said to me, "The remnant there in the ^aprovince who survived the captivity are in great distress and ^breproach, and ^cthe wall of Jerusalem is broken down and ^dits gates are burned with fire."

4 ^e Now it came about when I heard these words, ^fI sat down and wept and mourned for days; and I was fasting and praying before ^bthe God of heaven.

5 And I said, "I beseech Thee, O LORD God of heaven, ^athe great and awesome God, ^bwho preserves the covenant and lovingkindness for those who love Him and keep His commandments,

6 ^alet Thine ear now be attentive and Thine eyes open to hear the prayer of Thy servant which I am praying before Thee now, day and night, on behalf of the sons of Israel Thy servants, ^bconfessing the sins of the sons of Israel which we have sinned against Thee; ^cI and my father's house have sinned.

7 ^aWe have acted very corruptly against Thee and have not kept the commandments, nor

8 "Remember the word which Thou didst command Thy servant Moses, saying, ^a'If you are unfaithful I will scatter you among the peoples;

9 ^abut if you return to Me and keep My commandments and do them, though those of you who have been scattered were in the most remote part of the heavens, I ^bwill gather them from there and will bring them ^cto the place where I have chosen to cause My name to dwell."

11 "O Lord, I beseech Thee, ^amay Thine ear be attentive to the prayer of Thy servant and the prayer of Thy servants who delight to ¹revere Thy name, and make Thy servant successful today, and grant him compassion before this man."

1 Now I was the ^bcupbearer to the king.

CHAPTER 2

AND it came about in the month Nisan, ^ain the twentieth year of King ^bArtaxerxes, that wine was before him, and ^cI took up the wine and gave it to the king. Now I had not been sad in his presence.

2 So the king said to me, "Why is your face sad though you are not sick? ^aThis is nothing but sadness of heart." Then I was very much afraid.

3 And I said to the king, ^a"Let the king live forever. Why should my face not be sad ^bwhen the city, the place of my fathers' tombs, lies desolate and its gates have been consumed by fire?"

4 Then the king said to me, "What would you request?" "So I prayed to the God of heaven.

5 And I said to the king, "If it please the king, and if your servant has found favor before you, send me to Judah, to the city of my fathers' tombs, that I may rebuild it."

6 Then the king said to me, the queen sitting beside him, "How long will your journey be, and when will you return?" So it pleased the king to send me, and I gave him a definite time.

7 And I said to the king, "If it please the king, let letters be given me for the governors of the provinces beyond the River, that they may allow me to pass through until I come to Judah,

8 and a letter to Asaph the keeper of the king's forest, that he may give me timber to make beams for the gates of the fortress which is by the temple, for the wall of the city, and for the house to which I will go." And the king granted them to me because the good hand of my God was on me.

9 ¶ Then I came to the governors of the provinces beyond the River and gave them the king's letters. Now the king had sent with me officers of the army and horsemen.

10 And when Sanballat the Horonite and Tobiah the Ammonite official heard about it, it was very displeasing to them that someone had come to seek the welfare of the sons of Israel.

11 So I came to Jerusalem and was there three days.

12 And I arose in the night, I and a few men with me. I did not tell anyone what my God was putting into my mind to do for Jerusalem and there was no animal with me except the animal on which I was riding.

13 So I went out at night by the Valley Gate in the direction of the Dragon's Well and on to the Refuse Gate, inspecting the walls of Jerusalem which were broken down and its gates which were consumed by fire.

14 Then I passed on to the Fountain Gate and the King's Pool, but there was no place for my mount to pass.

15 So I went up at night by the ravine and inspected the wall. Then I entered the Valley Gate again and returned.

16 And the officials did not know where I had gone or what I had done; nor had I as yet told the Jews, the priests, the nobles, the officials, or the rest who did the work.

17 ¶ Then I said to them, "You see the bad situation we are in, that Jerusalem is desolate and its gates burned by fire. Come, let us rebuild the wall of Jerusalem that we may no longer be a reproach."

18 And I told them how the hand of my God had been favorable to me, and also about the king's words which he had spoken to me. Then they said, "Let us arise and build." "So they put their hands to the good work."

19 But when Sanballat the Horonite, and Tobiah the Ammonite official, and Geshem the Arab heard it, they mocked us and despised us and said, "What is this thing you are doing? Are you rebelling against the king?"

20 So I answered them and said to them, "The God of heaven will give us success; therefore we His servants will arise and build, but you have no portion, right, or memorial in Jerusalem."

CHAPTER 3

THEN Eliashib the high priest arose with his brothers the priests and built the heep Gate; they consecrated it and hung its doors. They consecrated the wall to the Tower of the Hundred and the Tower of Hananel.

2 And next to him the men of Jericho built, and next to them occurred the son of Imri built.

3 Now the sons of Hassenaiah built the Fish Gate; they laid its beams and hung its doors with its bolts and bars.

4 And next to them Meremoth the son of Uriah the son of Hakkoz made repairs. And next to him Meshullam the son of Berehiah the son of Meshezabel made repairs. And next to him Zadok the son of Baana also made repairs.

5 Moreover, next to him the Tekoites made repairs, but their nobles did not support the work of their masters.

6 And Joiada the son of Paseah and Meshullam the son of Besodeiah repaired the Old Gate; they laid its beams and hung its doors, with its bolts and its bars.

7 Next to them Melatiah the Gibeonite and Jadon the Meronothite, the men of Gibeon and of Mizpah, also made repairs for the official seat of the governor of the province beyond the River.

8 Next to him Uzziel the son of Harhaiah of the goldsmiths made repairs. And next to him Hananiah, one of the perfumers, made repairs, and they restored Jerusalem as far as the Broad Wall.

9 And next to them Rephaiah the son of Hur, the official of half the district of Jerusalem, made repairs.

10 Next to them Jedaiah the son of Harumaph made repairs opposite his house. And next to him Hattush the son of Hashabai made repairs.

11 Malchijah the son of Harim and Hasshub the son of Pahath-moab repaired another section and the Tower of Furnaces.

12 And next to him Shallum the son of Hallohesh, the official of half the district of Jerusalem, made repairs, he and his daughters.

13 Hanun and the inhabitants of Zanoah repaired the Valley Gate. They built it and hung its doors with its bolts and its bars, and a thousand cubits of the wall to the Refuse Gate.

14 And Malchijah the son of Rechab, the official of the district of Beth-haccherem repaired the Refuse Gate. He built it and hung its doors with its bolts and its bars.

15 Shallum the son of Col-hozeh, the official of the district of Mizpah, repaired the Fountain Gate. He built it, covered it, and hung its doors with its bolts and its bars, and the wall of the Pool of Shelah at the king's garden as far as the steps that descend from the city of David.

16 After him Nehemiah the son of Azbuk, official of half the district of Beth-zur, made repairs as far as a point opposite the tombs of David, and as far as the artificial pool and the house of the mighty men.

17 After him the Levites carried out repairs under Rehum the son of Bani. Next to him Hashabiah, the official of half the district of Keilah, carried out repairs for his district.

18 After him their brothers carried out repairs under Bavvai the son of Henadad, official of the other half of the district of Keilah.

19 And next to him Ezer the son of Jeshua, the official of Mizpah, repaired another section, in front of the ascent of the armory at the Angle.

20 After him Baruch the son of Zabbai zealously repaired another section, from the Angle to

CHAPTER 4

¹ NOW it came about that when ^aSanballat heard that we were rebuilding the wall, he became furious and very angry and mocked the Jews.

2 And he spoke in the presence of his brothers and ^athe ¹wealthy men of Samaria and said, "What are these feeble Jews doing? Are they going to restore it for themselves? Can they offer sacrifices? Can they finish in a day? Can they revive the stones from the ²dusty rubble even the burned ones?"

3 Now Tobiah the Ammonite was near him and he said, "Ever what they are building—^aif a fox should ¹jump on it, he would break their stone wall down!"

4 ¶ ^aHear, O our God, how we are despised! ^bReturn their reproach on their own heads and give them up for plunder in a land of captivity.

5 Do not ¹forgive their iniquity and let not their sin be blotted out before Thee, for they have ²demoralized the builders.

6 So we built the wall and the whole wall was joined together to half its height, for the people had a ¹mind to work.

7 ¶ ¹Now it came about when Sanballat, Tobiah, the Arabs, the Ammonites, and the Ashdodites heard that the ²repair of the walls of Jerusalem went on, and that the breaches began to be closed, they were very angry.

8 And all of them ^aconspired together to come and fight against Jerusalem and to cause a disturbance in it.

17 Those who were rebuilding the wall and those who carried burdens took their load with one hand doing the work and the other holding a weapon.

18 As for the builders, each wore his sword girded at his side as he built, while ¹the trumpeter stood near me.

19 And I said to the nobles, the officials, and the rest of the people, "The work is great and extensive, and we are separated on the wall far from one another.

20 "At whatever place you hear the sound of the trumpet, ¹rally to us there. ^aOur God will fight for us."

21 ^a So we carried on the work with half of them holding spears from ¹dawn until the stars ²appeared.

22 At that time I also said to the people, "Let each man with his servant spend the night within Jerusalem so that they may be a guard for us by night and a laborer by day."

23 So neither I, my brothers, my servants, nor the men of the guard who followed me, none of us removed our clothes, each took his weapon even to the wa-ter.

CHAPTER 5

NOW ^athere was a great out-cry of the people and of their wives against their ^bJewish brothers.

2 For there were those who said, "We, our sons and our daughters, are many; therefore let us ^aget grain that we may eat and live."

3 And there were others who said, "We are mortgaging our fields, our vineyards, and our houses that we might get grain because of the famine."

4 Also there were those who said, "We have borrowed money ^afor the king's tax on our fields and our vineyards.

5 "And now ^aour flesh is like the flesh of our brothers, our children like their children. Yet behold, ^bwe are forcing our sons and our daughters to be slaves, and some of our daughters are forced into bondage already, and ^cwe are helpless because our fields and vineyards belong to others."

6 ^c Then I was very ^aangry when I had heard their outcry and these words.

7 And I consulted with myself, and contended with the nobles and the rulers and said to them, "^aYou are exacting usury, each from his brother!" Therefore, I held a great assembly against them.

8 And I said to them, "We according to our ability ^ahave ^bredeemed our Jewish brothers who were sold to the nations; now would you even sell your brothers that they may be sold to us?" Then they were silent and could not find a word to say.

9 Again I said, "The thing which you are doing is not good; should you not walk in the fear of our God because of ^athe reproach of the nations, our enemies?"

10 "And likewise I, my brothers and my servants, are lending them money and grain. Please, let us leave off this usury.

11 "Please, give back to them this very day their fields, their vineyards, their olive groves, and their houses, also the hundredth part of the money and of the grain, the new wine, and the oil that you are exacting from them."

12 Then they said, "We ^awill give it back and ^bwill require nothing from them; we will do exactly as you say." So I called the priests and ^ctook an oath from them that they would do according to this ^bpromise.

14 ¶ Moreover, from the day that I was appointed to be their governor in the land of Judah from ^athe twentieth year to the ^bthirty-second year of King Artaxerxes, for twelve years, neither I nor my ^bkinsmen have eaten the governor's food allowance.

15 But the former governors who were before me ^blaid burdens on the people and took from them bread and wine besides forty shekels of silver; even their servants domineered the people. But I did not do so ^abecause of the fear of God.

16 And I also ^bapplied myself to the work on this wall; we did not buy any land, and all my servants were gathered there for the work.

17 Moreover, ^athere were at my table one hundred and fifty Jews and officials, besides those who came to us from the nations that were around us.

18 Now ^athat which was prepared for each day was one ox and six choice sheep, also birds were prepared for me; and once in ten days all sorts of wine were furnished in abundance. Yet for all this ^bI did not demand the governor's food allowance, because the servitude was heavy on this people.

19 ^aRemember me, O my God for good, according to all that have done for this people.

CHAPTER 6

NOW it came about when it was reported to Sanballat Tobiah, to Geshem the Arab, and to the rest of our enemies that I had rebuilt the wall, and that no breach remained in it, ^aalthough at that time I had not set up the doors in the gates.

2 that Sanballat and Geshem sent a message to me, saying, "Come, let us meet together at ¹Chephirim in the plain of ^aOno." But they were planning to ²harm me.

3 So I sent messengers to them, saying, "I am doing a great work and I cannot come down. Why should the work stop while I leave it and come down to you?"

4 And they sent messages to me four times in this manner, and I answered them in the same way.

5 Then Sanballat sent his servant to me in the same manner a fifth time with an open letter in his hand.

6 In it was written, "It is reported among the nations, and ¹Gashmu says, that ^ayou and the Jews are planning to rebel; therefore you are rebuilding the wall. And you are to be their king, according to these reports.

7" And you have also appointed prophets to proclaim in Jerusalem concerning ¹you, 'A king is in Judah!' And now it will be reported to the king according to these reports. So come now, let us take counsel together."

8 Then I sent a message to him saying, "Such things as you are saying have not been done, but you are ^ainventing them ¹in your own mind."

9 For all of them were trying to frighten us, ¹thinking, "²They will become discouraged with the work and it will not be done." But now, ^aO God, strengthen my hands.

10 ¶ And when I entered the house of Shemaiah the son of Delaiah, son of Mehetabel, ^awho was ¹confined at home, he said, "Let us meet together in the house of God, within the temple,

11 But I said, "^aShould a man like me flee? And could one such as I go into the temple ¹to save his life? I will not go in."

12 Then I perceived ¹that surely God had not sent him, but he uttered his prophecy against me because Tobiah and Sanballat had hired him.

13 He was hired for this reason, ^athat I might become frightened and act accordingly and sin, so that they might have an evil report in order that they could reproach me.

14 ^aRemember, O my God, Tobiah and Sanballat according to these works of theirs, and also Noadiah ^bthe prophetess and the rest of the prophets who were trying to frighten me.

15 ¶ So ^athe wall was completed on the twenty-fifth of the month Elul, in fifty-two days.

16 And it came about ^awhen all our enemies heard of it, and all the nations surrounding us saw it, they ¹lost their confidence; for ^bthey recognized that this work had been accomplished ²with the help of our God.

17 Also in those days many letters went from the nobles of Judah to Tobiah, and Tobiah's letters came to them.

18 For many in Judah were bound by oath to him because he was the son-in-law of Shecaniah the son of Arah, and his son Jehohanan had married the daughter of Meshullam the son of Berechiah.

19 Moreover, they were speaking about his good deeds in my presence and reported my words to him. Then Tobiah sent letters to frighten me.

CHAPTER 7

NOW it came about when ^athe wall was rebuilt and I had set up the doors, and the gatekeepers and the singers and the Levites were appointed,

2 that I put ^aHanani my brother, and ^bHananiah the commander of ^cthe fortress, in charge of Jerusalem, for he was ^da faithful man and feared God more than many.

3 Then I said to them, "Do not let the gates of Jerusalem be opened until the sun is hot, and while they are standing guard, let them shut and bolt the doors. Also appoint guards from the inhabitants of Jerusalem, each at his post, and each in front of his own house."

4 Now the city was large and spacious, but the people in it were few and the houses were not built.

5 ¶ Then my God put it into my heart to assemble the nobles, the officials, and the people to be enrolled by genealogies. Then I found the book of the genealogy of those who came up first ¹in which I found the following record:

6 ^aThese are the ¹people of the province who came up from the captivity of the exiles whom Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon had carried away, and who returned to Jerusalem and Judah, each to his city,

7 who came with Zerubbabel, Jeshua, Nehemiah, ¹Azariah, ²Raamiah, Nahamani, Mordecai, Bilshan, ³Mispereth, Bigvai, ⁴Nehum, Baanah.

¶ The number of men of the people of Israel:

8 the sons of Parosh, 2,172;

9 the sons of Shephatiah, 372;

10 the sons of Arah, 652;

11 the sons of Pahath-moab of the sons of Jeshua and Joab, 2,818;

65 And ^athe ¹governor said to them that they should not eat from the most holy things until a priest arose with ^bUrim and Thummim.

66 ¶ The whole assembly together was 42,360.

67 besides their male and their female servants, ¹of whom there were 7,337; and they had 245 male and female singers.

68 ^{1a}Their horses were 736; their mules, 245;

69 their camels, 435; their donkeys, 6,720.

70 ¶ And some from among the heads of fathers' households gave to the work. The ^{1a}governor gave to the treasury 1,000 gold drachmas, 50 basins, 530 priests' garments.

71 And some of the heads of fathers' households gave into the treasury of the work 20,000 gold drachmas, and 2,200 silver minas.

72 And that which the rest of the people gave was 20,000 gold drachmas and 2,000 silver minas, and 67 priests' garments.

73 ¶ Now ^athe priests, the Levites, the gatekeepers, the singers, some of the people, the temple servants, and all Israel, lived in their cities.

¶ ^bAnd when the seventh month came, the sons of Israel were in their cities.

CHAPTER 8

AND all the people gathered as one man at the square which was in front of ^athe Water Gate, and they ¹asked ^bEzra the scribe to bring ^athe book of the law of Moses which the LORD had ²given to Israel.

2 Then ^aEzra the priest brought the law before the assembly of men, women, and all who could listen with understanding, on ^bthe first day of the seventh month.

3 And he read from it before the square which was in front of *the Water Gate from ¹early morning until midday, in the presence of men and women, those who could understand; and all the people were attentive to the book of the law.

4 And Ezra the scribe stood at a wooden podium which they had made for the purpose. And beside him stood Mattithiah, Shema, Anaiah, Uriah, Hilkiah, and Maaseiah on his right hand; and Pedaiah, Mishael, Malchijah, Hashum, Hashbaddanah, Zechariah, and Meshullam on his left hand.

5 And Ezra opened ^athe book in the sight of all the people for he was standing above all the people; and when he opened it, all the people ^bstood up.

6 Then Ezra blessed the LORD the great God. And all the people answered, "Amen, Amen!" while lifting up their hands; then ^bthey bowed low and worshiped the LORD with their faces to the ground.

7 Also Jeshua, Bani, Sherebiah, Jamin, Akkub, Shabbethai, Hodiah, Maaseiah, Kelita, Azariah, Jozabad, Hanan, Pelaiah, and the Levites, explained the law to the people while the people remained in their place.

8 And they read from the book, from the law of God, ¹translating to give the sense so that they understood the reading.

9 ¶ Then Nehemiah, who was the ^{1a}governor, and Ezra ^bthe priest and scribe, and the Levites who taught the people said to all the people, "This day is holy to the LORD your God; ^ddo not mourn or weep." For all the people were weeping when they heard the words of the law.

10 Then he said to them, "Go, eat of the fat, drink of the sweet, and ^asend portions to him who has nothing prepared; for this day is holy to our Lord. Do not be grieved, for the joy of the LORD is your strength."

11 So the Levites calmed all the people, saying, "Be still, for the day is holy; do not be grieved."

12 And all the people went away to eat, to drink, ^ato send portions and to ¹celebrate a great festival, ^bbecause they understood the words which had been made known to them.

13 ¶ Then on the second day the heads of fathers' households of all the people, the priests, and the Levites were gathered to Ezra the scribe that they might gain insight into the words of the law.

14 And they found written in the law how the LORD had commanded through Moses that the sons of Israel ^ashould live in booths during the feast of the seventh month.

15 ^{1a}So they proclaimed and circulated a proclamation in all their cities and ^bin Jerusalem, saying, "Go out to the hills, and bring olive branches, and ²wild olive branches, myrtle branches, palm branches, and branches of other leafy trees, to make booths, as it is written."

16 So the people went out and brought them and made booths for themselves, each ^aon his roof, and in their courts, and in the courts of the house of God, and in the square at ^bthe Water Gate, and in the square at ^cthe Gate of Ephraim.

17 And the entire assembly of those who had returned from the captivity made booths and lived in ¹them. The sons of Israel ^ahad indeed not done so from the days of Joshua the son of Nun to that day. And ^bthere was great rejoicing.

18 And ^ahe read from the book of the law of God daily, from the first day to the last day. And they ^bcelebrated the feast seven days, and on ^cthe eighth day there was a solemn assembly according to the ordinance.

CHAPTER 9

NOW on the twenty-fourth day of ^athis month the sons of Israel assembled ^bwith fasting, in sackcloth, and with ^cdirt upon them.

2 And the ^adescendants of Israel separated themselves from all foreigners, and stood and ^bconfessed their sins and the iniquities of their fathers.

3 While ^athey stood in their place, they read from the book of the law of the LORD their God for a fourth of the day; and for another fourth they confessed and worshiped the LORD their God.

4 ^aNow on the Levites' platform stood Jeshua, Bani, Kadmiel, Shebaniah, Bunni, Sherebiah, Bani, and Chenani, and they cried with a loud voice to the LORD their God.

5 ¶ Then the Levites, Jeshua, Kadmiel, Bani, Hashabneiah, Sherebiah, Hodiah, Shebaniah, and Pethahiah, said, "Arise, bless the LORD your God forever and ever!

O may Thy glorious name be blessed

And exalted above all blessing and praise!

29 are joining with their ¹kinsmen, their nobles, and are ²taking on themselves a curse and an oath to walk in God's law, which was given through Moses, God's servant, and to keep and to observe all the commandments of ³God our Lord, and His ordinances and His statutes;

30 and ^athat we will not give our daughters to the peoples of the land or take their daughters for our sons.

31 As ^afor the peoples of the land who bring wares or any

32 ¶ We also placed ourselves under obligation to contribute yearly one third of a shekel for the service of the house of our God:

CHAPTER 11

NOW the leaders of the people lived in Jerusalem, but the rest of the people cast lots to bring one out of ten to live in Jerusalem, the holy city, while nine-tenths remained in the other cities.

2 And the people blessed all the men who volunteered to live in Jerusalem.

3 ¶ Now these are the heads of the provinces who lived in Jerusalem, but in the cities of Judah each lived on his own property in their cities—the Israelites, the priests, the Levites, the temple servants and the descendants of Solomon's servants.

4 And some of the sons of Judah and some of the sons of Benjamin lived in Jerusalem. From the sons of Judah: Athaiah the son of Uziah, the son of Zechariah, the son of Amariah, the son of Shephatiah, the son of Mahalalel, of the sons of Perez;

5 and Maaseiah the son of Baruch, the son of Col-hozeh, the son of Hazariah, the son of Adariah, the son of Joiarib, the son of Zechariah, the son of the Shilonite.

6 All the sons of Perez who lived in Jerusalem were 468 able men.

7 ¶ Now these are the sons of Benjamin: Sallu the son of Meshullam, the son of Joed, the son of Pedaiah, the son of Kolaiah, the son of Maaseiah, the son of Ithiel, the son of Jeshaiiah;

8 and after him Gabbai and Sallai, 928.

9 And Joel the son of Zichri was their overseer, and Judah the son of Hassenuah was second in command of the city.

10 ¶ From the priests: Jedaiah the son of Joiarib, Jachin,

11 Seraiah the son of Hilkiah, the son of Meshullam, the son of Zadok, the son of Meraioth, the son of Ahitub, the leader of the house of God,

12 and their kinsmen who performed the work of the temple, 822; and Adaiah the son of Jeroham, the son of Pelaliah, the son of Amzi, the son of Zechariah, the son of Pashhur, the son of Malchijah,

13 and his kinsmen, heads of fathers' households, 242; and Amashsai the son of Azarel, the son of Ahzai, the son of Meshillemoth, the son of Immer,

14 and their brothers, valiant warriors, 128. And their overseer was Zabdiel, the son of Haggadolim.

15 ¶ Now from the Levites: Shemaiah the son of Hasshub, the son of Azrikam, the son of Hashabiah, the son of Bunni;

16 and Shabbethai and Jozabad, from the leaders of the Levites, who were in charge of the outside work of the house of God;

17 and Mattaniah the son of Mica, the son of Zabdi, the son of Asaph, who was the leader in beginning the thanksgiving at prayer, and Bakbukiah, the second among his brethren; and Abda the son of Shammua, the son of Galal, the son of Jeduthun.

18 All the Levites in the holy city were 284.

19 ¶ Also the gatekeepers, Akkub, Talmon, and their brethren, who kept watch at the gates, were 172.

20 And the rest of Israel, of the priests, and of the Levites, were in all the cities of Judah, each in his own inheritance.

21 But the temple servants were living in Ophel, and Zihva and Gishpa were in charge of the temple servants.

22 ¶ Now the overseer of the Levites in Jerusalem was Uzziel the son of Bani, the son of Hashabiah, the son of Mattaniah, the son of Mica, from the sons of Asaph, who were the singers for the service of the house of God.

23 For there was a commandment from the king concerning them and a firm regulation for the song leaders day by day.

24 And Pethahiah the son of Meshezabel, of the sons of Zerah the son of Judah, was the king's representative in all matters concerning the people.

25 ¶ Now as for the villages with their fields, some of the sons of Judah lived in Kiriath arba and its towns, in Dibor and its towns, and in Jekabzee and its villages,

26 and in Jeshua, in Moladah and Beth-pelet,

27 and in Hazar-shual, in Beer sheba and its towns,

28 and in Ziklag, in Meconah and in its towns,

29 and in En-rimmon, in Zorah and in Jarmuth,

30 Zanoah, Adullam, and their villages, Lachish and its fields Azekah and its towns. So they encamped from Beersheba as far as the valley of Hinnom.

31 The sons of Benjamin also lived from Geba onward, at Michmash and Aiya, at Bethel and its towns,

32 at Anathoth, Nob, Ananiah,

33 Hazor, Ramah, Gittaim,

34 Hadid, Zeboim, Neballat,

35 Lod and Ono, the valley of craftsmen.

36 And from the Levites, some divisions in Judah belonged to Benjamin.

CHAPTER 12

NOW these are ^athe priests and the Levites who came up with Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Jeshua: Seraiah, Jeremiah, Ezra,

2 Amariah, Malluch, Hattush, 3 Shecaniah, Rehum, Meremoth,

4 Iddo, Ginnethoi, Abijah,

5 Mijamin, Maadiah, Bilgah,

6 Shemaiah and Joiarib, Jedaiah,

7 Sallu, Amok, Hilkiah, and Jedaiah. These were the heads of the priests and their ^bkinsmen in the days of Jeshua.

8 ¶ And the Levites were Jeshua, Binnui, Kadmiel, Sherebiah, Judah, and Mattaniah who was ^cin charge of the songs of thanksgiving, he and his brothers.

9 Also Bakbukiah and Unni, their brothers, stood opposite them ^din their service divisions.

10 And Jeshua ^ebecame the father of Joiakim, and Joiakim ^fbecame the father of Eliashib, and Eliashib ^gbecame the father of Joiada, 11 and Joiada became the father of Jonathan, and Jonathan became the father of Jaddua.

12 ¶ Now in the days of Joiakim the priests, the heads of fathers' households were: of Seraiah, Meraiah; of Jeremiah, Hananiah;

13 of Ezra, Meshullam; of Amariah, Jehohanan;

14 of ^hMalluchi, Jonathan; of Shebaniah, Joseph;

15 of Harim, Adna; of Meraioth, Helkai;

16 of Iddo, Zechariah; of Ginnethon, Meshullam;

17 of Abijah, Zichri; of Miniamin, of Moadiah, Piltai;

21 of Hilkiah, Hashabiah; of Jedaiah, Nethanel.

22 ¶ As for the Levites, the heads of fathers' households were registered in the days of Eliashib, Joiada, and Johanan, and Jaddua; so were the priests in the reign of Darius the Persian.

23 The sons of Levi, the heads of fathers' households, were registered in the Book of the Chronicles up to the days of Johanan the son of Eliashib.

24 And the heads of the Levites were Hashabiah, Sherebiah, and Jeshua the son of Kadmiel, with their brothers opposite them, ⁿto praise and give thanks, ^oas prescribed by David the man of God, ^pdivision corresponding to division.

25 Mattaniah, and Bakbukiah, Obadiah, Meshullam, Talmon, and Akkub were gatekeepers keeping watch at ^qthe storehouses of the gates.

26 These served in the days of Joiakim the son of Jeshua, the son of Jozadak, and in the days of ^rNehemiah the governor and of Ezra the priest and scribe.

27 ¶ Now at the dedication of the wall of Jerusalem they sought out the Levites from all their places, to bring them to Jerusalem so that they might celebrate the dedication with gladness, with hymns of thanksgiving and with songs ^sto the accompaniment of cymbals, harps, and lyres.

28 So the sons of the singers were assembled from the district around Jerusalem, and from ^tthe villages of the Netophathites, 29 from Beth-gilgal, and from their fields in Geba and Azmaveth, for the singers had built themselves villages around Jerusalem.

30 And the priests and the Levites ^apurified themselves; they also purified the people, the gates, and the wall.

31 ¶ Then I had the leaders of Judah come up on top of the wall, and I appointed two great ¹choirs, ^{2a}the first proceeding to the right on top of the wall toward ^bthe Refuse Gate.

32 Hoshaiah and half of the leaders of Judah followed them,

33 with Azariah, Ezra, Meshullam,

34 Judah, Benjamin, Shemaiah, Jeremiah,

35 and some of the sons of the priests with trumpets; and Zechariah the son of Jonathan, the son of Shemaiah, the son of Mattaniah, the son of Micaiah, the son of Zaccur, the son of Asaph, 36 and his ¹kinsmen, Shemaiah, Azarel, Milalai, Gilalai, Maai, Nethanel, Judah and Hanani, ^awith the musical instruments of David the man of God. And Ezra the scribe went before them.

37 And at ^athe Fountain Gate they went directly up ^bthe steps of the city of David by the stairway of the wall above the house of David to ^cthe Water Gate on the east.

38 ¶ ^aThe second ¹choir proceeded to the ²left, while I followed them with half of the people on the wall, ^babove the Tower of Furnaces, to ^cthe Broad Wall, 39 and above ^athe Gate of Ephraim, by ^bthe Old Gate, by the ^cFish Gate, ^dthe Tower of Hananel, and the Tower of the Hundred, as far as the Sheep Gate, and they stopped at ^athe Gate of the Guard.

40 Then the two choirs took their stand in the house of God. So did I and half of the officials with me;

41 and the priests, Eliakim, Maaseiah, Miniamin, Micaiah,

43 and on that day they offered great sacrifices and rejoiced because ^aGod had given them great joy, even the women and children rejoiced, so that the joy of Jerusalem was heard from afar.

44 ¶ On that day ^amen were also appointed over the chambers for the stores, the contributions, the first fruits, and the tithes, to gather into them from the fields of the cities the portions required by the law for the priests and Levites; for Judah rejoiced over the priests and Levites who ¹served.

45 For they performed the ¹worship of their God and the service of purification, together with the singers and the gatekeepers ^ain accordance with the command of David and of his son Solomon.

46 For in the days of David and ^aAsaph, in ancient times, there were ¹leaders of the singers, songs of praise and hymns of thanksgiving to God.

47 And so all Israel in the days of Zerubbabel and Nehemiah gave the portions due the singers and the gatekeepers ^aas each day required, and ^bset apart the consecrated portion for the Levites, and the Levites set apart the consecrated portion for the sons of Aaron.

ON that day ^athey read aloud from the book of Moses in the hearing of the people; and there was found written in it that ^bno Ammonite or Moabite should ever enter the assembly of God,

2 because they did not meet the sons of Israel with bread and water, but ^ahired Balaam against them to curse them. However, your God turned the curse into a blessing.

3 So it came about, that when they heard the law, ^athey excluded ^ball foreigners from Israel.

4 ¶ Now prior to this, Eliashib the priest, ^awho was appointed over the chambers of the house of our God, being ¹related to ^bTobiah,

5 had prepared a large ¹room for him, where formerly they put the grain offerings, the frankincense, the utensils, and the tithes of grain, wine and oil ^aprescribed for the Levites, the singers and the gatekeepers, and the ²contributions for the priests.

6 But during all this time I was not in Jerusalem, for in ^athe thirty-second year of ^bArtaxerxes king of Babylon I had gone to the king. After some time, however, I asked leave from the king,

7 and I came to Jerusalem and ^alearned about the evil that Eliashib had done for Tobiah, ^aby preparing a ²room for him in the courts of the house of God.

8 And it was very displeasing to me, so I ^athrew all of Tobiah's household goods out of the room.

9 Then I gave an order and they cleansed the rooms; and I returned there the utensils of the house of God with the grain offerings and the frankincense.

10 ¶ I also ¹discovered that the portions of the Levites had not been given them, so that the Levites and the singers who performed the service had ²gone away, ^beach to his own field.

11 So I ^{1a}reprimanded the officials and said, "^bWhy is the house of God forsaken?" Then I gathered them together and restored them to their posts.

12 All Judah then brought ^athe

13 And in charge of the storehouses I appointed Shelemiah the priest, Zadok the scribe, and Pedaiah of the Levites, and in addition to them was Hanan the son of Zaccur, the son of Mattaniah; for ^athey were considered reliable, and it was ¹their task to distribute to their ²kinsmen.

14 ^aRemember me for this, O my God, and do not blot out my loyal deeds which I have performed for the house of my God and its services.

15 ¶ In those days I saw in Judah some who were treading wine presses ^aon the sabbath, and bringing in sacks of grain and loading them on donkeys, as well as wine, grapes, figs, and all kinds of loads, ^band they brought them into Jerusalem on the sabbath day. So ^cI admonished them on the day they sold food.

16 Also men of Tyre were living ¹there who imported fish and all kinds of merchandise, and sold them to the sons of Judah on the sabbath, even in Jerusalem.

17 Then ^aI ¹reprimanded the nobles of Judah and said to them, "What is this evil thing you are doing, ²by profaning the sabbath day?

18 "^aDid not your fathers do the same so that our God brought on us, and on this city, all this trouble? Yet you are adding to the wrath on Israel by profaning the sabbath."

19 ¶ ^aAnd it came about that just as it grew dark at the gates of Jerusalem before the sabbath, I commanded that the doors should be shut ¹and that they should not open them until after the sabbath. Then I stationed some of my servants at the gates that no load should enter on the sabbath day.

20 Once or twice the traders and merchants of every kind of merchandise spent the night outside Jerusalem.

21 Then ^aI ¹warned them and said to them, "Why do you spend the night in front of the wall? If you do so again, I will ²use force against you." From that time on they did not come on the sabbath.

22 And I commanded the Levites that ^athey should purify themselves and come as gatekeepers to sanctify the sabbath day. For this also ^bremember me, O my God, and have compassion on me according to the greatness of Thy lovingkindness.

23 ¶ In those days I also saw that the Jews had ^{1a}married women from ^bAshdod, ^cAmmon, and Moab.

24 As for their children, half spoke in the language of Ashdod, and none of them was able to speak the language of Judah, but ¹the language of his own people.

25 So ^aI contended with them and cursed them and ^bstruck some of them and pulled out their hair, and ^cmade them swear by God, "You shall not give your daughters to their sons, nor take of their daughters

6 There were hangings of fine white and violet linen held by cords of fine purple linen on silver rings and marble columns, and couches of gold and silver on a mosaic pavement of porphyry, marble, mother-of-pearl, and precious stones.

7 Drinks were served in golden vessels of various kinds, and the royal wine was plentiful according to the king's bounty.

8 And the drinking was done according to the law, there was no compulsion, for so the king had given orders to each official of his household that he should do according to the desires of each person.

9 Queen Vashti also gave a banquet for the women in the palace which belonged to King Ahasuerus.

10 On the seventh day, when the heart of the king was merry with wine, he commanded Memucan, Biztha, Harbona, Bigtha, Abagtha, Zethar, and Carkas, the seven eunuchs who served in the presence of King Ahasuerus, 11 to bring Queen Vashti before the king with her royal crown in order to display her beauty to the people and the princes, for she was beautiful.

12 But Queen Vashti refused to come at the king's command delivered by the eunuchs. Then the king became very angry and his wrath burned within him.

13 Then the king said to the wise men who understood the times—for it was the custom of the king so to speak before all who knew law and justice,

14 and were close to him: Carshena, Shethar, Admatha, Tarshish, Meres, Marsena, and Me-

mucan, the seven princes of Persia and Media who had access to the king's presence and sat in the first place in the kingdom—

15 "According to law, what is to be done with Queen Vashti, because she did not obey the command of King Ahasuerus delivered by the eunuchs?"

16 And in the presence of the king and the princes, Memucan said, "Queen Vashti has wronged not only the king but also all the princes, and all the peoples who are in all the provinces of King Ahasuerus.

17 "For the queen's conduct will become known to all the women causing them to look with contempt on their husbands by saying, 'King Ahasuerus commanded Queen Vashti to be brought in to his presence, but she did not come.'

18 "And this day the ladies of Persia and Media who have heard of the queen's conduct will speak in the same way to all the king's princes, and there will be plenty of contempt and anger.

19 "If it pleases the king, let a royal edict be issued by him and let it be written in the laws of Persia and Media so that it cannot be repealed, that Vashti should come no more into the presence of King Ahasuerus, and let the king give her royal position to another who is more worthy than she.

20 "And when the king's edict which he shall make is heard throughout all his kingdom, great as it is, then all women will give honor to their husbands, great and small."

21 And this word pleased the king and the princes, and the king did as Memucan proposed.

22 So he sent letters to all the king's provinces, to each province according to its script and to every people according to their language, that every man should

CHAPTER 2

AFTER these things ^awhen the anger of King Ahasuerus had subsided, he remembered Vashti and what she had done and ^bwhat had been decreed against her.

2 Then the king's attendants, who served him, said, "Let beautiful young virgins be sought for the king.

3 "And let the king appoint overseers in ^aall the provinces of his kingdom that they may gather every beautiful young virgin to Susa the capital, to the harem, into the custody of ^bHegai, the king's eunuch, who was in charge of the women; and ^clet their cosmetics be given them.

4 "Then let the young lady who pleases the king be queen in place of Vashti." And the matter pleased the king, and he did accordingly.

5 ¶ Now there was a Jew in Susa the capital whose name was ^aMordecai, the son of Jair, the son of Shimei, the son of Kish, a Benjaminite,

6 ^awho had been taken into exile from Jerusalem with the captives who had been exiled with Jeconiah king of Judah, whom Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon had exiled.

7 And he was bringing up Hadassah, that is ^aEsther, his uncle's daughter, for she had neither father nor mother. Now the young lady was beautiful of form and ¹face, and when her father and her mother died, Mordecai took her as his own daughter.

8 ¶ So it came about when the command and decree of the king were heard and ^amany young ladies were gathered to Susa the capital into the custody of ^bHegai, that Esther was taken to the king's ¹palace into the custody of Hegai, who was in charge of the women.

9 Now the young lady pleased him and found favor with him. So he quickly provided her with her ^acosmetics and ¹food, gave her seven choice maids from the king's palace, and transferred her and her maids to the best place in the harem.

10 ^aEsther did not make known her people or her kindred, for Mordecai had instructed her that she should not make them known.

11 And every day Mordecai walked back and forth in front of the court of the harem to learn how Esther was and how she fared.

12 ¶ Now when the turn of each young lady came to go in to King Ahasuerus, after the end of her twelve months under the regulations for the women—for the days of their beautification were completed as follows: six months with oil of myrrh and six months with spices and the cosmetics for women—

13 the young lady would go in to the king in this way: anything that she ¹desired was given her to take with her from the harem to the king's palace.

14 In the evening she would go in and in the morning she would return to the second harem, to the ¹custody of Shaashgaz, the king's eunuch who was in charge of the concubines. She would not again go in to the king unless the king delighted in her and she was summoned by name.

15 Now when the turn of Esther, ^athe daughter of Abihail the uncle of Mordecai who had taken her as his daughter, came to go in to the king, she did not request anything except what ^bHegai, the king's eunuch who was in charge of the women, ¹advised. And Esther found favor in the eyes of all who saw her.

16 ¶ So Esther was taken to King Ahasuerus to his royal palace in the tenth month which is the month Tebeth, in the seventh year of his reign.

17 And the king loved Esther more than all the women, and she found favor and kindness with him more than all the virgins, so that ^ahe set the royal crown on her head and made her queen instead of Vashti.

18 Then ^athe king gave a great banquet, Esther's banquet, for all his princes and his servants; he also made a holiday for the provinces and gave gifts ^baccording to the king's bounty.

19 ¶ And ^awhen the virgins were gathered together the second time, then Mordecai ^bwas sitting at the king's gate.

20 ^aEsther had not yet made known her kindred or her people, even as Mordecai had commanded her, for Esther did what Mordecai told her as she had done ^bwhen under his care.

21 In those days, while Mordecai was sitting at the king's gate, Bigthan and Teresh, two of the king's officials from those who guarded the door, became angry and sought to ¹lay hands on King Ahasuerus.

22 But the ¹plot became known to Mordecai, and ^ahe told Queen Esther, and Esther ²informed the king in Mordecai's name.

23 Now when the plot was investigated and found to be so, they were both hanged on a ¹galows; and it was written in ^athe Book of the Chronicles in the king's presence.

3 Then the king's servants who were at ^athe king's gate said to Mordecai, ^b"Why are you transgressing the king's command?"

4 Now it was when they had spoken daily to him and he would not listen to them, that they told Haman to see whether Mordecai's reason would stand; for he had told them that he was a Jew.

5 When Haman saw that ^aMordecai neither bowed down nor paid homage to him, Haman was filled with rage.

6 But he ¹disdained to ²lay hands on Mordecai alone, for they had told him who the people of Mordecai were; therefore Haman ^asought to destroy all the Jews, the people of Mordecai, who were throughout the whole kingdom of Ahasuerus.

7 ¶ In the first month, which is the month Nisan, in the twelfth year of King Ahasuerus, ¹Pur, that is the lot, was ^acast before Haman from day to day and from month to month, ²until the twelfth month, that is ^bthe month Adar.

8 Then Haman said to King Ahasuerus, "There is a certain people scattered and dispersed among the peoples in all the provinces of your kingdom; ^atheir laws are different from those of all other people, and they do not observe the king's laws, so it is not in the king's interest to let them remain.

9 "If it is pleasing to the king, let it be ¹decreed that they be destroyed, and I will pay ten thousand talents of silver into the hands of those who carry on the king's business, to put into the king's treasuries."

10 Then ^athe king took his signet ring from his hand and gave it to Haman, the son of Hammedatha ^bthe Agagite, ^cthe enemy of the Jews.

11 And the king said to Haman, "The silver is ¹yours, and the people also, to do with them as you please."

12 ^aThen the king's scribes were summoned on the thirteenth day of the first month, and it was written just as Haman commanded to ^bthe king's satraps, to the governors who were over each province, and to the princes of each people, each province according to its script, each people according to its language, being written ^cin the name of King Ahasuerus and sealed with the king's signet ring.

13 And letters were sent by ^acouriers to all the king's provinces ^bto destroy, to kill, and to annihilate all the Jews, both young and old, women and children, ^cin one day, the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, which is the month Adar, and to ^dseize their possessions as plunder.

14 ^aA copy of the edict to be ^bissued as law in every province was published to all the peoples so that they should be ready for this day.

15 The couriers went out impelled by the king's command while the decree was ^bissued in Susa the capital; and while the king and Haman sat down to drink, ^athe city of Susa was in confusion.

CHAPTER 4

WHEN Mordecai learned ^aall that had been done, ^bhe tore his clothes, put on sackcloth and ashes, and went out into the midst of the city and wailed loudly and bitterly.

2 And he went as far as the king's gate, for no one was to enter the king's gate clothed in sackcloth.

3 And in each and every province where the command and decree of the king came, there was great mourning among the Jews with ^afasting, weeping, and wailing; and many lay on sackcloth and ashes.

4 ¶ Then Esther's maiden and her eunuchs came and told her, and the queen writhed in great anguish. And she sent garments to clothe Mordecai that he might remove his sackcloth from him, but he did not accept them.

5 Then Esther summoned Hathach from the king's eunuchs whom ¹the king had appointed to attend her, and ordered him to go to Mordecai to learn what this was and why it was.

6 So Hathach went out to Mordecai to the city square in front of the king's gate.

7 And Mordecai told him ^aall that had happened to him, and ^athe exact amount of money that Haman had promised to pay for the king's treasures for the destruction of the Jews.

8 He also gave him ^aa copy of the text of the edict which had been issued in Susa for their destruction, that he might show Esther and inform her, and to order her to go in to the king to implore his favor and to plead with him for her people.

9 ¶ And Hathach came back and related Mordecai's words to Esther.

10 Then Esther spoke to Hathach and ordered him to ^breply to Mordecai:

11 "All the king's servants and the people of the king's provinces know that for any man or woman who ^acomes to the king to the inner court who is not summoned, ^bhe has but one law that he be put to death, unless the king holds out ^cto him the golden scepter so that he may 12 And they related Esther's words to Mordecai.

13 ¶ Then Mordecai told them to reply to Esther, "Do not imagine that you in the king's palace can escape any more than all the Jews.

14 "For if you remain silent at this time, relief and deliverance will arise for the Jews from another place and you and your father's house will perish. And who knows whether you have not attained royalty for such a time as this?"

15 Then Esther told them to reply to Mordecai,

16 "Go, assemble all the Jews who are found in Susa, and fast for me; do not eat or drink for three days, night or day. I and my maidens also will fast in the same way. And thus I will go in to the king, which is not according to the law; and if I perish, I perish."

17 So Mordecai went away and did just as Esther had commanded him.

CHAPTER 5

NOW it came about on the third day that Esther put on her royal robes and stood in the inner court of the king's palace in front of the king's rooms, and the king was sitting on his royal throne in the throne room, opposite the entrance to the palace.

2 And it happened when the king saw Esther the queen standing in the court, she obtained favor in his sight; and the king extended to Esther the golden scepter which was in his hand. So Esther came near and touched the top of the scepter.

4 And Esther said, "If it please the king, may the king and Haman come this day to the banquet that I have prepared for him."

5 ¶ Then the king said, "Bring Haman quickly that we may do as Esther desires." So the king and Haman came to the banquet which Esther had prepared.

6 And, as they drank their wine at the banquet, the king said to Esther, "What is your petition, for it shall be granted to you. And what is your request? Even to half of the kingdom it shall be done."

7 So Esther answered and said, "My petition and my request is:

8 "if I have found favor in the sight of the king, and if it please the king to grant my petition and do what I request, may the king and Haman come to the banquet which I shall prepare for them, and tomorrow I will do as the king says."

9 ¶ Then Haman went out that day glad and pleased of heart; but when Haman saw Mordecai in the king's gate, and that he did not stand up or tremble before him, Haman was filled with anger against Mordecai.

10 Haman controlled himself, however, went to his house, and sent for his friends and his wife Zeresh.

11 Then Haman recounted to them the glory of his riches, and the number of his sons, and every instance where the king had magnified him, and how he had promoted him above the princes and servants of the king.

12 Haman also said, "Even Esther the queen let no one but me come with the king to the banquet which she had prepared; and tomorrow also I am invited by her with the king.

13 "Yet all of this ¹does not satisfy me every time I see Mordecai the Jew sitting at ^athe king's gate."

14 Then Zeresh his wife and all his friends said to him, "Have a ¹gallows fifty cubits high made and in the morning ask the king to have Mordecai hanged on it, then go joyfully with the king to the banquet." And the ²advice pleased Haman, so he had the gallows made.

CHAPTER 6

DURING that night ¹the king ^acould not sleep so he gave an order to bring ^bthe book of records, the chronicles, and they were read before the king.

2 And it was found written what ^aMordecai had reported concerning Bigthana and Teresh, two of the king's eunuchs who were doorkeepers, that they had sought to lay hands on King Ahasuerus.

3 And the king said, "What honor or dignity has been bestowed on Mordecai for this?" Then the king's servants who attended him said, "Nothing has been done for him."

4 So the king said, "Who is in the court?" Now Haman had just ^aentered the outer court of the king's palace in order to speak to the king about ^bhanging Mordecai on the gallows which he had prepared for him.

5 And the king's servants said to him, "Behold, Haman is standing in the court." And the king said, "Let him come in."

6 So Haman came in and the king said to him, "What is to be done for the man ^awhom the king desires to honor?" And Haman said ¹to himself, "Whom would the king desire to honor more than me?"

10 ¶ Then the king said to Haman, "Take quickly the robes and the horse as you have said, and do so for Mordecai the Jew, who is sitting at the king's gate; do not fall short in anything of all that you have said."

11 So Haman took the robe and the horse, and arrayed Mordecai, and led him on horseback through the city square, and proclaimed before him, "Thus it shall be done to the man whom the king desires to honor."

12 Then Mordecai returned to the king's gate. But Haman hurried home, mourning, ^awith his head covered.

13 And Haman recounted ^ato Zeresh his wife and all his friends everything that had happened to him. Then his wise men and Zeresh his wife said to him, "If Mordecai, before whom you have begun to fall, is ¹of Jewish origin, you will not overcome him, but will surely fall before him."

14 While they were still talking with him, the king's eunuchs arrived and hastily ^abrought Haman to the banquet which Esther had prepared.

NOW the king and Haman came to drink wine with Esther the queen.

4 for we have been sold, I and my people, to be destroyed, to be killed and to be annihilated. Now if we had only been sold as slaves, men and women, I would have remained silent, for the trouble would not be commensurate with the annoyance to the king."

5 Then King Ahasuerus asked Queen Esther, "Who is he, and where is he, who would presume to do thus?"

6 And Esther said, "A foe and an enemy, is this wicked Haman!" Then Haman became terrified before the king and queen.

7 And the king arose in his anger from drinking wine and went into the palace garden; but Haman stayed to beg for his life from Queen Esther, for he saw that harm had been determined against him by the king.

8 Now when the king returned from the palace garden into the place where they were drinking wine, Haman was falling on the couch where Esther was. Then the king said, "Will he even assault the queen with me in the house?" As the word went out of the king's mouth, they covered Haman's face.

9 Then Harbonah, one of the eunuchs who were before the king said, "Behold indeed, the gallows standing at Haman's house fifty cubits high, which Haman made for Mordecai who spoke good on behalf of the king!" And the king said, "Hang him on it."

10 "So they hanged Haman on the gallows which he had prepared for Mordecai, and the king's anger subsided.

CHAPTER 8

ON that day King Ahasuerus gave the house of Haman, the enemy of the Jews, to Queen Esther; and Mordecai came before the king, for Esther had disclosed what he was to her.

2 And the king took off his signet ring which he had taken away from Haman, and gave it to Mordecai. And Esther set Mordecai over the house of Haman.

3 Then Esther spoke again to the king, fell at his feet, wept, and implored him to avert the evil scheme of Haman the Agagite and his plot which he had devised against the Jews.

4 And the king extended the golden scepter to Esther. So Esther arose and stood before the king.

5 Then she said, "If it pleases the king and if I have found favor before him and the matter seems proper to the king and I am pleasing in his sight, let it be written to revoke the letters devised by Haman, the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, which he wrote to destroy the Jews who are in all the king's provinces.

6 "For how can I endure to see the calamity which shall befall my people, and how can I endure to see the destruction of my kindred?"

7 So King Ahasuerus said to Queen Esther and to Mordecai the Jew, "Behold, I have given the house of Haman to Esther, and him they have hanged on the gallows because he had stretched out his hands against the Jews.

8 "Now you write to the Jews as you see fit, in the king's name, and seal it with the king's signet ring; for a decree which is written in the name of the king and sealed with the king's signet ring ^bmay not be revoked."

9 ¶ So the king's scribes were called at that time in the third month (that is, the month Sivan), on the twenty-third ¹day; and it was written according to all that Mordecai commanded to the Jews, the satraps, the governors, and the princes of the provinces which extended ^bfrom India to ²Ethiopia, 127 provinces, to ^cevery province according to its script, and to every people according to their language, as well as to the Jews according to their script and their language.

10 And he wrote in the name of King Ahasuerus, and sealed it with the king's signet ring, and sent letters by couriers on ^ahorses, riding on steeds sired by the royal stud.

11 ¹In them the king granted the Jews who were in each and every city the right ^ato assemble and to defend their lives, ^bto destroy, to kill, and to annihilate the entire army of any people or province which might attack them, including children and women, and ^cto plunder their spoil,

12 on ^aone day in all the provinces of King Ahasuerus, the thirteenth day of the twelfth month (that is, the month Adar).

13 ^aA copy of the edict to be ¹issued as law in each and every province, was published to all the peoples, so that the Jews should be ready for this day to avenge themselves on their enemies.

14 The couriers, hastened and impelled by the king's command, went out, riding on the royal steeds; and the decree was given out in Susa the capital.

15 ¶ Then Mordecai went out from the presence of the king ^ain royal robes of ¹blue and white, with a large crown of gold and ^agarment of fine linen and purple; and ^cthe city of Susa shouted and rejoiced.

16 For the Jews there was ^alight and gladness and joy and honor.

17 And in each and every province, and in each and every city, wherever the king's commandment and his decree arrived, there was gladness and joy for the Jews, a feast and a ¹holiday. And ^bmany among the peoples of the land became Jews, for the dread of the Jews had fallen on them.

CHAPTER 9

NOW ^ain the twelfth month (that is, the month Adar), on ^bthe thirteenth ¹day ^cwhen the king's command and edict ²were about to be executed, on the day when the enemies of the Jews hoped to gain the mastery over them, it was turned to the contrary so that the Jews themselves gained the mastery over those who hated them.

2 ^aThe Jews assembled in their cities throughout all the provinces of King Ahasuerus to lay hands on those who sought their harm; and no one could stand before them, ^bfor the dread of them had fallen on all the peoples.

3 Even all the princes of the provinces, ^athe satraps, the governors, and those who were doing the king's business ¹assisted the Jews, because the dread of Mordecai had fallen on them.

4 Indeed, Mordecai was great in the king's house, and his fame spread throughout all the provinces; for the man Mordecai ^abecame greater and greater.

5 Thus ^athe Jews struck all their enemies with ¹the sword, killing and destroying; and they did what they pleased to those who hated them.

6 And in Susa the capital the Jews killed and destroyed five hundred men,

7 and Parshandatha, Dalphon, Aspatha,

8 Poratha, Adalia, Aridatha,

9 Parmashta, Arisai, Aridai, and Vaizatha,

10 ^athe ten sons of Haman the son of Hammedatha, the Jews' enemy; but ^bthey did not lay their hands on the plunder.

11 ¶ On that day the number of those who were killed in Susa the capital ¹was reported to the king.

12 And the king said to Queen Esther, "The Jews have killed and destroyed five hundred men and the ten sons of Haman in Susa the capital. What then have they done in the rest of the king's provinces! ^aNow what is your petition? It shall even be granted you. And what is your further request? It shall also be done."

13 Then said Esther, "If it pleases the king, ^alet tomorrow also be granted to the Jews who are in Susa to do according to the edict of today; and let Haman's ten sons be hanged on the gallows."

14 So the king commanded that it should be done so; and an edict was issued in Susa, and Haman's ten sons were hanged.

15 And the Jews who were in Susa assembled also on the fourteenth day of the month Adar and killed ^athree hundred men in Susa, but ^bthey did not lay their hands on the plunder.

16 ¶ Now ^athe rest of the Jews who were in the king's provinces ^bassembled, to defend their lives and ¹rid themselves of their enemies, and kill 75,000 of those who hated them; but they did not lay their hands on the plunder.

17 This was done on ^athe thirteenth day of the month Adar, and ^bon the fourteenth ¹day they rested and made it a day of feasting and rejoicing.

18 But the Jews who were in Susa ^aassembled on the thirteenth and ^bthe fourteenth ¹of the same month, and they rested on the fifteenth ¹day and made it a day of feasting and rejoicing.

19 Therefore the Jews of the rural areas, who live in ^athe rural towns, make the fourteenth day of the month Adar ^a¹holiday for rejoicing and feasting and ^csending portions of food to one another.

20 ¶ Then Mordecai recorded these events, and he sent letters to all the Jews who were in all the provinces of King Ahasuerus, both near and far.

21 obliging them to celebrate the fourteenth day of the month Adar, and the fifteenth day ¹of the same month, annually.

22 because on those days the Jews ¹rid themselves of their enemies, and it was a month which was ^aturned for them from sorrow into gladness and from mourning into a ²holiday; that they should make them days of feasting and rejoicing and ^bsending portions of food to one another and gifts to the poor.

23 Thus the Jews undertook what they had started to do, and what Mordecai had written to them.

24 For Haman the son of Hammedatha, the Agagite, the adversary of all the Jews, had schemed against the Jews to destroy them, and ^ahad cast Pur, that is the lot, to disturb them and destroy them.

25 But ^awhen it came ¹to the king's attention, he commanded by letter ^bthat his wicked scheme which he had ²devised against the Jews, ^cshould return on his own head, and that he and his sons should be hanged on the ³gallows.

26 Therefore they called these days Purim after the name of Pur. ¹And ^abecause of the instructions in this letter, both what they had seen in this regard and what had happened to them,

27 the Jews established and ¹made a custom for themselves, and for their ²descendants, and for ³all those who allied themselves with them, so that ³they should not fail ⁴to celebrate these two days according to their ⁴regulation, and according to their appointed time annually.

28 So these days were to be remembered and celebrated throughout every generation, every family, every province, and every city; and these days of Purim were not to ¹fail from among the Jews, or their memory ²fade from their ³descendants.

29 ¶ Then Queen Esther, ¹daughter of Abihail, with Mordecai the Jew, wrote with full authority to confirm ²this second letter about Purim.

30 And he sent letters to all the Jews, ¹to the 127 provinces of the kingdom of Ahasuerus, namely, words of peace and truth,

31 to establish these days of Purim at their appointed times, just as Mordecai the Jew and Queen Esther had established

NOW King Ahasuerus laid a tribute on the land and on the ¹coastlands of the sea.

2 And all the ¹accomplishments of his authority and strength, and the full account of the greatness of Mordecai, ²to which the king ²advanced him, are they not written in ³the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Media and Persia?

3 For Mordecai the Jew was ¹second only to King Ahasuerus and great among the Jews, and in favor with the multitude of his kinsmen, ²one who sought the good of his people and one who spoke for the welfare of his whole nation.

THE BOOK OF JOB

Job's Character and Wealth

THERE was a man in the ¹land of Uz, whose name was ²Job, and that man was ³blameless, upright, ⁴fearing God, and ⁵turning away from evil.

2 ¹And seven sons and three daughters were born to him.

3 ¹His possessions also were 7,000 sheep, 3,000 camels, 500 yoke of oxen, 500 female donkeys, and very many servants;

and that man was ²the greatest of all the ¹men of the east.

4 And his sons used to go and hold a feast in the house of each one on his day, and they would send and invite their three sisters to eat and drink with them.

5 And it came about, when the days of feasting had completed their cycle, that Job would send and consecrate them, rising up early in the morning and offering ¹burnt offerings according to the number of them all; for Job said,

"^bPerhaps my sons have sinned and ^ccursed God in their hearts." Thus Job did continually.

6 ^aNow there was a day when the ^bsons of God came to present themselves before the LORD, and ¹Satan also came among them.

7 And the LORD said to Satan, "From where do you come?" Then Satan answered the LORD and said, "^aFrom roaming about on the earth and walking around on it."

8 And the LORD said to Satan, "Have you ¹considered ^aMy servant Job? For there is no one like him on the earth, ^ba blameless and upright man, ²fearing God and turning away from evil."

9 Then ^aSatan answered the LORD, "Does Job fear God for nothing?"

10 ^aHast Thou not made a hedge about him and his house and all that he has, on every side? ^bThou hast blessed the work of his hands, and his ^cpossessions have increased in the land.

11 ^aBut put forth Thy hand now and ^btouch all that he has; he will surely curse Thee to Thy face."

12 Then the LORD said to Satan, "Behold, all that he has is in your ¹power, only do not put forth your hand on him." So Satan departed from the presence of the LORD.

13 ¶ Now it happened on the day when his sons and his daughters were eating and drinking wine in their oldest brother's house,

14 that a messenger came to Job and said, "The oxen were plowing and the ¹donkeys feeding beside them,

15 and ¹the ^aSabeans ²attacked and took them. They also ³slew the servants with the edge of the sword, and ⁴I alone have escaped to tell you."

18 While he was still speaking, another also came and said, "Your sons and your daughters were eating and drinking wine in their oldest brother's house,

19 and behold, a great wind came from across the wilderness and struck the four corners of the house, and it fell on the young people and they died; and I alone have escaped to tell you."

20 ¶ Then Job arose and ^atore his robe and shaved his head, and he fell to the ground and worshiped.

21 And he said,

"^aNaked I came from my mother's womb, And naked I shall return there.

The ^bLORD gave and the LORD has taken away.

Blessed be the name of the LORD."

22 ^aThrough all this Job did not sin nor did he ¹blame God.

CHAPTER 2

^a AGAIN there was a day when the sons of God came to present themselves before the LORD, and Satan also came among them to present himself before the LORD.

2 And the LORD said to Satan, "Where have you come from?" Then Satan answered the LORD and said, "From roaming about on the earth, and walking around on it."

3 And the LORD said to Satan, "Have you ¹considered My servant Job? For there is no one like him on the earth, a blameless and upright man ²fearing God and turning away from evil. And he still ^aholds fast his integrity, although you incited Me against him, to ³ruin him without cause."

4 And Satan answered the LORD and said, "Skin for skin! Yes, all that a man has he will give for his life.

5"^aHowever, put forth Thy hand, now, and ^btouch his bone and his flesh; he will curse Thee to Thy face."

6 So the LORD said to Satan, "Behold, he is in your ¹power, only spare his life."

7 ¶ Then Satan went out from the presence of the LORD, and smote Job with ^asore boils from the sole of his foot to the crown of his head.

8 And he took a potsherd to scrape himself while ^ahe was sitting among the ashes.

9 Then his wife said to him, "Do you still hold fast your integrity? Curse God and die!"

10 But he said to her, "You speak as one of the foolish women speaks. ^aShall we indeed accept good from God and not accept adversity?" ^bIn all this Job did not sin with his lips.

11 ¶ Now when Job's three friends heard of all this adversity that had come upon him, they came each one from his own place, Eliphaz the ^aTemanite, Bildad the ^bShuhite, and Zophar the Naamathite; and they made an appointment together to come to ^csympathize with him and comfort him.

12 And when they lifted up their eyes at a distance, and did not recognize him, they raised their voices and wept. And each of them ^atore his robe, and they ^bthrew dust over their heads toward the sky.

AFTERWARD Job opened his mouth and cursed ¹the day of his birth.

2 And Job ¹said,

3"^aLet the day perish on which I was to be born, And the night which said, 'A ¹boy is conceived.'

4"May that day be darkness; Let not God above care for it,

Nor light shine on it.

5"Let ^adarkness and black gloom claim it;

Let a cloud settle on it;

Let the blackness of the day terrify it.

6"As for that night, let darkness seize it;

Let it not rejoice among the days of the year;

Let it not come into the number of the months.

7"Behold, let that night be barren;

Let no joyful shout enter it.

8"Let those curse it who curse the day,

Who are ¹prepared to ^arouse Leviathan.

9"Let the stars of its twilight be darkened;

Let it wait for light but have none,

Neither let it see the ¹breaking dawn;

10 Because it did not shut the opening of my mother's womb,

Or hide trouble from my eyes.

11 ¶"^aWhy did I not die ¹at birth,

Come forth from the womb and expire?

12"Why did the knees receive me,

And why the breasts, that I should suck?

CHAPTER 4

THEN Eliphaz the Temanite answered,

2 "If one ventures a word with you, will you become impatient?

But who can refrain from speaking?

3 "Behold you have admonished many,
And you have strengthened weak hands.

4 "Your words have helped the tottering to stand,
And you have strengthened feeble knees.

5 "But now it has come to you, and you are impatient;
It touches you, and you are dismayed.

6 "Is not your fear of God your confidence,
And the integrity of your ways your hope?

7 "Remember now, who ever perished being innocent?
Or where were the upright destroyed?

8 "According to what I have seen, those who plow iniquity
And those who sow trouble harvest it.

9 "By the breath of God they perish,
And by the blast of His anger they come to an end.

10 "The roaring of the lion and the voice of the fierce lion,
And the teeth of the young lions are broken.

11 "The lion perishes for lack of prey,
And the whelps of the lioness are scattered.

12 "Now a word was brought to me stealthily,
And my ear received a whisper of it.

13 "For now I would have lain down and been quiet;

I would have slept then, I would have been at rest,

14 With kings and with counselors of the earth,
Who rebuilt ruins for themselves;

15 Or with princes who had gold,
Who were filling their houses with silver.

16 "Or like a miscarriage which is discarded, I would not be,
As infants that never saw light.

17 "There the wicked cease from raging,
And there the weary are at rest.

18 "The prisoners are at ease together;
They do not hear the voice of the taskmaster.

19 "The small and the great are there,
And the slave is free from his master.

20 "Why is light given to him who suffers,
And life to the bitter of soul;

21 Who long for death, but there is none,
And dig for it more than for hidden treasures;

22 Who rejoice greatly,
They exult when they find the grave?

23 "Why is light given to a man whose way is hidden,
And whom God has hedged in?

24 "For my groaning comes at the sight of my food,
And my cries pour out like water.

25 "For what I fear comes upon me,
And what I dread befalls me.

26 "I am not at ease, nor am I quiet,
And I am not at rest, but turmoil comes."

thorns;
And the ²schemer is eager for their wealth.
6 "For ^aaffliction does not come from the dust, Neither does trouble sprout
from the ground.
7 For ^aman is born for trouble,
As sparks fly upward.
8 ¶ "But as for me, I would ^aseek God,
And I would place my cause
before God;
9 Who ^adoes great and un-searchable things, ¹Wonders without number.
10 "He ^agives rain on the earth,
And sends water on the fields,
11 So that ^aHe sets on high those who are lowly,
And those who mourn are lifted to safety.
12 "He ^afrustrates the plotting of the shrewd,
So that their hands cannot attain success.
13 "He ^acaptures the wise by their own shrewdness
And the advice of the cunning is quickly thwarted.
14 "By day they ^ameet with darkness,
And grope at noon as in the night.
15 "But He saves from ^athe sword of their mouth, And ^bthe poor from the hand of the mighty.
16 "So the helpless has hope,
And ^aunrighteousness must shut its mouth.
17 ¶ "Behold, how ^ahappy is the man whom God re-proves,

So do not despise the discipline of the Almighty.

18 "For He inflicts pain, and gives relief;

He wounds, and His hands also heal.

19 "From six troubles He will deliver you,

Even in seven evil will not touch you.

20 "In famine He will redeem you from death,

And in war from the power of the sword.

21 "You will be hidden from the scourge of the tongue,

Neither will you be afraid of violence when it comes.

22 "You will laugh at violence and famine,

Neither will you be afraid of wild beasts.

23 "For you will be in league with the stones of the field;

And the beasts of the field will be at peace with you.

24 "And you will know that your tent is secure,

For you will visit your abode and fear no loss.

25 "You will know also that your descendants will be many,

And your offspring as the grass of the earth.

26 "You will come to the grave in full vigor,

Like the stacking of grain in its season.

27 "Behold this, we have investigated it, thus it is;

Hear it, and know for yourself."

- ¶ ^aIS not man ^aforced to labor on earth,
And are not his days like the days of ^aa hired man?
2 "As a slave who pants for the

And as a hired man who eagerly waits for his wages.
3 So am I allotted months of vanity,
And ^anights of trouble are appointed me.
4 "When I ^alie down I say,
'When shall I arise?'
But the night continues,
And I am ¹continually toss-

5 "My ^aflesh is clothed with

My skin hardens and runs.
6 "My days are ^aswifter than a

7 ¶ "Remember that my life
^ais but breath,
My eye will ^bnot again see
good.
8 "The ^aeye of him who sees is gone,

So ^bhe who goes down to ^cSheol does not come up.
10 "He will not return again to his house,
Nor will ^ahis place know him anymore.

- 11 ¶ "Therefore, ^aI will not restrain my mouth;
I will speak in the angulsh of my spirit,
I will complain in the bitterness of my soul.
- 12 "Am I the sea, or ^athe sea monster,
That Thou dost set a guard over me?
- 13 "If I say, ^a"My bed will comfort me,
My couch will ^lease my complaint,"

Death rather than my ^lpains.

Leave me alone, ^bfor my days are but a breath.

- 19 "^lWilt Thou never turn Thy gaze away from me,
Nor let me alone until I swallow my spittle?
- 20 "^aHave I sinned? What have I done to Thee,
O ^bwatcher of men?
Why hast Thou set me as Thy target,
So that I am a burden to myself?
- 21 "Why then ^adost Thou not pardon my transgression
And take away my iniquity?
For now I will ^lie down in the dust;
And Thou wilt seek me, ^cbut I will not be."

CHAPTER 11

- THEN Zophar the Naamathite ¹answered,
- 2 "Shall a multitude of words go unanswered,
And a ^atalkative man be acquitted?
- 3 "Shall your boasts silence men?
And shall you ^ascoff and none rebuke?
- 4 "For ^ayou have said, 'My teaching is pure,
And ^bI am innocent in your eyes.'
- 5 "But would that God might speak,
And open His lips against you,
- 6 And show you the secrets of wisdom!
For sound wisdom ^{1a}has two sides.
Know then that God ²forgets a part of ^byour iniquity.
- 7 ¶ "Can you discover the depths of God?
Can you discover the limits of the Almighty?
- 8 "They are ^ahigh as ¹the heavens, what can you do?
Deeper than ^{2b}Sheol, what can you know?
- 9 "Its measure is longer than the earth,
And broader than the sea.
- 10 "If He passes by or shuts up Or calls an assembly, ^awho can restrain Him?
- 11 "For ^aHe knows false men,
And He ^bsees iniquity ¹without investigating.

12 "And ¹an idiot will become intelligent
When the ²foal of a ³wild donkey is born a man.

13 ¶ "If you would ⁴direct your heart right,
And ⁵spread out your hand to Him;

14 If iniquity is in your hand,
⁶put it far away,
And do not let wickedness dwell in your tents.

15 "Then, indeed, you could ⁷lift up your face without moral defect,
And you would be steadfast and ⁸not fear.

16 "For you would ⁹forget your trouble,
As ¹⁰waters that have passed by, you would remember it.

17 "And your ¹¹life would be ¹²brighter than noonday;
Darkness would be like the morning.

18 "Then you would trust, because there is hope;
And you would look around and rest securely.

19 "You would ¹³lie down and none would disturb you,
And many would ¹⁴entreat your ¹⁵favor.

20 "But the ¹⁶eyes of the wicked will fail,
And ¹⁷there will ¹⁸be no escape for them;
And their ¹⁹hope is ²⁰to breathe their last."

And He ^bsends them out, and they ^linundate the earth.
16" With Him are strength and sound wisdom,
The ^amisled and the mis-leader belong to Him.
17" He makes ^acounselors walk
^lbarefoot,
And makes fools of ^bjudges.
18" He ^aloosens the ^lbond of kings,
And binds their loins with a girdle.
19" He makes priests walk
^lbarefoot,
And overthrows ^athe secure ones.
20" He deprives the trusted ones of speech,
And ^atakes away the discernment of the elders.
21" He ^apours contempt on nobles,
And ^bloosens the belt of the strong.
22" He ^areveals mysteries from the darkness,
And brings the deep darkness into light.
23" He ^amakes the nations great, then destroys
them;
He ^lenlarges the nations,
then leads them away.
24" He ^adeprives of intelligence the chiefs of the earth's people,
And makes them wander in a pathless waste.
25" They ^agrope in darkness with no light,
And He makes them ^bstag-ger like a drunken man.

And listen to the contentions of my lips.
7" Will you ^aspeak what is unjust for God,
And speak what is deceitful
for Him?
8" Will you ^ashow partiality
for Him?
Will you contend for God?
9" Will it be well when He examines you?
Or ^awill you deceive Him as one deceives a man?
10" He will surely reprove you,
If you secretly ^ashow partiality.
11" Will not ^aHis ^lmajesty terrify you,
And the dread of Him fall on
you?
12" Your memorable sayings are proverbs of ashes,
Your defenses are defenses of clay.
13 1" ^aBe silent before me so that I may speak;
Then let come on me what may.
14" Why should I take my flesh
in my teeth,
And ^aput my life in my ^lhands?
15" ^aThough He slay me,
I will hope in Him.
Nevertheless I ^bwill argue my ways ^lbefore Him.
16" This also will be my ^asalva-
tion,
For ^aa godless man may not come before His presence.

- 17 "Listen carefully to my speech,
And let my declaration fill your ears.
- 18 "Behold now, I have ^apre-pared my case;
I know that ^bI will be vindicated.
- 19 "Who will contend with me?
For then I would be silent and ^bdie.
- 20 "Only two things do not do
to me,
Then I will not hide from Thy face:
- 21 "Remove Thy ¹hand from
me,
And let not the dread of Thee terrify me.
- 22 "Then call, and ^aI will answer;
Or let me speak, then reply
to me.
- 23 "How many are my iniquities and sins?
Make known to me my ¹rebellion and my sin.
- 24 "Why dost Thou ^ahide Thy face,
And consider me ^bThine
enemy?
- 25 "Wilt Thou cause a ^adriven leaf to tremble?
Or wilt Thou pursue the dry ^bchaff?
- 26 "For Thou dost write ^abitter things against me,
And dost ^bmake me to inherit the iniquities of my youth.

Job: "You Crush with Words."

- 12 "His ^atroops come together,
And ^bbuild up their ¹way against me,
And camp around my tent.
13 ¶ "He has ^aremoved my brothers far from me,
And my ^bacquaintances are completely estranged from me.
14 "My relatives have failed,
And my ^aintimate friends have forgotten me.
15 "Those who live in my house and my maids consider me a stranger.
I am a foreigner in their sight.
16 "I call to my servant, but he does not answer,
I have to implore him with my mouth.
17 "My breath is ¹offensive to my wife,
And I am loathsome to my own brothers.
18 "Even young children despise me;
I rise up and they speak against me.
19 "All ¹my ^aassociates abhor me,
And those I love have turned against me.
20 "My ^abone clings to my skin and my flesh,
And I have escaped ^{only} by the skin of my teeth.
21 "Pity me, pity me, O you my friends,
For the ^ahand of God has struck me.
22 "Why do you ^apersecute me as God does,
And are not satisfied with my flesh?
23 ¶ "Oh that my words were written!
Oh that they were ^ainscribed in a book!
24 "That with an iron stylus and lead
They were engraved in the rock forever!

- 25 "And as for me, I know that my ¹Redeemer lives,
 And ²at the last He will take His stand on the ³earth.
 26 "Even after my skin ¹is de-

¶ I HAVE made a covenant with my ^aeyes;
How then could I gaze at a

2 And what is ^athe portion of God from above
Or the heritage of the Almighty from on high?

3 Is it not ^acalamity to the un-

14"How much less when ^ayou say you do not behold
Him,

The ^bcase is before Him,
and you must wait for Him!

15"And now, because He has not visited in His anger, Nor has He acknowledged ¹transgression well,

16 So Job opens his mouth
¹emptily;

He multiplies words ^awithout knowledge."

CHAPTER 36

THEN Elihu continued and said,

2"Wait for me a little, and I will show you

That there ¹is yet more to be said in God's behalf.

3"I will fetch my knowledge from afar,

And I will ascribe ^arighteousness to my Maker.

4"For truly ^amy words are not false;

One who is ^bperfect in knowledge is with you.

5"Behold, God is mighty but does not ^adespise any;

He is ^bmighty in strength of understanding.

6"He does not ^akeep the wicked alive,

But gives justice to ^bthe afflicted.

7"He does not ^awithdraw His eyes from the righteous;

But ^bwith kings on the throne

He has seated them forever, and they are exalted.

8"And if they are bound in fetters,

And are caught in the cords of ^aaffliction,

9 Then he declares to them their work

And their transgressions, that they have ^amagnified themselves.

- 10^a "And ^aHe opens their ear to instruction,
And ^bcommands that they return from evil.
- 11^a "If they hear and serve Him,
They shall ^aend their days in prosperity,
And their years in ^bpleasures.
- 12^a "But if they do not hear, they shall ¹perish ^aby the sword,
And they shall ^bdie without knowledge.
- 13^a "But the godless in heart lay up anger;
They do not cry for help when He binds them.
- 14^a "They die in youth,
And their life perishes among the ^acult prostitutes.
- 15^a "He delivers the afflicted in ¹their ^aaffliction,
And ^bopens their ear ²in time of oppression.
- 16^a "Then indeed, He ^aenticed you from the mouth of distress,
Instead of it, a broad place with no constraint;
And that which was set on your table was full of ¹fatness.
- 17 ¹ "But you were full of ^ajudgment on the wicked;
Judgment and justice take hold of you.
- 18^a "Beware lest ^awrath entice you to scoffing;
And do not let the greatness of the ^bransom turn you aside.
- 19^a "Will your ¹riches keep you from distress,
Or all the forces of your strength?
- 20^a "Do not long for ^athe night,
When people ¹vanish in their place.
- 21^a "Be careful, do ^anot turn to evil;

Elihu: The Greatness of God:

- For you have preferred this to ^baffliction.
- 22^a "Behold, God is exalted in His power;
Who is a ^ateacher like Him?
- 23^a "Who has appointed Him His way,
And who has said, ^a"Thou hast done wrong?"
- 24 ¹ "Remember that you should ^aexalt His work,
Of which men have ^bsung.
- 25^a "All men have seen it;
Man beholds from afar.
- 26^a "Behold, God is ^aexalted, and ^bwe do not know Him;
The ^cnumber of His years is unsearchable.
- 27^a "For ^aHe draws up the drops of water,
They distill rain from ¹the ²mist,
- 28 Which the clouds pour down,
They drip upon man abundantly.
- 29^a "Can anyone understand the ^aspreading of the clouds,
The ^bthundering of His ¹pavilion?
- 30^a "Behold, He spreads His ¹lightning about Him,
And He covers the depths of the sea.
- 31^a "For by these He ^ajudges peoples;
He ^bgives food in abundance.
- 32^a "He covers His hands with the ¹lightning,
And ^acommands it to strike the mark.
- 33^a "Its ^anoise declares ¹His presence;
The cattle also, concerning what is coming up.
- CHAPTER 37
- 66 AT this also my heart trembles,
And leaps from its place.
- 2^a "Listen closely to the ^athunder of His voice,

- And the rumbling that goes out from His mouth.
- 3"Under the whole heaven He lets it loose,
And His lightning to the ends of the earth.
- 4"After it, a voice roars;
He thunders with His majestic voice;
And He does not restrain the lightnings when His voice is heard.
- 5"God thunders with His voice wondrously, Doing great things which we cannot comprehend.
- 6"For to the snow He says, 'Fall on the earth,'
And to the downpour and the rain, 'Be strong.'
- 7"He seals the hand of every man,
That all men may know His work.
- 8"Then the beast goes into its lair,
And remains in its den.
- 9"Out of the south comes the storm,
And out of the north the cold.
- 10"From the breath of God ice is made,
And the expanse of the waters is frozen.
- 11"Also with moisture He loads the thick cloud;
He disperses the cloud of His lightning.
- 12"And it changes direction, turning around by His guidance,
That it may do whatever He commands it
On the face of the inhabited earth.
- 13"Whether for correction, or for His world,
Or for lovingkindness, He causes it to happen.
- 14 ¶"Listen to this, O Job,
Stand and consider the wonders of God.

THEN the LORD answered Job out of the whirlwind and said,

- 2"Who is this that darkens counsel
By words without knowledge?

2 Job 35:16; 42:3

- 3 "Now ^agird up your loins like a man,
And ^bI will ask you, and you instruct Me!

And all the ^asons of God shouted for joy?
- 8 ¶ "Or who ^aenclosed the sea with doors,
When, bursting forth, it went out from the womb;
- 9 When I made a cloud its garment,
And thick darkness its swaddling band,
- 10 And I ¹placed boundaries on it,
And I set a bolt and doors.
- 11 And I said, 'Thus far you shall come, but no farther;
And here shall your proud waves stop'?
- 12 ¶ "Have you ¹ever in your life commanded the morning,
And caused the dawn to know its place;
- 13 That it might take hold of ^athe ends of the earth,
And ^bthe wicked be shaken out of it?
- 14 "It is changed like clay under the seal;

- THEN the LORD said to Job,
 2 "Will the faultfinder ^acontend with the Almighty?

 3 ¶ Then Job answered the LORD and said,
 4 "Behold, I am insignificant; what can I reply to Thee?
 I ^alay my hand on my mouth.
 5 "Once I have spoken, and ^aI will not answer;
 Even twice, and I will add no more."
 6 ¶ Then the ^aLORD answered Job out of the storm, and said,

CHAPTER 42

THEN Job answered the LORD, and said,

2 "I know that ^aThou canst do all things,

And that no purpose of Thine can be thwarted.

3 "Who is this that ^ahides counsel without knowledge?"

"Therefore I have declared that which I did not understand, Things ^btoo wonderful for me, which I did not know."

4 "Hear, now, and I will speak;
I will ^aask Thee, and do Thou instruct me."

5 "I have ^aheard of Thee by the hearing of the ear;
But now my ^beye sees Thee;
6 Therefore I retract,
And I repent in dust and ashes."

7 ¶ And it came about after the LORD had spoken these words to Job, that the LORD said to Eliphaz the Temanite, "My wrath is kindled against you and against your two friends, because you have not spoken of Me what is right ^aas My servant Job has.

8 "Now therefore, take for yourselves ^aseven bulls and seven rams, and go to My servant Job, and offer up a ^bburnt offering for yourselves, and My servant Job will ^cpray for you. ^dFor I will ^eaccept him so that I may not do with you according to your folly, because you have not spoken of Me what is right, as My servant Job has."

9 So Eliphaz the Temanite and Bildad the Shuhite and Zophar the Naamathite went and did as the LORD told them; and the LORD ^faccepted Job.

10 ¶ And the LORD ^arestored the fortunes of Job when he prayed for his friends, and the LORD increased all that Job had twofold.

11 Then all his ^abrothers, and all his sisters, and all who had known him before, came to him, and they ate bread with him in his house; and they ^bconsoled him and comforted him for all the evil that the LORD had brought on him. And each one gave him one ^cpiece of money, and each a ring of gold.

12 ^aAnd the LORD blessed the latter days of Job more than his beginning, ^band he had 14,000 sheep, and 6,000 camels, and 1,000 yoke of oxen, and 1,000 female donkeys.

13 And ^ahe had seven sons and three daughters.

14 And he named the first Jemimah, and the second Keziah, and the third Keren-happuch.

15 And in all the land no women were found so fair as Job's daughters; and their father gave them inheritance among their brothers.

16 And after this Job lived 140 years, and saw his sons, and his grandsons, four generations.

17 ^aAnd Job died, an old man and full of days.

PSALM 1

The Righteous and the Wicked Contrasted.

HOW blessed is the man who ^adoes not walk in the ^bcounsel of the wicked, Nor stand in the ^{1c}path of sinners,
 Nor ^dsit in the seat of scoffers!

2 But his ^adelight is ^bin the law of the LORD,
 And in His law he meditates ^cday and ^dnight.

3 And he will be like ^aa tree firmly planted by ¹streams of water,
 Which yields its fruit in its season,
 And its ²leaf does not wither;
 And ³in whatever he does,
^bhe prospers.

4 ¶ The wicked are not so,
 But they are like ^achaff which the wind drives away.

5 Therefore ^athe wicked will not stand in the ^bjudg-ment,
 Nor sinners in ^cthe assembly of the righteous.

6 For the LORD ^{1a}knows the way of the righteous,
 But the way of ^bthe wicked will perish.

The Reign of the LORD'S Anointed.

WHY are ^athe ¹nations in an uproar,
 And the peoples ^bdevising a vain thing?

2 The ^akings of the earth take their stand,
 And the rulers take counsel
 together ^bAgainst the LORD and against His ^{1c}Anointed:

3 "Let us ^atear their fetters apart,
 And cast away their cords
 from us!"

4 ¶ He who ¹sits in the heavens ^alaughs,
 The Lord ^bscoffs at them.

5 Then He will speak to them in His ^aanger
 And ^bterrify them in His fury:

6 "But as for Me, I have ¹in-stalled ^aMy King Upon Zion, ^bMy holy mountain."

7 ¶ "I will surely tell of the ¹decree of the LORD:
 He said to Me, 'Thou art
^aMy Son,

 More than when their grain and new wine abound.
- 8 In peace I will both lie down and sleep,
 For Thou alone, O LORD, dost make me to dwell in safety.

PSALM 5

Prayer for Protection from the Wicked.

For the choir director; for flute accompaniment.
 A Psalm of David.

- GIVE ear to my words, O LORD,
 Consider my groaning.
 2 Heed the sound of my cry for help, my King and my God,
 For to Thee do I pray.
 3 In the morning, O LORD, Thou wilt hear my voice;
 In the morning I will order my prayer to Thee and eagerly watch.
- 4 ¶ For Thou art not a God who takes pleasure in wickedness;
 No evil dwells with Thee.
 5 The boastful shall not stand before Thine eyes;
 Thou dost hate all who do iniquity.
 6 Thou dost destroy those who speak falsehood;
 The LORD abhors the man of bloodshed and deceit.
 7 But as for me, by Thine abundant lovingkindness I will enter Thy house,
 At Thy holy temple I will bow in reverence for Thee.

 Their inward part is destruction itself;
 Their throat is an open grave;
 They flatter with their tongue.
- 10 Hold them guilty, O God;
 By their own devices let them fall!
 In the multitude of their transgressions thrust them out,
 For they are rebellious against Thee.
- 11 ¶ But let all who take refuge in Thee be glad,
 Let them ever sing for joy;
 And mayest Thou shelter them,
 That those who love Thy name may exult in Thee.
- 12 For it is Thou who dost bless the righteous man, O LORD, Thou dost surround him with favor as with a shield.

PSALM 9

A Psalm of Thanksgiving for God's Justice.

For the choir director; on ^aMuth-labben.
A Psalm of David.

I WILL give thanks to the LORD with all ^amy heart;
I will ^btell of all Thy ¹wonders.

2 I will be glad and ^aexult in Thee;
I will ^bsing praise to Thy name, O ^cMost High.

3 ¶ When my enemies turn back,
They stumble and ^aperish before Thee.

4 For Thou hast ^amaintained ¹my just cause;
Thou dost sit on the throne ²b judging righteously.

5 Thou hast ^arebuked the nations;
Thou hast ^bblotted out their name forever and ever.

6 ¹The enemy has come to an end in perpetual ruins,
And Thou hast uprooted the cities;
The very ^amemory of them has perished.

7 ¶ But the ^aLORD ¹abides forever;
He has established His ^bthrone for judgment,

8 And He will ^ajudge the world in righteousness;
He will execute judgment for the peoples with equity.

9 ¹The LORD also will be a ^astronghold for the oppressed,
A stronghold in times of trouble,

10 And ¹those who ^aknow Thy name will put their trust in Thee;
For Thou, O LORD, hast not ^bforsaken those who seek Thee.

11 ¶ Sing praises to the LORD, who ^adwells in Zion; ^bDeclare among the peoples His deeds.

PSALM 10

A Prayer for the Overthrow of the Wicked.

WHY ^adost Thou stand afar off, O LORD?

Why ^bdost Thou hide ¹Thyself in times of trouble?

2 In ^apride the wicked ¹hotly pursue the afflicted;
²Let them be ^bcaught in the plots which they have devised.

3 ¶ For the wicked ^aboasts of his ^bheart's desire,
And ¹the greedy man curses and ^cspurns the LORD.

4 The wicked, in the haughtiness of his countenance, ^adoes not seek Him.
All his ¹thoughts are, "^bThere is no God."

3 ¹Or, blames the greedy man ^aPs. 49:2, 94:3, 4 ^aPs. 112:10 ^bPs. 10:13

4 ¹Or, plots ^aPs. 10:13, 38:2 ^bPs. 14:1, 38:1

- 5 ¶ His ways ^{1a}prosper at all times;
Thy judgments are on high,
^bout of his sight;
As for all his adversaries, he snorts at them.
- 6 He says to himself, "I shall not be moved;
¹Throughout all generations ^{b1}I shall not be in adversity."
- 7 His ^amouth is full of curses and deceit and ^boppression;
^cUnder his tongue is mischief and wickedness.
- 8 He sits in the ^alurking places of the villages;
In the hiding places he ^bkills
the innocent;
His eyes ¹stealthily watch for the ^{2c}unfortunate.
- 9 He lurks in a hiding place as ^aa lion in his ¹lair;
He ^blurks to catch ^cthe afflicted;
He catches the afflicted when he draws him into his ^dnet.
- 10 He ¹crouches, he ²bows
down,
And the ³unfortunate fall ⁴by his mighty ones.
- 11 He ^asays to himself, "God has forgotten;
He has hidden His face; He will never see it."
- 12 ¶ Arise, O LORD; O God, ^alift up Thy hand.
^bDo not forget the afflicted.
- 13 Why has the wicked ^aspurned God?
He has said to himself,
"Thou wilt not require
it."
- 14 Thou hast seen it, for Thou hast beheld ^amischief and vexation to ¹take it into Thy hand.
The ^{2b}unfortunate commits himself to Thee;
Thou hast been the ^chelper

PSALM 12

God, a Helper against the Treacherous.

For the choir director; ^aupon an eight-stringed lyre.
 A Psalm of David.

HELP, LORD, for ^athe godly man ceases to be,
 For the faithful disappear from among the sons of men.

2 They ^aspeak ¹falsehood to one another;
 With ^bflattering ²lips and with a double heart they speak.

3 May the LORD cut off all flattering lips.
 The tongue that ^aspeaks
 great things;

4 Who ^ahave said, "With our tongue we will prevail;
 Our lips are ¹our own; who is lord over us?"

5 "Because of the ^adevastation of the afflicted, because of the groaning of the needy,

Now ^bI will arise," says the LORD; "I will ^cset him in the safety for which he longs."

6 ¹ The ^awords of the LORD are pure words;
 As silver ^btried in a furnace on the earth, refined seven times.

7 Thou, O LORD, wilt keep
 them;

Thou wilt ^apreserve him

Prayer for Help in Trouble.

For the choir director. A Psalm of David.

HOW long, O LORD? Wilt
 Thou ^aforget me forever?
 How long ^bwilt Thou hide
 Thy face from me?

2 How long shall I ^atake counsel in my soul,
 Having ^bsorrow in my heart
 all the day?
 How long will my enemy be exalted over me?

3 ¹ Consider and answer me, O LORD, my God;

^bEnlighten my eyes, lest I ^csleep the sleep of death,

4 Lest my enemy ^asay, "I have overcome him," Lest ^bmy adversaries rejoice when I am shaken.

5 ¹ But I have ^atrusted in Thy lovingkindness;
 My heart shall ^brejoice in Thy salvation.

6 I will ^asing to the LORD, Because He has ^bdealt bountifully with me.

PSALM 14

Folly and Wickedness of Men.

For the choir director. A
 Psalm of David.

THE fool has ^asaid in his heart,
 "There is no God."

They are corrupt, they have committed abominable ¹deeds;

There is ^bno one who does
 good.

PSALMS 14-16

- 2 The LORD has ^alooked down from heaven upon the sons of men,
To see if there are any who ^bunderstand,
Who ^cseek after God.
- 3 They have all ^aturned aside; together they have become corrupt;
There is ^bno one who does good, not even one.
- 4 ¶ Do all the workers of wickedness ^anot know,
Who ^bbeat up my people as they eat bread,
And ^cdo not call upon the Lord?
- 5 There they are in great dread,
For God is with the ^arighteous generation.
- 6 You would put to shame the counsel of the afflicted,
But the LORD is his ^arefuge.
- 7 ¶ Oh, that ^athe salvation of Israel ^bwould come out of Zion!
When the LORD ²restores His captive people,
Jacob will rejoice, Israel will be glad.

PSALM 18

The LORD Praised for Giving Deliverance.

For the choir director. A Psalm of David the servant of the LORD, *who spoke to the LORD the words of this song in the day that the LORD delivered him from the hand of all his enemies and from the hand of Saul. And he said,

“I LOVE Thee, O LORD, *my strength.”

2 The LORD is *my ¹rock and ^bmy fortress and my ^cde-liverer,

My God, my rock, in whom
I take refuge;

My ^dshield and the ^ehorn of my salvation, my ^fstronghold.

3 I call upon the LORD, who is *worthy to be praised,
And I am ^bsaved from my enemies.

4 ¶ The *cords of death encompassed me,
And the ^btorrents of ¹un-godliness ²terrified me.

5 The *cords of ¹Sheol surrounded me;
The snares of death confronted me.

6 In my *distress I called upon
the LORD,
And cried to my God for help;
He heard my voice ^bout of His temple,
And my ^ccry for help before Him came into His ears.

7 ¶ Then the *earth shook and quaked;
And the ^bfoundations of the mountains were trembling
And were shaken, because He was angry.

8 Smoke went up ¹out of His nostrils,
And *fire from His mouth
devoured;
Coals were kindled by it.

12 From the *brightness before Him passed His thick clouds,

Hailstones and ^bcoals of fire.

13 The LORD also *thundered in the heavens,
And the Most High uttered
His voice,

Hailstones and coals of fire

14 And He *sent out His arrows, and scattered
them,

And lightning flashes in abundance, and ¹ruled
them.

15 Then the *channels of water appeared,

And the foundations of the world were ¹laid bare

At Thy ^brebuke, O LORD,
At the blast of the ^cbreath of Thy nostrils.

16 ¶ He *sent from on high, He took me;

He drew me out of ^bman-
waters.

17 He *delivered me from my strong enemy,
And from those who hate me, for they were ^bto

18 They confronted me in *the day of my calamity,
But ^bthe LORD was my stay

19 He brought me forth also into a *broad place;
He rescued me, because ^bHe delighted in me.

- 20 ¶ The LORD has ^arewarded me according to my righteousness;
According to the ^bcleanness of my hands He has recompensed me.
- 21 For I have ^akept the ways of the LORD,
And have ^bnot wickedly departed from my God.
- 22 For all ^aHis ordinances were before me,
And I did not put away His ^bstatutes from me.
- 23 I was also ¹blameless with Him,
And I ^bkept myself from my iniquity.
- 24 Therefore the LORD has ^arecompensed me according to my righteousness, According to the cleanness of my hands in His eyes.
- 25 ¶ With ^athe kind Thou dost show Thyself kind;
With the ¹blameless ^bThou dost show Thyself blameless;
- 26 With the pure Thou dost show Thyself ^apure;
And with the crooked ^bThou dost show Thyself ¹astute.
- 27 For Thou dost ^asave an afflicted people;
But ^bhaughty eyes Thou dost abase.
- 28 For Thou dost ^alight my lamp;
The LORD my God ^billuminates my darkness.
- 29 For by Thee I can ¹run upon a troop;
And by my God I can ^bleap over a wall.
- 30 ¶ As for God, His way is ¹blameless;
The ^bword of the LORD is tried;
He is a ^cshield to all who take refuge in Him.

PSALM 21

Praise for Deliverance.

For the choir director.
A Psalm of David.

O LORD, in Thy strength the king will ^abe glad,
And in Thy ¹salvation how greatly he will rejoice!

2 Thou hast ^agiven him his heart's desire,
And Thou hast not withheld the request of his lips. [¹Selah.

3 For Thou ^adost meet him with the blessings of good things;
Thou dost set a ^bcrown of fine gold on his head.

4 He asked life of Thee,
Thou ^adidst give it to him, ^bLength of days forever and ever.

5 His ^aglory is great through Thy ¹salvation, ^bSplendor and majesty
Thou dost place upon
him.

6 For Thou dost make him

PSALM 28

A Prayer for Help, and Praise for Its Answer.

A Psalm of David.

- TO Thee, O LORD, I call;
My ^arock, do not be deaf to
me,
Lest, if Thou ^bbe silent to
me,
I become like those who ^cgo down to the pit.
- 2 Hear the ^avoice of my suptuary.

- 3 ^aDo not drag me away with the wicked
And with those who work
iniquity;
Who ^bspeak peace with their neighbors,
While evil is in their hearts.
- 4 Requite them ^aaccording to their work and according to the evil of their practices;
Requite them according to the deeds of their hands; Repay them their ^brecompense.
- 5 Because they ^ado not regard the works of the LORD
Nor the deeds of His hands,
He will tear them down and not build them up.
- 6 ^aBlessed be the LORD, Because He ^ahas heard the voice of my supplication.

Thanksgiving for Deliverance from Death.

A Psalm; a Song at the Dedication of the House.
A Psalm of David.

I WILL ^aextol Thee, O LORD, for Thou hast ^blifted me up.
And hast not let my ^cenemies rejoice over me.

2 O LORD my God,
I ^acried to Thee for help, and Thou didst ^bheal me.

3 O LORD, Thou hast ^abrought up my soul from ¹Sheol;
Thou hast kept me alive,
²that I should not ^bgo

4 ^aSing praise to the LORD,
you ^bHis godly ones,
And ^cgive thanks to His holy ¹dname.

5 For ^aHis anger is but for a moment,
His ^bfavor is for a lifetime;
Weeping may ^clast for the
night,
But a shout of joy comes in the morning.

6 ¶ Now as for me, I said in my prosperity,
"I will ^anever be moved."

7 O LORD, by Thy favor Thou hast made my mountain to stand strong;
Thou didst ^ahide Thy face, I

PSALM 31

A Psalm of Complaint and of Praise.

For the choir director. A Psalm of David.

IN Thee, O LORD, I have taken refuge;

Let me never ^bbe ashamed;
^cIn Thy righteousness deliver me.

2 ^aIncline Thine ear to me,
rescue me quickly;

Be Thou to me a ^brock of ¹strength,

A stronghold to save me.

3 For Thou art my ¹rock and ^amy fortress;

For ^bThy name's sake Thou wilt lead me and guide
me.

4 Thou wilt ^apull me out of the net which they have secretly laid for me;

For Thou art my ^bstrength.

- 5 ^aInto Thy hand I commit my spirit;
Thou hast ^bransomed me, O LORD, ^cGod of ^dtruth.
- 6 ¶ I hate those who ^aregard ^bvain idols;
But I ^btrust in the LORD.
- 7 I will ^arejoice and be glad in Thy lovingkindness,
Because Thou hast ^bseen my affliction;
Thou hast known the troubles of my soul,
- 8 And Thou hast not ^agiven me over into the hand of the enemy;
Thou hast set my feet in a large place.
- 9 ¶ Be gracious to me, O LORD, for ^aI am in distress;
My ^beye is wasted away from grief, ^cmy soul and my body ^also.
- 10 For my life is spent with ^asorrow,
And my years with sighing;
My ^bstrength has failed because of my iniquity,
And ^cmy ^bbody has wasted away.
- 11 Because of all my adversaries, I have become a ^areproach, Especially to my ^bneighbors,
And an object of dread to my acquaintances;
Those who see me in the street flee from me.
- 12 I am ^aforgotten as a dead man, out of mind,
I am like a broken vessel.
- 13 For I have heard the ^aslander of many, ^bTerror is on every side;
While they ^ctook counsel together against me,
They ^dschemed to take away my life.

HOW blessed is he whose transgression is forgiven, Whose sin is covered!

- 2 How blessed is the man to whom the LORD ^adoes not impute iniquity,
And in whose spirit there is ^bno deceit!

- 3 ^a When ^aI kept silent about my sin, ^bmy ¹body wasted away

Through my ^{2c}groaning all day long.

- 4 For day and night ^aThy hand was heavy upon me;

My ^{1b}vitality was drained away as with the fever heat of summer. [²Selah.

18 ¶ Behold, ^athe eye of the LORD is on those who fear
Him.

On those who ^{1b}hope for His
lovingkindness,

19 To ^adeliver their soul from
death,

And to keep them alive ^bin famine.

20 Our soul ^awaits for the LORD;

He is our ^bhelp and our shield.

21 For our ^aheart rejoices in Him,

Because we trust in His holy name.

22 Let Thy lovingkindness, O
LORD, be upon us,

According as we have ¹hoped in Thee.

PSALM 34

The LORD a Provider and Deliverer.

A Psalm of David when he ^afeigned madness before ^bAbimelech, who drove him away and he departed.

I WILL ^abless the LORD at all times;

His ^bpraise shall continually be in my mouth.

2 My soul shall ^amake its boast in the LORD;

The ^bhumble shall hear it and rejoice.

3 O ^amagnify the LORD with
me,

And let us ^bexalt His name
together.

4 ¶ I ^asought the LORD, and
He answered me,

And ^bdelivered me from all my fears.

5 They ^alooked to Him and were radiant,

And their faces shall ^bnever be ashamed.

- 6 This ¹poor man cried and ^athe LORD heard him,
 And saved him out of all his troubles.
- 7 The ^aangel of the LORD en-camps around those who fear Him,
 And rescues them.
- 8 ¶ O ^ataste and see that the LORD is good;
 How ^bblessed is the man who takes refuge in Him!
- 9 O fear the LORD, you ^aHis saints;
 For to those who fear Him,
 there is ^bno want.
- 10 The young lions do lack and suffer hunger;
 But they who seek the LORD shall ^anot be in want of any good thing.
- 11 ^aCome, you children, listen
 to me;
^bI will teach you ^cthe fear of
 the LORD.
- 12 ^aWho is the man who desires life,
 And loves length of days
 that he may ^bsee good?
- 13 Keep ^ayour tongue from evil,
 And your lips from speaking ^bdeceit.
- 14 ^aDepart from evil, and do
 good;
 Seek peace, and ^bpursue it.
- 15 ¶ The ^aeyes of the LORD are toward the righteous,
 And His ears are open to their cry.
- 16 The ^aface of the LORD is against evildoers,
 To ^bcut off the memory of them from the earth.
- 17 The righteous ^acry and the LORD hears,
 And delivers them out of all their troubles.
- 18 The LORD ^ais near to the ^bbrokenhearted,
 And saves those who are ¹crushed in spirit.

 those who ^acontend with
 me;
 Fight against those who ^bfight against me.
- 2 Take hold of ¹a buckler and
 shield,
 And rise up for ^bmy help.
- 3 Draw also the spear and ¹the battle-axe to meet those who pursue me; Say to my soul, "I am ^ayour salvation."
- 4 Let those be ^aashamed and dishonored who seek my ¹life;
 Let those be ^bturned back and humiliated who devise evil against me.
- 5 Let them be ^alike chaff before the wind,
 With the angel of the LORD
 driving them on.
- 6 Let their way be dark and ^aslippery,
 With the angel of the LORD
 pursuing them.
- 7 For ^awithout cause they ^bhid their net for me;
 Without cause they dug a ¹pit for my soul.

8 Let ^adestruction come upon him unawares;
And ^blet the net which he hid catch himself;
Into that very ^cdestruction let him fall.

9 ¶ And my soul shall ^arejoice in the LORD;
It shall ^bexult in His salvation.

10 All my ^abones will say,
"LORD, ^bwho is like Thee,
Who delivers the afflicted from him ^cwho is too strong for him,
And ^dthe afflicted and the needy from him who robs him?"

11 ^aMalicious witnesses rise up;

They ask me of things that I do not know.

12 They ^arepay me evil for good,
To the bereavement of my soul.

13 But as for me, ^awhen they were sick, my ^bclothing was sackcloth;
I ^chumbled my soul with fasting;

And my ^dprayer kept returning to my bosom.

14 I went about as though it were my friend or brother;

I ^abowed down ^bmourning, as one who sorrows for a mother.

15 But ^aat my ^bstumbling they rejoiced, and gathered themselves together;

The ^{ab}smilers whom I did not know gathered together against me.

They ^cslandered me without ceasing.

16 Like godless jesters at a feast,

They ^agnashed at me with their teeth.

17 ¶ Lord, ^ahow long wilt Thou look on?

Rescue my soul ^bfrom their ravages,

My ^conly life from the lions.

18 I will ^agive Thee thanks in the great congregation;
I will ^bpraise Thee among a mighty throng.

19 ^aDo not let those who are wrongfully ^bmy enemies rejoice over me;

Neither let those ^cwho hate me without cause ^dwink maliciously.

20 For they do not speak peace,

But they devise ^adeceitful words against those who are quiet in the land.

21 And they ^aopened their mouth wide against me;
They said, "^bAha, aha, our eyes have seen it!"

22 ¶ ^aThou hast seen it, O LORD, ^bdo not keep silent;
O Lord, ^cdo not be far from me.

24 ^aJudge me, O LORD my God, according to Thy righteousness;
And ^bdo not let them rejoice over me.

25 Do not let them say in their heart, "^aAha, our desire!"
Do not let them say, "We have ^bswallowed him up!"

PSALM 36

Wickedness of Men and Lovingkindness of God.

For the choir director. A Psalm of David the servant of
the LORD.

TRANSGRESSION speaks to the ungodly within ¹his
heart;
There is ^ano fear of God before his eyes.
2 For ¹it ^aflatters him in his own eyes,
Concerning the discovery of his iniquity and the hatred of it.
3 The ^awords of his mouth are wickedness and deceit;
He has ^bceased to ¹be wise and to do good.
4 He ^aplans wickedness upon his bed;
He sets himself on a ^bpath that is not good;
He ^cdoes not despise evil.
5 ¶ Thy ^alovingkindness, O LORD, ¹extends to the heavens,
Thy faithfulness reaches to the skies.
6 Thy ^arighteousness is like the ¹mountains of God; Thy ^bjudgments are like a great deep.
O LORD, Thou ^cpreservest man and beast.
7 How ^aprecious is Thy lovingkindness, O God!
And the children of men ^btake refuge in the shadow of Thy wings.

PSALM 37

Security of Those Who Trust in the LORD, and Insecurity of the Wicked.

A Psalm of David.

DO not fret because of evil-doers,
Be not ^benvious toward wrongdoers.
2 For they will ^awithen quickly like the grass,
And ^bfade like the green herb.
3 ^aTrust in the LORD, and do
good; ^bDwell in the land and ¹cultivate faithfulness.
4 ^aDelight yourself in the LORD;
And He will ^bgive you the desires of your heart.
5 ^aCommit your way to the
LORD, Trust also in Him, and He will do it.
6 And He will bring forth ^ayour righteousness as the light.

5 *Ps. 55:22; Prov. 16:3; 1 Pet. 5:7
6 *Ps. 97:11; Is. 58:8, 10; Mic. 7:9

- And your judgment ^bas the noonday.
- 7 ¶ ¹Rest in the LORD and ^await ²patiently for Him; ^bDo not fret because of him who ^cprosperes in his way, Because of the man who carries out wicked schemes.
- 8 Cease from anger, and ^afor-sake wrath; Do not fret, it leads only to evil-doing.
- 9 For ^aevildoers will be cut off, But those who wait for the LORD, they will ^binherit the land.
- 10 Yet ^aa little while and the wicked man will be no more; And you will look carefully for ^bhis place, and he will not be there.
- 11 But ^athe humble will inherit the land, And will delight themselves in ^babundant prosperity.
- 12 ¶ The wicked ^aplots against the righteous, And ^bgnashes at him with his teeth.
- 13 The Lord ^alaughs at him; For He sees ^bhis day is coming.
- 14 The wicked have drawn the sword and ^abent their bow, To cast down the ^bafflicted and the needy, To ^cslay those who are up-right in conduct.
- 15 Their sword will enter their own heart, And their ^abows will be broken.
- 16 ¶ ^aBetter is the little of the righteous Than the abundance of many wicked.
- 17 For the ^aarms of the wicked will be broken;

PSALM 38

Prayer of a Suffering Penitent.

A Psalm of David, for a memorial.

- O LORD, ^arebuke me not in Thy wrath;
And chasten me not in Thy burning anger.
- 2 For Thine ^aarrows have sunk deep into me,
And ^bThy hand has pressed down on me.
- 3 There is ^ano soundness in my flesh ^bbecause of Thine indignation;
There is no health ^cin my bones because of my sin.
- 4 For my ^ainiquities are gone
over my head;
As a heavy burden they weigh too much for me.
- 5 My ¹wounds grow foul and fester.
Because of ^amy folly.
- 6 I am bent over and ^agreatly bowed down;
I ^bgo mourning all day long.
- 7 For my loins are filled with ^aburning;
And there is ^bno soundness in my flesh.
- 8 I am ^abenumbed and ¹badly
crushed;
I ^{2b}groan because of the ³agitation of my heart.
- 9 ¶ Lord, all ^amy desire is ¹before Thee;
And my ^bsighing is not hidden from Thee.
- 10 My heart throbs, ^amy strength fails me;
And the ^bblight of my eyes, even ¹that ²has gone
from me.
- 11 My ¹loved ones and my friends stand aloof from my plague;
And my kinsmen ^bstand
afar off.

- 12 Those who ^aseek my life ^blay snares for me;
 And those who ^cseek to injure me have ^dthreatened destruction,
 And they ^edevise treachery
 all day long.
- 13 ¶ But I, like a deaf man, do not hear;
 And I am like a ^adumb man who does not open his mouth.
- 14 Yes, I am like a man who does not hear,
 And in whose mouth are no
 arguments.
- 15 For ^aI ^bhope in Thee, O
 LORD;
 Thou ^bwilt answer, O Lord
 my God.
- 16 For I said, "May they not rejoice over me,
 Who, when my foot slips, ^awould magnify themselves against me."
- 17 For I am ^aready to fall,
 And ^bmy ^bsorrow is continually before me.
- 18 For I ^aconfess my iniquity;
 I am full of ^banxiety because of my sin.
- 19 But my ^aenemies are vigorous and ^bstrong;
 And many are those who ^bhate me wrongfully.
- 20 And those who ^arepay evil
 for good,
 They ^boppose me, because I follow what is good.
- 21 Do not forsake me, O LORD;
 O my God, ^ado not be far
 from me!
- 22 Make ^ahaste to help me,
 O Lord, ^bmy salvation!

back our adversaries;
Through Thy name we will trample down those who rise up against us.
- 6 For I will not trust in my bow,
Nor will my sword save me.
- 7 But Thou hast saved us from our adversaries, And Thou hast put to shame those who hate us.
- 8 In God we have boasted all day long,
And we will give thanks to Thy name forever.
[Selah.]
- 9 ¶ Yet Thou hast rejected us and brought us to dishonor,
And dost not go out with our armies.
- 10 Thou dost cause us to turn back from the adversary;
And those who hate us have taken spoil for themselves.
- 11 Thou dost give us as sheep to be eaten,
And hast scattered us
among the nations.
- 12 Thou dost sell Thy people cheaply,
And hast not profited by their sale.
- 13 Thou dost make us a reproach to our neighbors,
A scoffing and a derision to those around us.
- 14 Thou dost make us a by-

A laughingstock among the peoples.

PSALM 45

A Song Celebrating the King's Marriage.

For the choir director;
according to the ¹Shoshannim.
A ^aMaskil of the sons of Korah.
A Song of Love.

MY heart ¹overflows with a good theme;
¹I ²address my ³verses to the ⁴King;
My tongue is the pen of ^aa ready writer.

2 Thou art fairer than the sons of men;
^aGrace is poured ¹upon Thy lips;
Therefore God has ^bblessed Thee forever.

3 ¶ Gird ^aThy sword on Thy thigh, O ^{1b}Mighty One,
In Thy splendor and Thy majesty!

4 And in Thy majesty ride on victoriously,
For the cause of truth and ^ameekness and righteousness;
Let Thy ^bbright hand teach Thee ¹awesome things.

5 Thine ^aarrows are sharp;
The ^bpeoples fall under Thee;
Thine arrows are ^cin the heart of the King's enemies.

6 ¶ ^aThy throne, O God, is forever and ever;
A scepter of ^buprightness is the scepter of Thy kingdom.

7 Thou hast ^aloved righteousness, and hated wickedness;
Therefore God, Thy God, has ^banointed Thee

7 ^aPs. 11:7; 33:3; ^bPs. 2:2

With the oil of joy above
Thy fellows.

8 All Thy garments are fragrant with ^amyrrh and aloes and cassia;

Out of ivory palaces ^bstringed instruments have made Thee glad.

9 Kings' daughters are among ^aThy noble ladies;
At Thy ^bbright hand stands the queen in ^cgold from Ophir.

10 [†] Listen, O daughter, give attention and incline your ear;

^aForget your people and your father's house;

11 Then the King will desire your beauty;

Because He is your ^aLord, ^bbow down to Him.

12 And the daughter of ^aTyre will come with a gift;

The ^brich among the people will entreat your favor.

13 [†] The King's daughter is all glorious within;

Her clothing is ^ainterwoven with gold.

14 She will be ^aled to the King ^bin embroidered work;

The ^cvirgins, her companions who follow her,

Will be brought to Thee.

15 They will be led forth with gladness and rejoicing;

They will enter into the King's palace.

16 [†] In place of your fathers will be your sons;

You shall make them
princes in all the earth.

17 I will cause ^aThy name to be remembered in all generations;

Therefore the peoples ^bwill give Thee thanks forever and ever.

PSALM 48

The Beauty and Glory of Zion.

A Song; a Psalm of the sons of Korah.

- GREAT is the LORD, and greatly to be praised,
In the ^bcity of our God, His ^choly mountain.
2 ^aBeautiful in elevation, ^bthe joy of the whole earth,
Is Mount Zion in the far north,
The ^ccity of the great King.
3 God, in her palaces,
Has made Himself known as a ^astronghold.
4 ¶ For, lo, the ^akings assembled themselves,
They passed by together.
5 They saw it, then they were amazed;
They were ^aterrified, they ¹fled in alarm.
6 ¹Panic seized them there,
Anguish, as of ^aa woman in childbirth.
7 With the ^aeast wind
Thou ^bdost break the ^cships of Tarshish.
8 As we have heard, so have we seen
In the city of the LORD of hosts, in the city of our God;
God will ^aestablish her forever. [¹Selah.]
9 ¶ We have thought on ^aThy lovingkindness, O God,
In the midst of Thy temple.
10 As is Thy ^aname, O God,
So is Thy ^bpraise to the ends of the earth;
Thy ^cright hand is full of righteousness.

PSALM 50

God the Judge of the Righteous and the Wicked.

A Psalm of ^aAsaph.

^aTHE Mighty One, God, the LORD, has spoken,
 And summoned the earth ^bfrom the rising of the sun to its setting.

2 Out of Zion, ^athe perfection of beauty,

God ^bhas shone forth.

3 May our God ^acome and not keep silence;

^bFire devours before Him,
 And it is very ^ctempestuous around Him.

4 He ^asummons the heavens above,

And the earth, to judge His
 people:

5 "Gather My ^agodly ones to Me,

Those who have made a ^bcovenant with Me by ^csacrifice."

6 And the ^aheavens declare

PSALM 65

God's Abundant Favor to Earth and Man.

For the choir director. A
Psalm of David. A Song.

- THERE will be silence ¹before Thee, and praise in Zion,
O God;
And to Thee the ^avow will be performed.
- 2 O Thou who dost hear prayer,
To Thee ^aall ¹men come.
- 3 ^{1a}Iniquities prevail against
me;
As for our transgressions,
Thou dost ^{2b}forgive
them.

8 And they who dwell in the ^cends of the earth stand in awe of Thy signs;

Thou dost make the ^ddawn and the sunset shout for joy.

9 ^c Thou dost visit the earth,
and ^acause it to overflow;
Thou dost greatly ^benrich it;
The ^dstream of God is full of water;

Thou dost prepare their

The Nations Exhorted to Praise God.

For the choir director; with stringed instruments.
A Psalm. A Song.

- GOD be gracious to us and ^abless us,
And ^bcause His face to shine ¹upon us— [²Selah.]
- 2 That ^aThy way may be known on the earth, ^bThy salvation among all nations.
- 3 Let the ^apeoples praise
Thee, O God;
Let all the peoples praise
Thee.
- 4 Let the ^anations be glad and sing for joy;
For Thou wilt ^bjudge the peoples with upright-
ness,
And ^cguide the nations on the earth. [²Selah.]
- 5 Let the ^apeoples praise
Thee, O God;
Let all the peoples praise
Thee.
- 6 The ^aearth has yielded its produce;
God, our God, ^bblesses us.
- 7 God blesses us, ¹That ^aall the ends of the earth may fear Him.

PSALM 68

The God of Sinai and of the Sanctuary.

For the choir director. A
Psalm of David. A Song.

- LET ^aGod arise, ²let His en-through me, O God of Israel,

- 7 Because ^afor Thy sake I have borne reproach; ^bDishonor has covered my face.
- 8 I have become ^aestranged ¹from my brothers,
And an alien to my mother's sons.
- 9 For ^azeal for Thy house has consumed me,
And ^bthe reproaches of those who reproach Thee have fallen on me.
- 10 When I wept ^ain my soul
with fasting,
It became my reproach.

PSALM 74

An Appeal against the Devastation of the Land by the Enemy.

A ^aMaskil of Asaph.

O GOD, why hast Thou ^arejected us forever?

Why does Thine angel ^bsmoke against the ^csheep of Thy ¹pasture?

2 Remember Thy congregation, which Thou hast ^apurchased of old,

Which Thou hast ^bredeemed to be the ^ctribe of Thine inheritance;

And Mount ^dZion, where Thou hast dwelt.

3 ¹Turn Thy footsteps toward the ^aperpetual ruins;

The enemy ^bhas damaged everything within the sanctuary.

4 Thine adversaries have ^aroared in the midst of Thy meeting place;

They have set up their ^bown ¹standards ^cfor signs.

5 It seems as if one had lifted up

His ^{1a}axe in a ²forest of trees.

6 And now ¹all its ^acarved work

They smash with hatchet and ²hammers.

7 They have ^{1a}burned Thy sanctuary ²to the ground;

They have ^bdefiled the dwelling place of Thy name.

8 They ^asaid in their heart,
"Let us ¹completely ²sub-due them."

They have burned all the meeting places of God in the land.

- 13 He ^adivided the sea, and caused them to pass through;
And He made the waters stand ^bup like a heap.
- 14 Then He led them with the cloud by ^aday,
And all the night with a ^bblight of fire.
- 15 He ^asplit the rocks in the wilderness,
And gave them abundant drink like the ocean depths.
- 16 He ^abrought forth streams also from the rock,
And caused waters to run down like rivers.
- 17 ¶ Yet they still continued to sin against Him,
To ^arebel against the Most High in the desert.
- 18 And in their heart they ^aput God to the test
By asking ^bfood according to their desire.
- 19 Then they spoke against God;
They said, "^aCan God prepare a table in the wilderness?"
- 20 "Behold, He ^astruck the rock, so that waters gushed out,
And streams were overflowing;
Can He give bread also?
Will He provide ^bmeat for His people?"
- 21 ¶ Therefore the LORD heard and ^bwas ^afull of wrath,
And a fire was kindled against Jacob,
And anger also mounted against Israel;
- 22 Because they ^adid not believe in God,

- And did not trust in His salvation.
- 23 Yet He commanded the clouds above,
And ^aopened the doors of heaven;
- 24 And He ^arained down manna upon them to eat,
And gave them ^bfood from heaven.
- 25 Man did eat the bread of ^cangels;
He sent them ²food ³in abundance.
- 26 He ^acaused the east wind to blow in the heavens;
And by His ¹power He directed the south wind.
- 27 When He rained ¹meat upon them like the dust, Even ^awinged fowl like the sand of the seas,
- 28 Then He let them fall in the midst of ¹their camp, Round about their dwellings.
- 29 So they ^aate and were well filled;
And their desire He gave to them.
- 30 ¹Before they had satisfied their desire,
^aWhile their food was in their mouths,

And killed ¹some of their ^bstoutest ones,
And ²subdued the choice men of Israel.

And ^bdid not believe in His wonderful works.
- 33 So He brought ^atheir days to an end in ¹futility,
And their years in sudden terror.
- 34 ¶ When He killed them,
then they ^asought Him,
And returned and searched ^bdiligently for God;

- 38 But He, being ^acompassionate, ^bforgave their iniquity, and did not destroy them;
And often He ²restrained His anger,
And did not arouse all His wrath.
- 39 Thus ^aHe remembered that they were but ^bflesh,
A ¹wind that passes and does not return.
- 40 ¶ How often they ^arebelled against Him in the wilderness,
And ^bgrieved Him in the ^cdesert!
- 41 And again and again they ¹tempted God,
And pained the ^bHoly One of Israel.
- 42 They ^adid not remember ^bHis ¹power,

- 43 When He performed His ^asigns in Egypt,
And His ^bmarvels in the field of Zoan,
- 44 And ^aturned their rivers to blood,
And their streams, they could not drink.
- 45 He sent among them swarms of ^aflies, which devoured them,

- And ^bfrogs which destroyed them.
- 46 He gave also their crops to the ^agrasshopper,
And the product of their labor to the ^blocust.
- 47 He ¹destroyed their vines with ^ahailstones,
And their sycamore trees with frost.
- 48 He gave over their ^acattle also to the hailstones,
And their herds to bolts of lightning.
- 49 He ^asent upon them His burning anger,

- O GOD, the ^anations have ¹invaded ^bThine inheritance;
They have defiled Thy ^choly temple;
They have ^dlaid Jerusalem in ruins.
- 2 They have given the ^adead bodies of Thy servants for food to the birds of the heavens,

PSALM 81

God's Goodness and Israel's Waywardness.

For the choir director; *on the Gittith.
A Psalm of Asaph.

- SING for joy to God our strength;
Shout joyfully to the God of Jacob.
- 2 Raise a song, strike the timbrel,
The sweet sounding lyre
with the harp.
- 3 Blow the trumpet at the new moon,
At the full moon, on our feast day.
- 4 For it is a statute for Israel,
An ordinance of the God of Jacob.
- 5 He established it for a testimony in Joseph,
When he went throughout
the land of Egypt.
I heard a language that I did not know:
- 6 "I relieved his shoulder
of the burden,
His hands were freed from the basket.
- 7 "You called in trouble, and I rescued you;
I answered you in the hiding place of thunder;
I proved you at the waters of Meribah. [Selah.
- 8 "Hear, O My people, and I will admonish you;
O Israel, if you would listen
to Me!
- 9 "Let there be no strange god
among you;
Nor shall you worship any foreign god.
- 10 "I, the LORD, am your God, Who brought you up from
the land of Egypt;
Open your mouth wide and I will fill it.

And with honey from the rock I would satisfy
you."

PSALM 82

Unjust Judgments Rebuked.

A Psalm of Asaph.

- GOD takes His stand in His own congregation;
He judges in the midst of the rulers.
- 2 How long will you judge
unjustly,
And show partiality to the wicked? [Selah.
- 3 Vindicate the weak and fatherless;
Do justice to the afflicted and destitute.
- 4 Rescue the weak and needy;
Deliver them out of the hand of the wicked.

O LORD, the ^aGod of my salvation,

I have ^bcried out by day and in the night before Thee.

- 2 Let my prayer ^acome before Thee;

^bIncline Thine ear to my cry!

- 3 For my ^asoul has ¹had enough troubles,

And ^bmy life has drawn near to ²Sheol.

- 4 I am reckoned among those who ^ago down to the pit; I have become like a man ^bwithout strength,

- 5 ¹Forsaken ^aamong the dead,

Like the slain who lie in the grave,

Whom Thou dost remember no more.

And they are ^bcut off from Thy hand.

- 6 Thou hast put me in ^athe lowest pit,

In ^bdark places, in the ^cdepths.

- 7 Thy wrath ^ahas rested upon me,

And Thou hast afflicted me with ^ball Thy waves.

[¹Selah.

- 8 Thou hast removed ^amy acquaintances far from me;

Thou hast made me an ^{1b}object of loathing to them;

I am ^cshut up and cannot go out.

Will ^athe ¹departed spirits rise and praise Thee?

[Selah.]

11 Will Thy lovingkindness be declared in the grave,

12 Will Thy wonders be made known in the ^adarkness?
And Thy ¹righteousness in the land of forgetfulness?

13 ¶ But I, O LORD, have cried out ^ato Thee for help,
And ^bin the morning my prayer comes before Thee.

14 O LORD, why ^adost Thou reject my soul?
Why dost Thou ^bhide Thy face from me?

15 I was afflicted and ^aabout to die from my youth on;
I suffer ^bThy terrors; I am ¹overcome.

16 Thy ^aburning anger has passed over me;

PSALM 103

Praise for the LORD's Mercies.

A Psalm of David.

BLESS the LORD, O my soul;
And all that is within me,
bless His ^bholy name.

2 Bless the LORD, O my soul,
And ^aforget none of His benefits;

3 Who ^apardons all your iniquities;
Who ^bheals all your diseases;

4 Who ^aredeems your life
from the pit;
Who ^bcrowns you with lovingkindness and compassion;

5 Who ^asatisfies your ¹years
with good things,
So that your youth is ^bre-newed like the eagle.

6 ¶ The LORD ^aperforms ¹righteous deeds,
And judgments for all who are ^boppressed.

7 He ^amade known His ways to Moses,
His ^bacts to the sons of Israel.

8 The LORD is ^acompassion-ate and gracious, ^bSlow to anger and abounding in lovingkindness.

9 He ^awill not always strive
with us;
Nor will He ^bkeep His anger
forever.

10 He has ^anot dealt with us according to our sins, Nor rewarded us according to our iniquities.

11 For as high ^aas the heavens are above the earth,
So great is His lovingkindness toward those who ¹fear Him.

- 12 As far as the east is from the west,
So far has He ^aremoved our transgressions from us.
- 13 Just ^aas a father has compassion on his children,
So the LORD has compassion on those who ¹fear Him.
- 14 For ^aHe Himself knows ¹our frame;
He ^bis mindful that we are but ^cdust.
- 15 ¶ As for man, his days are ^alike grass;
As a ^bflower of the field, so he flourishes.
- 16 When the ^awind has passed over it, it is no more;
And its ^bplace acknowledges it no longer.
- 17 But the ^alovingkindness of the LORD is from everlasting to everlasting on those who ¹fear Him,
And His ²righteousness ^bto children's children,
- 18 To ^athose who keep His covenant,
And who remember His precepts to do them.
- 19 ¶ The LORD has established His ^athrone in the heavens;
And His ^bsovereignty rules over ²all.
- 20 Bless the LORD, you ^aHis angels, ^bMighty in strength, who ^cperform His word, ^dObedying the voice of His word!
- 21 Bless the LORD, all you ^aHis hosts,
You ^bwho serve Him, doing His will.
- 22 Bless the LORD, ^aall you works of His,
In all places of His dominion;
Bless the LORD, O my soul!

PSALM 104

The LORD's Care over All His Works.

- ^aBLESS the LORD, O my soul!
O LORD my God, Thou art very great;
Thou art ^bclothed with splendor and majesty.
- 2 Covering Thyself with ^alight as with a cloak, ^bStretching out heaven like a tent curtain.
- 3 ¹He ^alays the beams of His upper chambers in the waters;
¹He makes the ^bclouds His chariot;
¹He walks upon the ^cwings of the wind;
- 4 ¹He makes ^{2a}the winds His messengers, ³Flaming ^bfire His ministers.
- 5 ¶ He ^aestablished the earth upon its foundations,
So that it will not ¹totter forever and ever.
- 6 Thou ^adidst cover it with the deep as with a garment;
The waters were standing above the mountains.
- 7 At Thy ^arebuken they fled;
At the ^bsound of Thy thunder they hurried away.
- 8 The mountains rose; the valleys sank down
To the ^aplace which Thou didst establish for them.
- 9 Thou didst set a ^aboundary that they may not pass over;
That they may not return to cover the earth.
- 10 ¶ ¹He sends forth ^asprings in the valleys;
They flow between the mountains;

beast of the field;
The ^bwild donkeys quench their thirst.
- 12 ¹Beside them the birds of the heavens ^adwell;
They ²lift up their voices
among the branches.
- 13 ¹He ^awaters the mountains from His upper chambers;
^bThe earth is satisfied with the fruit of His works.
- 14 ¶ ¹He causes the ^agrass to grow for the ²cattle,
And ^bvegetation for the ³la-bor of man,
So that ⁴he may bring forth ⁵food ^cfrom the earth,
- 15 And ^awine which makes man's heart glad, ^bSo that he may make his nests,

And the ^bstork, whose home is the ¹fir trees.
- 18 ¶ The high mountains are for the ^awild goats;
The ^bcliffs are a refuge for the ^crock badgers.
- 19 He made the moon ^afor the

The LORD Delivers Men from Manifold Troubles.

- O ^aGive thanks to the LORD,
for ^bHe is good;
For His lovingkindness is everlasting.
- 2 Let ^athe redeemed of the LORD say so,
Whom He has ^bredeemed from the hand of the adversary,
- 3 And ^agathered from the lands,
From the east and from the west,
From the north and from the ¹south.
- 4 ¶ They ^awandered in the wilderness in a ¹desert region;
They did not find a way to ²an inhabited ^bcity.
- 5 They were hungry ¹and thirsty;
Their ^asoul fainted within them.
- 6 Then they ^acried out to the LORD in their trouble;
He delivered them out of their distresses.
- 7 He led them also by a ¹straight way,
To go to ^{2b}an inhabited city.

PSALM 109

Vengeance Invoked upon Adversaries.

For the choir director.
A Psalm of David.

O ^aGOD of my praise,
^bDo not be silent!

2 For they have opened the ¹wicked and ^adeceitful mouth against me;

They have spoken ²against me with a ^blying tongue.

3 They have also surrounded me with words of hatred,
And fought against me ^awithout cause.

4 In return ^afor my love they act as my accusers;

But ^bI am in prayer.

5 Thus they have ¹repaid me evil for good,
And ^bhatred for my love.

6 ¶ Appoint a wicked man over him;

And let an ¹accuser stand at his right hand.

7 When he is judged, let him
^acome forth guilty;

And let his ^bprayer become sin.

- 8 Let ^ahis days be few;
Let ^banother take his office.
- 9 Let his ^achildren be fatherless,
And his ^bwife a widow.
- 10 Let his ^achildren wander about and beg;
And let them ^bseek sustenance ¹far from their ruined homes.
- 11 Let ^athe creditor ¹seize all that he has;
And let ^bstrangers plunder the product of his labor.
- 12 Let there be none to ¹extend lovingkindness to him,
Nor ^bany to be gracious to his fatherless children.
- 13 Let his ^aposterity be ¹cut off;
In a following generation let their ^bname be blotted out.
- 14 ¶ Let ^athe iniquity of his fathers be remembered ¹before the LORD,
And do not let the sin of his mother be ^bblotted out.
- 15 Let ^athem be before the LORD continually,
That He may ^bcut off their memory from the earth;
- 16 Because he did not remember to show lovingkindness,
But persecuted the ^aafflicted and needy man,
And the ^bdespondent in heart, to ^cput them to death.
- 17 He also loved cursing, so ^ait came to him;
And he did not delight in blessing, so it was far from him.
- 18 But he ^aclothed himself with cursing as with his garment,
And it ^bentered into ¹his body like water,
And like oil into his bones.
- 19 Let it be to him as ^aa garment with which he covers himself,

Is the death of His godly ones.

16 O LORD, ^lsurely I am *Thy servant,
I am Thy servant, the ^bson of Thy handmaid,
Thou hast ^cloosed my bonds.

17 To Thee I shall offer *a sacrifice of thanksgiving,
And ^bcall upon the name of the LORD.

18 I shall *pay my vows to the LORD,
Oh may it be in the presence of all His people.

19 In the *courts of the LORD's house,
In the midst of you, O ^bJerusalem.
^lPraise ²the LORD!

PSALM 117

A Psalm of Praise.

PRAISE the LORD, all nations;
Laud Him, all peoples!

PSALM 118

Thanksgiving for the LORD's Saving Goodness.

- ^aGIVE thanks to the LORD, for ^bHe is good;
For His lovingkindness is everlasting.
2 Oh let ^aIsrael say,
"His lovingkindness is everlasting."
3 Oh let the ^ahouse of Aaron say,
"His lovingkindness is everlasting."
4 Oh let those ^awho ¹fear the LORD say,
"His lovingkindness is everlasting."
5 ¶ From my ^adistress I called upon ¹the LORD; ¹The LORD answered me and ^bset me in a large place.
6 The LORD is ^afor me; I will ^bnot fear;
^cWhat can man do to me?
7 The LORD is for me ^aamong
those who help me;
Therefore I shall ^blook with satisfaction on those who hate me.
8 It is ^abetter to take refuge in
the LORD
Than to trust in man.
9 It is ^abetter to take refuge in
the LORD
Than to trust in princes.
10 ¶ All nations ^asurrounded
me;
In the name of the LORD I will surely ^bcut them off.
11 They ^asurrounded me, yes,
they surrounded me;
In the name of the LORD I will surely cut them off.

84 How many are the ^adays of Thy servant?

When wilt Thou ^bexecute judgment on those who persecute me?

85 The arrogant have ^adug pits for me,

Men who are not ^lin accord with Thy law.

86 All Thy commandments are ^afaithful;

They have ^bpersecuted me with a lie; ^chelp me!

87 They almost destroyed me ^lon earth,

But as for me, I ^adid not forsake Thy precepts.

88 Revive me according to Thy lovingkindness,

So that I may keep the testimony of Thy mouth.

Lamedh.

89 ^aForever, O LORD, Thy word ^lis settled in heaven.

90 Thy ^afaithfulness continues ^lthroughout all generations;

Thou didst ^bestablish the earth, and it ^cstands.

91 They stand this day according to Thine ^aordinances,

For ^ball things are Thy servants.

92 If Thy law had not been my ^adelight,

Then I would have perished ^bin my affliction.

93 I will ^anever forget Thy precepts,

For by them Thou hast ^lrevived me.

94 I am Thine, ^asave me;

PSALM 124

Praise for Rescue from Enemies.

A Song of Ascents, of David.

- 6 ^aHAD it not been the LORD who was on our side," ^bLet Israel now say,
- 2 "Had it not been the LORD
who was on our side,
When men rose up against us;
- 3 Then they would have ^aswallowed us alive,
When their ^banger was kindled against us;
- 4 Then the ^awaters would have engulfed us,
The stream would have ¹swept over our soul;
- 5 Then the ^araging waters would have ¹swept over our soul."
- 6 ¶ Blessed be the LORD,
Who has not given us ¹to be ^atorn by their teeth.
- 7 Our soul has ^aescaped ^bas a bird out of the ^csnare of the trapper;
The snare is broken and we have escaped.

PSALM 125

The Lord Surrounds His People.

A Song of Ascents.

- THOSE who trust in the LORD
Are as Mount Zion, which ^babides forever.

- 2 As the mountains surround
Jerusalem,
So ^athe LORD surrounds His people ^bFrom this time forth and forever.
- 3 For the ^ascepter of wickedness shall not rest upon the ¹land of the righteous;
That the righteous ^bmay not put forth their hands to do wrong.
- 4 ¶ ^aDo good, O LORD, to those who are good,
And to those who are ^bupright in their hearts.
- 5 But as for those who ^aturn aside to their ^bcrooked ways,
The LORD will lead them away with the ^cdoers of iniquity.
^dPeace be upon Israel.

PSALM 127

Prosperity Comes from the LORD.

A Song of Ascents, of Solomon.

- UNLESS the LORD ^abuilds the house,
They labor in vain who build it;
Unless the LORD ^bguards
the city,
The watchman keeps awake in vain.
- 2 It is vain for you to rise up early,
To ¹retire late,
To ^aeat the bread of ²painful
labors;
For He gives to His ^bbeloved ^ceven in his sleep.
- 3 ¶ Behold, ^achildren are a ¹gift of the LORD;
The ^bfruit of the womb is a reward.
- 4 Like arrows in the hand of a ^awarrior,
So are the children of one's youth.
- 5 How ^ablessed is the man whose quiver is full of
them;
^bThey shall not be ashamed,
When they ^cspeak with their enemies ^din the gate.

PSALM 128

Blessedness of the Fear of the LORD.

A Song of Ascents.

- ^aHOW blessed is everyone
who fears the LORD,
Who ^bwalks in His ways.

- 2 When you shall eat of the fruit of your hands,
You will be happy and it will be well with you.
- 3 Your wife shall be like a fruitful vine,
Within your house,
Your children like olive plants Around your table.
- 4 Behold, for thus shall the man be blessed
Who fears the LORD.

- 5 ¶ The LORD bless you from Zion,
And may you see the prosperity of Jerusalem all the days of your life.
- 6 Indeed, may you see your children's children.
Peace be upon Israel!

Hope in the LORD's Forgiving Love.

A Song of Ascents.

- OUT of the depths I have cried to Thee, O LORD.
- 2 Lord, hear my voice!
Let Thine ears be attentive
To the voice of my supplications.
- 3 If Thou, LORD, shouldst
mark iniquities,
O Lord, who could stand?
4 But there is forgiveness with Thee,
That Thou mayest be feared.
- 5 ¶ I wait for the LORD, my soul does wait,
And in His word do I hope.
- 6 My soul waits for the Lord
More than the watchmen
for the morning;
Indeed, more than the watchmen for the morn-

For with the LORD there is lovingkindness,
And with Him is abundant redemption.

PSALM 147

Praise for Jerusalem's Restoration and Prosperity.

- 1 PRAISE ²the LORD!
For ^ait is good to sing
praises to our God;
For ³it is pleasant and praise is ^bbecoming.

lem;
He ^bgathers the outcasts of Israel.
- 3 He heals the ^abrokenhearted,
And ^bbinds up their ¹wounds.
- 4 He ^acounts the number of the stars;
He ^bgives names to all of
them.
- 5 ^aGreat is our Lord, and abundant in strength;
His ^bunderstanding is ¹infi-nite.
- 6 The LORD ^{1a}supports the afflicted;
He brings down the wicked
to the ground.
- 7 ^aSing to the LORD with thanksgiving;
Sing praises to our God on the lyre,
- 8 Who ^acovers the heavens
with clouds,
Who ^bprovides rain for the
earth,
Who ^cmakes grass to ¹grow
on the mountains.
- 9 He ^agives to the beast its food,
And to the ^byoung ravens
which cry.
- 10 He does not delight in the strength of the ^ahorse;
He ^bdoes not take pleasure in the legs of a man.
- 11 The LORD ^afavors those who
fear Him, ^bThose who wait for His lovingkindness.

CHAPTER 2

- MY son, if you will ¹receive my sayings,
And ¹treasure my commandments within you,
2 ¹Make your ear attentive to wisdom,
Incline your heart to understanding;
3 For if you cry for discernment,
¹Lift your voice for understanding;
4 If you seek her as ¹silver,
And search for her as for ¹hidden treasures;
5 Then you will discern the ¹fear of the LORD,
And discover the knowledge of God.
6 For ¹the LORD gives wisdom;
From His mouth come knowledge and understanding.
7 He stores up sound wisdom for the upright;
He is a ¹shield to those who walk in integrity.
8 Guarding the paths of justice,

- 9 Then you will discern ^arighteousness and justice
And equity and every ^bgood course.
- 10 For ^awisdom will enter your heart,
And ^bknowledge will be pleasant to your soul;
- 11 Discretion will ^aguard you, Understanding will watch
over you,
- 12 To ^adeliver you from the way of evil,
From the man who speaks ^bperverse things;
- 13 From those who ^aleave the paths of uprightness,
To walk in the ^bways of
darkness;
- 14 Who ^adelight in doing evil,
And rejoice in the perversity
of evil;
- 15 Whose paths are ^acrooked,
And who are devious in their ways;
- 16 To ^adeliver you from the

From the ^badulteress who flatters with her words;
- 17 That leaves the ^acompanion

 Nor inclined my ear to my instructors!
 14 "I was almost in utter ruin
 In the midst of the assembly and congregation."
 15 ¶ Drink water from your own cistern,
 And ¹fresh water from your own well.
 16 Should your ^asprings be dispersed abroad,
 Streams of water in the streets?
 17 Let them be yours alone,
 And not for strangers with you.
 18 Let your ^afountain be blessed,
 And ^brejoice in the ^cwife of your youth.
 19 As a loving ^ahind and a graceful doe,
 Let her breasts satisfy you at all times;
 Be ¹exhilarated always with her love.
 20 For why should you, my son, be exhilarated with an ^aadulteress,
 And embrace the bosom of a ^bforeigner?
 21 For the ^aways of a man are before the eyes of the LORD,
 And He ^bwatches all his paths.
 22 His ^aown iniquities will capture the wicked,
 And he will be held with the cords of his sin.
 23 He will ^adie for lack of instruction,
 And in the greatness of his folly he will go astray.

CHAPTER 6

- MY son, if you have become ^asurety for your neighbor,
 Have ¹given a pledge for a stranger,

- 2 If you have been snared with the words of your mouth,
Have been caught with the words of your mouth, 3 Do this then, my son, and deliver yourself;
Since you have come into the ¹hand of your neighbor,
Go, humble yourself, and importune your neighbor.
4 Do not give ^asleep to your eyes,
Nor slumber to your eyelids;
5 Deliver yourself like a gazelle from the hunter's hand,
And like a ^abird from the hand of the fowler.
6 ¶ Go to the ^aant, O ^bsluggard,
Observe her ways and be wise,
7 Which, having ^ano chief,
Officer or ruler,
8 Prepares her food ^ain the summer,
And gathers her provision in the harvest.
9 How long will you lie down,
O sluggard?
When will you arise from your sleep?
10 "A little sleep, a little slumber,
A little folding of the hands to ¹rest"— 11 ^aAnd your poverty will come in like a ¹vagabond,
And your need like ²an armed man.
12 ¶ A ^aworthless person, a wicked man,
Is the one who walks with a who ¹signals with his

Who ¹cspreads strife.
15 Therefore ^ahis calamity will come suddenly;
^bInstantly he will be broken, and there will be ^cno healing.
16 ¶ There are six things which the LORD hates, Yes, seven which are an abomination ¹to Him:
17 ^aHaughty eyes, a ^blying tongue,
And hands that ^cshed innocent blood,
18 A heart that devises
^awicked plans, ^bFeet that run rapidly to
evil,
19 A ^afalse witness who utters lies,
And one who ¹bspreads strife among brothers.
20 ¶ ^aMy son, observe the commandment of your father,
And do not forsake the ¹teaching of your mother;
21 ^aBind them continually on your heart;
Tie them around your neck.
22 When you ^awalk about,
¹they will guide you;
When you sleep, ¹they will watch over you;
And when you awake, ¹they
will talk to you.
23 For ^athe commandment is a lamp, and the ¹teaching is light;
And reproofs for discipline
are the way of life, 24 To ^akeep you from the evil woman,
From the smooth tongue of the ¹adulteress.
25 ^aDo not desire her beauty in
your heart,
Nor let her catch you with her ^beyelids.

- 26 For ^aon account of a harlot one is reduced to a loaf of bread.
And ¹an adulteress ^bhunts
for the precious life.
- 27 Can a man ¹take fire in his bosom,
And his clothes not be burned?
- 28 Or can a man walk on hot coals,
And his feet not be scorched?
- 29 So is the one who ^agoes in to his neighbor's wife;
Whoever touches her ^bwill not ¹go unpunished.
- 30 ¹Men do not despise a thief
if he steals
To ^asatisfy ²himself when he is hungry;
- 31 But when he is found, he must ^arepay sevenfold;
He must give all the ¹sub-stance of his house.
- 32 The one who commits adultery with a woman is ^alacking ¹sense;
He who would ^bdestroy ²himself does it.
- 33 Wounds and disgrace he will find,
And his reproach will not be blotted out.
- 34 For ^ajealousy ¹enrages a
man,
And he will not spare in the ^bday of vengeance.
- 35 He will not ¹accept any ransom,
Nor will he be ²content though you give many

- DOES not ^awisdom call,
And understanding ¹lift up her voice?
- 2 On top of ^athe heights beside the way,
Where the paths meet, she takes her stand;
- 3 Beside the ^agates, at the opening to the city,
At the entrance of the doors, she cries out:
- 4 "To you, O men, I call,
And my voice is to the sons of men.
- 5 "O ^{1a}naive ones, discern prudence;
And, O ^bfools, discern ²wisdom.
- 6 "Listen, for I shall speak ^anoble things;

- 14 And she sits at the doorway of her house,
On a seat by ^athe high places of the city,
- 15 Calling to those who pass by,
Who are making their paths straight:
- 16 ^a"Whoever is ¹naive, let him turn in here,"
And to him who lacks ²understanding she says,
- 17 "Stolen water is sweet;
And ^abread eaten in secret is pleasant."
- 18 But he does not know that the ¹dead are there,
That her guests are in the ^adepths of Sheol.

CHAPTER 10

- THE ^aproverbs of Solomon.
^bA wise son makes a father glad,
But ^aa foolish son is a grief to his mother.
- 2 ¹A ill-gotten gains do not profit,
But righteousness delivers from death.
- 3 The LORD ^awill not allow the ¹righteous to hunger,
But He ^bwill thrust aside the craving of the wicked.
- 4 Poor is he who works with a negligent hand,
But the ^ahand of the diligent makes rich.
- 5 He who gathers in summer is a son who acts wisely,
But he who sleeps in harvest is a son who acts shamefully.
- 6 ^aBlessings are on the head of the righteous,
But ^bthe mouth of the wicked conceals violence.
- 7 The ^amemory of the righteous is blessed,
But ^bthe name of the wicked will rot.

7 ^aPs. 112:6 ^bPs. 9:5, 6; 109:13; Eccl. 8:10

- 8 The ^awise of heart will receive commands,
But ^{1a} babbling fool will be thrown down.
- 9 He ^awho walks in integrity walks securely,
But ^bhe who perverts his ways will be found out.
- 10 He ^awho winks the eye causes trouble,
And ^{1ba} babbling fool will be thrown down.
- 11 The ^amouth of the righteous is a fountain of life,
But ^bthe mouth of the wicked conceals violence.
- 12 Hatred stirs up strife,
But ^alove covers all transgressions.
- 13 On ^athe lips of the discerning, wisdom is found,
But ^{ba} rod is for the back of him who lacks ¹understanding.
- 14 Wise men ^astore up knowledge,
But with ^bthe mouth of the foolish, ruin is at hand.
- 15 The ^arich man's wealth is his ¹fortress,
The ^bruin of the poor is their poverty.
- 16 The ^{1a}wages of the righteous is life,
The income of the wicked, punishment.
- 17 He ^ais on the path of life who heeds instruction,
But he who forsakes reproof goes astray.
- 18 He ^awho conceals hatred has lying lips,
And he who spreads slander is a fool.
- 19 When there are ^amany words, transgression is unavoidable,
But ^bhe who restrains his lips is wise.
- 20 The tongue of the righteous is as ^achoice silver,
The heart of the wicked is worth little.

A ^aFALSE balance is an abomination to the LORD, But a ^bjust weight is His delight.

2 When ^apride comes, then comes dishonor, But with the humble is wisdom.

3 The ^aintegrity of the upright will guide them, But the ^bfalseness of the treacherous will destroy them.

4 ^aRiches do not profit in the day of wrath, But ^brighteousness delivers from death.

5 The ^arighteousness of the blameless will smooth his way, But ^bthe wicked will fall by his own wickedness.

6 The righteousness of the upright will deliver them, But the treacherous will ^abe caught by their own greed.

7 When a wicked man dies, his ^aexpectation will perish, And the ^bhope of strong men perishes.

8 The righteous is delivered from trouble, But the wicked ¹takes his place.

9 With his ^amouth the godless man destroys his neighbor, But through knowledge the ^brighteous will be delivered.

10 When it ^agoes well with the righteous, the city rejoices, And when the wicked perish, there is glad shouting.

The Upright and the Wicked.

But by the mouth of the wicked it is torn down.

12 He who despises his neighbor lacks ¹sense, But a man of understanding keeps silent.

13 He ^awho goes about as a talebearer reveals secrets, But he who is ¹trustworthy ^bconceals a matter.

14 Where there is no ^aguidance, the people fall, But in abundance of counselors there is ¹victory.

15 He who is ^asurety for a stranger will surely suffer for it, But he who hates ¹going surety is safe.

16 A ^agracious woman attains honor, And violent men attain riches.

17 The ^amerciful man does ¹himself good, But the cruel man ²does himself harm.

18 The wicked earns deceptive wages, But he who ^asows righteousness gets a true reward.

19 He who is steadfast in ^arighteousness will at-tain to life, And ^bhe who pursues evil will bring about his own death.

20 The perverse in heart are an abomination to the LORD, But the ^ablameless in their ¹walk are His ^bdelight.

21 ¹Assuredly, the evil man will not go unpunished, But the ²descendants of the righteous will be delivered.

22 As a ^aring of gold in a swine's snout, So is a beautiful woman who lacks ¹discretion.

23 The desire of the righteous is only good,

- But the ^aexpectation of the wicked is wrath.
- 24 There is one who scatters, yet increases all the more,
And there is one who withholds what is justly due, but it results only in want.
- 25 The ^{1a}generous man will be ²prosperous,
And he who ^bwaters will himself be watered.
- 26 He who withholds grain, the ^apeople will curse him,
But ^bblessing will be on the head of him who ^csells it.
- 27 He who diligently seeks good seeks favor,
But ^ahe who searches after evil, it will come to him.
- 28 He who ^atrusts in his riches will fall,
But ^bthe righteous will flourish like the green leaf.
- 29 He who ^atroubles his own house will ^binherit wind,
And ^cthe foolish will be servant to the wisehearted.
- 30 The fruit of the righteous is ^aa tree of life,
And ^bhe who is wise ¹wins souls.
- 31 If ^athe righteous will be rewarded in the earth,
How much more the wicked and the sinner!

- 5 The thoughts of the righteous are just,
But the counsels of the wicked are deceitful.
- 6 The ^awords of the wicked lie in wait for blood,
But the ^bmouth of the upright will deliver them.
- 7 The ^awicked are overthrown and are no more,
But the ^bhouse of the righteous will stand.
- 8 A man will be praised according to his insight,
But one of perverse ¹mind will be despised.
- 9 Better is he who is lightly esteemed and has a servant,
Than he who honors himself and lacks bread.
- 10 A ^arighteous man has regard for the life of his beast,
But the compassion of the wicked is cruel.
- 11 He ^awho tills his land will have plenty of bread,
But he who pursues vain things lacks ¹sense.
- 12 The ^awicked desires the ¹booty of evil men,
But the root of the righteous ^byields fruit.
- 13 ¹An evil man is ensnared by the transgression of his lips,
But the ^arighteous will escape from trouble.
- 14 A man will be ^asatisfied with good by the fruit of his ¹words,
And the ^bdeeds of a man's hands will return to him.
- 15 The ^away of a fool is right in his own eyes,
But a wise man is he who listens to counsel.

- 18 There is one who ^aspeaks rashly like the thrusts of a sword,
But the ^btongue of the wise brings healing.
- 19 Truthful lips will be established forever,
But a ^alying tongue is only for a moment.
- 20 Deceit is in the heart of those who devise evil,
But counselors of peace have joy.
- 21 ^aNo harm befalls the righteous,
But the wicked are filled with trouble.
- 22 ^aLying lips are an abomination to the LORD,
But those who deal faithfully are His delight.
- 23 A ^aprudent man conceals knowledge,
But the heart of fools proclaims folly.
- 24 The hand of the diligent will rule,
But the ¹slack hand will be ^aput to forced labor.
- 25 ^aAnxiety in the heart of a man weighs it down,
But a ^bgood word makes it glad.
- 26 The righteous is a guide to his neighbor,
But the way of the wicked leads them astray.
- 27 A ¹slothful man does not ²roast his prey,
But the ^aprecious possession of a man is diligence.
- 28 ^aIn the way of righteousness is life,
And in its pathway there is no death.

- 3 The one who ^aguards his mouth preserves his life;
The one who ^bopens wide his lips ¹comes to ruin.
- 4 The soul of the sluggard craves and gets nothing,
But the soul of the diligent is made fat.
- 5 A righteous man ^ahates falsehood,
But a wicked man ^{1b}acts disgustingly and shamefully.
- 6 Righteousness ^aguards the ¹one whose way is blameless,
But wickedness subverts the ²sinner.
- 7 There is one who ^apretends to be rich, but has nothing;

CHAPTER 14

- THE wise woman builds her house,
But the foolish tears it down with her own hands.
- 2 He who walks in his uprightness fears the LORD,
But he who is crooked in his ways despises Him.
- 3 In the mouth of the foolish is a rod for his back,
But the lips of the wise will preserve them.
- 4 Where no oxen are, the manger is clean,
But much increase comes by the strength of the ox.
- 5 A faithful witness will not lie,
But a false witness speaks lies.
- 6 A scoffer seeks wisdom,
and finds none,
But knowledge is easy to him who has understanding.
- 7 Leave the presence of a fool,
Or you will not discern words of knowledge.
- 8 The wisdom of the prudent is to understand his way,
But the folly of fools is deceit.
- 9 Fools mock at sin,
But among the upright
there is good will.
- 10 The heart knows its own bitterness,
And a stranger does not share its joy.
- 11 The house of the wicked
will be destroyed,
But the tent of the upright will flourish.
- 12 There is a way which seems right to a man,
But its end is the way of death.
- 13 Even in laughter the heart
may be in pain,

- 16 A wise man ¹is cautious and ^aturns away from evil,
But a fool is arrogant and careless.
- 17 A quick-tempered man acts foolishly,
And a man of evil devices is hated.
- 18 The ¹naive inherit folly,
But the prudent are crowned with knowledge.
- 19 The ^aevil will bow down before the good,
And the wicked at the gates of the righteous.
- 20 The ^apoor is hated even by his neighbor,
But those who love the rich are many.
- 21 He who ^adespises his neighbor sins,
But ^bhappy is he who is gracious to the ¹poor.
- 22 Will they not go astray who ^adevise evil?
But kindness and truth will be to those who devise good.
- 23 In all labor there is profit,
But ¹mere talk leads only to poverty.
- 24 The ^acrown of the wise is their riches,
But the folly of fools is foolishness.
- 25 A truthful witness saves lives,
But he who ¹aspeaks lies is ²treacherous.

That one may avoid the snares of death.
- 28 In a multitude of people is a king's glory,
But in the dearth of people is a prince's ruin.
- 29 He who is ^aslow to anger has great understanding;
But he who is ¹quick-tempered exalts folly.
- 30 A ^atranquil heart is life to the body,
But passion is ^brottenness to the bones.
- 31 He ^awho oppresses the poor reproaches ^bhis Maker,
But he who is gracious to the needy honors Him.
- 32 The wicked is ^athrust down by his ¹wrongdoing,
But the ^brighteous has a refuge when he dies.
- 33 Wisdom rests in the heart of one who has understanding,
But in the ¹bosom of fools it is made known.
- 34 Righteousness exalts a nation,
But sin is a disgrace to any people.
- 35 The king's favor is toward a ^aservant who acts wisely,

- 7 The lips of the wise spread knowledge,
But the hearts of fools are not so.
- 8 The ^asacrifice of the wicked is an abomination to the LORD,
But ^bthe prayer of the upright is His delight.
- 9 The way of the wicked is an abomination to the LORD,

- 13 Righteous lips are the delight of kings,
And he who speaks right is loved.
- 14 The wrath of a king is as messengers of death,
But a wise man will appease it.
- 15 In the light of a king's face is life,
And his favor is like a cloud with the ^{1a}spring rain.
- 16 How much ^abetter it is to get wisdom than gold!

- B^a¹BETTER is a dry morsel and quietness with it
Than a house full of ¹feast-

- 2 A servant who acts wisely will rule over a son who acts shamefully,
And will share in the inher-

 - 3 The ^arefining pot is for silver and the furnace for gold,
But ^bthe LORD tests hearts.
 - 4 An ^aevildoer listens to wicked lips,
A ¹liar pays attention to a destructive tongue.
 - 5 He who mocks the ^apoor re-

He who ^brejoices at calam-

 - 6 ^aGrandchildren are the crown of old men,
And the ^bglory of sons is

 - 7 ¹Excellent speech is not fit-

Much less are ^blying lips to a prince.
 - 8 A ^abribe is a ¹charm in the sight of its owner,
Wherever he turns, he pros-

 - 9 He who ^acovers a transgression seeks love,
But he who repeats a matter ^bseparates intimate friends.
 - 10 A rebuke goes deeper into one who has understanding
Than a hundred blows into a fool.
 - 11 A rebellious man seeks only
evil,
So a cruel messenger will be sent against him.
 - 12 Let a ^aman meet a ^bbear robbed of her cubs, Rather than a fool in his folly.

- 13 He who ^areturns evil for good, ^bEvil will not depart from his house.
- 14 The beginning of strife is like letting out water,
 So ^aabandon the quarrel before it breaks out.
- 15 He who ^ajustifies the wicked, and he who condemns the righteous, Both of them alike are an abomination to the LORD.
- 16 Why is there a price in the hand of a fool to ^abuy wisdom,
 When ¹he has no sense?
- 17 A ^afriend loves at all times,
 And a brother is born for adversity.
- 18 A man lacking in ¹sense ²pledges,
 And becomes surety in the presence of his neighbor.
- 19 He who ^aloves transgression loves strife;
 He who ^braises his door seeks destruction.
- 20 He who has a crooked ¹mind ^afinds no good,
 And he who is ^bperverted in his language falls into evil.
- 21 He who ^abegets a fool does so to his sorrow,
 And the father of a fool has no joy.
- 22 A ^ajoyful heart ¹is good medicine,
 But a broken spirit ^bdries up the bones.
- 23 A wicked man receives a ^abribe from the bosom
 To ^bpervert the ways of justice.
- 24 Wisdom is in the presence of the one who has understanding,
 But the ^aeyes of a fool are on the ends of the earth.

CHAPTER 19

- ^aBBETTER is a poor man who ^bwalks in his integrity
Than he who is perverse in ¹speech and is a fool.
- 2 Also it is not good for a person to be without knowledge.
And he who makes ^ahaste with his feet ¹errs.
- 3 The ^afoolishness of man
subverts his way,
And his heart ^brages against
the LORD.
- 4 ^aWealth adds many friends,
But a poor man is separated from his friend.
- 5 A ^afalse witness will not go unpunished,
And he who ¹tells lies will not escape.
- 6 ^aMany will entreat the favor of a ¹generous man,
And every man is a friend to him who ^bgives gifts.
- 7 All the brothers of a poor man hate him;
How much more do his ^afriends go far from him!
He ^bpursues them with words, but they are ¹gone.
- 8 He who gets ¹wisdom loves his own soul;
He who keeps understanding will ^afind good.
- 9 A ^afalse witness will not go

- 10 Luxury is ^anot fitting for a fool;
Much less for a ^bslave to rule over princes.
- 11 A man's ^adiscretion makes him slow to anger.
And it is his glory ^bto overlook a transgression.
- 12 The ^aking's wrath is like the roaring of a lion,
But his favor is like ^bdew on the grass.
- 13 A ^afoolish son is destruction to his father.
And the ^bcontentions of a wife are a constant dripping.
- 14 House and wealth are an ^ainheritance from fathers.
But a prudent wife is from the LORD.
- 15 ^aLaziness casts into a deep sleep,
And an idle ^bman will suffer hunger.
- 16 He who ^akeeps the commandment keeps his soul,
But he who ^bis careless of his ways will die.
- 17 He who ^ais gracious to a poor man lends to the LORD,
And He will repay him for his ^bgood deed.
- 18 ^aDiscipline your son while there is hope,
And do not desire ^bhis death.
- 19 A man of great anger shall bear the penalty,
For if you rescue him, you will only have to do it again.
- 20 ^aListen to counsel and accept discipline,

THE king's heart is like channels of water in the hand of the LORD;

He turns it wherever He wishes.

- 2 *Every man's way is right in his own eyes,

But the LORD weighs the hearts.

- 3 To do righteousness and justice

Is desired by the LORD rather than sacrifice.

- 4 Haughty eyes and a proud heart,

The lamp of the wicked, is sin.

- 5 The plans of the diligent lead surely to advantage,

But everyone who is hasty comes surely to poverty.

- 6 The getting of treasures by a lying tongue

Is a fleeting vapor, the pursuit of death.

- 7 The violence of the wicked will drag them away,

Because they refuse to act with justice.

- 8 The way of a guilty man is crooked,

But as for the pure, his conduct is upright.

- 9 It is better to live in a corner of a roof,

Than in a house shared with a contentious woman.

- 10 The soul of the wicked desires evil;

His neighbor finds no favor in his eyes.

- 11 When the scoffer is punished, the naive becomes wise;

But when the wise is instructed, he receives knowledge.

Turning the wicked to ruin.

- 13 He who shuts his ear to the cry of the poor

Will also cry himself and not be answered.

- 14 A gift in secret subdues anger,

And a bribe in the bosom, strong wrath.

- 15 The execution of justice is joy for the righteous,

But is terror to the workers of iniquity.

- 16 A man who wanders from the way of understanding

Will rest in the assembly of the dead.

- 17 He who loves pleasure will become a poor man;

He who loves wine and oil will not become rich.

- 18 The wicked is a ransom for the righteous,

And the treacherous is in the place of the upright.

- 19 It is better to live in a desert land,

Than with a contentious and vexing woman.

- 20 There is precious treasure and oil in the dwelling of the wise,

But a foolish man swallows it up.

- 21 He who pursues righteousness and loyalty

Finds life, righteousness and honor.

- 22 A wise man scales the city of the mighty,

words ^aProv. 25:16

- WHEN you sit down to dine with a ruler,
Consider carefully ¹what is before you;
- 2 And put a knife to your throat,
If you are a ^aman of great appetite.
- 3 Do not ^adesire his delicacies,
For it is deceptive food.
- 4 ¶ ^aDo not weary yourself to gain wealth, ^bCease from your ¹consid-eration of it.
- 5 ¹When you set your eyes on it, it is gone.
For ^awealth certainly makes itself wings,
Like an eagle that flies ¹toward the heavens.
- 6 ¶ ^aDo not eat the bread of ¹a ^bselfish man,
Or desire his delicacies;
- 7 For as he ¹thinks within himself, so he is.
He says to you, "Eat and drink!"
But ^ahis heart is not with
you.
- 8 You will ^avomit up ¹the
morsel you have eaten,
And waste your ²compliments.
- 9 ¶ ^aDo not speak in the ¹hearing of a fool,
For he will ^bdespise the wisdom of your words.
- 10 ¶ Do not move the ancient boundary,
Or ^ago into the fields of the fatherless;
- 11 For their ^aRedeemer is
strong;
^bHe will plead their case against you.

Although you ¹beat him with the rod, he will not die.
- 14 You shall ¹beat him with the rod,
And ²deliver his soul from Sheol.
- 15 ¶ My son, if your heart is ²wise,
My own heart also will be glad;
- 16 And my ¹inmost being will rejoice,
When your lips speak ²what is right.
- 17 ¶ ¹Do not let your heart envy sinners,
But live in the ^{1b}fear of the LORD ²always.
- 18 Surely there is a ¹future,
And your ^{1b}hope will not be cut off.
- 19 Listen, my son, and ²be wise,
And ^{1b}direct your heart in the way.
- 20 Do not be with ²heavy drinkers of wine,
Or with ^{1b}gluttonous eaters of meat;
- 21 For the ²heavy drinker and the glutton will come to poverty,
And ^{1b}drowsiness will clothe a man with rags.
- 22 ¶ ¹Listen to your father who begot you,
And ^{1b}do not despise your mother when she is old.
- 23 ²Buy truth, and do not sell it,
Get wisdom and instruction and understanding.
- 24 ¶ The father of the righteous will greatly rejoice,
And ²he who begets a wise son will be glad in him.
- 25 Let your ²father and your mother be glad,
And let her rejoice who gave birth to you.
- 26 ¶ ²Give me your heart, my son,
And let your eyes ^{1b}delight in my ways.
- 27 For a harlot is a ²deep pit,
And an ^{1b}adulterous woman is a narrow well.
- 28 Surely she ²lurks as a robber,
And increases the ¹faithless among men.
- 29 ¶ Who has ²woe? Who has sorrow?
Who has contentions? Who has complaining?
Who has wounds without cause?
Who has redness of eyes?
- 30 Those who ²linger long over wine,
Those who go to ¹taste ^{1b}mixed wine.

CHAPTER 24

DO not be ^aenvious of evil men,

Nor desire to ^bbe with them;

2 For their ¹minds devise ^aviolence,
And their lips ^btalk of trouble.

3 ¶ ^aBy wisdom a house is built,
And by understanding it is established;

4 And by knowledge the rooms are ^afilled
With all precious and pleasant riches.

5 ¶ A ^awise man is ¹strong,
And a man of knowledge ²increases power.

6 For ^aby wise guidance you will ¹wage war,
And ^bin abundance of counselors there is victory.

7 ¶ Wisdom is ^atoo high for a fool,
He does not open his mouth ^bin the gate.

8 ¶ He who ^aplans to do evil,
Men will call him a ¹schemer.

9 The ^adevising of folly is sin,
And the scoffer is an abomination to men.

10 ¶ If you ^aare slack in the day of distress,
Your strength is limited.

11 ¶ ^aDeliver those who are being taken away to death,
And those who are staggering to slaughter, O hold them back.

12 If you say, "See, we did not know this,"
Does He not ^aconsider it ^bwho weighs the hearts?
And ^cdoes He not know it who ^dkeeps your soul?

Solomon which the men of Hezekiah, king of Judah, transcribed.

- 2 ¶ It is the glory of God to ^aconceal a matter,
But the glory of ^bkings is to search out a matter.
- 3 As the heavens for height and the earth for depth,
So the heart of kings is un-searchable.
- 4 Take away the ^adross from the silver,
And there comes out a vessel for the ^bsmith;
- 5 Take away the ^awicked
from before the king,
And his ^bthrone will be established in righteousness.
- 6 Do not claim honor in the presence of the king,
And do not stand in the place of great men;
- 7 For ^ait is better that it be said to you, "Come up here,"
Than that you should be put lower in the presence of the prince,
Whom your eyes have seen.
- 8 ¶ Do not go out ^ahastily to ¹argue your case;
²Otherwise, what will you do in ³the end,
When your neighbor puts
you to shame?
- 9 ^{1a}Argue your case with your neighbor,
And ^bdo not reveal the secret of another,
- 10 Lest he who hears it reproach you,
And the evil report about you not ¹pass away.

For he refreshes the soul of his masters.
- 14 Like ^aclouds and ^bwind without rain
Is a man who boasts ¹of his gifts falsely.
- 15 By ¹a forbearance a ruler may be persuaded,
And a soft tongue breaks the bone.
- 16 Have you ^afound honey?
Eat only ¹what you need,
Lest you have it in excess and vomit it.
- 17 Let your foot rarely be in your neighbor's house,
Lest he become ¹weary of you and hate you.
- 18 Like a club and a ^asword and a sharp ^barrow
Is a man who bears ^cfalse witness against his neighbor.
- 19 Like a bad tooth and ¹an unsteady foot
Is confidence in a ^afaithless man in time of trouble.
- 20 Like one who takes off a garment on a cold day, or like vinegar on ¹soda,
Is he who sings songs to ²a troubled heart.

- ^a DO not boast about tomorrow,
For you ^bdo not know what a day may bring forth.
- 2 Let ^aanother praise you, and not your own mouth;
A stranger, and not your own lips.
- 3 A stone is heavy and the sand weighty,

Similitudes and Moral Lessons.

- And a contentious woman are alike;
- 16 He who would ¹restrain her ¹restrains the wind,
And ²grasps oil with his right hand.
- 17 Iron sharpens iron,
So one man sharpens another.
- 18 He who tends the ^afig tree will eat its fruit;
And he who ^bcares for his master will be honored.
- 19 As in water face reflects face,
So the heart of man reflects man.
- 20 ^{1a}Sheol and ²Abaddon are ^bnever satisfied,
Nor are the ^ceyes of man ever satisfied.
- 21 The ^acrucible is for silver and the furnace for gold,
And a man ^bis tested by the praise accorded him.
- 22 Though you ^apound a fool in a mortar with a pestle along with crushed grain, Yet his folly will not depart from him.
- 23 ¶ ^aKnow well the ¹condition of your flocks,
And pay attention to your herds;
- 24 For riches are not forever,
Nor does a ^acrown endure to all generations.
- 25 When the grass disappears, the new growth is seen,
And the herbs of the mountains are ^agathered in,
- 26 The lambs will be for your clothing,
And the goats will bring the price of a field,
- 27 And there will be goats' milk enough for your food,
For the food of your household,
And sustenance for your maidens.

CHAPTER 28

THE wicked ^aflee when no one is pursuing.

But the righteous are ^bbold as a lion.

2 By the transgression of a land ^amany are its princes,

But ^bby a man of understanding and knowledge, so it endures.

3 A ^apoor man who oppresses the lowly

Is like a driving rain ^bwhich leaves no food.

4 Those who forsake the law ^apraise the wicked,

But those who keep the law ^bstrive with them.

5 Evil men ^ado not understand justice,

But those who seek the LORD ^bunderstand all things.

6 ^aBetter is the poor who walks in his integrity,

Than he who is ^bcrooked though he be rich.

7 He who keeps the law is a discerning son,

But he who is a companion of ^agluttons humiliates his father.

8 He who increases his wealth by ^ainterest and usury,

Gathers it ^bfor him who is gracious to the poor.

9 He who turns away his ear from listening to the law,

Even his ^aprayer is an abomination.

10 He who leads the upright astray in an evil way

Will ^ahimself fall into his own pit,

But the ^bblameless will inherit good.

11 The rich man is ^awise in his own eyes,

But the poor who has understanding ^bsees through him.

THE BOOK OF ECCLESIASTES

The Futility of All Endeavor

THE words of the ^aPreacher, the son of David, king in Jerusalem.

- 2 "^{1a}Vanity of vanities," says
the Preacher,
"¹Vanity of vanities! All is ²vanity."

- 3 ¶ ^aWhat advantage does man have in all his work Which he does under the sun?

- 4 A generation goes and a generation comes,
But the ^aearth ¹remains forever.

- 5 Also, ^athe sun rises and the sun sets;
And ¹hastening to its place it rises there again.

- 6 ^{1a}Blowing toward the south,
Then turning toward the north,
The wind continues ²swirl-ing along;
And on its circular courses
the wind returns.

12 ¶ I, the ^aPreacher, have been king over Israel in Jerusalem.

13 And I ^aset my ¹mind to seek and ^bexplore by wisdom concerning all that has been done under heaven. It is ²a grievous ^ctask which God has given to the sons of men to be afflicted with.

14 I have seen all the works which have been done under the sun, and behold, all is ¹vanity and striving after wind.

15 What is ^acrooked cannot be straightened, and what is lacking cannot be counted.

16 I ¹said to myself, "Behold, I have magnified and increased ^awisdom more than all who were over Jerusalem before me; and my ²mind has observed ³a wealth of wisdom and knowledge."

17 And I ^aset my ¹mind to know wisdom and to ^bknow madness and folly; I realized that this also is ^cstriving after wind.

18 Because ^ain much wisdom there is much grief, and increasing knowledge results in increasing pain.

CHAPTER 2

I SAID ¹to myself, "Come now, I will test you with ^apleasure. So ²enjoy yourself." And behold, it too was futility.

2 ^aI said of laughter, "It is madness," and of pleasure, "What does it accomplish?"

3 I explored with my ¹mind how to ^astimulate my body with wine while my ¹mind was guiding me wisely, and how to take hold of ^bfolly, until I could see ^cwhat good there is for the sons of men ²to do under heaven the ³few years of their lives.

4 I enlarged my works: I ^abuilt houses for myself, I planted ^bvineyards for myself;

5 I made ^agardens and ^bparks for myself, and I planted in them all kinds of fruit trees;

6 I made ^aponds of water for myself from which to irrigate a forest of growing trees.

7 I bought male and female slaves, and I had ¹homeborn slaves. Also I possessed flocks and ^bherds larger than all who preceded me in Jerusalem.

8 Also, I collected for myself silver and ^agold, and the treasure of kings and provinces. I provided for myself ^bmale and female singers and the pleasures of men—many concubines.

9 Then I became ^agreat and increased more than all who preceded me in Jerusalem. My wisdom also stood by me.

10 And ^aall that my eyes desired I did not refuse them. I did not withhold my heart from any pleasure, for my heart was pleased because of all my labor and this was my ^breward for all my labor.

11 Thus I considered all my activities which my hands had done and the labor which I had ¹exerted, and behold all was ²vanity and striving after wind and there was ^bno profit under the sun.

12 ¶ So I turned to ^aconsider wisdom, madness and folly, for what will the man do who will come after the king except ^bwhat has already been done?

13 And I saw that ^awisdom excels folly as light excels darkness.

14 The wise man's eyes are in his head, but the ^afool walks in darkness. And yet I know that ^bone fate befalls them both.

15 Then I said ¹to myself, "^aAs is the fate of the fool, it will also befall me. ^bWhy then have I been extremely wise?" So ²¹I said to myself, "This too is vanity."

16 For there is ^ano ¹lasting remembrance of the wise man as with the fool, inasmuch as in the coming days all will be forgotten. And ^bhow the wise man and the fool alike die!

17 So I ^ahated life, for the work which had been done under the sun was ¹grievous to me; because everything is futility and striving after wind.

18 ¶ Thus I hated ^aall the fruit of my labor for which I had labored under the sun, for I must ^bleave it to the man who will come after me.

19 And who knows whether he will be a wise man or ^aa fool? Yet he will have ¹control over all the fruit of my labor for which I have labored by acting wisely under the sun. This too is ^bvanity.

20 Therefore I ¹completely despaired of all the fruit of my labor for which I had labored under the sun.

21 When there is a man who has labored with wisdom, knowledge and ^askill, then he ^bgives his ¹legacy to one who has not labored with them. This too is vanity and a great evil.

22 For what does a man get in ^aall his labor and in ¹his striving with which he labors under the sun?

23 Because all his days his task is painful and ^agrievous; even at night his ¹mind ^bdoes not rest. This too is vanity.

24 ¶ There is ^anothing better for a man than to eat and drink and ¹tell himself that his labor is good. This also I have seen, that it is ^bfrom the hand of God.

25 For who can eat and who can have enjoyment without ¹Him?

CHAPTER 3

THERE is an appointed time for everything. And there is a ^atime for every ¹event under heaven—

- 2 A time to give birth, and a ^atime to die;
A time to plant, and a time to uproot what is planted.
- 3 A ^atime to kill, and a time to heal;
A time to tear down, and a time to build up.
- 4 A time to ^aweep, and a time to ^blaugh;
A time to mourn, and a time to ^cdance.
- 5 A time to throw stones, and a time to gather stones;
A time to embrace, and a time to shun embracing.
- 6 A time to search, and a time to give up as lost;
A time to keep, and a time to throw away.
- 7 A time to tear apart, and a time to sew together;
A time to ^abe silent, and a time to speak.
- 8 A time to love, and a time to ^ahate;
A time for war, and a time for peace.

9 ¶ ^aWhat profit is there to the worker from that in which he toils?

10 I have seen the ^atask which God has given the sons of men with which to occupy themselves.

11 He has ^amade everything ¹appropriate in its time. He has also set eternity in their heart, ²yet so that man ^bwill not find out the work which God has done from the beginning even to the end.

CHAPTER 4

12 ¶ I know that there is ^anothing better for them than to rejoice and to do good in one's lifetime;

13 moreover, that every man who eats and drinks sees good in all his labor—it is the ^agift of God.

14 I know that everything God does will remain forever; there is nothing to add to it and there is nothing to take from it, for God has so worked that men should ¹fear Him.

15 That ^awhich is has been already, and that which will be has already been, for God seeks what has passed by.

16 Furthermore, I have seen under the sun that in the place of justice there is ^awickedness, and in the place of righteousness there is wickedness.

17 I said ¹to myself, "God will judge both the righteous man and the wicked man," for a ^btime for every ²matter and for every deed is there.

18 I said ¹to myself concerning the sons of men, "God has surely tested them in order for them to see that they are but ^abeasts."

19 ^aFor the fate of the sons of men and the fate of beasts ¹is the same. As one dies so dies the other; indeed, they all have the same breath and there is no advantage for man over beast, for all is ²vanity.

20 All go to the same place. All came from the ^adust and all return to the dust.

21 Who knows that the ^abreath of man ascends upward and the breath of the beast descends downward to the earth?

22 And I have seen that ^anothing is better than that man should be happy in his activities, for that is his lot. For who will bring him to see ^bwhat will occur after him?

THEN I looked again at all the acts of ^aoppression which were being done under the sun. And behold I saw the tears of the oppressed and that they had ^bno one to comfort them; and on the side of their oppressors was power, but they had no one to comfort them.

2 So I congratulated the dead who are already dead more than the living who are still living.

3 But ^abetter off than both of them is the one who has never existed, who has never seen the evil activity that is done under the sun.

4 ¶ And I have seen that every labor and every ^askill which is done is the result of rivalry between a man and his neighbor. This too is ¹vanity and striving after wind.

5 The fool ^afolds his hands and ^bconsumes his own flesh.

6 One hand full of rest is ^abetter than two fists full of labor and striving after wind.

7 ¶ Then I looked again at vanity under the sun.

8 There was a certain man without a ¹dependent, having neither a son nor a brother, yet there was no end to all his labor. Indeed, ^ahis eyes were not satisfied with riches and he never asked, "And ^bfor whom am I laboring and depriving myself of pleasure?" This too is vanity and it is a ^cgrievous task.

9 ¶ Two are better than one because they have a good return for their labor.

10 For if ¹either of them falls, the one will lift up his companion. But woe to the one who falls when there is not ²another to lift him up.

11 Furthermore, if two lie down together they ¹keep warm, but ^ahow can one be warm alone?

12 And if ¹one can overpower him who is alone, two can resist him. A cord of three strands is not quickly torn apart.

13 ¶ A ^apoor, yet wise lad is better than an old and foolish king who no longer knows how to receive ¹instruction.

14 For he has come ^aout of prison to become king, even though he was born poor in his kingdom.

15 I have seen all the living under the sun throng to the side of the second lad who ¹replaces him.

16 There is no end to all the people, to all who were before them, and even the ones who will come later will not be happy with him, for this too is ^avanity and striving after wind.

CHAPTER 5

1a GUARD your steps as you go to the house of God, and draw near to listen rather than to offer the ^bsacrifice of fools; for they do not know they are doing evil.

2 ¹Do not be ^ahasty ²in word or ³impulsive in thought to bring up a matter in the presence of God. For God is in heaven and you are on the earth; therefore let your ^bwords be few.

3 For the dream comes through much ¹effort, and the voice of a ^afool through many words.

4 When you ^amake a vow to God, do not be late in paying it, for He takes no delight in fools. ^bPay what you vow!

10 ¶ ^aHe who loves money will not be satisfied with money, nor he who loves abundance with its income. This too is ¹vanity.

11 ^aWhen good things increase, those who consume them increase. So what is the advantage to their owners except to ¹look on?

12 The sleep of the working man is ^apleasant, whether he eats little or much. But the ¹full stomach of the rich man does not allow him to sleep.

13 ¶ There is a grievous evil which I have seen under the sun: ^ariches being ¹hoarded by their owner to his hurt.

14 When those riches were lost through ^{1a} a bad investment and he had fathered a son, then there was nothing ²to support him.

15 ^aAs he had come naked from his mother's womb, so will he return as he came. He will ^btake nothing from the fruit of his labor that he can carry in his hand.

16 And this also is a grievous evil—exactly as a man ¹is born, thus will he ²die. So, ^awhat is the advantage to him who ^btoils for the wind?

17 Throughout his life ^ahe also eats in darkness with ^bgreat vexation, sickness and anger.

17 ^aPs. 127:2 ^bEcc. 2:23

18 ¶ Here is what I have seen to be ^agood and ¹fitting: to eat, to drink and ²enjoy oneself in all one's labor in which he toils under the sun during the few ³years of his life which God has given him; for this is his ⁴reward.

19 Furthermore, as for every man to whom ^aGod has given riches and wealth, He has also ^bempowered him to eat from them and to receive his ¹reward and rejoice in his labor; this is the ^cgift of God.

20 For he will not often ¹consider the ²years of his life, because ^aGod keeps ³him occupied with the gladness of his heart.

CHAPTER 6

THERE is an ^aevil which I have seen under the sun and it is prevalent ¹among men—

2 a man to whom God has ^agiven riches and wealth and honor so that his soul ^blacks nothing of all that he desires, but God has not empowered him to eat from them, for a foreigner ¹enjoys them. This is ²vanity and a severe affliction.

3 If a man fathers a hundred children and lives many years, however many ¹they be, but his soul is not satisfied with good things, and he does not even have a proper ^aburial, then I say, "Better ^bthe miscarriage than he.

4 for it comes in futility and goes into obscurity; and its name is covered in obscurity.

5 "It never sees the sun and it never knows anything; ¹it is better off than he.

6 "Even if the other man lives a thousand years twice and does not ¹enjoy good things—"do not all go to one place?"

7 ¶ ^aAll a man's labor is for his mouth and yet the ¹appetite is not ²satisfied.

What advantage does the poor man have, knowing how to walk before the living?

9 What the eyes ^asee is better than what the soul ¹desires. This too is ^bfutility and a striving after wind.

10 ¶ Whatever ^aexists has already been named, and it is known what man is; for he ^bcannot dispute with him who is stronger than he is.

11 For there are many words which increase futility. What then is the advantage to a man?

12 For who knows what is good for a man during his lifetime, during the few ¹years of his futile life? He will ²spend them like a shadow. For who can tell a man ^awhat will be after him under the sun?

CHAPTER 7

A ^aGOOD name is better than a good ointment, And the ^bday of one's death is better than the day of one's birth.

2 It is better to go to a house of mourning

Than to go to a house of feasting,

Because ¹that is the ^aend of every man,

And the living ²takes it to ³heart.

3 ^aSorrow is better than laughter,

For ^bwhen a face is sad a heart may be happy.

4 The ¹mind of the wise is in the house of mourning,

While the ¹mind of fools is in the house of pleasure.

5 It is better to ^alisten to the rebuke of a wise man

Than for one to listen to the song of fools.

6 For as the ¹crackling of ^athorn bushes under a pot,

So is the ^blaughter of the fool,

And this too is futility.

- 7 For ^aoppression makes a wise man mad,
And a ^bbribe ¹corrupts the heart.
- 8 The ^aend of a matter is better than its beginning;
^bPatience of spirit is better than haughtiness of spirit.
- 9 Do not be ¹eager in your heart to be angry.
For anger resides in the bosom of fools.
- 10 Do not say, "Why is it that the former days were better than these?"
For it is not from wisdom that you ask about this.
- 11 Wisdom along with an inheritance is good
And an ^aadvantage to those who see the sun.
- 12 For ^awisdom is ¹protection just as money is ¹protection.
But the advantage of knowledge is that ^bwisdom preserves the lives of its possessors.
- 13 Consider the ^awork of God,
For who is ^bable to straighten what He has bent?
- 14 ^aIn the day of prosperity be happy,
But ^bin the day of adversity consider—
God has made the one as well as the other
So that man may ^cnot discover anything that will be after him.
- 15 ¶ I have seen everything during my ¹lifetime of futility; there is ^ba righteous man who perishes in his righteousness, and there is ^ca wicked man who prolongs his life in his wickedness.

Why should you ^adie before your time?

18 It is good that you grasp one thing, and also not ¹let go of the other; for the one who ^afears God comes forth with ²both of them.

19 ¶ ^aWisdom strengthens a wise man more than ten rulers who are in a city.

20 Indeed, ^athere is not a righteous man on earth who continually does good and who never sins.

21 Also, do not ¹take seriously all words which are spoken, lest you hear your servant ^acursing you.

22 For ¹you also have realized that you likewise have many times cursed others.

23 ¶ I tested all this with wisdom, and I said, "I will be wise," ^abut it was far from me.

24 What has been is remote and ^aexceedingly ¹mysterious. ^bWho can discover it?

25 I ¹directed my ²mind to know, to investigate, and to seek wisdom and an explanation, and to know the evil of folly and the foolishness of madness.

26 And I discovered more ^abitter than death the woman whose heart is ^bsnare and nets, whose hands are chains. ^cOne who is pleasing to God will escape from her, but ^dthe sinner will be captured by her.

27 ¶ "Behold, I have discovered this," says the Preacher, "adding one thing to another to find an explanation, 28 which ¹I am still seeking but have not found. I have found one man among a thousand, but I have not found a ^awoman among all these.

CHAPTER 8

WHO is like the wise man and who knows the interpretation of a matter? A man's wisdom ¹illuminates ¹him and causes his ²stern face to ²beam.

2 ¶ I say, "Keep the ¹command of the king because of the ²oath ²before God.

3 "Do not be in a hurry ¹to leave him. Do not join in an evil matter, for he will do whatever he pleases."

4 Since the word of the king is authoritative, ²who will say to him, "What are you doing?"

5 ¶ He who ²keeps a royal command ²experiences no ¹trouble, for a wise heart knows the proper time and procedure.

6 For ²there is a proper time and procedure for every delight, when a man's trouble is heavy upon him.

7 If no one ²knows what will happen, who can tell him when it will happen?

8 ²No man has authority to restrain the wind with the wind, or authority over the day of death; and there is no discharge in the time of war, and ²evil will not deliver ¹those who practice it.

9 All this I have seen and applied my ¹mind to every deed that has been done under the sun wherein a man has exercised ²authority over another man to his hurt.

10 ¶ So then, I have seen the wicked buried, those who used to go in and out from the holy place, and they are ²soon forgotten in the city where they did thus. This too is futility.

11 Because the ²sentence against an evil deed is not executed quickly, therefore ²the hearts of the sons of men among them are given fully to do evil.

12 Although a sinner does evil a hundred times and may ²lengthen his life, still I know that it will be ²well for those who fear God, who fear ¹Him openly.

13 But it will ²not be well for the evil man and he will not lengthen his days like a ²shadow, because he does not fear God.

14 There is futility which is done on the earth, that is, there are ²righteous men to whom it ¹happens according to the deeds of the wicked. On the other hand, there are ²evil men to whom it ¹happens according to the deeds of the righteous. I say that this too is futility.

15 So I commended pleasure, for there is nothing good for ²a man under the sun except to eat and to drink and to be merry, and this will stand by him in his ¹toils throughout the days of his life which God has given him under the sun.

16 ¶ When I ²gave my heart to know wisdom and to see the task which has been done on the earth (even though one should ²never sleep day or night),

17 and I saw every work of God, I concluded that ²man cannot discover the work which has been done under the sun. Even though man should seek laboriously, he will not discover; and ²though the wise man should say, "I know," he cannot discover.

CHAPTER 9

FOR I have taken all this to my heart and explain ¹it that righteous men, wise men, and their deeds are ²in the hand of God. ²Man does not know whether it will be ²love or hatred; anything ²awaits him.

2 ¶ ²It is the same for all. There is ²one fate for the righteous and for the wicked; for the good, for the clean, and for the unclean; for the man who offers a sacrifice and for the one who does not sacrifice. As the good man is, so is the sinner; as the swearer is, so is the one who is afraid to swear.

3 ¹Job 9:22, Ecc. 9:11, Ecc. 2:14, 3:18, 9:6, 7:2

3 This is an evil in all that is done under the sun, that there is ^aone fate for all men. Furthermore, ^bthe hearts of the sons of men are full of evil, and ^cinsanity is in their hearts throughout their lives. Afterwards they go to the dead.

4 For whoever is joined with the living, there is hope; surely a live dog is better than a dead lion.

5 For the living know they will die; but the dead ^ado not know anything, nor have they any longer a reward, for their ^bmemory is forgotten.

6 Indeed their love, their hate, and their zeal have already perished, and they will no longer have a ^ashare in all that is done under the sun.

7 ¶ Go then, ^aeat your bread in happiness, and drink your wine with a cheerful heart; for God has already approved your works.

8 Let your ^aclothes be white all the time, and let not ^boil be lacking on your head.

9 Enjoy life with the woman whom you love all the days of your ^afleeting life which He has given to you under the sun; for this is your ^breward in life, and in your toil in which you have labored under the sun.

10 ¶ Whatever your hand finds to do, verily, ^ado it with all your might; for there is no ^bactivity or planning or wisdom in ^cSheol where you are going.

11 I again saw under the sun that the ^arace is not to the swift, and the ^bbattle is not to the warriors, and neither is bread to the wise, nor ^cwealth to the discerning, nor favor to men of ability; for time and ^dchance overtake them all.

12 Moreover, man does not ^aknow his time: like fish caught in a treacherous net, and ^bbirds trapped in a snare, so the sons of men are ^censnared at an evil time when it ^dsuddenly falls on them.

13 ¶ Also this I came to see as wisdom under the sun, and ^ait impressed me.

14 There ^awas a small city with few men in it and a great king came to it, surrounded it, and constructed large siegeworks against it.

15 But there was found in it a ^apoor wise man and he ^bdelivered the city ^bby his wisdom. Yet ^cno one remembered that poor man.

16 So I said, "^aWisdom is better than strength." But the wisdom of the poor man is despised and his words are not heeded.

17 The ^awords of the wise heard in quietness are better than the shouting of a ruler among fools.

18 ^aWisdom is better than weapons of war, but ^bone sinner destroys much good.

CHAPTER 10

DEAD flies make a ^aperfumer's oil stink, so a little foolishness is weightier than wisdom and honor.

2 A wise man's heart directs him toward the right, but the foolish ^aman's heart directs him toward the left.

3 Even when the fool walks along the road his ^asense is lacking, and he ^ademonstrates to everyone that he is a fool.

4 If the ruler's ^atemper rises against you, ^ado not abandon your position, because ^bcomposure allays great offenses.

6 ^afolly is set in many exalted

7 I have seen ^aslaves riding ^bon horses and princes walking like slaves on the land.

8 ¶ ^aHe who digs a pit may fall into it, and a ^bserpent may bite him who breaks through a wall.

9 He who quarries stones may be hurt by them, and he who splits logs may be endangered by them.

10 If the ¹axe is dull and he does not sharpen its edge, then he must ²exert more strength. Wisdom has the advantage of giving success.

11 If the serpent bites ¹before being charmed, there is no profit for the charmer.

12 ^aWords from the mouth of a wise man are gracious, while the lips of a ^bfool consume him;

13 the beginning of ¹his talking is folly, and the end of ²it is wicked ^amadness.

14 Yet the ^afool multiplies words. No man knows what will happen, and who can tell him ^bwhat will come after him?

15 The toil of ¹a fool so wearies him that he does not even know how to go to a city.

16 Woe to you, O land, whose ^aking is a lad and whose princes ¹feast in the morning.

17 Blessed are you, O land, whose king is of nobility and whose princes eat at the appropriate time—for strength, and not for ^adrunkenness.

18 Through ^aindolence the rafters sag, and through slackness the house leaks.

19 Men prepare a meal for enjoyment, and ^awine makes life merry, and ^bmoney ¹is the answer to everything.

20 Furthermore, ^ain your bed-chamber do not ^bcurse a king, and in your sleeping rooms do not curse a rich man, for a bird of the heavens will carry the sound, and the winged creature will make the matter known.

CHAPTER 12

REMEMBER also your Creator in the days of your youth, before the ^bevil days come and the years draw near when you will say, "I have no delight in them";

2 before the ^asun, the light, the moon, and the stars are darkened, and clouds return after the rain;

3 in the day that the watchmen of the house tremble, and mighty men ^astoop, the grinding ones stand idle because they are few, and ^bthose who look through ^lwindows grow dim;

4 and the doors on the street are shut as the ^asound of the grinding mill is low, and one will arise at the sound of the bird, and all the ^bdaughters of song will ^lsing softly.

5 Furthermore, ^lmen are afraid of a high place and of terrors on the road; the almond tree blossoms, the grasshopper drags himself along, and the caperberry is ineffective. For man goes to his eternal ^ahome while ^bmourners go about in the street.

6 Remember Him before the silver cord is ^lbroken and the ^agolden bowl is crushed, the pitcher by the well is shattered

8 ^a"Vanity of vanities," says the Preacher, "all is vanity!"

9 ¶ In addition to being a wise man, the Preacher also taught the people knowledge; and he pondered, searched out and arranged ^amany proverbs.

10 The Preacher sought to find ^adelightful words and to write ^bwords of truth correctly.

11 ¶ The ^awords of wise men are like ^bgoads, and masters of these collections are like ^lwell-driven ^cnails; they are given by one Shepherd.

12 But beyond this, my son, be warned: the ^lwriting of ^amany books is endless, and excessive ^bdevotion to books is wearying to the body.

13 ¶ The conclusion, when all has been heard, is: ^afear God and ^bkeep His commandments, because this applies to ^cevery person.

14 For ^aGod will bring every act to judgment, everything which is hidden, whether it is good or evil.

20 ¶ In that day the Lord will shave with a razor, hired from regions beyond the Euphrates (that is, with the king of Assyria), the head and the hair of the legs; and it will also remove the beard.

21 ¶ Now it will come about in that day that a man may keep alive a heifer and a pair of sheep;

22 and it will happen that because of the abundance of the milk produced he will eat curds, for everyone that is left within the land will eat curds and honey.

23 And it will come about in that day, that every place where there used to be a thousand vines, valued at a thousand shekels of silver, will become briars and thorns.

24 People will come there with bows and arrows because all the land will be briars and thorns.

25 And as for all the hills which used to be cultivated with the hoe, you will not go there for fear of briars and thorns; but they will become a place for pasturing oxen and for sheep to trample.

THEN the LORD said to me, "Take for yourself a large tablet and write on it in ordinary letters; Swift is the booty, speedy is the prey.

2 "And I will take to Myself faithful witnesses for testimony, Uriah the priest and Zechariah the son of Jeberechiah."

And rejoice in Rezin and the son of Remaliah;

7 "Now therefore, behold, the Lord is about to bring on them the strong and abundant waters of the Euphrates.

Even the king of Assyria and all his glory;

And it will rise up over all its channels and go over all its banks.

8 "Then it will sweep on into Judah, it will overflow and pass through.

It will breach even to the neck;

And to those who constantly record unjust decisions,

2 So as to deprive the needy of justice.

And rob the poor of My people of their rights,

In order that widows may be their spoil,

And that they may plunder the orphans.

3 Now what will you do in the day of punishment, And in the devastation which will come from afar?

To whom will you flee for help?

And where will you leave your wealth?

4 Nothing remains but to crouch among the captives

Or fall among the slain.

In spite of all this His anger does not turn away,

And His hand is still stretched out.

5 ¶ Woe to Assyria, the brood of My anger

And the staff in whose hands is My indignation,

6 I send it against a godless nation

And commission it against the people of My fury

To capture booty and to seize plunder,

And to trample them down like mud in the streets.

7 Yet it does not so intend Nor does it plan so in its heart,

But rather it is its purpose to destroy,

And to cut off many nations.

Pay attention, Laishah and ¹wretched ^bAnathoth!

31 Madmenah has fled.
The inhabitants of Gebim have sought refuge.

32 Yet today he will halt at ^aNob;

He ^bshakes his fist at the mountain of the ¹daugh-

THE oracle concerning Moab.

Surely in a night Ar of Moab is devastated and

- Surely in a night Kir of Moab is devastated and ruined.
- 2 They have gone up to the ¹temple and to ^aDibon, even to the high places to weep.
Moab wails over Nebo and Medeba;
Everyone's head is ^bbald and every beard is cut off.
- 3 In their streets they have girded themselves with ^asackcloth;
^bOn their housetops and in their squares
Everyone is wailing, ^{1c}dis-solved in tears.
- 4 ^aHeshbon and Elealeh also cry out,
Their voice is heard all the way to Jahaz;
Therefore the ¹armed men of Moab cry aloud;
His soul trembles within him.
- 5 My heart cries out for Moab;
His fugitives are as far as ^aZoar and Eglath-shelishiyah,
For they go up the ^bascent of Luhith weeping;
Surely on the road to Horonaim they raise a cry of distress ^cover their ruin.
- 6 For the ^awaters of Nimrim are ¹desolate.
Surely the grass is with-ered, the tender grass ²died out,
There is ^bno green thing.
- 7 Therefore the ^aabundance which they have ac-quired and stored up
They carry off over the brook of ¹Arabim.
- 8 For the cry of distress has gone around the territory of Moab,
Its wail goes as far as Egla-im and its wailing even to Beer-elim.
- 9 For the waters of Dimon are full of ¹blood;

- SEND the tribute lamb to the ruler of the land,
From ^{1b}Sela by way of the wilderness to the ^cmoun-tain of the daughter of Zion.
- 2 Then, like ^{1a}fleeing birds or scattered ²nestlings,
The daughters of ^bMoab will be at the fords of the ^cArnon.
- 3 ¹Give us advice, make a de-cision;
²Cast your ^ashadow like night ^{3a}at high noon;
^bHide the outcasts, do not betray the fugitive.
- 4 ¹Let the ¹outcasts of Moab stay with you;
Be a hiding place to them from the destroyer."
For the extortioner has come to an end, destruc-tion has ceased, ^aOppressors have com-pletely disappeared from the land.
- 5 A ^athrone will even be es-tablished in lovingkind-ness,
And a judge will sit on it in faithfulness in the tent of ^bDavid;
Moreover, he will seek jus-tice
And be prompt in right-eousness.
- 6 ¹ We have heard of the pride of Moab, an exces-sive pride;
Even of his arrogance, pride, and fury;
^bHis idle boasts are ¹false.
- 7 Therefore Moab shall wail; everyone of Moab shall wail.

You shall moan for the ^araisin cakes of ^bKir-hareseth

As those who are utterly stricken.

8 For the fields of ^aHeshbon have ¹withered, the vines of ^bSibmah as well;

The lords of the nations have trampled down its choice clusters

Which reached as far as Jazer and wandered to the deserts;

^cIts tendrils spread themselves out and passed over the sea.

9 Therefore I will ^aweep bitterly for Jazer, for the vine of Sibmah;

I will drench you with my tears, O ^bHeshbon and Elealeh;

For the shouting over your ^csummer fruits and your harvest has fallen away.

10 And ^agladness and joy are taken away from the fruitful field;

In the ^bvineyards also there will be no cries of joy or jubilant shouting.

No ^ctreader treads out wine in the presses,

For I have made the shouting to cease.

11 Therefore my ¹heart intones like a harp for Moab,

And my ²inward feelings for Kir-hareseth.

12 So it will come about when Moab ^apresents himself,

When he ^bwearies himself upon his ^chigh place,

And comes to his sanctuary to pray,

That he will not prevail.

And the remnant of Aram; They will be like the ^bglory of the sons of Israel,"

Declares the LORD of hosts.

4 ¶ Now it will come about in that day that the ^aglory of Jacob will ¹fade,

And ^bthe fatness of his flesh will become lean.

5 It will be ^aeven like the ¹reaper gathering the standing grain,

As his arm harvests the ears,

Like dazzling heat in the ^{2b}sunshine,
Like a cloud of ^cdew in the heat of harvest."
- 5 For ^abefore the harvest, as soon as the bud ¹blossoms
And the flower becomes a ripening grape,
Then He will cut off the sprigs with pruning knives
And remove and cut away the spreading branches.
- 6 They will be left together for mountain birds ^aof prey.

And for the beasts of the earth;
And the birds of prey will spend the summer feeding on them.
And all the beasts of the earth will spend harvest time on them.
7 At that time a gift of homage will be brought to the LORD of hosts
From a people tall and smooth,
Even from a people feared far and wide,
A powerful and oppressive nation,
Whose land the rivers divide—
To the place of the name of the LORD of hosts, even Mount Zion.

CHAPTER 19

THE oracle concerning Egypt.

Behold, the LORD is riding on a swift cloud, and is about to come to Egypt; The idols of Egypt will tremble at His presence, And the heart of the Egyptians will melt within them.
2 "So I will incite Egyptians against Egyptians;
And they will each fight against his brother, and each against his neighbor,
City against city, and kingdom against kingdom.
3 "Then the spirit of the Egyptians will be demoralized within them;
And I will confound their strategy,
So that they will resort to idols and ghosts of the dead,
And to mediums and spiritists.
4 "Moreover, I will deliver the Egyptians into the hand of a cruel master,

9 Moreover, the manufacturers of linen made from combed flax
And the weavers of white cloth will be utterly dejected.
10 And the pillars of Egypt will be crushed;
All the hired laborers will be grieved in soul.
11 ¶ The princes of Zoan are mere fools;
The advice of Pharaoh's wisest advisers has become stupid.
How can you men say to Pharaoh,
"I am a son of the wise, a son of ancient kings?"
12 Well then, where are your wise men?
Please let them tell you,
And let them understand what the LORD of hosts
Has purposed against Egypt.

13 The princes of ¹Zoan have acted foolishly,
The princes of ^aMemphis are deluded;

Those who are the ^bcorner-stone of her tribes

Have ²led Egypt astray.

14 The LORD has mixed within her a spirit of ^adistortion;

^bThey have led Egypt astray in all ¹that it does.

As a ^cdrunken man ²staggers in his vomit.

15 And there will be no work for Egypt

^aWhich its head or tail, its palm branch or bulrush, may do.

16 ¶ In that day the Egyptians will become like women, and they will tremble and be in ^adread because of the ^bwaving of the hand of the LORD of hosts, which He is going to wave over them.

17 And the land of Judah will become a ¹terror to Egypt; everyone ²to whom it is mentioned will be in dread of it, because of the ^apurpose of the LORD of hosts which He is purposing against them.

18 ¶ In that day five cities in the land of Egypt will be speaking the language of Canaan and ^aswearing allegiance to the LORD of hosts; one will be called the City of ¹Destruction.

19 ¶ In that day there will be an ^aaltar to the LORD in the midst of the land of Egypt, and a ^bpillar to the LORD near its border.

20 And it will become a sign and a witness to the LORD of hosts in the land of Egypt; for they will cry to the LORD because of oppressors, and He will send them a ^aSavior and a ^{1b}Champion, and He will deliver them.

Go up, ^cElam, lay siege, Media;

I have made an end of all ¹the groaning she has caused.

THE ¹oracle concerning the ^avalley of vision.

What is the matter with you now, that you have all gone up to the ^bhouse-tops?

2 You who were full of noise, You boisterous town, you ^aexultant city;

Your slain were ^bnot slain with the sword, Nor ¹did they die in battle.

3 ^aAll your rulers have fled together,

And have been captured ¹without the bow;

All of you who were found were taken captive together,

²Though they had fled far away.

4 Therefore I say, "Turn your eyes away from me, Let me ^aweep bitterly, Do not ¹try to comfort me concerning the destruction of the daughter of my people."

5 ^aFor the Lord ¹God of hosts has a ^bday of panic, ^csubjugation, and confusion ^dIn the valley of vision, A breaking down of walls And a crying ²to the mountain.

7 Then your choicest valleys were full of chariots,

And the horsemen took up fixed positions at the gate.

8 And He removed the ¹defense of Judah.

In that day you ²depended on the weapons of the ^ahouse of the forest.

9 And you saw that the breaches

In the wall of the city of David were many;

And you ^acollected the waters of the lower pool.

10 Then you counted the houses of Jerusalem,

And you tore down houses to fortify the wall.

11 And you made a reservoir ^abetween the two walls

For the waters of the ^bold pool.

But you did not ¹depend on Him who made it,

Nor did you ²take into consideration Him who planned it long ago.

To ^bshaving the head, and to wearing sackcloth.

13 Instead, there is ^agaiety and gladness,

Killing of cattle and slaughtering of sheep,

Eating of meat and drinking of wine:

CHAPTER 23

THE ¹oracle concerning ^aTyre.

Wail, O ^bships of ^cTarshish, For Tyre is destroyed, without house or ^{2d}harbor;

It is reported to them from the land of ^{3c}Cyprus.

2 ^aBe silent, you inhabitants of the coastland,

You merchants of Sidon;

¹Your messengers crossed the sea

3 And were on many waters.

^aThe grain of the ^{1b}Nile, the harvest of the River was her revenue;

And she was the ^cmarket of nations.

4 Be ashamed, O ^aSidon;

For the sea speaks, the stronghold of the sea, saying,

"I have neither travailed nor given birth,

I have neither brought up young men nor reared virgins."

5 When the report reaches Egypt,

They will be in ^aanguish at the report of Tyre.

Whose feet used to carry her to ¹colonize distant places?

8 ¶ Who has planned this against Tyre, ^athe bestower of crowns,

Whose merchants were princes, whose traders were the honored of the earth?

9 ^aThe LORD of hosts has planned it to ^bdefile the pride of all beauty, To despise all the ^chonored of the earth.

10 ¹Overflow your land like the Nile, O daughter of Tarshish,

There is no more ²restraint.

11 He has ^astretched His hand out ^bover the sea, He has ^cmade the kingdoms tremble;

The LORD has given a command concerning Canaan to ^ddemolish its strongholds.

12 And He has said, "^aYou shall exult no more, O crushed virgin daughter of Sidon.

Arise, pass over to ^{1b}Cyprus; even there you will find no rest."

13 Behold, the land of the Chaldeans—this is the people which was not; ^aAssyria appointed it for ^bdesert creatures—they erected their siege towers, they stripped its palaces, ^cthey made it a ruin.

14 Wail, O ^aships of Tarshish, For your stronghold is destroyed.

seventy years it will happen to Tyre as in the song of the harlot:

16 Take your harp, walk about the city,

O forgotten harlot;

Pluck the strings skillfully, singing many songs,

That you may be remembered.

17 And it will come about at ^athe end of seventy years that the LORD will visit Tyre. Then she will go back to her harlot's wages, and will ^bplay the harlot with all the kingdoms ¹on the face of the earth.

18 And her ^again and her harlot's wages will be ^bset apart to the LORD; it will not be stored up or hoarded, but her gain will become sufficient food and choice attire for those who dwell in the presence of the LORD.

CHAPTER 24

BEHOLD, the LORD ^alays the earth waste, devastates it, distorts its surface, and scatters its inhabitants.

2 And the people will be like the priest, the servant like his master, the maid like her mistress, the buyer like the seller, the lender like the borrower, the ^acreditor like the debtor.

3 The earth will be completely laid waste and completely despoiled, for the LORD has spoken this word.

4 The ^aearth mourns and withers, the world fades and withers, the ^bexalted of the people of the earth fade away.

5 The earth is also ^apolluted ¹by its inhabitants, for they transgressed laws, violated statutes, ^bbroke the everlasting covenant.

6 Therefore, a ^acurse devours the earth, and those who live in it are held guilty. Therefore, the ^binhabitants of the earth are burned, and few men are left.

- 7 ¹ The ^anew wine mourns,
The vine decays,
All the merry-hearted sigh.

- 10 The ^acity of chaos is broken

^bEvery house is shut up so that none may enter.
- 11 There is an ^aoutcry in the

 This is the LORD for whom we have waited;
^dLet us rejoice and be glad in His salvation."

- 10 For the hand of the LORD will rest on this mountain,
 And ^aMoab will be trodden down in his place
 As straw is trodden down in the water of a manure pile.
 11 And he will ^aspread out his hands in the middle of it As a swimmer spreads out his hands to swim,
 But the Lord will ^blay low his pride together with the trickery of his hands.
 12 And the ^aunassailable fortifications of your walls He will bring down,
 Lay low, and cast to the ground, even to the dust.

- But when he awakens, his ¹hunger is not satisfied,
Or as when a thirsty man dreams—
And behold, he is drinking,
But when he awakens, behold, he is faint,
And his ¹thirst is not quenched.
^aThus the multitude of all the nations shall be,
Who wage war against Mount Zion.
- 9 ¶ ^aBe delayed and wait.
Blind yourselves and be blind.
They ^bbecome drunk, but not with wine;
They stagger, but not with strong drink.
- 10 For the LORD has poured over you a spirit of deep ^asleep,
He has ^bshut your eyes, the prophets;
And He has covered your heads, the seers.
- 11 And the entire vision shall be to you like the words of a sealed ^{1a}book, which when they give it to the one who ²is literate, saying, "Please read this," he will say, "I cannot, for it is sealed."
- 12 Then the ¹book will be given to the one who ²is illiterate, saying, "Please read this." And he will say, "I ³cannot read."
- 13 ¶ Then the Lord said,
"Because ^athis people draw near with their ¹words
And honor Me with their ²lip service,
But they remove their hearts far from Me,
And their ³reverence for Me
⁴consists of ⁵tradition

- 14 Therefore behold, I will once again deal ^amarvelously with this people, wondrously marvelous;
And ^bthe wisdom of their wise men shall perish,

And the discernment of their discerning men shall be concealed.

15 ¶ Woe to those who deeply hide their plans from
the LORD,

And whose deeds are done
in a dark place,

And they say, "Who sees us?" or "Who knows us?"

16 You turn things around!

Shall the potter be considered as equal with the clay,

That what is made should say to its maker, "He did not make me";

Or what is formed say to him who formed it, "He has no understanding"?

17 ¶ Is it not yet just a little while

Before Lebanon will be turned into a fertile field,
And the fertile field will be considered as a forest?

18 And on that day the deaf shall hear words of a book,

And out of their gloom and darkness the eyes of the blind shall see.

19 The afflicted also shall increase their gladness in
the LORD,

And the needy of mankind shall rejoice in the Holy
One of Israel.

20 For the ruthless will come to an end, and the scorner will be finished.
Indeed all who are intent on doing evil will be cut off;

21 Who cause a person to be indicted by a word,

And ensnare him who ad-
judicates at the gate,

And defraud the one in the right with meaningless arguments.

CHAPTER 36

NOW it came about in the fourteenth year of King Hezekiah, Sennacherib king of Assyria came up against all the fortified cities of Judah and seized them.

2 And the king of Assyria sent Rabshakeh from Lachish to Jerusalem to King Hezekiah with a large army. And he stood by the conduit of the upper pool on the highway of the fuller's field.

3 Then Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, who was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah the son of Asaph, the recorder, came out to him.

4 ¶ Then Rabshakeh said to them, "Say now to Hezekiah, 'Thus says the great king, the king of Assyria, "What is this confidence that you have?"

5 "I say, 'Your counsel and strength for the war are only empty words.' Now on whom do you rely, that you have rebelled against me?"

^bShebna the scribe and the elders of the priests, covered with sackcloth, to ^aIsaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz.

3 And they said to him, "Thus says Hezekiah, 'This day is a ^aday of distress, rebuke, and rejection; for ^bchildren have come to birth, and there is no strength to ^bdeliver.

4 'Perhaps the LORD your God will hear the words of Rabshakeh, whom his master the king of Assyria has sent to ^areproach the living God, and will rebuke the words which the LORD your God has heard. Therefore, offer a prayer for ^bthe remnant that is left.' "

5 So the servants of King Hezekiah came to Isaiah.

6 And Isaiah said to them, "Thus you shall say to your master, 'Thus says the LORD, "Do not be afraid because of the words that you have heard, with which the servants of the king of Assyria have blasphemed Me.

7 "Behold, I will put a spirit in him so that he shall ^ahear a rumor and ^breturn to his own land. And I will make him fall by the sword in his own land.' "

8 ¶ Then Rabshakeh returned and found the king of Assyria fighting against ^aLibnah, for he had heard that ^bthe king had left ^bLachish.

9 When he ^aheard them say concerning Tirhakah king of ^bCush, "He has come out to fight against you," and when he heard it he sent messengers to Hezekiah, saying,

10 "Thus you shall say to Hezekiah king of ^bJudah, 'Do not let your God in whom you trust deceive you, saying, "Jerusalem shall not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria."

11 ^a"Behold, you have heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all the lands, destroying them completely. So will you be ^bspared?

12 'Did the gods of ¹those nations which my fathers have destroyed deliver them, even ^aGozan and ^bHaran and Rezech and the sons of Eden who were in Tlassar?

13 'Where is the king of Hamath, the king of Arpad, the king of the city of Sepharvaim, and of Hena and Ivvah?' "

14 ¶ Then Hezekiah took the letter from the hand of the messengers and read it, and he went up to the house of the LORD and spread it out before the LORD.

15 And Hezekiah prayed to the LORD saying,

16 "O LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, ^awho art enthroned above the cherubim, Thou art the ^bGod, Thou alone, of all the kingdoms of the earth. ^cThou hast made heaven and earth.

17 "Incline Thine ear, O LORD, and hear; open Thine eyes, O LORD, and see; and ^blisten to all the words of Sennacherib, who sent them to reproach the living God.

18 "Truly, O LORD, the ^akings of Assyria have devastated all the countries and their lands,

19 and have cast their gods into the fire, for they were not gods but the ^awork of men's hands, wood and stone. So they have ^bdestroyed them.

20 "And now, O LORD our God, ^adeliver us from his hand that ^ball the kingdoms of the earth may know that Thou alone, LORD, ^cart God."

21 Then ^aIsaiah the son of Amoz sent word to Hezekiah, saying, "Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, 'Because you have prayed to Me about Sennacherib king of Assyria, Against the ^cHoly One of Israel!

26 "Have you not heard?

Long ago I did it,

From ancient times I ^bplanned it.

Now ^cI have brought it to pass,

That ^dyou should turn fortified cities into ^aruinous heaps.

27 "Therefore their inhabitants were short of strength,

And because your ^{1a}arrogance has come up to My ears,

Therefore I will put My ^bhook in your nose,

And My ^cbridle in your lips,

And I will turn you back ^dby the way which you came.

30 ¶ "Then this shall be the sign for you: ¹you shall eat this year what ^agrows of itself, in the second year what springs from the same, and in the third year sow, reap, plant vineyards, and eat their fruit.

31 "And the ^asurviving ^bremnant of the house of Judah shall again ^ctake root downward and bear fruit upward.

32 "For out of Jerusalem shall go forth a ^aremnant, and out of Mount Zion ¹survivors. The ^bzeal of the LORD of hosts shall perform this."

33 "Therefore, thus says the LORD concerning the king of Assyria, 'He shall not come to this city, or shoot an arrow there; neither shall he come before it with a shield, nor throw up a ^amound against it.

34 ^aBy the way that he came, by the same he shall return, and he shall not come to this city,' declares the LORD.

^a AT that time Merodach-baldan son of Baladan, king of Babylon, sent letters and a present to Hezekiah, for he heard that he had been sick and had recovered.

2 And Hezekiah ¹was ^apleased, and showed them all his treasure house, the ^bsilver and the gold and the spices and the precious oil and his whole armory and all that was found in his treasures. There was nothing in his house, nor in all his dominion, that Hezekiah did not show them.

3 Then Isaiah the ^aprophet came to King Hezekiah and said to him, "What did these men say, and from where have they come to you?" And Hezekiah said, "They have come to me from a far ^bcountry, from Babylon."

4 And he said, "What have they seen in your house?" So Hezekiah ¹answered, "They have seen all that is in my house; there is nothing among my treasures that I have not shown them."

5 Then Isaiah said to Hezekiah, "Hear the ^aword of the LORD of hosts,

6 'Behold, the days are coming when ^aall that is in your house, and all that your fathers have laid up in store to this day shall be carried to Babylon; nothing shall be left,' says the LORD.

7 'And some of your sons who shall issue from you, whom you shall beget, ^ashall be taken away; and ^bthey shall become officials in the palace of the king of Babylon.'

8 'Then Hezekiah said to Isaiah, "The word of the LORD which you have spoken is good." For he ¹thought, "For there will be peace and truth ^bin my days."

30 Though youths grow

31 Yet those who wait for the LORD
Will gain new strength;
They will mount up with

They will run and not get

They will walk and not be-

CHAPTER 41

- 66 COASTLANDS, listen to Me in silence,
And let the peoples gain
new strength;
Let them come forward,
then let them speak;
Let us come together for judgment.
2 Who has aroused one from the east
Whom He calls in righteousness to His feet?
He delivers up nations before him,
And subdues kings.
He makes them like dust
with his sword,
As the wind-driven chaff
with his bow.
3 He pursues them, passing on in safety,
By a way he had not been traversing with his feet.
4 Who has performed and accomplished it, Calling forth the generations from the beginning?
I, the LORD, am the first,
and with the last. I am He."

And ^dpray to a god who cannot save.

21 "Declare and set forth your case;
Indeed, let them consult together.
^bWho has announced this from of old?
Who has long since declared it?
Is it not I, the LORD?
And there is ^ano other God
besides Me,
A righteous God and a ^dSav-ior;

There is none except Me.
22 "Turn to Me, and ^bbe saved,
all the ends of the earth;
For I am God, and there is 66^a COME down and sit in the dust,

O ^bvirgin ^cdaughter of Babylon;

Sit on the ground without a throne,

O daughter of the Chaldeans.

For you shall no longer be called ^dtender and delicate.

2^a Take the ^amillstones and ^bgrind meal.

I will ^btake vengeance and will not ¹spare a man.^a 4 Our ^aRedeemer, the LORD of hosts is His name,

The Holy One of Israel.

5^a Sit silently, and go into ^bdarkness,

O daughter of the Chaldeans;

For you will no more be called

The ^cqueen of ^dkingdoms.

6^a I was angry with My people,
I profaned My heritage,

And gave them into your hand.

You did not show mercy to them,

On the ^aaged you made your yoke very heavy.

7 "Yet you said, 'I shall be a queen forever.'
These things you did not consider,
Nor remember the outcome of them.

8 "Now, then, hear this, you sensual one,
Who dwells securely,
Who says in your heart,
'I am, and there is no one besides me.
I shall not sit as a widow,
Nor shall I know loss of children.'

9 "But these two things shall come on you suddenly in one day:
Loss of children and widowhood.
They shall come on you in full measure
In spite of your many sor-ceries,
In spite of the great power of your spells.

10 "And you felt secure in your wickedness and said,
'No one sees me,'
Your wisdom and your knowledge, they have deluded you;
For you have said in your heart,
'I am, and there is no one
besides me.'

11 "But evil will come on you Which you will not know how to charm away;
And disaster will fall on you
For which you cannot atone,
And destruction about which you do not know
Will come on you suddenly.

12 "Stand fast now in your spells
And in your many sorceries
With which you have labored from your youth;
Perhaps you will be able to profit,

"seeing that My people have

Nor will you go ¹as fugitives;

For the ^bLORD will go before
you,

And ^cthe God of Israel will be your rear guard.

13 ¶ Behold, My ^aservant will prosper,

He will be high and lifted up, and ¹greatly ^bexalted.

14 Just as many were astonished at you, My people,

So His ^aappearance was marred more than any man,

And His form more than the sons of men.

15 Thus He will ^asprinkle
many nations,

Kings will ^bshut their mouths on account of
Him;

For ^cwhat had not been told them they will see,

And what they had not heard they will understand.

CHAPTER 53

^aWHO has believed our message?

And to whom has the arm of the LORD been revealed?

2 For He grew up before Him like a ^atender ¹shoot,
And like a root out of parched ground;
He has ^bno stately form or majesty
That we should look upon
Him, Nor appearance that we should ²be attracted to Him.

3 He was ^adespised and forsaken of men,
A man of ¹sorrows, and ^bac-quainted with ²grief;
And like one from whom men hide their face,
He was ^cdespised, and we did not ^desteem Him.

4 ¶ Surely our ¹griefs He Himself ^abore,
And our ²sorrows He carried;
Yet we ourselves esteemed
Him stricken, ³Smitten of ^bGod, and afflicted.

5 But He was ¹pierced through for ^aour transgressions,
He was crushed for ^bour in-iquities;
The ^cchastening for our ²well-being fell upon
Him,
And by ^dHis scourging we are healed.

6 All of us like sheep have gone astray,
Each of us has turned to his own way;
But the LORD has caused the iniquity of us all
To ¹fall on Him.

7 ¶ He was oppressed and
He was afflicted,
Yet He did not ^aopen His mouth;
^bLike a lamb that is led to slaughter,
And like a sheep that is silent before its shearers,

So He did not open His mouth.

8 By oppression and judgment He was taken away;

And as for His generation, who considered

That He was cut off out of the land of the ¹living,

^aFor the transgression of my people to whom the stroke was due?

9 His grave was assigned with wicked men,

Yet He was with a ^arich man
in His death,

^bBecause He had ^cdone no violence,

Nor was there any deceit in His mouth.

10 ¶ But the LORD was pleased

To ^acrush Him, ^{1b}putting Him to grief;

If ²He would render Himself
as a guilt ^coffering,

He will see ^dHis ³offspring,

He will prolong His days,
And the ⁴good ^epleasure of the LORD will prosper in His hand.

11 As a result of the ¹anguish of His soul,

He will ^asee ²it and be satisfied;

By His ^bknowledge the Righteous One,

My Servant, will justify the many,

As He will ^cbear their iniqui-
ties.

12 Therefore, I will allot Him a ^aportion with the great,

And He will divide the booty with the strong;

Because He poured out ^{1b}Himself to death,

And was ^cnumbered with the transgressors;

Yet He Himself ^dbore the sin of many,

And interceded for the transgressors.

And brings out a weapon for its work;
And I have created the destroyer to ruin.

17 "No weapon that is formed against you shall prosper;

And every tongue that accuses you in judgment you will condemn.

This is the heritage of the servants of the LORD,

And their "vindication is from Me," declares the LORD.

And you who have no money come, buy and eat.

Come, buy wine and milk
Without money and without cost.

2 "Why do you spend money for what is not bread,

And your wages for what does not satisfy?

Listen carefully to Me, and eat what is good,

And delight yourself in abundance.

3 "Incline your ear and come to Me.

Listen, that you may live;
And I will make an everlasting covenant with you,

According to the faithful mercies shown to David.

18 "I have seen his ways, but I will heal him;

I will lead him and restore comfort to him and to his mourners,

19 Creating the praise of the lips.

Peace, peace to him who is far and to him who is near,"

Says the LORD, "and I will heal him."

20 But the wicked are like the tossing sea,

For it cannot be quiet,
And its waters toss up refuse and mud.

CHAPTER 58

CRY loudly, do not hold back;

Raise your voice like a trumpet,

And declare to My people their transgression,
And to the house of Jacob their sins.

2 "Yet they seek Me day by day, and delight to know
My ways,

As a nation that has done
bribeousness,

And has not forsaken the ordinance of their God.

They ask Me for just decisions,

They delight in the nearness of God.

3 "Why have we fasted and Thou dost not see?

Why have we humbled ourselves and Thou dost not notice?"

Behold, on the day of your fast you find your desire,
And drive hard all your workers.

4 "Behold, you fast for contention and strife and to strike with a wicked fist.

You do not fast like you do today to make your voice heard on high.

5 "Is it a fast like this which I choose, a day for a man to humble himself?

Is it for bowing one's head
like a reed,

And for spreading out sackcloth and ashes as a bed?

Will you call this a fast, even an acceptable day
to the LORD?

6 "Is this not the fast which I choose,

To loosen the bonds of wickedness,

- To undo the bands of the yoke,
And to ^blet the oppressed go free,
And ^cbreak every yoke?
7"Is it not to ^adivide your bread ¹with the hungry,
And ^bbring the homeless poor into the house;
When you see the ^cnaked, to cover him;
And not to ^dhide yourself from your own flesh?
8"Then your ^alight will break out like the dawn,
And your ^brecovery will speedily spring forth;
And your ^crighteousness will go before you;
The glory of the ^dLORD will be your rear guard.
9"Then you will ^acall, and the LORD will answer;
You will cry, and He will say, 'Here I am.'
If you ^bremove the yoke from your midst,
The ¹pointing of the finger, and ^dspeaking wickedness,
10 And if you ^{1a}give yourself to the hungry,
And satisfy the ²desire of the afflicted,
Then your ^blight will rise in darkness,
And your gloom will become like midday.
11"And the ^aLORD will continually guide you,
And ^bsatisfy your ¹desire in scorched places,
And ^cgive strength to your bones;
And you will be like a ^dwatered garden,
And like a ^espring of water whose waters do not ²fail.
12"And those from among you will ^arebuild the ancient ruins;
You will ^braise up the age-old foundations;

- BEHOLD, ^athe LORD's hand is not so short
That it cannot save;
^bNeither is His ear so dull
That it cannot hear.
2 But your ^ainiquities have made a separation between you and your God,
And your sins have hidden His ¹face from you, so that He does ^bnot hear.
3 For your ^ahands are defiled with blood,
And your fingers with iniquity;
Your lips have spoken ^bfalsehood,
Your tongue mutters wickedness.

5 They hatch adders' eggs and ^aweave the spider's web;
He who eats of their eggs
dies,
And from that which is crushed a snake breaks forth.
6 Their webs will not become

Nor will they ^acover them-

Their ^bworks are works of iniquity,

A Confession of Wickedness.

- And ^amoan sadly like doves;
We hope for ^bjustice, but there is none.
For salvation, but it is far
from us.
12 For our ^atransgressions are multiplied before Thee,
And our ^bsins ¹testify
against us;
For our transgressions are
with us,
And ²we know our iniqui-
ties:
13 Transgressing and ^adeny-
ing the LORD,
And turning away from our God, Speaking ^boppression and revolt, Conceiving in and ^cuttering from the heart lying words.
14 And ^ajustice is turned back,
And ^brighteousness stands far away;
For truth has stumbled in the street,
And uprightness cannot enter.
15 Yes, truth is lacking;
And he who turns aside from evil ^amakes himself a prey.
¶ Now the LORD saw,
And it was ¹displeasing in His sight ^bthat there was no justice.
16 And He saw that there was ^ano man,
And was astonished that there was no one to intercede;
Then His ^bown arm brought salvation to Him;
And His righteousness upheld Him.
17 And He put on ^arighteousness like a breastplate,
And a ^bhelmet of salvation
on His head;
And He put on ^cgarments of vengeance for clothing,

And wrapped Himself with zeal as a mantle.

- 18 According to their deeds,
so He will repay, Wrath to His adversaries, recompense to His enemies;

To the coastlands He will make recompense.

- 19 So they will fear the name of the LORD from the west
And His glory from the rising of the sun,

For He will come like a rushing stream,
Which the wind of the LORD drives.

- 20 And a Redeemer will come to Zion,

And to those who turn from transgression in Jacob," declares the LORD.

- 21 And as for Me, this is My covenant with them," says the LORD: "My Spirit which is upon you, and My words which I have put in your mouth, shall not depart from your mouth, nor from the mouth of your offspring, nor from the mouth of your off-spring's offspring," says the LORD, "from now and forever."

CHAPTER 60

- 6 ARISE, shine; for your light has come,
And the glory of the LORD has risen upon you.

- 2 For behold, darkness will cover the earth,
And deep darkness the peoples;

But the LORD will rise upon
you,
And His glory will appear upon you.

- 3 And nations will come to your light,
And kings to the brightness of your rising.

- 4 Lift up your eyes round about, and see;
They all gather together,
they come to you.

 12" For the ^anation and the kingdom which will not serve you will perish, 13" The ^aglory of Lebanon will come to you,

 The ^bjuniper, the box tree, and the cypress together,
 To beautify the place of My sanctuary;
 And I shall make the ^cplace of My feet glorious.
 14" And the ^asons of those who afflicted you will come bowing to you,

THE ^aSpirit of the Lord ^bGod is upon me,

- ^cEverlasting joy will be theirs.
8 For I, the LORD, ^alove justice,
I hate robbery ¹in the burnt offering;
And I will faithfully give them their recompense,
And I will make an ^beverlasting covenant with them.
9 Then their offspring will be known among the nations,
And their descendants in the midst of the peoples.
All who see them will recognize them
Because they are the ^aoffspring whom the LORD has blessed.

- 10 ¶ I will ^arejoice greatly in the LORD,
My soul will exult in ^bmy God;
For He has ^cclothed me with garments of salvation,
He has wrapped me with a robe of righteousness,
As a bridegroom decks himself with a garland,
And ^das a bride adorns herself with her jewels.
11 For as the ^aearth brings forth its sprouts,
And as a garden causes the things sown in it to spring up,
So the Lord ¹God will ^bcause ^crighteousness and praise
To spring up before all the nations.

CHAPTER 62

FOR Zion's sake I will not keep silent,
And for Jerusalem's sake I will not keep quiet, Until her ^arighteousness goes forth like bright-
ness,
And her ^bsalvation like a torch that is burning.

- 2 And the ^anations will see your righteousness,
And all kings your glory;
And you will be called by a new ^bname,
Which the mouth of the LORD will designate.
- 3 You will also be a ^acrown of beauty in the hand of the LORD,
And a royal ¹diadem in the hand of your God.
- 4 It will no longer be said to you, "¹^aForsaken," Nor to your land will it any longer be said, "²Desolate";
But you will be called, "³My delight is in her,"
And your land, "⁴^bMar-
ried";
For the ^cLORD delights in
you,
And to Him your land will be married.
- 5 For as a young man marries a virgin,
So your sons will marry
you;
And as the ¹bridegroom re-joices over the bride,
So your ^aGod will rejoice
over you.
- 6 ¶ On your walls, O Jerusalem, I have appointed ^awatchmen;
All day and all night they will never keep silent.
You who ^bremind the LORD, take no rest for yourselves;
- 7 And ^agive Him no rest until
He establishes
And makes ^bJerusalem a praise in the earth.
- 8 ^aThe LORD has sworn by His right hand and by His strong arm,
"I will ^bnever again give your grain as food for your enemies;
Nor will ¹foreigners drink your new wine, for which you have labored."

- WHO is this who comes from ^aEdom,
With ^bgarments of ¹glowing
colors from ^cBozrah,
This One who is majestic in His apparel,
²Marching in the greatness of His strength?
"It is I who speak in righteousness, ^dmighty to save."
- 2 Why is Your apparel red,
And Your garments like the one who ^atreads in the

- 3 ^aI have trodden the wine

And from the peoples there was no man with Me.

3 ^aRev. 14:20; 19:15

I also ^btrode them in My anger,
 And ^ctrampled them in My wrath;
 And ^dtheir ¹lifeblood is sprinkled on My garments,
 And I ²stained all My raiment.
 4 "For the ^aday of vengeance was in My heart,
 And My year of redemption has come.
 5 "And I looked, and there was ^ano one to help,
 And I was astonished and there was no one to uphold;
 So My ^bown arm brought salvation to Me;
 And My wrath upheld Me.
 6 "And I ^atrode down the peoples in My anger,
 And made them ^bdrunk in My wrath,
 And I ¹poured out their lifeblood on the earth."
 7 ¶ I shall make mention of the ^alovingkindnesses of the LORD, the praises of the LORD,
 According to all that the LORD has granted us,
 And the great ^bgoodness toward the house of Israel,
 Which He has granted them according to His ^ccompassion,
 And according to the multitude of His lovingkindnesses.
 8 For He said, "Surely, they are ^aMy people, Sons who will not deal falsely."
 So He became their ^bSavior.
 9 In all their affliction ^{1a}He was afflicted,
 And the ^bangel of His presence saved them;
 In His ^clove and in His mercy He ^dredeemed them;

And He ^alifted them and carried them all the days of old.
 10 But they ^arebelled
 And grieved His ^bHoly Spirit;
 Therefore, He turned Himself to become their enemy,
 He fought against them.
 11 Then ^aHis people remembered the days of old, of Moses.
 Where is ^bHe who brought them up out of the sea with the ¹shepherds of His flock?
 Where is He who ^cput His Holy Spirit in the midst of ²them, 12 Who caused His ^aglorious arm to go at the right hand of Moses,
 Who ^bdivided the waters before them to make for Himself an everlasting name, 13 Who led them through the depths?
 Like the horse in the wilderness, they did not ^astumble;
 14 As the cattle which go down into the valley,
 The Spirit of the ^aLORD gave ¹them rest.
 So didst Thou ^blead Thy people,
 To make for Thyself a glorious name.
 15 ¶ ^aLook down from heaven, and see from Thy holy and glorious ^bhabitation;
 Where are Thy ^czeal and Thy mighty deeds?
 The ^dstirrings of Thy heart and Thy compassion are restrained toward me.
 16 For Thou art our ^aFather, though ^bAbraham does not know us,
 And Israel does not recognize us.

Thou, O LORD, art our Father,
 Our Redeemer from of old is Thy name.

17 Why, O LORD, dost Thou cause us to stray from Thy ways,

And harden our heart from fearing Thee?

Return for the sake of Thy servants, the tribes of Thy heritage.

18 Thy holy people possessed Thy sanctuary for a little while,

Our adversaries have trodden it down.

19 We have become like those over whom Thou hast never ruled,

Like those who were not called by Thy name.

OH, that Thou wouldst rend

 down,

That the mountains might quake at Thy presence—

2 As fire kindles the brushwood, as fire causes water to boil—

To make Thy name known to Thine adversaries,
 That the nations may tremble at Thy presence!

3 When Thou didst awesome things which we did not expect,

Thou didst come down, the mountains quaked at Thy presence.

4 For from of old they have

Who remembers Thee in Thy ways.

Behold, Thou wast angry,
 for we sinned,

We continued in them a long time;

And shall we be saved?

6 For all of us have become like one who is unclean,
 And all our righteous deeds are like a filthy garment;

And all of us wither like a leaf,

And our iniquities, like the wind, take us away.

7 And there is no one who calls on Thy name,

Who arouses himself to take hold of Thee;

For Thou hast hidden Thy face from us,

And hast delivered us into the power of our iniqui-
 ties.

8 ¶ But now, O LORD, Thou art our Father,

We are the clay, and Thou
 our potter;

And all of us are the work of Thy hand.

9 Do not be angry beyond measure, O LORD,

Neither remember iniquity
 forever;

Behold, look now, all of us are Thy people.

10 Thy holy cities have become a wilderness,

Zion has become a wilderness,

Jerusalem a desolation.

11 Our holy and beautiful house,

Where our fathers praised Thee,

Has been burned by fire;
 And all our precious things have become a ruin.

12 Wilt Thou restrain Thyself at these things, O LORD?

Wilt Thou keep silent and afflict us beyond measure?

CHAPTER 65

- “I PERMITTED Myself to be sought by ^athose who did not ask for Me;
I permitted Myself to be found by those who did not seek Me.
I said, ‘Here am I, here am I,’
To a nation which ^bdid not call on My name.
2”^aI have spread out My hands all day long to a ^brebellious people,
Who walk in the way which is not good, ¹following their own ^cthoughts,
3 A people who continually ^aprovoke Me to My face, Offering sacrifices in ^bgardens and ^cburning incense on bricks;
4 Who sit among graves, and spend the night in secret places;
Who ^aeat swine’s flesh,
And the broth of unclean meat is in their pots.
5”Who say, ^a‘Keep to yourself, do not come near me,
For I am holier than you!’
These are smoke in My ¹nostrils,
A fire that burns all the day.
6”Behold, it is written before Me,
I will ^anot keep silent, but ^bI will repay;
I will even repay into their bosom,
7 Both ¹their own ^ainiquities and the iniquities of their fathers together,” says the LORD.
“Because they have ^bburned incense on the mountains,
And ^cscorned Me on the hills,
Therefore I will ^ameasure their former work into their bosom.”

THUS says the LORD,

"Heaven is My throne, and the earth is My footstool.
 Where then is a house you could build for Me?
 And where is a place that I may rest?

2 "For My hand made all these things,
 Thus all these things came into being," declares the LORD.

THE BOOK OF JEREMIAH

Jeremiah's Call and Commission

THE words of ^aJeremiah, the son of Hilkiah, of the priests who were in ^bAnathoth in the land of Benjamin.

2 to whom the word of the LORD came in the days of ^aJosiah, the son of ^bAmon, king of Judah, in the "thirteenth year of his reign.

3 It came also in the days of ^aJehoiakim, the son of Josiah, king of Judah, until the end of the eleventh year of ^bZedekiah, the son of Josiah, king of Judah, until the exile of Jerusalem in the fifth month.

4 ¶ Now the word of the LORD came to me saying,

5 "Before I ^aformed you in the womb I knew you,
And ^bbefore you were born I consecrated you;
I have ^cappointed you a prophet to the nations."

6 Then ^aI said, "Alas, Lord ¹God!

Behold, I do not know how to speak,

Because ^bI am a youth."

7 But the LORD said to me, "Do not say, 'I am a youth,' ^aBecause everywhere I send you, you shall go,
And ^ball that I command you, you shall speak.

8 ^a"Do not be afraid of them, For ^bI am with you to deliver you," declares the LORD.

9 Then the LORD stretched out His hand and ^atouched my mouth, and the LORD said to me, "Behold, I have ^bput My words in your mouth.

And your ^bapostasies will reprove you;
Know therefore and see that it is evil and ^cbitter
For you to forsake the LORD your God,
And ^dthe dread of Me is not in you," declares the Lord ¹Gop of hosts.

CHAPTER 3

GOD ¹says, "If a husband divorces his wife,

And she goes from him,

And belongs to another
 man,

Will he still return to her?

Will not that land be completely ²polluted?

But you ^bare a harlot with many ³lovers;

Yet you ^cturn to Me," declares the LORD.

2 "Lift up your eyes to the ^abare heights and see;

Where have you not been violated?

By the roads you have ^bsat for them

Like an Arab in the desert,
 And you have ^cpolluted a land

With your harlotry and with your wickedness.

3 "Therefore the ^ashowers have been withheld,

And there has been no spring rain.

Yet you had a ^bharlot's forehead;

You refused to be ashamed.

4 "Have you not just now called to Me,

^a"My Father, Thou art the ¹friend of my youth?"

5 'Will He be angry forever?
Will He ¹be indignant to the end?'
Behold, you have spoken
And have done evil things,
And you have ²had your

6 "Then the LORD said to me in the days of Josiah the king.
"Have you seen what faithless Israel did? She ^awent upon every high hill and under every green tree, and she was a harlot there.

7 "And ^aI ¹thought, 'After she has done all these things, she will return to Me'; but she did not return, and her ^btreacherous sister Judah saw it.

8 "And I saw that for all the adulteries of faithless Israel, I had sent her away and ^agiven her a writ of divorce, yet her ^btreach-erous sister Judah did not fear; but she went and was a harlot also.

9 "And it came about because of the lightness of her harlotry, that she ^apolluted the land and committed adultery with ^bstones and trees.

10 "And yet in spite of all this her treacherous sister Judah did not return to Me with all her heart, but rather in ^a'deception,"
declares the LORD.

11 "And the LORD said to me,
"Faithless Israel has proved herself more righteous than treacherous Judah.

12 "Go, and proclaim these words toward the north and say,

'Return, faithless Israel,'
declares the LORD;

'I will not ¹look upon you in 10 ¶ Then I said, "Ah, Lord God! Surely Thou hast utterly deceived this people and Jerusalem, saying, 'You will have peace'; whereas a sword touches the throat."

11 ¶ In that time it will be said to this people and to Jerusalem, "A scorching wind from the bare heights in the wilderness in the direction of the daughter of My people—not to winnow, and not to cleanse,

12 a wind too strong for this—will come at My command; now I will also pronounce judgments against them.

22 "For My people are foolish, They know Me not;

They are stupid children,

And they have no understanding.

They are shrewd to do evil,

But to do good they do not know."

23 ¶ I looked on the earth, and behold, it was formless and void;

And to the heavens, and they had no light.

24 I looked on the mountains, and behold, they were quaking,

"It is an enduring nation,
It is an ancient nation,
A nation whose ^blanguage you do not know,
Nor can you understand what they say.

16 "Their ^aquiver is like an ^bopen grave,

All of them are mighty men.

17 "And they will ^adevour your harvest and your food;

They will devour your sons and your daughters;

They will devour your flocks and your herds;

CHAPTER 6

- “FLEE for safety, O sons of ^aBenjamin,
From the midst of Jerusalem!
Now blow a trumpet in Tekoa,
And raise a signal over ^{1b}Beth-haccerem;
For evil looks down from the ^cnorth,
And a great destruction.
- 2“^aThe comely and ^adainty
one, ^bthe daughter of Zion, I will cut off.
- 3“^aShepherds and their flocks will come to her,
They will ^bpitch their tents
¹around her,
They will pasture each in his ²place.
- 4“^{1a}Prepare war against her;
Arise, and let us ²attack at ^bnoon.
Woe to us, for the day declines,
For the shadows of the evening lengthen!
- 5“Arise, and let us ¹attack by night
And ^adestroy her ²palaces!”
- 6 For thus says the LORD of
hosts,
“^aCut down her trees,
And cast up a ^bsiege against Jerusalem.
This is the city to be punished,
In whose midst there is only ^coppression.
- 7“^aAs a well ¹keeps its waters
fresh,
So she ¹keeps fresh her
wickedness.
^bViolence and destruction are heard in her; ^cSickness and wounds are ever before Me.

8^a Be warned, O Jerusalem, Lest ^bbe alienated from
you;
Lest I make you a desolation,
A land not inhabited."

9 ¶ Thus says the LORD of
hosts,
"They will ^athoroughly glean as the vine the ^bremnant of Israel;
Pass your hand again like a grape gatherer
Over the branches."

10 To whom shall I speak and give warning,
That they may hear?
Behold, their ^aears are ^bclosed.

And they cannot listen.
Behold, ^bthe word of the LORD has become a reproach to them;

They have no delight in it.

11 But I am ^afull of the wrath of
the LORD:

I am ^bweary with holding it in.

"Pour it out on the children
in the street,

And on the ^bgathering of young men together;

For both husband and wife
shall be taken.

The aged ^aand the very old.

12^a And their ^ahouses shall be turned over to others.

Their fields and their wives
together;

For I will ^bstretch out My hand

Against the inhabitants of the land," declares the LORD.

They were not even ashamed at all;

They did not even know how to blush.

Therefore they shall fall
among those who fall;

At the time that I punish
them.

They shall be cast down,"
says the LORD.

16 ¶ Thus says the LORD.

"Stand by the ways and see and ask for the ^aancient paths,

Where the good way is, and walk in it;

And ^byou shall find rest for your souls.

But they said, 'We will not
walk in it.'

17^a And I set ^awatchmen over you, saying,

'Listen to the sound of the trumpet!'

But they said, 'We will not listen.'

18^a Therefore hear, O nations,
And know, O congregation,
what is among them.

19^a Hear, O earth: behold, I am bringing disaster on this people.

Because they have not listened to My words,

Me from Sheba,

And the ^csweet cane from a distant land?

^aYour burnt offerings are not acceptable.

And your sacrifices are not pleasing to Me."

- 21 Therefore, thus says the LORD,
 "Behold, ^aI am ¹laying stumbling blocks before this people.
 And they will stumble against them,
^bFathers and sons together;
 Neighbor and ²friend will perish."
- 22 ¶ Thus says the LORD,
 "Behold, ^aa people is coming from the north land,
 And a great nation will be aroused from the ^bremote parts of the earth.
 23 "They seize ^abow and spear;
 They are ^bcruel and have no mercy;

- 26 O daughter of my people,

 For suddenly the destroyer
 Will come upon us.

CHAPTER 7

THE word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying,
 2 "Stand in the gate of the LORD's house and proclaim there this word, and say, 'Hear the word of the LORD, all you of Judah, who enter by these gates to worship the LORD!'"

3 Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, "Amend your ways and your deeds, and I will let you dwell in this place.

4 "Do not trust in deceptive words, saying, 'This is the temple of the LORD, the temple of the LORD, the temple of the LORD.'

5 "For ^aif you truly amend your ways and your deeds, if you truly ^bpractice justice between a man and his neighbor,

6 if you do not oppress the alien, the ¹orphan, or the widow, and do not shed ^binnocent blood in this place, nor ^cwalk after other gods to your own ruin,

7 then I will let you ^adwell in this place, in the ^bland that I gave to your fathers forever and ever.

8 ¶ "Behold, you are trusting in ^adeceptive words to no avail.

9 "Will you steal, murder, and commit adultery, and swear falsely, and ¹offer sacrifices to Baal, and walk after ^bother gods that you have not known,

10 then ^acome and stand before Me in ^bthis house, which is called by My name, and say, 'We are delivered!"—that you may do all these abominations?

11 "Has ^athis house, which is called by My name, become a ^bden of robbers in your sight? Behold, ^cI, even I, have seen it," declares the LORD.

12 ¶ "But go now to My place which was in ^aShiloh, where I ^bmade My name dwell at the first, and ^csee what I did to it because of the wickedness of My people Israel.

13 "And now, because you have done all these things," declares the LORD, "and I spoke to you, ^arising up early and ^bspeaking, but you did not hear, and I ^ccalled you but you did not answer,

14 therefore, I will do to the ^ahouse which is called by My name, ^bin which you trust, and to the place which I gave you and your fathers, as I ^cdid to Shiloh.

15 "And I will ^acast you out of My sight, as I have cast out all your brothers, all the ^boffspring of ^cEphraim.

16 ¶ "As for you, ^ado not pray for this people, and do not lift up cry or prayer for them, and do not intercede with Me; for I do not hear you.

17 "Do you not see what they are doing in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem?

18 "The ^achildren gather wood, and the fathers kindle the fire, and the women knead dough to make cakes for the queen of heaven; and they ^apour out libations to other gods in order to ^bspite Me.

19 "Do they spite Me?" declares the LORD. "Is it not themselves they spite, to ^atheir own ^bshame?"

20 Therefore thus says the Lord ^aGod, "Behold, My ^aanger and My wrath will be poured out on this place, on man and on beast and on the ^btrees of the field and on the fruit of the ground; and it will burn and not be quenched."

3"And ^adeath will be chosen rather than life by all the remnant that remains of this evil family, that remains in all the ^bplaces to which I have driven them," declares the LORD of hosts.

4"And you shall say to them, 'Thus says the LORD,

"Do men ^afall and not get up again?

Does one turn away and not ^brepent?

5"Why then has this people, Jerusalem,

^aTurned away in continual apostasy?

They ^bhold fast to deceit,

They ^crefuse to return.

6"I ^ahave listened and heard, They have spoken what is not right;

^bNo man repented of his wickedness,

Saying, 'What have I done?'

Everyone turned to his course,

Like a ^chorse charging into the battle.

7"Even the stork in the sky

Has made ^bit into a lie.

9" The wise men are ^aput to shame,

They are dismayed and caught;

Behold, they have ^brejected the word of the LORD,

And what kind of wisdom do they have?

And the leaf shall wither;
And what I have given them

 An assembly of ^ctreacherous men.
 3 "And they ^abend their tongue like their bow;

10 ¶ "For the ^amountains I will take up a weeping and wailing,
 And for the pastures of the ^bwilderness a dirge,
 Because they are ^claid waste, so that no one passes through,
 And the lowing of the cattle is not heard;
 Both the ^dbirds of the sky and the beasts have fled; they are gone.
 11 "And I will make Jerusalem a ^aheap of ruins,
 A haunt of ^bjackals;
 And I will make the cities of Judah a ^cdesolation, without inhabitant."
 12 ¶ Who is the ^awise man that may understand this? And who is he to whom ^bthe mouth of the LORD has spoken, that he may declare it? ^cWhy is the land ruined, laid waste like a desert, so that no one passes through?
 13 And the LORD said, "Because they have ^aforsaken My law which I set before them, and have not obeyed My voice nor walked according to it, 14 but have ^awalked after the stubbornness of their heart and after the ^bBaals, as their ^cfathers taught them,"
 15 therefore thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, "behold, ^aI will feed them, this people, with wormwood and give them ^bpoisoned water to drink.
 16 "And I will ^ascatter them among the nations, whom neither they nor their fathers have known; and I will send the ^bsword after them until I have annihilated them."

And our eyelids flow with water.

19 "For a voice of ^awailing is heard from Zion,

^bHow are we ruined!

We are put to great shame, For we have ^cleft the land, Because they have cast down our dwellings.' "

20 Now hear the word of the LORD, O you ^awomen,

And let your ear receive the word of His mouth;

Teach your daughters wailing,

And everyone her neighbor a dirge.

21 For ^adeath has come up through our windows;

It has entered our palaces To cut off the ^bchildren from the streets,

The young men from the town squares.

22 Speak, "Thus declares the LORD,

"The corpses of men will fall ^alike dung on the open field,

And like the sheaf after the reaper,

But no one will gather them.' "

23 ¶ Thus says the LORD,

"Let not a wise man boast of his wisdom, and let not the ^bmighty man boast of his might, let not a ^crich man boast of his riches;

24 but let him who boasts ^aboast of this, that he understands and knows Me, that I am the LORD who ^bexercises loving-kindness, justice, and righteousness on earth; for I ^cdelight in these things," declares the LORD.

CHAPTER 10

HEAR the word which the LORD speaks to you, O house of Israel.

2 Thus says the LORD,

"Do not learn the way of the nations,

And do not be terrified by the signs of the heavens Although the nations are terrified by them;

3 For the customs of the peoples are ¹delusion;

Because ^bit is wood cut from the forest.

The work of the hands of a craftsman with a cutting tool.

4 "They ^adecorate it with silver and with gold;

They ^bfasten it with nails and with hammers

So that it will not totter.

5 "Like a scarecrow in a cucumber field are they,

And they ^acannot speak; They must be ^bcarried,

Because they cannot walk! Do not fear them,

For they ^ccan do no harm, Nor can they do any good."

6 ¶ ^aThere is none like Thee, O LORD;

Thou art ^bgreat, and great is Thy name in might.

7 ^aWho would not fear Thee, O ^bKing of the nations?

Indeed it is Thy due! For among all the ^cwise men of the nations, And in all their kingdoms,

There is none like Thee.

- 8 But they are altogether
 *stupid and foolish
 In their discipline of ¹delusion—²their idol is wood!
- 9 Beaten *silver is brought from ^bTarshish,
 And ^cgold from Uphaz,
 The work of a craftsman and of the hands of a goldsmith;
 Violet and purple are their

 They are all the ^dwork of skilled men.
- 10 But the LORD is the *true
 God;
 He is the ^bliving God and the *everlasting King.
 At His wrath the ^dearth
 quakes,
 And the nations cannot *endure His indignation.
- 11 ¶ ¹Thus you shall say to them, "The *gods that did not make the heavens and the earth shall ^bperish from the earth and from under the ²heavens."
- 12 ¶ It is *He who made the earth by His power, Who ^bestablished the world
 by His wisdom;
 And by His understanding
 He has ^cstretched out the heavens.
- 13 When He utters His *voice, there is a tumult of waters in the heavens,
 And He causes the ^bclouds to ascend from the end of the earth;
 He makes lightning for the rain,
 And brings out the ^cwind
 from His storehouses.
- 14 Every man is *stupid, de-

 24 *Correct me, O LORD, but with justice;
 Not with Thine anger, lest Thou bring me to nothing.
 25 *Pour out Thy wrath on the nations that do not know Thee.
 And on the families that do not call Thy name;
 For they have devoured Jacob;
 They have devoured him
 and consumed him,
 And have laid waste his

CHAPTER 11

THE word which came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying,

2 *Hear the words of this covenant, and speak to the men of Judah and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem;

3 and say to them, Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, "Cursed is the man who does not heed the words of this covenant

4 which I commanded your forefathers in the day that I brought them out of the land of Egypt, from the biron furnace, saying, "Listen to My voice, and do according to all which I command you; so you shall be My people, and I will be your God."

5 in order to confirm the oath which I swore to your forefathers, to give them a land flowing with milk and honey, as it is this day." Then I answered and said, "Amen, O LORD."

6 ¶ And the LORD said to me, "Proclaim all these words in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem, saying, "Hear the words of this covenant and do them.

them all the words of this cov-

"A conspiracy has been found among the men of Judah and among the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

10 They have turned back to the iniquities of their ancestors who refused to hear My words, and they have gone after other gods to serve them; the house of Israel and the house of Judah have broken My covenant

thers."

11 Therefore thus says the LORD, "Behold I am bringing disaster on them which they will not be able to escape; though they will cry to Me, yet I will not listen to them.

12 Then the cities of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem will go and cry to the gods to whom they burn incense, but they surely will not save them in the time of their disaster.

13 For your gods are as many as your cities, O Judah; and as many as the streets of Jerusalem are the altars you have set up to the shameful thing, altars to burn incense to Baal.

14 ¶ Therefore do not pray for this people, nor lift up a cry or prayer for them; for I will not listen when they call to Me because of their disaster.

When ^bshe has done many vile deeds?

Can the sacrificial flesh take away from you your disaster,

¹So that you can rejoice?"

16 The LORD called your name,

"A ^agreen olive tree, beautiful in fruit and form";

With the ^bnoise of a great tumult

He has ^ckindled fire on it,

And its branches are worthless.

17 And the LORD of hosts, who ^aplanted you, has ^bpronounced evil against you because of the evil of the house of Israel and of the house of Judah, which they have ¹done to provoke Me by ^{2c}offering up sacrifices to Baal.

18 ^aMoreover, the LORD ^amade it known to me and I knew it;

Then Thou didst show me their deeds.

19 But I was like a gentle ^alamb led to the slaughter;

And I did not know that they had ^bdevised plots against me, saying,

"Let us destroy the tree with its ¹fruit,

And ^clet us cut him off from the ^dland of the living,

That his ^cname be remembered no more."

20 But, O LORD of hosts, who ^ajudges righteously,

Who ^btries the ¹feelings and the heart,

Let me see Thy vengeance on them,

For to Thee have I ²committed my cause.

21 ^aTherefore thus says the LORD concerning the men of ^aAnathoth, who ^bseek your life, saying, "^cDo not prophesy in the name of the LORD, that you might not ^ddie at our hand";

22 therefore, thus says the LORD of hosts, "Behold, I am about to ^apunish them! The ^byoung men will die by the sword, their sons and daughters will die by famine;

23 and a remnant ^awill not be left to them, for I will ^bbring disaster on the men of Anathoth—"the year of their punishment."

CHAPTER 12

^aRIGHTEOUS art Thou, O LORD, that I would plead my case with Thee;

Indeed I would ^bdiscuss matters of justice with Thee;

Why has the ^cway of the wicked prospered?

Why are all those who ^ddeal in treachery at ease?

15" And it will come about that after I have uprooted them, I will ^aagain have compassion on them; and I will ^bbring them back, each one to his inheritance and each one to his land.

CHAPTER 13

THUS the LORD said to me, "Go and ^abuy yourself a linen waistband, and put it around your waist, but do not put it in water."

1 ^aJer. 13:11

2 So I bought the waistband in accordance with the ^aword of the LORD and put it around my waist.

3 Then the word of the LORD came to me a second time, saying,

4 "Take the waistband that you have bought, which is around your waist, and arise, go to ^bthe ^aEuphrates and hide it there in a crevice of the rock."

5 So I went and hid it by the Euphrates, ^aas the LORD had commanded me.

6 And it came about after many days that the LORD said to me, "Arise, go to the Euphrates and take from there the waistband which I commanded you to hide there."

7 Then I went to the Euphrates and dug, and I took the waistband from the place where I had hidden it; and lo, the waistband was ruined, it was totally worthless.

8 ^c Then the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

9 "Thus says the LORD, 'Just so will I destroy the ^apride of Judah and the great pride of Jerusalem.

10 'This wicked people, who ^arefuse to listen to My words, who ^bwalk in the stubbornness of their hearts and have gone after other gods to serve them and to bow down to them, let them be just like this waistband, which is totally worthless.

11 'For as the waistband clings to the waist of a man, so I made the whole household of Israel and the whole household of Judah ^acling to Me,' declares the LORD, 'that they might be for Me a people, for ^brenown, for ^cpraise, and for glory; but they ^ddid not listen.'

THAT which came as the word of the LORD to Jeremiah in regard to the ^adrought:

2 "Judah mourns,

And ^aher gates languish

They sit on the ground ^bin mourning.

And the ^ccry of Jerusalem has ascended.

3 "And their nobles have ^asent their ¹servants for water;
They have come to the ^bcis-terns and found no water.
They have returned with their vessels empty;

They have been ^cput to shame and humiliated,

And they ^dcover their heads.

4 "Because the ^aground is ¹cracked,

For there has been ^bno rain
on the land;

The ^cfarmers have been put to shame,

They have covered their heads.

5 "For even the doe in the field has given birth only to abandon her young,

Because there is ^ano grass.

6 "And the ^awild donkeys stand on the bare heights;

They pant for air like jackals,

Their eyes fail

For there is ^bno vegetation.

7 "Although our ^ainiquities testify against us,

O LORD, act ^bfor Thy name's sake!

Truly our ^capostasies have been many,

We have ^dsinned against Thee.

8 "Thou ^aHope of Israel,
Its ^bSavior in ^ctime of distress,

Why art Thou like a stranger in the land

Or like a traveler who has pitched his tent for the night?

9 "Why art Thou like a man dismayed,

Like a mighty man who cannot save?

Yet ^bThou art in our midst, O LORD,

And we are ^ccalled by Thy name;

Do not forsake us!"

10 ¶ Thus says the LORD to this people, "Even so they have ^aloved to wander; they have not ^bkept their feet in check. Therefore the LORD does ^cnot accept them; now He will ^dremember their iniquity and call their sins to account."

11 So the LORD said to me, "^aDo not pray for the welfare of this people.

12 "When they fast, I am ^anot going to listen to their cry; and when they offer ^bburnt offering and grain offering, I am not going to accept them. Rather I am going to ^cmake an end of them by the ^dsword, famine and pestilence."

13 ¶ But, "Ah, Lord ¹God!" I said, "Look, the prophets are telling them, 'You ^awill not see the sword nor will you have famine, but I will give you ²lasting ^bpeace in this place.'"

14 Then the LORD said to me, "The ^aprophets are prophesying falsehood in My name. ^bI have neither sent them nor commanded them nor spoken to them; they are prophesying to you a ^cfalse vision, divination, futility and the deception of their own ¹minds.

15 "Therefore thus says the LORD concerning the prophets who are prophesying in My name, although it was not I who sent them—yet they keep saying, 'There shall be no sword or famine in this land'—^aby sword and famine those prophets shall ¹meet their end!"

CHAPTER 15

THEN the LORD said to me, "Even though Moses and Samuel were to stand before Me, My heart would not be with this people; send them away from My presence and let them go!

2 "And it shall be that when they say to you, 'Where should we go?' then you are to tell them, 'Thus says the LORD:

"Those destined for death, to death;

And those destined for the sword, to the sword;

And those destined for famine, to famine;

And those destined for captivity, to captivity."

3 "And I shall appoint over them four kinds of doom," declares the LORD: "the sword to slay, the dogs to drag off, and the birds of the sky and the beasts of the earth to devour and destroy.

4 "And I shall make them an object of horror among all the kingdoms of the earth because of Manasseh, the son of Hezekiah, the king of Judah, for what he did in Jerusalem.

5 ¶ "Indeed, who will have pity on you, O Jerusalem,

Or who will mourn for you,

Or who will turn aside to ask about your welfare?

CHAPTER 16

THE word of the LORD also came to me saying,

2 "You shall not take a wife for yourself nor have sons or daughters in this place."

3 For thus says the LORD concerning the sons and daughters born in this place, and concerning their ^amothers who bear them, and their ^bfathers who beget them in this land:

4 "They will ^adie of deadly diseases, they ^bwill not be lamented or buried; they will be as ^cdung on the surface of the ground and come to an end by sword and famine, and their carcasses will become food for the ^dbirds of the sky and for the beasts of the earth."

5 ¶ For thus says the LORD,
 "Do not enter a house of ¹mourning, or go to lament or to console them; for I have ^bwith-drawn My peace from this people," declares the LORD, "My ^clovingkindness and compassion.

6 "Both ^agreat men and small will die in this land; they will not be buried, they will not be lamented, nor will anyone ^bgash himself or ^cshave his head for them.

7 "Neither will men ^abreak bread in mourning for them, to comfort anyone for the dead, nor give them a cup of consolation to drink for anyone's father or mother.

8 "Moreover you shall ^anot go into a house of feasting to sit with them to eat and drink."

9 For thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: "Behold, I am going to ^aeliminate from this place, before your eyes and in your time, the voice of rejoicing and the voice of gladness, the voice of the groom and the voice of the bride.

10 ¶ "Now it will come about when you tell this people all these words that they will say to you, '^aFor what reason has the LORD declared all this great calamity against us? And what is our iniquity, or what is our sin which we have committed against the LORD our God?'

11 "Then you are to say to them, '^aIt is ^abecause your forefathers have forsaken Me,' declares the LORD, ^aand have followed ^bother gods and served them and bowed down to them; but Me they have forsaken and have not kept My law.

12 'You too have done evil, even ^amore than your forefathers; for behold, you are each one walking according to the ^bstubbornness of his own ^cevil heart, without listening to Me.

13 'So I will ^ahurl you out of this land into the ^bland which you have not known, neither you nor your fathers; and there you will ^cserve other gods day and night, for I shall grant you no favor.'

Was in Thy presence.
17 Do not be a terror to me; Thou art my refuge in the day of disaster.
18 Let those who persecute me be put to shame, but as for me, let me not be put to shame;
Let them be dismayed, but let me not be dismayed.
Bring on them a day of disaster,
And crush them with two-fold destruction!
19 Thus the LORD said to me,
"Go and stand in the public gate, through which the kings of Judah come in and go out, as well as in all the gates of Jerusalem;
20 and say to them, Listen to the word of the LORD, kings of Judah, and all Judah, and all inhabitants of Jerusalem, who come in through these gates:
21 Thus says the LORD, Take heed for yourselves, and do not carry any load on the sabbath day or bring anything in through the gates of Jerusalem.
22 And you shall not bring a load out of your houses on the sabbath day nor do any work, but keep the sabbath day holy, as I commanded your forefathers.
23 Yet they did not listen or incline their ears, but stiffened their necks in order not to listen or take correction.

24 But it will come about, if you listen attentively to Me," declares the LORD, "to bring no load in through the gates of this city on the sabbath day, but to keep the sabbath day holy by doing no work on it.

25 Then there will come in through the gates of this city kings and princes sitting on the throne of David, riding in chariots and on horses, they and their princes, the men of Judah, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem; and this city will be inhabited forever.

26 They will come in from the cities of Judah and from the environs of Jerusalem, from the land of Benjamin, from the lowland, from the hill country, and from the Negev, bringing burnt offerings, sacrifices, grain offerings and incense, and bringing sacrifices of thanksgiving to the house of the LORD.

27 But if you do not listen to Me to keep the sabbath day holy by not carrying a load and coming in through the gates of Jerusalem on the sabbath day, then I shall kindle a fire in its gates, and it will devour the palaces of Jerusalem and not be quenched."

CHAPTER 18

THE word which came to Jeremiah from the LORD saying,

2 Arise and go down to the potter's house, and there I shall announce My words to you."

3 Then I went down to the potter's house, and there he was, making something on the wheel.

4 But the vessel that he was making of clay was spoiled in the hand of the potter; so he remade it into another vessel, as it pleased the potter to make.

5 Then the word of the LORD came to me saying,

6 Can I not, O house of Israel, deal with you as this potter does?" declares the LORD. "Behold, like the ^aclay in the potter's hand, so are you in My hand, O house of Israel.

7 "At one moment I might speak concerning a nation or concerning a kingdom to ^auproot, to pull down, or to destroy it;

8 ^aif that nation against which I have spoken turns from its evil, I will ^brelent concerning the calamity I planned to bring on it.

9 "Or at another moment I might speak concerning a nation or concerning a kingdom to ^abuild up or to plant it;

10 if it does ^aevil in My sight by not obeying My voice, then I will ^bthink better of the good with which I had promised to ²bless it.

11 "So now then, speak to the men of Judah and against the inhabitants of Jerusalem saying, 'Thus says the LORD, "Behold, I am ^afashioning calamity against you and devising a plan against you. Oh ^bturn back, each of you from his evil way, and ¹reform your ways and your deeds."

12 "But ^athey will say, 'It's hopeless! For we are going to follow our own plans, and each of us will act according to the ^bstubbornness of his evil heart.'

heavenly host and "poured out libations to other gods." "

14 ¶ Then Jeremiah came from Topheth, where the LORD had sent him to prophesy; and he stood in the "court of the LORD's house and said to all the people:

15 "Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, 'Behold, I am about to bring on this city and all its towns the entire calamity that I have declared against it, because they have "stiffened their necks so "as not to heed My words.' "

CHAPTER 20

WHEN Pashhur the priest, the son of "Immer, who was "chief officer in the house of the LORD, heard Jeremiah prophesying these things,

2 Pashhur had Jeremiah the prophet "beaten, and put him in the "stocks that were at the upper "Benjamin Gate, which was by the house of the LORD.

3 Then it came about on the next day, when Pashhur released Jeremiah from the stocks, that Jeremiah said to him, "Pashhur is not the name the LORD has "called you, but rather "Magor-missabib.

4 "For thus says the LORD, 'Behold, I am going to make you a "terror to yourself and to all your friends; and while "your eyes look on, they will fall by the sword of their enemies. So I shall "give over all Judah to the hand of the king of Babylon, and he will carry them away as "exiles to Babylon and will slay them with the sword.

5 'I shall also give over all the "wealth of this city, all its produce, and all its costly things; even all the treasures of the kings of Judah I shall give over to the "hand of their enemies, and they will plunder them, take them away, and bring them to Babylon.

6 'And you, "Pashhur, and all who live in your house will go into captivity; and you will enter Babylon, and there you will die, and there you will be buried, you and all your "friends to whom you have "falsely prophesied.' "

7 ¶ O LORD, Thou hast deceived me and I was deceived;

Thou hast "overcome me and prevailed.

I have become a "laughing-stock all day long;

Everyone "mocks me.

8 For each time I speak, I cry aloud;

I "proclaim violence and destruction,

Because for me the "word of the LORD has "resulted in reproach and derision all day long.

9 But if I say, "I will not "remember Him

Or speak anymore in His name,"

Then in "my heart it becomes like a burning fire Shut up in my bones; And I am weary of holding it in,

And "I cannot endure it.

10 For "I have heard the whispering of many,

"Terror on every side!

"Denounce him; yes, let us denounce him!"

"All my "trusted friends,

Watching for my fall, say

"Perhaps he will be "deceived, so that we may "prevail against him

And take our revenge on him."

11 But the "LORD is with me like a dread champion;

Therefore my "persecutors will stumble and not prevail.

They will be utterly ashamed, because they have "failed,

He will not spare them nor have pity nor compassion."

8 "You shall also say to this people, "Thus says the LORD, "Behold, I set before you the way of life and the way of death.

famine and by pestilence; but he who goes out and falls away to the Chaldeans who are besieging you will live, and he will have his own life as booty.

10 "For I have ^aset My face against this city for ^hharm and not for good," declares the LORD. "It will be ^bgiven into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he will ^cburn it with fire."

11 "Then say to the household of the ^aking of Judah, 'Hear the word of the LORD.

12 O ^ahouse of David, thus says the LORD:

^b"Administer justice ^levery ^cmorning;

And deliver the person who has been robbed from the ²power of his oppressor, ^d"That My wrath may not go forth like fire

And ^aburn with none to extinguish it, Because of the evil of their deeds.

13 "Behold, ^aI am against you, O ^bvalley dweller, O ^lrocky plain," declares the LORD,

"You men who say, ^cWho will come down against us?

Or who will enter into our habitations?"

14 "But I shall punish you ^aaccording to the ^lresults of your deeds," declares the LORD,

"And I shall ^bkindle a fire in its forest

That it may devour all its environs."

CHAPTER 22

THUS says the LORD, "Go down to the house of the king of Judah, and there speak this word,

2 and say, 'Hear the word of the LORD, O king of Judah, who ^asits on David's throne, you and your servants and your people who enter these gates.

Judah Warned against Injustice.

3 "Thus says the LORD, "^a"Do justice and righteousness, and deliver the one who has been robbed from the power of his ^boppressor. Also ^cdo not mistreat or do violence to the stranger, the orphan, or the widow; and do not ^dshed innocent blood in this place.

4 "For if you men will indeed perform this thing, then ^akings will enter the gates of this house, sitting ^lin David's place on his throne, riding in chariots and on horses, even the king himself and his servants and his people.

5 "^aBut if you will not obey these words, I ^bswear by Myself," declares the LORD, "that this house will become a desolation." "

6 For thus says the LORD concerning the house of the king of Judah:

"You are like ^aGilead to Me,
Like the summit of Lebanon;

Yet most assuredly I shall make you like a ^bwilderness,

Like cities which are not inhabited.

7 "For I shall set apart ^adestroyers against you,
Each with his weapons;
And they will ^bcut down your choicest cedars

And ^cthrow them on the fire.

8 "And many nations will pass by this city; and they will ^asay to one another, 'Why has the LORD done thus to this great city?'

9 "Then they will ^lanswer, 'Because they ^aforsook the covenant of the LORD their God and bowed down to other gods and served them.' "

10 "Do not weep for the dead or mourn for him,

But weep continually for the one who goes away;
For he will never return
Or see his native land.

11 For thus says the LORD in regard to ^{1a}Shallum the son of Josiah, king of Judah, who became king in the place of Josiah his father, who went forth from this place, "He will never return there;

12 but in the place where they led him captive, there he will die and not see this land again.

13 "Woe to him who builds his house without righteousness

And his upper rooms without justice,

Who uses his neighbor's services without pay

And does not give him his wages,

14 Who says, 'I will build myself a roomy house

With spacious upper rooms,

And cut out its windows,

²Paneling it with cedar and painting it bright red.'

15 "Do you become a king because you are competing in cedar?

Did not your father eat and drink,

And do justice and righteousness?

Then it was well with him.

16 "He pled the cause of the afflicted and needy;

Then it was well.

^bIs not that what it means to know Me?"

Declares the LORD.

17 "But your eyes and your heart

Are intent only upon your own dishonest gain,

And on shedding innocent blood

And on practicing oppression and extortion."

And lift up your voice in Bashan;

Cry out also from Abarim, For all your lovers have been crushed.

^bThis has been your practice from your youth,

That you have not obeyed My voice.

Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and into the hand of the Chaldeans.

26 "I shall ^ahurl you and your mother who bore you into another country where you were not born, and there you will die.

27 "But as for the land to which they desire to return, they will not return to it.

28 "Is this man Coniah a despised, shattered jar?

Or is he an ^aundesirable vessel?

Why have he and his descendants been ^bhurled out

And cast into a ^cland that they had not known?

Hear the word of the LORD!

30 "Thus says the LORD,

'Write this man down ^achildless,

A man who will ^bnot prosper in his days;

For no man of his ^cdescendants will prosper

Sitting on the throne of David

Or ruling again in Judah.'

CHAPTER 23

66 "WOE to the shepherds who are ^bdestroying and scattering the ^csheep of My pasture!" declares the LORD.

2 Therefore thus says the LORD God of Israel concerning the shepherds who are ^ttending My people: "You have scattered My flock and driven them away, and have not attended to them; behold, I am about to ^aattend to you for the ^bevil of your deeds," declares the LORD.

3 "Then I Myself shall ^agather the remnant of My flock out of all the countries where I have driven them and shall bring them back to their pasture; and they will be fruitful and multiply.

4 "I shall also raise up ^ashepherds over them and they will ^ttend them; and they will ^bnot be afraid any longer, nor be terrified, ^cnor will any be missing," declares the LORD.

5 ¶ "Behold, the ^adays are coming," declares the LORD,

"When I shall raise up for David a righteous ^bBranch; And He will ^creign as king and ^dact wisely

And ^ddo justice and righteousness in the land.

6 "In His days Judah will be saved,

And ^aIsrael will dwell securely;

And this is His ^bname by which He will be called,

'The ^cLORD our righteousness.'

7 "Therefore behold, the days are coming," declares the LORD, "when they will no longer say, 'As the LORD lives, who brought up the sons of Israel from the land of Egypt,'

8 ^abut, 'As the LORD lives, who ^bbrought up and led back the descendants of the household of Israel from the north land and from all the countries where I had driven them.' Then they will live on their own soil."

9 As for the prophets:

My ^aheart is broken within me,

All my bones tremble;

I have become like a drunken man,

Even like a man overcome with wine,

Because of the LORD

And because of His holy words.

10 For the land is full of ^aadulterers;

For the land ^bmourns because of the curse.

The ^cpastures of the wilderness have dried up.

Their course also is evil,

And their might is not right;

CHAPTER 24

AFTER ^aNebuchadnezzar king of Babylon had carried away captive Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim, king of Judah, and the officials of Judah with the craftsmen and smiths from Jerusalem and had brought them to Babylon, the LORD showed me: behold, two ^bbaskets of figs set before the temple of the LORD!

2 One basket had very good figs, like ^afirst-ripe figs; and the other basket had ^bvery bad figs, which could not be eaten due to rottenness.

3 Then the LORD said to me, "^aWhat do you see, Jeremiah?" And I said, "Figs, the good figs.

very good; and the bad figs, very bad, which cannot be eaten due to rottenness."

4 ¶ Then the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

5 "Thus says the LORD God of Israel, 'Like these good figs, so I will regard ^aas good the captives of Judah, whom I have sent out of this place into the land of the Chaldeans.

6 'For I will set My eyes on them for good, and I will ^abring them again to this land; and I will ^bbuild them up and not overthrow them, and I will ^cplant them and not pluck them up.

7 'And I will give them a ^aheart to know Me, for I am the LORD; and they will be ^bMy people, and I will be their God, for they will ^creturn to Me with their whole heart.

8 ¶ 'But like the ^abad figs which cannot be eaten due to rottenness—indeed, thus says the LORD—so I will ^aabandon ^bZedekiah king of Judah and his officials, and the ^cremnant of Jerusalem who remain in this land, and the ones who dwell in the land of ^dEgypt.

9 'And I will ^amake them a terror and an evil for all the kingdoms of the earth, as a ^breproach and a proverb, a taunt and a ^ccurse in all places where I shall scatter them.

10 'And I will send the ^asword, the famine, and the pestilence upon them until they are destroyed from the land which I gave to them and their forefathers.' "

and to all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, saying,

3 "From the ^athirteenth year of ^bJosiah the son of Amon, king of Judah, even to this day, ^athese ^ctwenty-three years the word of the LORD has come to me, and I have spoken to you ^{2d}again and again, but you have not listened.

4 "And the LORD has sent to you all His ^aservants the prophets ^aagain and again, but you have not listened nor inclined your ear to hear,

5 saying, '^aTurn now everyone from his evil way and from the evil of your deeds, and dwell on the land which the LORD has given to you and your forefathers ^bforever and ever;

7 "Yet you have not listened to Me," declares the LORD, "in order that you might ^aprovoke Me to anger with the work of your hands to your own harm.

8 "Therefore thus says the LORD of hosts, 'Because you have not obeyed My words,

9 behold, I will ^asend and take all the families of the north,' declares the LORD, 'and I will send to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, ^bMy servant, and will bring them against this land, and against its inhabitants, and against all these nations round about; and I will ^autterly destroy them, and ^cmake them a horror, and a hissing, and an everlasting desolation.

CHAPTER 26

IN the beginning of the reign of ^aJehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, this word came from the LORD, saying,

2 "Thus says the LORD, ^aStand in the court of the LORD's house, and speak to all the cities of Judah, who have ^bcome to worship in the LORD's house, ^call the words that I have commanded you to speak to them. ^dDo not omit a word!

3 ^aPerhaps they will listen and everyone will turn from his evil way, that ^bI may repent of the calamity which I am planning to do to them because of the evil of their deeds."

4 "And you will say to them,
"Thus says the LORD, ^a"If you will not listen to Me, to ^bwalk in My law, which I have set before you,

5 to listen to the words of ^aMy servants the prophets, whom I have been sending to you ¹again and again, but you have not listened;

6 then I will make this house like ^aShiloh, and this city I will make a ^bcurse to all the nations of the earth."

7 ¶ And the ^apriests and the prophets and all the people heard Jeremiah speaking these words in the house of the LORD.

8 And when Jeremiah finished speaking all that the LORD had commanded him to speak to all the people, the priests and the prophets and all the people seized him, saying, ^a"You must die!

9 "Why have you prophesied in the name of the LORD saying,
"This house will be like Shiloh, and this city will be ^adesolate, without inhabitant?" And all the people gathered about Jeremiah in the house of the LORD.

10 ¶ And when the ^aprinces of Judah heard these things, they came up from the king's house to the house of the LORD and sat in the ^bentrance of the New Gate of the LORD's house.

11 Then the priests and the prophets ^aspoke to the officials and to all the people, saying, "A ^bdeath sentence for this man! For he has prophesied ^cagainst this city as you have heard in your hearing."

12 Then Jeremiah spoke to all the officials and to all the people, saying, "The LORD sent me to prophesy against this house and against this city all the words that you have heard.

13 "Now therefore ^aamend your ways and your deeds, and obey the voice of the LORD your God; and the LORD will ¹change His mind about the misfortune which He has pronounced against you.

14 "But as for me, behold, ^aI am in your hands; do with me as is good and right in your sight.

15 "Only know for certain that if you put me to death, you will bring ^ainnocent blood on yourselves, and on this city, and on its inhabitants; for truly the LORD has sent me to you to speak all these words in your hearing."

16 ¶ Then the officials and all the people ^asaid to the priests and to the prophets, "No ^bdeath sentence for this man! For he has spoken to us in the name of the LORD our God."

17 Then ^asome of the elders of the land rose up and spoke to all the assembly of the people, saying,

18 "1 ^aMicah of Moresheth prophesied in the days of Hezekiah king of Judah; and he spoke to all the people of Judah, saying, 'Thus the LORD of hosts has said,

20 ¶ Indeed, there was also a man who prophesied in the name of the LORD, Uriah the son of Shemaiah from ^aKiriath-jearim; and he prophesied against this city and against this land words similar to all those of Jeremiah.

21 When King Jehoiakim and all his mighty men and all the officials heard his words, then the ^aking sought to put him to death; but Uriah heard it, and he was afraid and ^bfled, and went to Egypt.

22 Then King Jehoiakim sent men to Egypt: ^aElnathan the son of Achbor and certain men with him went into Egypt.

23 And they brought Uriah from Egypt and led him to King Jehoiakim, who ^aslew him with a sword, and cast his dead body into the ¹burial place of the ²common people.

24 ¶ But the hand of ^aAhikan the son of Shaphan was with Jeremiah, so that he was ^bnot given into the hands of the people to put him to death.

IN the beginning of the reign of ¹a Zedekiah the son of Josiah king of Judah, this word came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying—

2 thus says the LORD to me—
"Make for yourself ^abonds and

Jer. 27:10

11 "But the nation which will ^abring its neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon and serve him, I will ^blet remain on its land," declares the LORD, "and they will till it and dwell in it."

12 ¹ And I spoke words like all these to ^aZedekiah king of Judah, saying, "Bring your necks under the yoke of the king of Babylon, and serve him and his people, and live!

13 "Why will you ^adie, you and your people, by the sword, famine, and pestilence, as the LORD has spoken to that nation which will not serve the king of Babylon?

14 "So ^ado not listen to the words of the prophets who speak to you, saying, 'You shall not serve the king of Babylon,' for they prophesy a ^blie to you;

15 for ^aI have not sent them," declares the LORD, "but they ^bprophesy falsely in My name, in order that I may ^cdrive you out, and that you may perish, ^dyou and the prophets who prophesy to you."

16 ¹ Then I spoke to the priests and to all this people, saying, "Thus says the LORD: Do not listen to the words of your prophets who prophesy to you, saying, 'Behold, the ^avessels of the LORD's house will now shortly be brought again from Babylon'; for they are prophesying a ^blie to you.

17 "Do not listen to them; serve the king of Babylon, and live!
Why should this city ^abecome a ruin?

18 "But ^aif they are prophets, and if the word of the LORD is with them, let them now ^bentreat the LORD of hosts, that the vessels which are left in the house of the LORD, in the house of the king of Judah, and in Jerusalem, may not go to Babylon.

19 "For thus says the LORD of hosts concerning the ^apillars, concerning the sea, concerning the stands, and concerning the rest of the vessels that are left in this city.

20 which Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon did not take when he ^acarried into exile Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim, king of Judah, from Jerusalem to Babylon, and all the nobles of Judah and Jerusalem.

21 "Yes, thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, concerning the vessels that are left in the house of the LORD, and in the house of the king of Judah, and in Jerusalem,

22 'They shall be ^acarried to Babylon, and they shall be there until the ^bday I visit them,' declares the LORD. 'Then I will ^cbring them ^bback and restore them to this place.' "

CHAPTER 28

NOW it came about in the same year, ^ain the beginning of the reign of ^bZedekiah king of Judah, in the fourth year, in the fifth month, that ^cHananiah the son of Azzur, the prophet, who was from ^dGibeon, spoke to me in the house of the LORD in the presence of the priests and all the people, saying,

2 "Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, 'I have broken the yoke of the king of Babylon.

3 'Within two years I am going to bring back to this place ^aall the vessels of the LORD's house, which Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon took away from this place and carried to Babylon.

4 'I am ^aalso going to bring back to this place ^bJeconiah the son of Jehoiakim, king of Judah, and all the ^cexiles of Judah who went to Babylon,' declares the LORD, 'for I will break the ^dyoke of the king of Babylon.' "

5 ¶ Then the prophet Jeremiah spoke to the prophet Hananiah in the presence of the priests and in the presence of all the people who were standing in the ^ahouse of the LORD.

6 and the prophet Jeremiah said, "Amen! May the LORD do so; may the LORD ^bconfirm your words which you have prophesied to bring back the vessels of the LORD's house and all the exiles, from Babylon to this place.

7 "Yet ^ahear now this word which I am about to speak in your hearing and in the hearing of all the people!

8 "The prophets who were before me and before you from ancient times ^aprophesied against many lands and against great kingdoms, of war and of calamity and of pestilence.

9 "The prophet who prophesies of peace, ^awhen the word of the prophet shall come to pass, then that prophet will be known as one whom the LORD has truly sent."

10 Then Hananiah the prophet took the ^ayoke from the neck of Jeremiah the prophet and broke it.

11 And Hananiah spoke in the presence of all the people, saying, "Thus says the LORD, 'Ever so will I break within two full years, the yoke of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon from the neck of all the nations.' " Then the prophet Jeremiah went his way.

12 ¶ And the ^aword of the LORD came to Jeremiah, after Hananiah the prophet had broken the yoke from off the neck of the prophet Jeremiah, saying,

13 "Go and speak to Hananiah saying, 'Thus says the LORD "You have broken the yokes of wood, but you have made in stead of them ^ayokes of iron."

14 'For thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, "I have put a ^ayoke of iron on the neck of all these nations, that they may serve Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon; and they shall ^bserve him. And ^cI have also given him the beasts of the field." " "

15 Then Jeremiah the prophet said to Hananiah the prophet, "Listen now, Hananiah, the LORD has not sent you, and ^ayou have made this people trust in a lie.

16 "Therefore thus says the LORD, ^a'Behold, I am about to ¹remove you from the face of the earth. This year you are going to ^bdie, because you have ^{2c}counseled rebellion against the LORD.' "

17 So Hananiah the prophet died in the same year in the seventh month.

CHAPTER 29

NOW these are the words of the ^a'letter which Jeremiah the prophet sent from Jerusalem to the rest of the elders of the exile, the priests, the prophets, and all the people whom Nebuchadnezzar had taken into exile from Jerusalem to Babylon.

2 (This was after King ^a'Jeconiah and the ^bqueen mother, the court officials, the princes of Judah and Jerusalem, the craftsmen and the smiths had departed from Jerusalem.)

3 The letter was sent by the hand of Elasah the son of Shaphan, and Gemariah the son of ^a'Hilkiah, whom Zedekiah king of Judah sent to Babylon to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, saying,

4 "Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, to all the exiles whom I have ^a'sent into exile from Jerusalem to Babylon,

5 ^a'Build houses and live in them; and plant gardens, and eat their ¹'produce.

6 Take ^a'wives and ¹become the fathers of sons and daughters, and take wives for your sons and give your daughters to husbands, that they may bear sons and daughters; and multiply there and do not decrease.

CHAPTER 31

“AT that time,” declares the LORD, “I will be the ^aGod of all the ^bfamilies of Israel, and they shall be My people.”

2 Thus says the LORD,

“The people who survived the sword

^aFound grace in the wilderness—

Israel, when it went to ^bfind its rest.”

3 The LORD appeared to ¹him from afar, saying,

“I have ^aloved you with an everlasting love;

Therefore I have drawn you with ^blovingkindness.

4 “^aAgain I will build you, and you shall be rebuilt,

O virgin of Israel!

Again you shall ¹take up your ^btambourines,

And go forth to the dances of the ^cmerrymakers.

5 “^aAgain you shall ^aplant vineyards

On the ¹hills of Samaria;

The planters shall plant

And shall ²enjoy them.

6 “^aFor there shall be a day when watchmen

On the hills of Ephraim shall call out,

‘Arise, and ^alet us go up to Zion,

To the LORD our God.’ ”

7 ¶ For thus says the LORD

“^aSing aloud with gladness for Jacob,

And shout among the ^bchiefs of the nations;

7 ^aLit., heads ^aPs. 14:7; Jer. 20:13 ^bDeut. 28:13; Is. 61:9

Proclaim, give praise, and say,
'O LORD, 'save Thy people,
The 'remnant of Israel.'
8"Behold, I am 'bringing them from the north country,
And I will 'gather them from the remote parts of the earth,
Among them the 'blind and the 'dame,
The woman with child and she who is in labor with child, together;
A great 'company, they shall return here.
9""With weeping they shall come,
And by supplication I will lead them;
I will make them walk by
'streams of waters,
On a straight path in which they shall 'not stumble;
For I am a 'father to Israel,
And Ephraim is 'My first-born."
10 ¶ Hear the word of the LORD, O nations,
And declare in the 'coast-lands afar off,
And say, "He who scattered
Israel will 'gather him,
And keep him as a 'shepherd keeps his flock."
11 For the LORD has 'ran-somed Jacob,
And redeemed him from the hand of him who was
'stronger than he.
12"And they shall 'come and shout for joy on the 'height of Zion,
And they shall be 'radiant over the 'bounty of the LORD—
Over the 'grain, and the new wine, and the oil,
And over the young of the 'flock and the herd;
And their life shall be like a
'watered garden,
And they shall 'never languish again.

15 ¶ Thus says the LORD,
""A voice is heard in 'Ramah, Lamentation and bitter weeping,
Rachel is weeping for her children;
She 'refuses to be comforted for her children,
Because 'they are no

16 Thus says the LORD,

For your 'work shall be rewarded," declares the
LORD,
""And they shall 'return from the land of the enemy.
17"And there is 'hope for your

LORD,

20 "Is Ephraim My dear son?
Is he a delightful child?
Indeed, as often as I have spoken against him,
I certainly still remember

Therefore My heart
yearns for him;

I will surely have mercy on

30 "Indeed the sons of Israel and the sons of Judah have been doing only ^aevil in My sight from their youth; for the sons of Israel have been only ^bprovoking Me to anger by the work of their hands," declares the LORD.

31 "Indeed this city has been to Me a ^aprovocation of My anger and My wrath from the day that they built it, even to this day, that it should be ^bremoved from before My face,

32 because of all the evil of the sons of Israel and the sons of Judah, which they have done to provoke Me to anger—they, their ^akings, their leaders, their priests, their prophets, the men of Judah, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

33 "And they have turned their back to Me, and not their face; though I taught them, ^ateaching again and again, they would not listen ²and receive instruction.

34 "But they ^aput their detestable things in the house which is called by My name, to defile it.

35 "And they built the ^ahigh places of Baal that are in the valley of Ben-hinnom to cause their sons and their daughters to pass through the fire to ^bMolech, which I had not commanded them nor had it ^centered My mind that they should do this abomination, to cause Judah to sin.

36 ¶ "Now therefore thus says the LORD God of Israel concerning this city of which you say, 'It is ^agiven into the hand of the king of Babylon by sword, by famine, and by pestilence.'

37 "Behold, I will ^agather them out of all the lands to which I have driven them in My anger, in My wrath, and in great indignation; and I will bring them back to this place and ^bmake them dwell in safety.

CHAPTER 33

THEN the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah the second time, while he was still ^aconfined in the court of the guard, saying.

2 "Thus says ^athe LORD who made ^bthe earth, the LORD who formed it to establish it, the ^bLORD is His name.

4 "For thus says the LORD God of Israel concerning the ^ahouses of this city, and concerning the houses of the kings of Judah, which are broken down to make a defense against the ^bsiege mounds and against the sword,

5 'While they are coming to ^afight with the Chaldeans, and to fill them with the corpses of men whom I have slain in My anger and in My wrath, and I have ^bhidden My face from this city because of all their wickedness:

6 'Behold, I will bring to it ^ahealth and healing, and I will heal them; and I will reveal to them an ^aabundance of peace and truth.

7 'And I will ^arestore the ¹fortunes of Judah and the fortunes of Israel, and I will ^brebuild them as they were at first.

8 'And I will ^acleanse them from all their iniquity by which they have sinned against Me, and I will pardon all their iniquities by which they have sinned against Me, and by which they have transgressed against Me.

10 ¶ "Thus says the LORD, 'Yet again there shall be heard in this place, of which you say, "It is a ^awaste, without man and without beast," that is, in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem that are ^bdesolate, without man and without inhabitant and without beast,

4 "Yet hear the word of the LORD, O Zedekiah king of Judah! Thus says the LORD concerning you, 'You will not die by the sword.

5 'You will die in peace; and as spices were burned for your fathers, the former kings who were before you, so they will ^aburn spices for you; and ^bthey will lament for you, "Alas, lord!" " For I have spoken the word," declares the LORD.

12 ¶ Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying,

13 "Thus says the LORD God of Israel, 'I ^amade a covenant with your forefathers in the day that I ^bbrought them out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage, saying,

CHAPTER 35

THE word which came to Jeremiah from the LORD in the days of ^aJehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, saying,

2 "Go to the house of the ^aRechabites, and speak to them, and bring them into the house of the LORD, into one of the ^bchambers and give them wine to drink."

3 Then I took Jaazaniah the son of Jeremiah, son of Habazziah, and his brothers, and all his sons, and the whole house of the Rechabites.

4 and I brought them into the house of the LORD, into the chamber of the sons of Hanan the son of Igdaiah, the ^aman of God, which was near the chamber of the officials, which was above the chamber of Maaseiah the son of Shallum, ^bthe door-keeper.

5 Then I set before the ¹men of the house of the Rechabites pitchers full of wine, and cups; and I said to them, "Drink wine!"

6 But they said, "We will not drink wine, for ^aJonadab the son of ^bRechab, our father, commanded us, saying, 'You shall not drink wine, you or your sons, forever.'

7 'And you shall not build a house, and you shall not sow seed, and you shall not plant a vineyard or own one; but in ^atents you shall dwell all your days, that you may live ^bmany days in the land where you ^csojourn.'

8 'And we have ^aobeyed the voice of Jonadab the son of Rechab, our father, in all that he commanded us, not to drink wine all our days, we, our wives, our sons, or our daughters.

the God of Israel, 'Go and say to the men of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, "Will you not receive instruction by listening to My words?" declares the LORD.

14 'The words of Jonadab the son of Rechab, which he commanded his sons not to drink wine, are observed. So they do not drink wine to this day, for they have obeyed their father's command. But I have spoken to you ¹again and again; yet you have not listened to Me.

15 'Also I have sent to you all My servants the prophets, sending them ¹again and again, saying: 'Turn now every man from his evil way, and amend your deeds, and do not go after other gods to worship them, then you shall dwell in the land which I have given to you and to your forefathers; but you have not inclined your ear or listened to Me.

16 'Indeed, the sons of Jonadab the son of Rechab have observed the command of their father which he commanded them, but this people has not listened to Me.' "

17 'Therefore thus says the LORD, the God of hosts, the God of Israel, 'Behold, I am bringing on Judah and on all the inhabitants of Jerusalem all the disaster that I have pronounced against them; because I spoke to them but they did not listen, and I have called them but they did not answer.' "

18 ¶ Then Jeremiah said to the house of the Rechabites, "Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, 'Because you have obeyed the command of Jonadab your father, kept all his commands, and done according to all that he commanded you;

19 therefore thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, "Jonadab the son of Rechab

CHAPTER 36

AND it came about in the ^afourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, that this word came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying,

2 "Take a ¹scroll and write on it all the ^bwords which I have spoken to you concerning ^cIsrael, and concerning Judah, and concerning all the ^dnations, from the ^eday I first spoke to you, from the days of Josiah, even to this day.

3 "Perhaps the house of Judah will hear all the calamity which I plan to bring on them, in order that every man will ^bturn from his evil way; then I will ^cforgive their iniquity and their sin."

4 ¶ Then Jeremiah called ^aBaruch the son of Neriah, and Baruch wrote ¹at the dictation of Jeremiah all the words of the LORD, which He had spoken to him, on a ^{2b}scroll.

5 And Jeremiah commanded Baruch, saying, "I am ¹restricted; I cannot go into the house of the LORD.

6 "So you go and ^aread from the scroll which you have ^bwritten ¹at my dictation the words of the LORD ²to the people in the LORD's house on a ^cfast day. And also you shall read them ²to all the people of Judah who come from their cities.

7 "Perhaps their supplication will ¹come before the LORD, and everyone will turn from his evil way, for ^bgreat is the anger and the wrath that the LORD has pronounced against this people."

8 And Baruch the son of Neriah did according to all that Jeremiah the prophet commanded him, ^areading from the book the words of the LORD in the LORD's house.

^bninth month, that all the people in Jerusalem and all the people who ^ccame from the cities of Judah to Jerusalem proclaimed a ^dfast before the LORD.

10 Then Baruch read from the book the words of Jeremiah in the house of the LORD in the ^achamber of ^bGemariah the son of Shaphan the ^cscribe, in the upper court, at the ^dentry of the New Gate of the LORD's house, to all the people.

11 ¶ Now when ^aMicaiah the son of Gemariah, the son of Shaphan, had heard all the words of the LORD from the book,

12 he went down to the king's house, into the scribe's chamber. And, behold, all the officials were sitting there—^aElishama the scribe, and ^bDelaiah the son of Shemaiah, and ^cElnathan the son of Achbor, and Gemariah the son of Shaphan, and Zedekiah the son of Hananiah, and all the other officials.

13 And Micaiah ^adeclared to them all the words that he had heard, when Baruch read from the book to the people.

14 Then all the officials sent ^aJehudi the son of Nethaniah, the son of Shelemiah, the son of Cushi, to Baruch, saying, "Take in your hand the scroll from which you have read to the people and come." So Baruch the son of Neriah ^btook the scroll in his hand and went to them.

15 And they said to him, "Sit down please, and read it to us." So Baruch ^aread it to them.

16 Now it came about when they had heard all the words they turned in ^afear one to another and said to Baruch, "We will surely ^breport all these words to the king."

17 And they asked Baruch, saying, "Tell us please, ^ahow did you write all these words? Was it ¹at his dictation?"

18 Then Baruch said to them, "He ^adictated all these words to me, and I wrote them with ink on the book."

19 Then the officials said to Baruch, "Go, ^ahide yourself, you and Jeremiah, and do not let anyone know where you are."

20 ¶ So they went to the ^aking in the court, but they had deposited the scroll in the chamber of ^aElishama the scribe, and they reported all the words to the king.

21 Then the king sent Jehudi to get the scroll, and he took it out of the chamber of Elishama the scribe. And Jehudi ^aread it to the king as well as to all the officials who stood beside the king.

22 Now the king was sitting in the ^awinter house in the ^bninth month, with a fire burning in the brazier before him.

23 And it came about, when Jehudi had read three or four columns, the king cut it with a scribe's knife and ^athrew it into the fire that was in the brazier, until all the scroll was consumed in the fire that was in the brazier.

24 Yet the king and all his servants who heard all these words were ^anot afraid, nor did they ^brend their garments.

25 Even though Elnathan and Delaiah and Gemariah ^aentreated the king not to burn the scroll, he would not listen to them.

26 And the king commanded Jerahmeel the king's son, Seraiah the son of Azriel, and Shelemiah the son of Abdeel to ^aseize Baruch the scribe and Jeremiah the prophet, but the ^bLORD hid them.

27 ¶ Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah after the king had ^aburned the scroll and the words which ^bBaruch had

NOW ^aZedekiah the son of Josiah whom Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon had ^bmade king in the land of Judah, reigned as king in place of ^cConiah the son of Jehoiakim.

2 But ^aneither he nor his servants nor the people of the land listened to the words of the LORD which He spoke through Jeremiah the prophet.

3 ¶ Yet ^aKing Zedekiah sent Jehucal the son of Shelemiah, and ^bZephaniah the son of Maaseiah, the priest, to Jeremiah the prophet, saying, "Please pray to the LORD our God on our behalf."

4 Now Jeremiah was still coming in and going out among the people, for they had not yet ^aput him in the prison.

5 Meanwhile, ^aPharaoh's army had set out from Egypt; and when the Chaldeans who had been besieging Jerusalem heard the report about them, they ^blifted the siege from Jerusalem.

6 ¶ Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah the prophet, saying,

7 "Thus says the LORD God of Israel, 'Thus you are to say to the king of Judah, who sent you to Me to inquire of Me: "Behold, ^bPharaoh's army which has come out for your assistance is going to return to its own land of Egypt."

8 "The Chaldeans will also ^areturn and fight against this city, and they will capture it and burn it with fire."

9 "Thus says the LORD, 'Do not ^adeceive yourselves, saying, "The Chaldeans will surely go away from us," for they will not go.

10 'For ^aeven if you had defeated the entire army of Chaldeans who were fighting against you, and there were only wounded men left among them, each man in his tent, they would rise up and ^bburn this city with fire.'"

11 ¶ Now it happened, when the army of the Chaldeans had lifted the siege from Jerusalem because of Pharaoh's army,

12 that Jeremiah went out from Jerusalem to go to the land of Benjamin in order to ^atake possession of some property there among the people.

whose name was Irijah, the son of Shelemiah the son of Haniah was there; and he ^barrested Jeremiah the prophet, saying, "You are ^agoing over to the Chaldeans!"

14 But Jeremiah said, "A lie! I am not ^agoing over to the Chaldeans"; yet he would not listen to him. So Irijah arrested Jeremiah and brought him to the officials.

15 Then the officials were ^aangry at Jeremiah and beat him, and they ^bput him in jail in the house of Jonathan the scribe, which they had made into the prison.

16 For Jeremiah had come into the ^adungeon, that is, the vaulted cell; and Jeremiah stayed there many days.

17 ¶ Now King Zedekiah sent and took him out; and in his palace the king ^asecretly asked him and said, "Is there a ^bword from the LORD?" And Jeremiah said, "There is!" Then he said, "You will be ^cgiven into the hand of the king of Babylon!"

18 Moreover Jeremiah said to King Zedekiah, "In what way have I sinned against you, or against your servants, or against this people, that you have put me in prison?"

19 "Where then are your prophets who prophesied to you, saying, 'The ^bking of Babylon will not come against you or against this land'?"

20 "But now, please listen, O my lord the king; please let my ^apetition come before you, and do not make me return to the house of Jonathan the scribe, that I may not die there."

21 Then King Zedekiah gave commandment, and they committed Jeremiah to the ^acourt of the guardhouse and gave him ^a loaf of bread daily from the bakers' street, until all the bread in the city was gone. So Jeremiah remained in the court of the guardhouse.

CHAPTER 38

NOW Shephatiah the son of Mattan, and Gedaliah the son of Pashhur, and Jucal the son of Shelemiah, and Pashhur the son of Malchijah heard the words that Jeremiah was speaking to all the people, saying,

2 "Thus says the LORD, 'He who stays in this city will die by the sword and by famine and by pestilence, but he who goes out to the Chaldeans will live and have his own life as booty and stay alive.'

3 "Thus says the LORD, 'This city will certainly be given into the hand of the army of the king of Babylon, and he will capture it.'

4 Then the officials said to the king, "Now let this man be put to death, inasmuch as he is discouraging the men of war who are left in this city and all the people, by speaking such words to them; for this man is not seeking the well-being of this people, but rather their harm."

5 So King Zedekiah said, "Behold, he is in your hands; for the king can do nothing against you."

6 Then they took Jeremiah and cast him into the cistern of Malchijah the king's son, which was in the court of the guardhouse; and they let Jeremiah down with ropes. Now in the cistern there was no water but only mud, and Jeremiah sank into the mud.

7 But Ebed-melech the Ethiopian, a eunuch, while he was in the king's palace, heard that they had put Jeremiah into the cistern. Now the king was sitting in the Gate of Benjamin;

8 and Ebed-melech went out from the king's palace and spoke to the king, saying,

9 "My lord the king, these men have acted wickedly in all that they have done to Jeremiah the prophet whom they have cast into the cistern; and he will die right where he is because of the famine, for there is no more bread in the city."

10 Then the king commanded Ebed-melech the Ethiopian, saying, "Take thirty men from here under your authority, and bring up Jeremiah the prophet from the cistern before he dies."

11 So Ebed-melech took the men under his authority and went into the king's palace to a place beneath the storeroom and took from there worn-out clothes and worn-out rags and let them down by ropes into the cistern to Jeremiah.

12 Then Ebed-melech the Ethiopian said to Jeremiah, "Now put these worn-out clothes and rags under your armpits under the ropes"; and Jeremiah did so.

13 So they pulled Jeremiah up with the ropes and lifted him out of the cistern, and Jeremiah stayed in the court of the guardhouse.

14 ¶ Then King Zedekiah sent and had Jeremiah the prophet brought to him at the third entrance that is in the house of the LORD; and the king said to Jeremiah, "I am going to ask you something; do not hide anything from me."

15 Then Jeremiah said to Zedekiah, "If I tell you, will you not certainly put me to death? Besides, if I give you advice, you will not listen to me."

16 But King Zedekiah swore to Jeremiah in secret saying, "As the LORD lives, who made this life for us, surely I will not put you to death nor will I give you about these words and you will not die.

25 "But if the ^aofficials hear that I have talked with you and come to you and say to you, 'Tell us now what you said to the king, and what the king said to you; do not hide it from us, and we will not put you to death.'

26 then you are to say to them, 'I was ^apresenting my petition before the king, not to make me return to the house of Jonathan to die there.' "

27 Then all the officials came to Jeremiah and questioned him. So he reported to them in accordance with all these words which the king had commanded; and they ceased speaking with him, since the ¹conversation had not been overheard.

28 So Jeremiah ^astayed in the court of the guardhouse until the day that Jerusalem was captured.

CHAPTER 39

NOW it came about when Jerusalem was captured ^{2a}in the ninth year of Zedekiah king of Judah, in the tenth month, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon and all his army came to Jerusalem and laid siege to it;

2 in the eleventh year of Zedekiah, in the fourth month, in the ninth day of the month, the city wall was ^abreached.

3 Then all the ^aofficials of the king of Babylon came in and sat down at the ^bMiddle Gate: Nergal-sar-ezer, Samgar-nebu, Sar-sekim the ¹Rab-saris, Nergal-sar-ezer the ²Rab-mag, and all the rest of the officials of the king of Babylon.

4 And it came about, when Zedekiah the king of Judah and all the men of war saw them, that they ^afled and went out of the city at night by way of the king's garden through the gate ^bbetween the two walls; and he went out toward the ¹Arabah.

5 But the army of the ^aChaldeans pursued them and overtook Zedekiah in the ^bplains of Jericho; and they seized him and brought him up to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon at ^cRiblah in the land of Hamath, and he passed sentence on him.

6 Then the ^aking of Babylon slew the sons of Zedekiah ^bbefore his eyes at Riblah; the king of Babylon also slew all the ^cnobles of Judah.

7 He then ^ablinded Zedekiah's eyes and bound him in ^bfetters of bronze to bring him to ^cBabylon.

8 The Chaldeans also ^aburned with fire the king's palace and the houses of the people, and they ^bbroke down the walls of Jerusalem.

9 And as for the rest of the people who were left in the city, the ^adeserters who had gone over to him and ^bthe rest of the people who remained, ^cNebuzaradan the ^dcaptain of the bodyguard carried them into exile in Babylon.

10 But some of the ^apoorest people who had nothing, ^aNebuzaradan the captain of the bodyguard left behind in the land of Judah, and gave them vineyards and fields ^bat that time.

11 ¶ Now Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon gave orders about ^aJeremiah through Nebuzaradan the captain of the bodyguard, saying,

12 "Take him and ^blook after him, and ^ado nothing harmful to him; but rather deal with him just as he tells you."

13 So Nebuzaradan the captain of the bodyguard sent word, along with Nebushazban the ^aRab-saris, and Nergal-sar-ezer the ^bRab-mag, and all the leading officers of the king of Babylon;

14 they even sent and ^atook Jeremiah out of the court of the guardhouse and entrusted him to ^bGedaliah, the son of ^cAhikam, the son of Shaphan, to take him home. So he stayed among the people.

15 ¶ Now the word of the LORD had come to Jeremiah while he was ^aconfined in the court of the guardhouse, saying,

16 "Go and speak to ^aEbed-melech the Ethiopian, saying, 'Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, "Behold, I am about to bring My words on this city ^bfor disaster and not for ^cprosperity; and they will ^dtake place before you on that day.

17 "But I will ^adeliver you on that day," declares the LORD, "and you shall not be given into the hand of the men whom you dread.

18 "For I will certainly rescue you, and you will not fall by the sword; but you will have your own ^alife as booty, because you have ^btrusted in Me," declares the LORD.' "

CHAPTER 40

THE word which came to Jeremiah from the LORD after ^aNebuzaradan captain of the bodyguard had released him from ^bRamah, when he had taken him bound in ^cchains, among all the exiles of Jerusalem and Judah, who were being exiled to Babylon.

2 Now the captain of the bodyguard had taken Jeremiah and said to him, "The ^aLORD your God promised this calamity against this place;

3 and the LORD has brought it on and done just as He promised. Because you people ^asinned against the LORD and did not listen to His voice, therefore this thing has happened to you.

4 "But now, behold, I am ^afreeing you today from the chains which are on your hands. If ^byou would prefer to come with me to Babylon, come along, and I will look after you; but if you would prefer not to come with me to Babylon, never mind. Look, the whole land is before you; go wherever it seems good and right for you to go."

5 As Jeremiah was still not going back, he said, "Go on back then to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, whom the king of Babylon has appointed over the cities of Judah, and stay with him among the people; or else go anywhere it seems right for you to go." So the captain of the bodyguard gave him a ration and a gift and let him go.

6 Then Jeremiah went to Mizpah to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam and stayed with him among the people who were left in the land.

7 ¶ Now all the commanders of the forces that were in the field, they and their men, heard that the king of Babylon had appointed Gedaliah the son of Ahikam over the land and that he had put him in charge of the men, women and children, those of the poorest of the land who had not been exiled to Babylon.

8 So they came to Gedaliah at Mizpah, along with Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and Johanan and Jonathan the sons of Kareah, and Seraiah the son of Tanhumeth, and the sons of Ephai the Netophathite, and Jezaniah the son of the Maacathite, both they and their men.

9 Then Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, swore to them and to their men, saying, "Do not be afraid of serving the Chaldeans; stay in the land and serve the king of Babylon, that it may go well with you.

gather in wine and summer fruit and oil, and put them in your storage vessels, and live in your cities that you have taken over."

11 Likewise also all the Jews who were in Moab and among the sons of Ammon and in Edom, and who were in all the other countries, heard that the king of Babylon had left a remnant for Judah and that he had appointed over them Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan.

12 Then all the Jews returned from all the places to which they had been driven away and came to the land of Judah, to Gedaliah at Mizpah, and gathered in wine and summer fruit in great abundance.

13 ¶ Now Johanan the son of Kareah and all the commanders of the forces that were in the field came to Gedaliah at Mizpah,

14 and said to him, "Are you well aware that Baalis the king of the sons of Ammon has sent Ishmael the son of Nethaniah to take your life?" But Gedaliah the son of Ahikam did not believe them.

15 Then Johanan the son of Kareah spoke secretly to Gedaliah in Mizpah, saying, "Let me go and kill Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and not a man will know! Why should he take your life, so that all the Jews who are gathered to you should be scattered and the remnant of Judah perish?"

16 But Gedaliah the son of Ahikam said to Johanan the son of Kareah, "Do not do this thing, for you are telling a lie about Ishmael."

CHAPTER 41

NOW it came about in the seventh month that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, the son of Elishama, of the royal family and one of the chief officers of the king, along with ten men, came to Mizpah to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam. While they were eating bread together there in Mizpah.

2 Ishmael the son of Nethaniah and the ten men who were with him arose and struck down Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, with the sword and put to death the one whom the king of Babylon had appointed over the land.

3 Ishmael also struck down all the Jews who were with him, that is with Gedaliah at Mizpah, and the Chaldeans who were found there, the men of war.

4 ¶ Now it happened on the next day after the killing of Gedaliah, when no one knew about it,

5 that eighty men came from Shechem, from Shiloh, and from Samaria with their beards shaved off and their clothes torn and their bodies gashed, having grain offerings and incense in their hands to bring to the house of the LORD.

6 Then Ishmael the son of Nethaniah went out from Mizpah to meet them, weeping as he went; and it came about as he met them that he said to them, "Come to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam!"

7 Yet it turned out that as soon as they came inside the city, Ishmael the son of Nethaniah and the men that were with him slaughtered them, and cast them into the cistern.

8 But ten men who were found among them said to Ishmael, "Do not put us to death; for we have stores of wheat, barley, oil and honey hidden in the field." So he refrained and did not put them to death along with their companions.

9 Now as for the cistern where Ishmael had cast all the corpses of the men whom he had struck down because of Gedaliah, it was the one that King Asa had made on account of Baasha, king of Israel; Ishmael the son of Nethaniah filled it with the slain.

10 Then Ishmael took captive all the remnant of the people who were in Mizpah, the king's daughters and all the people who were left in Mizpah, whom Nebuzaradan the captain of the bodyguard had put under the charge of Gedaliah the son of Ahikam; thus Ishmael the son of Nethaniah took them captive and proceeded to cross over to the sons of Ammon.

11 ¶ But Johanan the son of Kareah and all the commanders of the forces that were with him heard of all the evil that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah had done.

12 So they took all the men and went to fight with Ishmael the son of Nethaniah and they found him by the great pool that is in Gibeon.

13 Now it came about, as soon as all the people who were with Ishmael saw Johanan the son of Kareah and the commanders of the forces that were with him, they were glad.

14 So all the people whom Ishmael had taken captive from Mizpah turned around and came back, and went to Johanan the son of Kareah.

15 But Ishmael the son of Nethaniah escaped from Johanan with eight men and went to the sons of Ammon.

16 Then Johanan the son of Kareah and all the commanders of the forces that were with him took from Mizpah all the remnant of the people whom he had recovered from Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, after he had struck down Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, that is, the men who were soldiers, the women, the children, and the eunuchs, whom he had brought back from Gibeon.

17 And they went and stayed in Geruth Chimham, which is 11 "Do not be afraid of the king of Babylon, whom you are now fearing; do not be afraid of him," declares the LORD, "for ^bI am with you to save you and deliver you from his hand.

12 "I will also show you compassion, so that ^ahe will have compassion on you and restore you to your own soil.

13 "But if you are going to say, "We will ^anot stay in this land," so as not to listen to the voice of the LORD your God,

14 saying, "No, but we will ^ago to the land of Egypt, where we shall not see war or ^bhear the sound of a trumpet or hunger for bread, and we will stay there";

15 then ¹in that case listen to the word of the LORD, O remnant of Judah. Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, "If you really set your ²mind to enter ^aEgypt, and go in to reside there,

16 then it will come about that the ^asword, which you are afraid of will overtake you there in the land of Egypt; and the famine, about which you are anxious, will follow closely after you

there in Egypt; and you will die there.

17 "So all the men who set their mind to go to Egypt to reside there will die by the sword, by famine, and by pestilence; and they will have no survivors or refugees from the calamity that I am going to bring on them." "

18 ¶ For thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, "As My anger and wrath have been poured out on the inhabitants of Jerusalem, so My wrath will be poured out on you when you enter Egypt. And you will become a curse, an object of horror, an imprecation, and a reproach; and you will see this place no more."

19 The LORD has spoken to you, O remnant of Judah, "Do not go into Egypt!" You should clearly understand that today I have testified against you.

20 For you have only deceived yourselves; for it is you who sent me to the LORD your God, saying, "Pray for us to the LORD our God; and whatever the LORD our God says, tell us so, and we will do it."

21 So, I have told you today, but you have not obeyed the LORD your God, even in whatever He has sent me to tell you.

22 Therefore you should now clearly understand that you will die by the sword, by famine, and by pestilence, in the place where you wish to go to reside.

BUT it came about, as soon as Jeremiah whom the LORD their God had sent, had finished telling all the people all the words of the LORD their God—that is, all these words—

2 that Azariah the son of Hoshaiah, and Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the arrogant men said to Jeremiah, "You are tell-

3 but Baruch the son of Neriah is inciting you against us to give us over into the hand of the Chaldeans, so they may put us to death or exile us to Babylon."

4 So Johanan the son of Kareah and all the commanders of the forces, and all the people, did not obey the voice of the LORD, so as to stay in the land of Judah.

5 But Johanan the son of Kareah and all the commanders of the forces took the entire remnant of Judah who had returned from all the nations to which they had been driven away, in order to reside in the land of Judah—

6 the men, the women, the children, the king's daughters and every person that Nebuzaradan the captain of the bodyguard had left with Gedaliah the son of Ahikam and grandson of Shaphan, together with Jeremiah the prophet and Baruch the son of Neriah—

7 and they entered the land of Egypt (for they did not obey the voice of the LORD) and went in as far as Tahpanhes.

8 ¶ Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah in Tahpanhes, saying,

9 "Take some large stones in your hands and hide them in the mortar in the brick terrace which is at the entrance of Pharaoh's palace in Tahpanhes, in the sight of some of the Jews;

10 and say to them, 'Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, "Behold, I am going to send and get Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, My servant, and I am going to set his throne right over these stones that I have hidden; and he will spread his canopy over them."

11 "He will also come and *strike the land of Egypt; those who are meant for death will be given over to death, and those for captivity to captivity, and those for the sword to the sword.

12 "And I shall set fire to the temples of the gods of Egypt, and he will burn them and take them captive. So he will wrap himself with the land of Egypt as a shepherd wraps himself with his garment, and he will depart from there safely.

13 "He will also shatter the obelisks of Heliopolis, which is in the land of Egypt; and the temples of the gods of Egypt he will burn with fire."

CHAPTER 44

THE word that came to Jeremiah for all the Jews living in the land of Egypt, those who were living in Migdol, Tahpanhes, Memphis, and the land of Pathros, saying,

2 "Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, 'You yourselves have seen all the calamity that I have brought on Jerusalem and all the cities of Judah; and behold, this day they are in ruins and no one lives in them,

3 "because of their wickedness which they committed so as to provoke Me to anger by continuing to burn sacrifices and to serve other gods whom they had not known, neither they, you, nor your fathers.

4 "Yet I sent you all My servants the prophets, again and again, saying, 'Oh, do not do this abominable thing which I hate.'

5 "But they did not listen or incline their ears to turn from their wickedness, so as not to burn sacrifices to other gods.

6 "Therefore My wrath and My anger were poured out and burned in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem, so they have become a ruin and a desolation as it is this day.

CHAPTER 47

THAT which came as the word of the LORD to Jeremiah the prophet concerning the ^aPhilistines, before Pharaoh ¹conquered ^bGaza.

2 Thus says the LORD:

"Behold, waters are going to rise from ^athe north And become an overflowing torrent,
And ^boverflow the land and all its fulness,
The city and those who live
in it;
And the men will ^ccry out,
And every inhabitant of the land will wail.

3 "Because of the noise of the ¹galloping hoofs of his ²stallions,

The tumult of his chariots and the rumbling of his wheels,
The fathers have not turned back for their children, Because of the limpness of their hands,

4 On account of the day tha is coming To ^adestroy all the Philistines,
To cut off from ^bTyre and Sidon

Every ally that is left;
For the LORD is going to destroy the Philistines.

The remnant of the coast-land of ^cCaphtor.
5^a "Baldness has come upon Gaza;
^bAshkelon has been ruined.
O remnant of their valley,
How long will you ^cgash yourself?
6^a "Ah, ^asword of the LORD,
How long will you not be quiet?
Withdraw into your sheath;
Be at rest and stay still.
7^a "How can ⁱt be quiet,
When the LORD has ^agiven it an order?
Against Ashkelon and against the seacoast—
There He has ^bassigned it."

CONCERNING ^aMoab.

Thus says the LORD of
hosts, the God of Israel,
"Woe to ^bNebo, for it has been destroyed;
^cKiriathaim has been put to shame, it has been captured;
The lofty stronghold has

CHAPTER 49

CONCERNING the sons of Ammon.

Thus says the LORD:

"Does Israel have no sons?

Or has he no heirs?

Why then has Malcam taken possession of Gad
And his people settled in its cities?

2 "Therefore behold, the days are coming," declares
the LORD,

"That I shall cause a trumpet blast of war to be heard

Against Rabbah of the sons of Ammon;

And it will become a desolate heap,

And her towns will be set on fire.

Then Israel will take possession of his possessors,"

Says the LORD.

3 "Wail, O Heshbon, for Ai has been destroyed!

Cry out, O daughters of Rabbah,

Gird yourselves with sack-
cloth and lament,

And rush back and forth inside the walls;

For Malcam will go into exile

Together with his priests and his princes.

4 "How boastful you are about the valleys!

Your valley is flowing
away,

O backsliding daughter Who trusts in her treasures, saying,

"Who will come against me?"

5 "Behold, I am going to bring terror upon you,"

Declares the Lord God of hosts,

stroyed along with his relatives

And his neighbors, and he is no more.

11 "Leave your orphans behind, I will keep them alive;

And let your widows trust in Me."

12 For thus says the LORD,
"Behold, those who were not sentenced to drink the cup will certainly drink it, and are you the one who will be completely acquitted? You will not be acquitted, but you will certainly drink
it.

CHAPTER 50

THE word which the LORD spoke concerning ^aBabylon, the land of the Chaldeans, through Jeremiah the prophet:

2 "Declare and proclaim among the nations. Proclaim it and ^blift up a standard. Do not conceal it but say, 'cBabylon has been captured, ^dBel has been put to shame, ¹Marduk has been ²shattered; Her ^eimages have been put to shame, her idols have been shattered.'
 3 "For a nation has come up against her out of the ^anorth; it will make her land ^ban object of horror, and there will be ^cno inhabitant in it. Both man and beast have wandered off, they have gone away!

4 "In those days and at that time," declares the LORD, "the sons of Israel will come, both they and the sons of Judah ^aas well; they will go along ^bweeping as they go, and it will be ^cthe LORD their God they will seek.

5 "They will ^aask for the way to Zion, turning their faces ¹in its direction; ²they ³will come that they may join themselves to the LORD in an ^beverlasting covenant that will not be forgotten.

6 "My people have become ^alost sheep;

^bTheir shepherds have led them astray.

They have made them turn aside on the ^cmountains;

They have gone along from mountain to hill

And have forgotten their ^dresting place.

7 "All who came upon them have devoured them;

And their adversaries have said, '^aWe are not guilty.

Inasmuch as they have sinned against the LORD who is the ^bhabitation of righteousness,

Even the LORD, the ^chope of their fathers.'

8 "Wander away from the ^amidst of Babylon,

And ¹go forth from the land of the Chaldeans;

Be also like male goats ²at the head of the flock.

9 "For behold, I am going to ^aarouse and bring up against Babylon

A horde of great nations from the land of the north,

And they will draw up their battle lines against her;

From there she will be taken captive.

All who plunder her will have enough," declares the LORD.

11 ¹"Because you are glad, because you are jubilant, O you who ^apillage My heritage,

Because you skip about ¹like a threshing ^bheifer And neigh like ²stallions, 12 Your ^amother ¹will be greatly ashamed.

She who gave you birth ¹will be humiliated.

Behold, she will be the least of the nations,

A ^bwilderness, a parched land, and a desert.

13 "Because of the indignation of the LORD she will ^anot be inhabited,

But she will be ^bcompletely desolate;

Everyone who passes by Babylon ^cwill be horrified And will hiss because of all her wounds.

14 "Draw up your battle lines against Babylon on every side,

All you who ¹bend the bow; Shoot at her, do not be sparing with your arrows,

For she has ^asinned against the LORD.

15 "Raise your battle cry against her on every side!

She has ^agiven ¹herself up, her pillars have fallen,

Her ^bwalls have been torn down.

For this is the ^cvengeance of the LORD:

Take vengeance on her; ^dAs she has done to others, so do to her.

^cJer. 50:38

37 ^aRev. 18:2 ^bJer. 25:9

And one ^{2b}messenger to meet ^{2a}another,
To tell the king of Babylon
That his city has been captured from end to end;
32 The fords also have been seized,
And they have burned the marshes with fire,
And the men of war are terrified.
33 ¶ For thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel:
"The daughter of Babylon is like a ^athreshing floor
At the time ¹it is stamped firm;
Yet in a little while the time of ^bharvest will come for her."
34 ¶ "Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon has ^adevoured me and crushed me,
He has set me down like an ^bempty vessel;
He has ^cswallowed me like a monster,
He has filled his stomach with my delicacies;
He has washed me away.
35 "May the ^aviolence done to me and to my flesh be upon Babylon,"
The ¹inhabitant of Zion will say;
And, "May my blood be upon the inhabitants of Chaldea," Jerusalem will say.
36 Therefore thus says the LORD,
"Behold, I am going to ^aplead your case
And ^bexact full vengeance for you;
And ^cI shall dry up her ¹sea
And make her fountain dry.
37 "And ^aBabylon will become a heap of ruins, a haunt of jackals,
An ^bobject of horror and hissing, without inhabitants.

38 "They will roar together like young lions,
 They will growl like lions'
 cubs.

39 "When they become heated up, I shall serve them their banquet
 And make them drunk, that they may become jubilant
 And may sleep a perpetual sleep
 And not wake up," declares
 the LORD.

40 "I shall bring them down like lambs to the slaughter, Like rams together with male goats.

41 "How Sheshak has been captured,
 And the praise of the whole earth been seized!
 How Babylon has become an object of horror
 among the nations!

42 "The sea has come up over Babylon;
 She has been engulfed with its tumultuous waves.

43 "Her cities have become an object of horror,
 A parched land and a desert,
 A land in which no man
 lives,
 And through which no son of man passes.

44 "And I shall punish Bel in Babylon,
 And I shall make what he has swallowed come out of his mouth;
 And the nations will no longer stream to him.
 Even the wall of Babylon has fallen down!

45 "Come forth from her midst, My people,
 And each of you save yourselves
 From the fierce anger of the LORD.

46 "Now lest your heart grow
 faint,

 50:38

And you be afraid at the report that will be heard in the land—

For the report will come one year,

And after that another report in another year.

And violence will be in the land

With ruler against ruler—

47 Therefore behold, days are coming

When I shall punish the idols of Babylon;

And her whole land will be put to shame,

And all her slain will fall in her midst.

48 "Then heaven and earth and all that is in them

Will shout for joy over Babylon,

For the destroyers will come to her from the north,"

Declares the LORD.

49 "Indeed Babylon is to fall for the slain of Israel,

As also for Babylon the slain of all the earth have fallen.

50 You who have escaped the sword,

Depart! Do not stay!

Remember the LORD from afar,

And let Jerusalem come to your mind.

51 "We are ashamed because we have heard reproach; Disgrace has covered our faces,

For aliens have entered
 The holy places of the LORD's house.

52 "Therefore behold, the days are coming," declares the LORD,

"When I shall punish her idols,

And the mortally wounded will groan throughout her land.

53 "Though Babylon should ascend to the heavens,
And though she should forttify her lofty stronghold,
From Me destroyers will come to her," declares
the LORD.

54 ¶ The sound of an outcry from Babylon,
And of great destruction from the land of the Chal-deans!

55 For the LORD is going to destroy Babylon,
And He will make her loud noise vanish from her.
And their waves will roar
like many waters;
The tumult of their voices sounds forth.

56 For the destroyer is coming against her, against Babylon,
And her mighty men will be captured,
Their bows are shattered;
For the LORD is a God of recompense,
He will fully repay.

57 "And I shall make her princes and her wise men drunk,
Her governors, her prefects, and her mighty
men,

That they may sleep a perpetual sleep and not wake up."

Declares the King, whose name is the LORD of hosts.

58 Thus says the LORD of hosts,
"The broad wall of Babylon will be completely razed,
And her high gates will be set on fire;
So the peoples will toil for nothing,

And the nations become exhausted only for fire."

went with Zedekiah the king of Judah to Babylon in the fourth year of his reign. (Now Seraiah was quartermaster.)

60 So Jeremiah wrote in a single scroll all the calamity which would come upon Babylon, that is, all these words which have been written concerning Babylon.

61 Then Jeremiah said to Seraiah, "As soon as you come to Babylon, then see that you read all these words aloud,

62 and say, 'Thou, O LORD, hast promised concerning this place to cut it off, so that there will be nothing dwelling in it, whether man or beast, but it will be a perpetual desolation.'

63 "And it will come about as soon as you finish reading this scroll, you will tie a stone to it and throw it into the middle of the Euphrates,

64 and say, 'Just so shall Babylon sink down and not rise again, because of the calamity that I am going to bring upon her;
and they will become exhausted.'" Thus far are the words of Jeremiah.

CHAPTER 52

^aZEDEKIAH was twenty-one years old when he became king, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem; and his mother's name was Hamutal the daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah.

2 And he did evil in the sight of the LORD like all that Jehoiakim had done.

3 For through the anger of the LORD this came about in Jerusalem and Judah until He cast them out from His presence.
And Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babylon.

4 Now it came about in the ninth year of his reign, on the tenth day of the tenth month.

^a 2 Kin. 25:1; Jer. 39:1; Ezek. 24:1, 2; Zech. 8:19 that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came, he and all his army, against Jerusalem, camped against it, and built a ^bsiege wall all around ¹it.

5 ^aSo the city was under siege until the eleventh year of King Zedekiah.

6 On the ninth day of the ^afourth month the ^bfamine was so severe in the city that there was no food for the people of the land.

7 Then the city was ^abroken into, and all the ^bmen of war fled and went forth from the city at night by way of the gate between the two walls which was by the king's garden, though the Chaldeans were ¹all around the city. And they went by way of the Arabah.

8 But the army of the Chaldeans pursued the king and ^aovertook Zedekiah in the ¹plains of Jericho, and all his army was scattered from him.

9 Then they captured the king and ^abrought him up to the king of Babylon at ^bRiblah in the land of ^cHamath; and he ¹passed sentence on him.

10 And the king of Babylon ^aslaughtered the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes, and he also slaughtered all the ¹princes of Judah in Riblah.

11 Then he ^ablinded the eyes of Zedekiah; and the king of Babylon bound him with bronze fetters and brought him to Babylon, and put him in prison until the day of his death.

12 ¶ ^aNow on the tenth day of the fifth month, which was the ^bnineteenth year of King Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon, ^cNebuzaradan the captain of the bodyguard, ¹who was in the service of the king of Babylon, came to Jerusalem.

13 And he ^aburned the house of the LORD, the ^bking's house, and all the houses of Jerusalem; even every large house he burned with fire.

14 So all the army of the Chaldeans who were with the captain of the guard ^abroke down all the walls around Jerusalem.

15 Then Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard ^acarried away into exile some of the poorest of the people, the rest of the people who were left in the city, the ¹deserters who had deserted to the king of Babylon, and the rest of the artisans.

16 But ^aNebuzaradan the captain of the guard left some of the poorest of the land to be vine-dressers and ¹plowmen.

17 ¶ Now the bronze ^apillars which belonged to the house of the LORD and the ^bstands and the bronze ^csea, which were in the house of the LORD, the Chaldeans broke in pieces and carried all their bronze to Babylon.

18 And they also took away the ^apots, the shovels, the snuffers, the basins, the ¹pans, and all the bronze vessels which were used in temple service.

19 The captain of the guard also took away the ^abowls, the firepans, the basins, the pots, the lampstands, the ¹pans and the libation bowls, what was fine gold and what was fine silver.

20 The two pillars, the one sea, and the twelve bronze bulls that were under ¹the sea, and the stands, which King Solomon had made for the house of the LORD—the bronze of all these vessels was ^abeyond weight.

21 As for the pillars, the ^aheight of each pillar was eighteen ¹cubits, and ²it was twelve cubits in ^acircumference and four fingers in thickness, and hollow.

22 Now a ^acapital of bronze was on it; and the height of each capital was five cubits, with network and ^bpomegranates upon the capital all around, all of bronze. And the second pillar was like these, including pomegranates.

23 And there were ninety-six ¹exposed pomegranates; all ^athe pomegranates numbered a hundred on the network all around.

24 ¶ Then the captain of the guard took ^aSeraiah the chief priest and ^bZephaniah the second priest, with the three ^{1c}officers of the temple.

25 He also took from the city one official who was overseer of the men of war, and seven ¹of the ^aking's advisers who were found in the city, and the scribe of the commander of the army who mustered the people of the land, and sixty men of the people of the land who were found in the midst of the city.

26 And Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard took them and ^abrought them to the king of Babylon at Riblah.

27 Then the king of Babylon ^astruck them down and put them to death at Riblah in the land of Hamath. So Judah was ^bled away into exile from its land.

THE LAMENTATIONS

OF JEREMIAH

The Sorrows of Zion

- HOW ¹lonely sits the city
That was ²full of people!
She has become like a ³widow
Who was once ⁴great
among the nations!
She who was a princess among the ⁵provinces
Has become a ⁶forced laborer!
- 2 She ⁷weeps bitterly in the
night,
And her tears are on her cheeks;
She has none to comfort her
Among all her ⁸lovers.
All her friends have ⁹dealt treacherously with her;
They have become her enemies.
- 3 ¹⁰Judah has gone into exile
¹¹under affliction,
And ¹²under ¹³harsh servitude;
She dwells ¹⁴among the nations,
But she has found no rest;
All ¹⁵her pursuers have overtaken her
In the midst of ¹⁶distress.
- 4 The roads ¹⁷of Zion are in mourning
Because ¹⁸no one comes to the appointed feasts.
All her gates are ¹⁹desolate;
Her priests are groaning,
Her ²⁰virgins are afflicted,
And she herself ²¹is ²²bitter.
- 5 Her adversaries have become ²³her masters,
Her enemies ²⁴prosper;
For the LORD has ²⁵caused her grief
Because of the multitude of her transgressions;

²⁸Jerusalem remembers all

They ³⁰mocked at her ³¹ruin.

Therefore ³³she has become

All who honored her de-

³⁹She has no comforter.
⁴⁰See, O LORD, my affliction,
For the enemy has ⁴¹magni-

- 10 The adversary has stretched out his hand
Over all her precious things,

- For she has seen the ^anations enter her sanctuary.
The ones whom Thou didst command
That they should ^bnot enter into Thy congregation.
- 11 All her people groan ^aseeking bread;
They have given their precious things for food
To ^brestore their ¹lives themselves.

Which the ^bLORD inflicted on the day of His ^cfierce anger.
- 13 "From on high He sent fire into my ^abones,
And it ¹prevailed over them;
He has spread a ^bnet for my feet;

CHAPTER 2

HOW the Lord has ^acovered
the daughter of Zion
With a cloud in His anger!
He has ^bcast from heaven to earth
The ^cglory of Israel,
And has not remembered
His ^dfootstool
In the day of His anger.

2 The Lord has ^aswallowed up; He has not spared
All the habitations of Jacob.
In His wrath He has ^bthrown down
The strongholds of the daughter of Judah;
He has ^cbrought them down
to the ground;
He has ^dprofaned the kingdom and its princes.

3 In fierce anger He has cut off ¹All the ^astrength of Israel;
He has ^bdrawn back His right hand
From before the enemy.
And He has ^cburned in Jacob like a flaming fire Consuming round about.

4 He has bent His ^abow like an enemy,
He has set His right hand
like an adversary
And slain all that were ^bpleasant to the eye;
In the tent of the daughter of Zion
He has ^cpoured out His wrath like fire.

5 The Lord has become like an ^aenemy.

He has ^bswallowed up Is-

He has swallowed up all its ^cpalaces;

He has destroyed its strongholds

And ^dmultiplied in the daughter of Judah

Mourning and moaning.

6 And He has violently treated His ¹tabernacle like a garden booth;

He has ^adestroyed His appointed ²meeting place;

The LORD has ^bcaused to be forgotten

The appointed feast and sabbath in Zion,

And He has ^cdespised king and priest

In the indignation of His anger.

7 The Lord has ^arejected His altar,

He has abandoned His
sanctuary;

He ^bhas delivered into the hand of the enemy

The walls of her palaces.

They have made a ^cnoise in the house of the LORD

As in the day of an appointed feast.

8 The LORD ¹determined to destroy

The wall of the daughter of Zion.

He has ^astretched out a line,
He has not restrained His hand from ²destroying;

And He has ^bcaused rampart and wall to lament;

They have languished together.

9 Her ^agates have sunk into the ground,

He has destroyed and broken her bars.

Her king and her princes are among the nations;

The ^blaw is no more;

Also, her prophets find

^cNo vision from the LORD.

- 10 The elders of the daughter of Zion
 *Sit on the ground, they ^bare silent.
 They have thrown ^cdust on their heads;
 They have girded themselves with ^dsackcloth.
 The ^evirgins of Jerusalem
 Have bowed their heads to the ground.
- 11 My ^aeyes fail because of tears,
 My ^bspirit is greatly troubled;
 My ^cheart is poured out on the earth,
^dBecause of the ^edestruction of the daughter of my people,
 When ^flittle ones and infants faint
 In the streets of the city.
- 12 They say to their mothers,
 "Where is grain and wine?"
 As they faint like a wounded man
 In the streets of the city,
 As their ^blife is poured out
 On their mothers' bosom.
- 13 How shall I admonish you?
 To what ^ashall I compare you,
 O daughter of Jerusalem?
 To what shall I liken you as I comfort you,
 O ^bvirgin daughter of Zion?
 For your ^cruin is as vast as the sea;
 Who can ^dheal you?
- 14 Your ^aprophets have seen for you
 False and foolish visions;
 And they have not ^bexposed your iniquity
 So as to restore you from captivity,
 But they have ^cseen for you false and misleading ^doracles.

- At the daughter of Jerusalem,
 "Is this the city of which they said,
 'The perfection of beauty,
 A joy to all the earth?'"
- 16 All ^ayour enemies
 Have opened their mouths wide against you;
 They hiss and ^bgnash their teeth.
 They say, "We have ^cswallowed her up!
 Surely this is the ^dday for which we waited;
 We have reached it, we have seen it."
- 17 The LORD has ^adone what He purposed;
 He has accomplished His word
 Which He commanded from days of old.
 He has thrown down ^bwithout sparing,
 And He has caused the enemy to ^crejoice over you;
 He has ^dexalted the ^emight of your adversaries.
- 18 Their ^aheart cried out to the Lord,
 "O ^bwall of the daughter of Zion,
 Let your ^ctears run down like a river day and night;
 Give yourself no relief;
 Let ^dyour eyes have no rest.
- 19 "Arise, cry aloud in the ^anight
 At the beginning of the night watches;
^bPour out your heart like water
 Before the presence of the Lord;
 Lift up your hands to Him
 For the ^clife of your little ones
 Who are ^dfaint because of ^ehunger
 At the head of every street."

Should women ^beat their ¹offspring,
The little ones who were ²born healthy?
Should ^cpriest and prophet be slain
In the sanctuary of the Lord?
- 21 On the ground in the streets
Lie ^ayoung and old,
My ^bvirgins and my young men
Have fallen by the sword.
Thou hast slain them in the day of Thine anger,
Thou hast slaughtered, ^cnot sparing.
- 22 Thou didst call as in the day of an appointed feast
My ^aterrors on every side;
And there was ^bno one who escaped or survived
In the day of the LORD's anger.
Those ^cwhom I ¹bore and reared,
My enemy annihilated them.

CHAPTER 3

- I AM the man who has ^aseen affliction
Because of the rod of His wrath.
- 2 He has driven me and made me walk
In ^adarkness and not in light.
- 3 Surely against me He has ^aturned His hand Repeatedly all the day.
- 4 He has caused my ^aflesh and my skin to waste away.
He has ^bbroken my bones.
- 5 He has ^abesieged and encompassed me with ^bbitterness and hardship.
- 6 In ^adark places He has made me dwell,
Like those who have long been dead.

CHAPTER 4

- HOW ^adark the gold has become,
How the pure gold has changed!
The sacred stones are poured out
At the ¹corner of every street.
- 2 The precious sons of Zion,
Weighed against fine gold,
How they are regarded as ^aearthen jars,
The work of a potter's hands!
- 3 Even ^ajackals offer the breast,
They nurse their young;
But the daughter of my people has become ^bcruel
Like ^costriches in the wilderness.
- 4 The ^atongue of the infant
cleaves
To the roof of its mouth because of ^bthirst;
The little ones ^cask for bread,
But no one breaks it for
them.
- 5 Those who ate ^adelicacies
Are desolate in the streets;
Those ¹reared in purple Embrace ash pits.
- 6 For the ¹iniquity of the daughter of my people
Is greater than the ^{2a}sin of Sodom, Which was ^boverthrown as in a moment,
And no hands were ³turned toward her.
- 7 Her ¹consecrated ones were ^apurer than snow,
They were whiter than milk;
They were more ruddy in ^{2b}body than corals,

 8 Their appearance is ^ablack-

 They are not recognized in Their ^bskin is shriveled on

 It is withered, it has become

 9 Better are those ^{1a} slain with

 Than those ¹ slain with hunger;
 For they ^{2b} pine away, being stricken
 For lack of the fruits of ³ the field.
 10 The hands of compassionate women
^a Boiled their own children;
 They became ^b food for
 them
 Because of the destruction of the daughter of my

 11 The LORD has ^a accomplished His wrath,
 He has poured out His fierce anger;
 And He has ^b kindled a fire in Zion
 Which has consumed its foundations.
 12 The kings of the earth did

 Nor did any of ^a the inhabitants of the world,
 That the adversary and the enemy
 Could ^b enter the gates of Jerusalem.
 13 Because of the sins of her

But He ^bwill punish your iniquity, O daughter of Edom;
He will expose your sins!

THE BOOK OF EZEKIEL

The Vision of Four Figures

NOW it came about in the thirtieth year, on the fifth day of the fourth month, while I was by the ^ariver Chebar among the exiles, the ^bheavens were opened and I saw ¹visions of God.

2 (On the fifth of the month ¹in the ^afifth year of King Jehoiachin's exile,

3 the ^aword of the LORD came expressly to Ezekiel the priest, son of Buzi, in the ^bland of the Chaldeans by the river Chebar; and there ^cthe hand of the LORD came upon him.)

4 ¶ And as I looked, behold, a ^astorm wind was coming from the north, a great cloud with fire flashing forth continually and a bright light around it, and in its midst something like ^bglowing metal in the midst of the fire.

5 And within it there were figures resembling ^afour living beings. And this was their appearance: they had human ^bform.

6 Each of them had ^afour faces and ^bfour wings.

7 And their legs were straight and ¹their feet were like a calf's hoof, and they gleamed like ^aburnished bronze.

8 Under their wings on their ^afour sides were human ^bhands. As for the faces and wings of the four of them,

9 their wings touched one another; their faces did ^anot turn when they moved, each ^bwent straight forward.

10 As for the ^aform of their faces, each had the ^bface of a man, ¹all four had the face of a lion on the right and the face

14 And the living beings ^aran to and fro like bolts of ^blightning.

15 ¶ Now as I looked at the living beings, behold, there was one ^awheel on the earth beside the living beings, ¹for each of the four of them.

21 ^aWhenever those went, these went; and whenever those stood still, these stood still. And whenever those rose from the earth, the wheels rose close beside them; for the spirit of the living ¹beings was in the wheels.

22 ¶ Now ^aover the heads of the living ¹beings there was something like an expanse, like the awesome gleam of ²crystal, extended over their heads.

23 And under the expanse their wings were stretched out straight, one toward the other; each one also had ^atwo wings covering their bodies on the one side and on the other.

24 I also heard the sound of their wings like the ^asound of abundant waters as they went, like the ^bvoice of ¹the Almighty, a sound of tumult like the ^csound of an army camp; whenever they stood still, they dropped their wings.

25 And there came a voice from above the ^aexpanse that was over their heads; whenever they stood still, they dropped their wings.

26 ¶ Now ^aabove the expanse that was over their heads there was something ^bresembling a throne, like ¹lapis lazuli in appearance; and on that which resembled a throne, high up, was a figure with the appearance of a ^dman.

CHAPTER 2

THEN He said to me, "Son of man, ^astand on your feet that I may speak with you!"

2 And as He spoke to me the ^aSpirit entered me and set me on my feet; and I heard Him speaking to me.

3 Then He said to me, "Son of man, I am sending you to the sons of Israel, to a rebellious people who have ^arebelled against Me; ^bthey and their fathers have transgressed against Me to this very day.

4 "And I am sending you to them who are ¹stubborn and obstinate children; and you shall say to them, 'Thus says the Lord ²God.'

9 Then I looked, behold, a hand was extended to me; and lo, a scroll was in it.

10 When He spread it out before me, it was written on the front and back; and written on it were lamentations, mourning and woe.

CHAPTER 3

THEN He said to me, "Son of man, eat what you find; eat this scroll, and go, speak to the house of Israel."

2 So I opened my mouth, and He fed me this scroll.

3 And He said to me, "Son of man, feed your stomach, and fill your body with this scroll which I am giving you." Then I ate it, and it was sweet as honey in my mouth.

4 Then He said to me, "Son of man, go to the house of Israel and speak with My words to them.

5 "For you are not being sent to a people of unintelligible speech or difficult language, but to the house of Israel,

6 nor to many peoples of unintelligible speech or difficult language, whose words you cannot understand. But I have sent you to them who should listen to you;

7 yet the house of Israel will not be willing to listen to you, since they are not willing to listen to Me. Surely the whole house of Israel is stubborn and obstinate.

8 "Behold, I have made your face as hard as their faces, and your forehead as hard as their foreheads.

11 "And go to the exiles, to the sons of your people, and speak to them and tell them, whether they listen or not. Thus says the Lord God."

12 Then the Spirit lifted me up, and I heard a great rumbling sound behind me, "Blessed be the glory of the LORD in His place."

13 And I heard the sound of the wings of the living beings touching one another, and the sound of the wheels beside them, even a great rumbling sound.

14 So the Spirit lifted me up, and took me away; and I went embittered in the rage of my spirit, and the hand of the LORD was strong on me.

15 Then I came to the exile who lived beside the river Chebar at Tel-abib, and I sat there seven days where they were living, causing consternation among them.

16 Now it came about at the end of seven days that the word of the LORD came to me saying,

17 "Son of man, I have appointed you a watchman to the house of Israel; whenever you hear a word from My mouth warn them from Me.

18 "When I say to the wicked 'You shall surely die'; and you do not warn him or speak out to warn the wicked from his wicked way that he may live that wicked man shall die in his iniquity, but his blood I will require at your hand.

20 "Again, ^awhen a righteous man turns away from his righteousness and commits iniquity, and I place an ^bobstacle before him, he shall die; since you have not warned him, he shall die in his sin, and his righteous deeds which he has done shall not be remembered; but his blood I will require at your hand.

21 "However, if you have ^awarned ¹the righteous man that the righteous should not sin, and he does not sin, he shall surely live because he took warning; and you have delivered yourself."

22 ¹ And the hand of the LORD was on me there, and He said to me, "Get up, go out to the plain, and there I will ^aspeak to you."

23 So I got up and went out to the plain; and behold, the ^aglory of the LORD was standing there, like the glory which ^{b1} I saw by the river Chebar, and I fell on my face.

24 The ^aSpirit then entered me and made me stand on my feet, and He spoke with me and said to me, "Go, shut yourself up in your house.

25 "As for you, son of man, they will ^aput ropes on you and bind you with them, so that you cannot go out among them.

26 "Moreover, ^aI will make your tongue stick to ¹the roof of your mouth so that you will be dumb, and cannot be a man who rebukes them, for they are a rebellious house.

27 "But ^awhen I speak to you, I will open your mouth, and you will say to them, 'Thus says the Lord ¹God.' He who hears, let him hear; and he who refuses, let him refuse; ^bfor they are a rebellious house.

4 ¹ "As for you, lie down on your left side, and lay the iniquity of the house of Israel on it; you shall ^abear their iniquity for the number of days that you lie on it.

5 "For I have assigned you a number of days corresponding to the years of their iniquity, three hundred and ninety days; thus ^ayou shall bear the iniquity of the house of Israel.

6 "When you have completed these, you shall lie down a second time, but on your right side, and bear the iniquity of the house of Judah; I have assigned it to you for forty days, a day for ^aeach year.

7 "Then you shall set your face toward the siege of Jerusalem with your arm bared, and ^aprophecy against it.

8 "Now behold, I will ^aput ropes on you so that you cannot turn from one side to the other, until you have completed the days of your siege.

9 ¹ "But as for you, take wheat, barley, beans, lentils, millet and ^aspelt, put them in one vessel and make them into bread for yourself; you shall eat it according to the number of the days that you lie on your side, three hundred and ninety days.

10 "And your food which you eat shall be ^atwenty shekels a day by weight; you shall eat it from time to time.

11 "And the water you drink will be the sixth part of a hin by measure; you shall drink it from time to time.

12 "And you shall eat it as a barley cake, having baked it in their sight over human ^adung."

13 Then the LORD said, "Thus shall the sons of Israel eat their bread ^aunclean among the nations where I shall banish them."

14 But I said, "Ah, Lord ¹God! Behold, I have ^bnever been defiled; for from my youth until now I have never eaten what ^cdied of itself or was torn by beasts, nor has any ^dunclean meat ever entered my mouth."

15 Then He said to me, "See, I shall give you cow's dung in place of human dung over which you will prepare your bread."

15 So it will be a reproach, a reviling, a warning and an object of horror to the nations who surround you, when I execute judgments against you in anger, wrath, and raging rebukes. I, the LORD, have spoken.

16 When I send against them the deadly arrows of famine which were for the destruction of those whom I shall send to destroy you, then I shall also intensify the famine upon you, and break the staff of bread.

17 Moreover, I will send on you famine and wild beasts, and they will bereave you of children; plague and bloodshed also will pass through you, and I will bring the sword on you. I, the LORD, have spoken."

8 "However, I shall leave a remnant, for you will have those who escaped the sword among the nations when you are scattered among the countries.

9 "Then those of you who escape will remember Me among the nations to which they will be carried captive, how I have been hurt by their adulterous hearts which turned away from Me, and by their eyes, which played the harlot after their idols; and they will loathe themselves in their own sight for the evils which they have committed, for all their abominations.

MOREOVER, the word of the LORD came to me saying,

2 "And you, son of man, thus says the Lord ¹GOD to the land of Israel, 'An ^aend! The end is coming on the four corners of the land.

3 'Now the end is upon you, and I shall send My anger against you; I shall judge you according to your ways, and I shall bring all your abominations upon you.

7 'Your doom has come to you, O inhabitant of the land. The ^atime has come, the ^bday is near—tumult rather than joyful shouting on the mountains.

hand of the Lord ¹God fell on me there.

2 Then I looked, and behold, a likeness as the appearance of ¹a man; from His loins and downward there was the ²appearance of fire, and from His loins and upward the appearance of brightness, like the appearance ³of glowing metal.

3 And He stretched out the form of a hand and caught me by a lock of my head; and the ²Spirit lifted me up between earth and heaven and brought me in the visions of God to Jerusalem, to the entrance of the ¹north gate of the inner court, where the seat of the idol of jealousy, which ²provokes to jealousy, was located.

4 And behold, the ²glory of the God of Israel was there, like the appearance which I saw in the plain.

5 ¹Then He said to me, "Son of man, ²raise your eyes, now, toward the north." So I raised my eyes toward the north, and behold, to the north of the altar gate was this ³idol of jealousy at the entrance.

6 And He said to me, "Son of man, do you see what they are doing, the great ²abominations which the house of Israel are committing here, that I should be far from My sanctuary? But yet you will see still greater abominations."

7 ¹Then He brought me to the entrance of the court, and when I looked, behold, a hole in the wall.

8 And He said to me, "Son of man, now ²dig through the wall." So I dug through the wall, and behold, an entrance.

9 And He said to me, "Go in and see the wicked abominations that they are committing here."

10 So I entered and looked, and behold, every form of creeping things and beasts and detestable things, with all the idols of the house of Israel, were carved on the wall all around.

11 And standing in front of them were ^aseventy ^belders of the house of Israel, with Jaazaniah the son of Shaphan standing among them, each man with his ^ccenser in his hand, and the fragrance of the cloud of incense rising.

12 Then He said to me, "Son of man, do you see what the elders of the house of Israel are committing in the dark, each man in the room of his carved images? For they say, '^aThe LORD does not see us; the LORD has ^bforsaken the land.'"

13 And He said to me, "Yet you will see still greater abominations which they are committing."

14 ¶ Then He brought me to the entrance of the ^agate of the LORD's house which was toward the north; and behold, women were sitting there weeping for Tammuz.

15 And He said to me, "Do you see this, son of man? Yet you will see still greater abominations than these."

16 ¶ Then He brought me into the inner court of the LORD's house. And behold, at the entrance to the temple of the LORD, between the porch and the altar, were about twenty-five men with their ^abacks to the temple of the LORD and their faces toward the east; and ^bthey were ^cprostrating themselves eastward toward the sun.

17 And He said to me, "Do you see this, son of man? Is it too light a thing for the house of Judah to commit the abominations which they have committed here, that they have ^afilled the land with violence and ^bprovoked Me repeatedly? For behold, they are putting the twig to their nose.

18 "Therefore, I indeed shall deal in wrath. My eye will have no pity nor shall I spare; and

"though they cry in My ears with a loud voice, yet I shall not listen to them."

CHAPTER 9

THEN He cried out in my hearing with a loud ^avoice saying, "Draw near, ^bO executioners of the city, each with his destroying weapon in his hand."

2 And behold, six men came from the direction of the upper gate which faces north, each with his shattering weapon in his hand; and among them was ^acertain man clothed in linen with a ^bwriting case at his loins. And they went in and stood beside the bronze altar.

3 ¶ Then the ^aglory of the God of Israel went up from the cherub on which it had been, to the threshold of the ^btemple. And He called to the man clothed in linen at whose loins was the writing case.

4 And the LORD said to him "Go through the midst of the city, even through the midst of Jerusalem, and put a ^amark on the foreheads of the men who ^bsigh and groan over all the abominations which are being committed in its midst."

5 But to the others He said in my hearing, "Go through the city after him and strike; do not let your eye have pity, and do no spare.

6 "Utterly ^aslay old men, young men, maidens, little children and women, but do not ^btouch any man on whom is the mark and you shall ^cstart from My sanctuary." So they started with the ^delders who were before the ^etemple.

7 And He said to them, "^aDefile the ^btemple and fill the courts with the slain. Go out!" Thus they went out and struck down ^cthe people in the city.

8 Then it came about as they were striking and I alone was left, that I ^afell on my face and cried out ¹saying, "bAlas, Lord ²God! Art Thou destroying the whole remnant of Israel ³by pouring out Thy wrath on Jerusalem?"

9 ¶ Then He said to me, "The iniquity of the house of Israel and Judah is very, very great, and the land is ^afilled with blood, and the city is ^bfull of perversion; for ^cthey say, 'The LORD has forsaken the land, and the LORD does not see!'"

10 "But as for Me, ^aMy eye will have no pity nor shall I spare, but ^bI shall bring their conduct upon their heads."

11 ¶ Then behold, the man clothed in linen at whose loins was the ¹writing case ²reported, saying, "I have done just as Thou hast commanded me."

CHAPTER 10

THEN I looked, and behold, in the ¹expanse that was over the heads of the cherubim something like a ^bsapphire stone, in appearance resembling a throne, appeared above them.

2 And He spoke to the man clothed in linen and said, "Enter between the ^awhirling wheels under the ¹cherubim, and fill your hands with ^bcoals of fire from between the cherubim, and scatter them over the city." And he entered in my sight.

3 ¶ Now the cherubim were standing on the right side of the ¹temple when the man entered, and the cloud filled the ^ainner court.

4 Then the ^aglory of the LORD went up from the cherub to the threshold of the temple, and the ^btemple was filled with the cloud, and the court was filled with the ^cbrightness of the glory of the LORD.

5 Moreover, the sound of the wings of the cherubim was heard as far as the outer court, like the ^avoice of ¹God Almighty when He speaks.

6 ¶ And it came about when He commanded the man clothed in linen, saying, "Take fire from between the whirling wheels, from between the cherubim," he entered and stood beside a wheel.

7 Then the cherub stretched out his hand from between the cherubim to the fire which was between the cherubim, took some and put it into the hands of the one clothed in linen, who took it and went out.

8 And the cherubim appeared to have the form of a man's hand under their wings.

9 ¶ Then I looked, and behold, ^afour wheels beside the cherubim, one wheel beside each cherub; and the appearance of the wheels was like the gleam of a ^{1b}Tarshish stone.

10 And as for their appearance, all four of them had the same likeness, as if one wheel were within another wheel.

11 When they moved, they went ^ain any of their four ¹directions without turning as they went; but they followed in the direction which ²they faced, without turning as they went.

12 And their ^awhole body, their backs, their hands, their wings, and the ^bwheels were full of eyes all around, the wheels belonging to all four of them.

13 The wheels were called in my hearing, the whirling wheels.

14 And ^aeach one had four faces. The first face was the face of a cherub, the second face was the face of a man, the third the face of a lion, and the fourth the face of an eagle.

15 ¶ Then the cherubim rose up. They are the ^aliving beings that I saw by the river Chebar.

16 Now when the cherubim moved, the wheels would go beside them; also when the cherubim lifted up their wings to rise from the ground, the wheels would not turn from beside them.

17 When ¹the cherubim ^astood still, ¹the wheels would stand still; and when they rose up, ¹the wheels would rise with them; for the spirit of the living beings was in them.

18 ¶ Then the glory of the LORD departed from the threshold of the temple and stood ^aover the cherubim.

19 When ^athe cherubim departed, they lifted their wings and rose up from the earth in my sight with the wheels beside them; and they stood still at the entrance of the east gate of the LORD's house. And the glory of the God of Israel ¹hovered over them.

20 ¶ These are the ^aliving beings that I saw beneath the God of Israel by ^bthe river Chebar; so I knew that they were cherubim.

21 ^aEach one had four faces and each one four wings, and beneath their wings was the form of human hands.

22 As for the likeness of their faces, they were the same faces whose appearance I had seen by the river Chebar. Each one went straight ahead.

5 ¶ Then the Spirit of the LORD fell upon me, and He said to me "Say, 'Thus says the LORD, "So you think, house of Israel, for ^aI know ¹your ^bthoughts.

6 "You have ^amultiplied your slain in this city, filling its streets with ¹them."

8 "You have ^afeared a sword; so I will ^bbring a sword upon you," the Lord God declares.

9 "And I shall bring you out of the midst of ¹the city, and I shall deliver you into the hands of ^astrangers and ^bexecute judgments against you.

10 "You will ^afall by the sword. I shall judge you to the ^bborder of Israel; so you shall know that I am the LORD.

11 "This city will ^anot be a pot for you, nor will you be flesh in the midst of it, but I shall judge you to the border of Israel.

12 "Thus you will know that I am the LORD; for you have not walked in My statutes nor have you ^aexecuted My ordinances, but have acted according to the ordinances of the ^bnations around you." "

13 ¶ Now it came about as I prophesied, that ^aPelatiah son of Benaiah died. Then I fell on my face and cried out with a loud voice and said, "^bAlas, Lord God! Wilt Thou bring the remnant of Israel to a complete end?"

14 ¶ Then the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

15 "Son of man, your brothers, your ¹relatives, ²your fellow exiles, and the whole house of Israel, all of them, are those to

16 "Therefore say, 'Thus says the Lord God, "Though I had removed them far away among the nations, and though I had scattered them among the countries, yet I was a ^asanctuary for them a little while in the countries where they had gone."

17 "Therefore say, 'Thus says the Lord God, "I shall ^agather you from the peoples and assemble you out of the countries among which you have been scattered, and I shall give you the land of Israel."

18 "When they come there, they will ^aremove all its ^bdetestable things and all its abominations from it.

19 "And I shall ^agive them one heart, and shall put a new spirit within ¹them. And I shall take the ^bheart of stone out of their flesh and give them a ^cheart of flesh, 20 that they may ^awalk in My statutes and keep My ordinances, and do them. Then they will be ^bMy people, and I shall be their God.

21 "But as for those whose hearts go after their ^adetestable things and abominations, I shall ^bbring their conduct down on their heads," declares the Lord God.

22 ¶ Then the cherubim ^alifted up their wings with the wheels beside them, and ^bthe glory of the God of Israel ¹hovered over them.

23 And the ^aglory of the LORD went up from the midst of the city, and ^bstood over the mountain which is east of the city.

24 And the ^aSpirit lifted me up and brought me in a vision by the Spirit of God to the exiles ¹in Chaldea. So the vision that I had seen ²left me.

25 Then I ^atold the exiles all the things that the LORD had shown me.

CHAPTER 12

THEN the word of the LORD came to me saying,

2 "Son of man, you live in the ^amidst of the ^brebellious house, who ^chave eyes to see but do not see, ears to hear but do not hear; for they are a rebellious house.

3 "Therefore, son of man, prepare for yourself baggage for exile and go into exile by day in their sight; even go into exile from your place to another place in their sight. ^aPerhaps they will ¹understand though they are a rebellious house.

4 "And bring your baggage out by day in their sight, as baggage for exile. Then you will go out ^aat evening in their sight, as those going into exile.

5 "Dig a hole through the wall in their sight and ¹go out through it.

6 "Load ^athe baggage on your shoulder in their sight, and carry it out in the dark. You shall ^acover your face so that you can not see the land, for I have set you as a ^bsign to the house of Israel."

7 ¶ And I ^adid so, as I had been commanded. By day I ^bbrought out my baggage like the baggage of an exile. Then in the evening I dug through the wall with my hands; I went out in the dark and carried ^athe baggage on my shoulder in their sight.

8 ¶ And in the morning the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

THEN the word of the LORD came to me saying,

2 "Son of man, prophesy against the ^aprophets of Israel who prophesy, and say to those who prophesy from their own inspiration, ^bListen to the word of the LORD!

3 "Thus says the Lord ¹God: "Woe to the ^afoolish prophet

6 "They see ¹a falsehood and lying divination who are saying, 'The LORD declares,' when the LORD has not sent them; ^byet they hope for the fulfillment of their word.

7 "Did you not see a false vision and speak a lying divination when you said, 'The LORD declares,' but it is not I who have spoken?"

8 "Therefore, thus says the Lord God, "Because you have spoken ¹falsehood and seen a lie, therefore behold, ^aI am against you," declares the Lord God.

9 "So My hand will be against the ^aprophets who see false visions and utter lying divinations. They will ¹have no place in the council of My people, ^bnor will they be written down in the register of the house of Israel, nor will they enter the land of Israel, ²that you may know that I am the Lord God.

10 "It is definitely because they have ^amisled My people by saying, ^b'Peace!' when there is ^c'no peace. And when anyone builds a wall, behold, they plaster it over with whitewash;

11 so tell those who plaster it over with whitewash, that it will fall. A ^a'flooding rain will come, and you, O hailstones, will fall; and a violent wind will break out.

12 "Behold, when the wall has fallen, will you not be asked, 'Where is the plaster with which you plastered it?'

13 Therefore, thus says the Lord God, "I will make a violent wind break out in My wrath. There will also be in My anger a flooding rain and ^a'hailstones to consume it in wrath.

14 "So I shall tear down the wall which you plastered over with whitewash and bring it down to the ground, so that its ^a'foundation is laid bare; and when it falls, you will be ^b'consumed in its midst. And you will ^c'know that I am the LORD.

15 "Thus I shall spend My wrath on the wall and on those who have plastered it over with whitewash; and I shall say to you, 'The wall ¹is gone and its plasterers are gone.

16 along with the prophets of Israel who prophesy to Jerusalem, and who ^a'see visions of peace for her when there is ^b'no peace,' declares the Lord God.

17 "Now you, son of man, set your face against the daughters of your people who are ^a'prophesying ^b'from their own ¹'inspiration. Prophecy against them.

18 and say, 'Thus says the Lord God, "Woe to the women who sew magic bands on ¹'all wrists, and make veils for the heads of persons of every stature to ^a'hunt down ²'lives! Will you hunt down the ²'lives of My people, but preserve the ²'lives of others for yourselves?

19 "And ^a'for handfuls of barley and fragments of bread, you have profaned Me to My people to put to death ¹'some who should not die and to ^b'keep ¹'others alive who should not live, by your lying to My people who listen to lies."

20 "Therefore, thus says the Lord God, "Behold, I am against your magic bands by which you hunt ¹'lives there as ²'birds; and I will tear them off your arms; and I will let ¹'them go, even those ¹'lives whom you hunt as ²'birds.

THEN the word of the LORD came to me saying,

4 "As for your birth, ^aon the day you were born your navel cord was not cut, nor were you washed with water for cleansing; you were not rubbed with salt or even wrapped in cloths.

5 "No eye looked with pity on you to do any of these things for you, to have compassion on you. Rather you were thrown out into the ¹open field, ²for you were abhorred on the day you were born.

6 ¶“When I passed by you and saw you squirming in your blood, I said to you while you were in your blood, ‘Live!’ I said to you while you were in your blood, ‘Live!’

7 ¶I ^amade you ¹numerous like plants of the field. Then you grew up, became tall, and reached the age for fine ornaments; your breasts were formed and your hair had grown. Yet you were naked and bare.

9 ¶Then I bathed you with water, washed off your blood from you, and ^aanointed you with oil.

10 ¶I also clothed you with ^aembroidered cloth, and put sandals of porpoise skin on your feet; and I wrapped you with fine linen and covered you with silk.

38 "Thus I shall ^ajudge you, like women who commit adultery or shed blood are judged; and I shall bring on you the blood of ^bwrath and jealousy.

39 "I shall also give you into ¹the hands of your lovers, and they will tear down your shrines, demolish your high places, ^astrip you of your clothing, take away your ²jewels, and will leave you naked and bare.

52 "Also bear your disgrace in that you have ¹made judgment favorable for your sisters. Because of your sins in which you acted ^amore abominably than they, they are more in the right than you. Yes, be also ashamed and bear your disgrace, in that you made your sisters appear righteous.

CHAPTER 17

NOW the word of the LORD came to me saying,

2 "Son of man, propound a riddle, and speak a ^aparable to the house of Israel.

3 ¹Saying, 'Thus says the Lord ²GOD, "A great ^aeagle with ^bgreat wings, long pinions and a full plumage of many colors, came to ^cLebanon and took away the top of the cedar.

4 "He plucked off the topmost of its young twigs and brought it to a land of merchants; he set it in a city of traders.

5 "He also took some of the seed of the land and planted it in ¹fertile soil. He ²placed it beside abundant waters; he set it like a ^bwillow.

6 "Then it sprouted and became a low, spreading vine with its branches turned toward him, but its roots remained under it. So it became a vine, and yielded shoots and sent out branches.

7 "But there was ¹another great eagle with great wings and much plumage; and behold, this vine bent its roots toward him and sent out its branches toward him from the beds where it was ^aplanted, that he might water it.

8 "It was planted in good ¹soil beside abundant waters, that it might yield branches and bear fruit, and become a splendid vine."

9 "Say, 'Thus says the Lord God, "Will it thrive? Will he not pull up its roots and cut off its fruit, so that it withers—so that all its sprouting leaves wither? And neither by great ¹strength nor by many people can it be raised from its roots again.

10 "Behold, though it is planted, will it thrive? Will it not ^acompletely wither as soon as the east wind strikes it—wither on the beds where it grew?"

11 ¹Moreover, the word of the LORD came to me saying,

12 "Say now to the ^arebellious house, 'Do you not ^bknow what these things mean?' Say, 'Behold, the ^cking of Babylon came to Jerusalem, took its king and princes, and brought them to him in Babylon.

13 'And he took one of the royal ^afamily and made a covenant with him, ²putting him under ^boath. He also took away the ^cmighty of the land,

14 that the kingdom might ^abe ^bin subjection, not exalting itself, but keeping his covenant, that it might continue.

15 'But he ^arebelled against him by sending his envoys to Egypt that they might give him horses and many ¹troops. Will he succeed? Will he who does such things ^bescape? Can he indeed break the covenant and escape?

16 'As I live,' declares the Lord God, 'Surely in the ¹country of the king who ²put him on the throne, whose oath he ^adespised, and whose covenant he broke, ³in Babylon he shall die.

17 'And ^aPharaoh with his mighty army and great company will not ¹help him in the war, when they cast up mounds and build siege walls to cut off many lives.

18 'Now he despised the oath by breaking the covenant, and behold, he ^apledged his allegiance, yet did all these things; he shall not escape.'

19 Therefore, thus says the Lord God, "As I live, surely My oath which he despised and My covenant which he broke, I will ¹inflict on his head.

20 "And I will spread My ^anet over him, and he will be ^bcaught in My snare. Then I will bring him to Babylon and ^center into judgment with him there regarding the unfaithful act which he has committed against Me.

21 "And all the ¹choice men in all his troops will fall by the sword, and the survivors will be scattered to every wind; and you will know that I, the LORD, have spoken."

22 ¶ Thus says the Lord God, "I shall also take a ²sprig from the lofty top of the cedar and set it out; I shall pluck from the topmost of its young twigs a tender one, and I shall plant it on a ³high and lofty mountain.

23 "On the high mountain of Israel I shall plant it, that it may bring forth boughs and bear fruit, and become a stately ⁴cedar. And birds of every ¹kind will ²nest under it; they will ²nest in the shade of its branches.

24 "And all the ⁵trees of the field will know that I am the LORD; I bring down the high tree, exalt the low tree, dry up the green tree, and make the dry tree ⁶flourish. I am the LORD; I have spoken, and I will perform it."

CHAPTER 18

THEN the word of the LORD came to me saying,

2 "What do you mean by using this proverb concerning the land of Israel saying,

"⁷The fathers eat the sour grapes,

But the children's teeth ¹are set on edge?"

3 "As I live," declares the Lord ¹GOD, "you are surely not going to use this proverb in Israel anymore.

4 "Behold, ⁸all ¹souls are Mine; the ²soul of the father as well as the ²soul of the son is Mine. The ³soul who ⁴ sins will die.

5 "But if a man is righteous, and practices justice and righteousness,

Lament for the Princes of Israel

- Planted by the waters;
It was fruitful and full of branches
Because of abundant waters.
- 11 'And it had ^{1a}strong branches fit for scepters of rulers,
And its ^bheight was raised above the clouds
So that it was seen in its height with the mass of its branches.
- 12 'But it was ^aplucked up in fury;
It was ^bcast down to the ground;
And the ^ceast wind dried up its fruit.
Its ^{1d}strong branch ^{2w}was torn off
So that ³ⁱit withered;
The fire consumed it.
- 13 'And now it is planted in the ^awilderness,
In a dry and thirsty land
- 14 'And ^afire has gone on from its branch;
It has consumed its shoot and fruit,
So that there is not in it ¹strong branch,
A scepter to rule.' "
- This is a lamentation, and has become a lamentation.

CHAPTER 20

NOW it came about in the seventh year, in the fifth month, on the tenth of the month, that ¹certain of the ^aelders of Israel came to inquire of the LORD, and sat before me.

2 And the word of the LORD came to me saying,

3 "Son of man, speak to the elders of Israel, and say to them 'Thus says the Lord ¹GOD, "Do you come to inquire of Me? As I live," declares the Lord GOD, "I will not be inquired of by you."

4 "Will you judge them, will you judge them, son of man? ^aMake them know the abominations of their fathers;

5 and say to them, 'Thus says he Lord God, "On the day when ^achose Israel and ¹swore to the descendants of the house of Jacob and made Myself known to them in the land of Egypt, when ¹swore to them, saying, ^bI am he LORD your God,

6 on that day I swore to them, to bring them out from the land of Egypt into a land that I had ¹selected for them, ^bflowing with milk and honey, which is ^cthe glory of all lands.

7 "And I said to them, '^aCast away, each of you, the detestable things of his eyes, and ^bdo not defile yourselves with the idols of Egypt; ^cI am the LORD your God.'

8 "But they ^arebelled against Me and were not willing to listen to Me; ¹they did not cast away the detestable things of their eyes, nor did they forsake the ^bidols of Egypt.

9 Then I ²resolved to ^cpour out My wrath on them, to accomplish My anger against them in the midst of the land of Egypt.

10 "But I acted ^afor the sake of My name, that it should ^bnot be profaned in the sight of the nations among whom they lived, in whose sight I made Myself known to them by bringing them out of the land of Egypt.

11 "So I took them out of the land of Egypt and brought them into the ^awilderness.

12 "And I gave them My ^astatutes and informed them of My ordinances, by ^bwhich, if a man ¹observes them, he will live.

13 "And also I gave them My sabbaths to be a ^asign between Me and them, that they might know that I am the LORD who sanctifies them.

14 "But the house of Israel ^arebelled against Me in the wilderness. They did not walk in My statutes, and they rejected My ordinances, ^bby which, if a man ¹observes them, he will live; and My ^asabbaths they greatly profaned. Then I ²resolved to ^apour out My wrath on them in the wilderness, to annihilate them.

14 "But I acted for the sake of My name, that it should not be profaned in the sight of the nations, before whose sight I had brought them out.

15 "And also I swore to them in the wilderness that I would not bring them into the land which I had given them, flowing with milk and honey, which is the glory of all lands.

16 because they rejected My ordinances, and as for My statutes, they did not walk in them; they even profaned My sabbaths, for their ^aheart continually went after their idols.

17 "Yet My eye spared them rather than destroying them, and I did not cause their ^aannihilation in the wilderness.

18 ¶ "And I said to their ¹children in the wilderness, ^bDo not walk in the statutes of your fathers, or keep their ordinances, or defile yourselves with their idols.

19 "I am the LORD your God; ^bwalk in My statutes, and keep My ordinances, and ¹observe them.

20 "And ^asanctify My sabbaths; and they shall be a sign between Me and you, that you may know that I am the LORD your God.'

21 "But the ^achildren rebelled against Me; they did not walk in My statutes, nor were they careful to observe My ordinances, by which, if a man observes them, he will live; they profaned My sabbaths. So I ¹resolved to pour out My wrath on them, to accomplish My anger against them in the wilderness.

22 "But I ^awithdrew My hand and acted ^bfor the sake of My name, that it should not be profaned in the sight of the nations in whose sight I had brought them out.

23 "Also I swore to them in the wilderness that I would ^ascatter them among the nations and disperse them among the lands.

24 because they had not observed My ordinances, but had rejected My statutes, and had profaned My sabbaths, and ^atheir eyes were ¹on the idols of their fathers.

25 "And I also gave them statutes that were ^anot good and ordinances by which they could not live;

26 and I pronounced them ^aunclean because of their gifts, in that they ^bcaused all ¹their first-born to pass through the fire so that I might make them desolate, in order that they might ^cknow that I am the LORD."

27 ¶ "Therefore, son of man, ^aspeak to the house of Israel, and say to them, 'Thus says the Lord God, "Yet in this your fathers have ^bblasphemed Me by ^cacting treacherously against Me.

28 "When I had ^abrought them into the land which I swore to give to them, then they saw every ^bhigh hill and every leafy tree, and they offered there their sacrifices, and there they presented the provocation of their offering. There also they made their soothing aroma, and there they poured out their libations.

29 "Then I said to them, 'What is the high place to which you go?' So its name is called ¹Bamah to this day."

30 "Therefore, say to the house of Israel, 'Thus says the Lord God, "Will you defile yourselves ¹after the manner of your ^afathers and play the harlot after their detestable things?

CHAPTER 21

¹AND the word of the LORD came to me saying,

2¹ "Son of man, ^aset your face toward Jerusalem, and ^bspeak against the sanctuaries, and prophesy against the land of Israel;

3 and say to the land of Israel, 'Thus says the LORD, "Behold, ^aI am against you; and I shall draw My sword out of its sheath and cut off from you the ^brighteous and the wicked.

4¹ "Because I shall cut off from you the righteous and the wicked, therefore My sword shall go forth from its sheath against ^aall flesh from south to north.

5¹ "Thus all flesh will know that I, the LORD, have drawn My sword out of its sheath. It will ^anot return to its sheath again."

6¹ "As for you, son of man, groan with breaking ¹heart and bitter grief, groan in their sight.

7¹ "And it will come about when they say to you, 'Why do you groan?' that you will say, 'Because of the ^anews that is coming; and ^bevery heart will melt, all hands will be feeble, every spirit will ¹faint, and all knees will ²be weak as water. Behold, it comes and it will happen,' declares the Lord ³God."

8 Again the word of the LORD came to me saying,

9¹ "Son of man, prophesy and say, 'Thus says the LORD.' Say, ^aA sword, a sword sharpened

And also polished!

10 ¹Sharpened to make a ^aslaughter,

13^a "For there is a testing; and what if even the ¹rod which despises will be no more?" declares the Lord God.

14 ¶ "You therefore, son of man, prophesy, and clap your hands together; and let the sword be ^adoubled the third time, the sword for the slain. It is the sword for the great one slain, which surrounds them,

15 that their ^ahearts may melt, and many ^bfall at all their ^cgates. I have given the glittering sword. Ah! It is made for striking like lightning, it is wrapped up in readiness for slaughter.

17^a "I shall also clap My hands together, and I shall ^{1a}appease My wrath; I, the LORD, have spoken."

18 ¶ And the word of the LORD came to me saying,

19^a "As for you, son of man, ^{1a}make two ways for the sword of the king of Babylon to come; both of them will go out of one land. And ²make a signpost; ³make it at the head of the way to the city.

17 ¶ And the word of the LORD came to me saying,

24 "Son of man, say to her, 'You are a land that is ^anot cleansed or rained on in the day of indignation.'

25 "There is a ^aconspiracy of her prophets in her midst, like a roaring lion tearing the prey. They have ^bdevoured lives; they have taken treasure and precious things; they have made many ^cwidows in the midst of her.

CHAPTER 23

THE word of the LORD came to me again saying,

2 "Son of man, there were ^atwo women, the daughters of one mother;

3 and they played the harlot in Egypt. They ^aplayed the harlot in their youth; there their breasts were pressed, and there their virgin bosom was handled.

4 "And their names were Oholah the elder and Oholibah her sister. And they became Mine, and they bore sons and daughters. And as for their names, Samaria is Oholah, and Jerusalem is Oholibah.

5 ¶ "And Oholah played the harlot ¹while she was Mine; and she lusted after her lovers, after the ^aAssyrians, her neighbors,

6 who were clothed in purple, ^agovernors and officials, all of them desirable young men, horsemen riding on horses.

7 "And she bestowed her harlotries on them, all of whom were the choicest ¹men of Assyria; and with all whom she lusted after, with all their idols she ^adefiled herself.

8 "And she did not forsake her harlotries ^afrom the time in Egypt; for in her youth ¹men had lain with her, and they handled her virgin bosom and poured out their ²lust on her.

9"Therefore, I gave her into the hand of her ^alovers, into the hand of the ¹Assyrians, after whom she lusted.

10"They ^auncovered her nakedness; they took her sons and her daughters, but they slew her with the sword. Thus she became a ¹byword among women, and they executed judgments on her.

11 ¶"Now her sister Oholibah saw this, yet she was ^amore corrupt in her lust than she, and her harlotries were more than the harlotries of her sister.

12"She lusted after the ^{1a}Assyrians, governors and officials, the ones near, magnificently dressed, horsemen riding on horses, all of them desirable young men.

13"And I saw that she had defiled herself; they both took ¹the same way.

14"So she increased her harlotries. And she saw men ^aportrayed on the wall, images of the ^bChaldeans portrayed with vermillion.

15 girded with belts on their loins, with flowing turbans on their heads, all of them looking like officers, ¹like the ²Babylonians in Chaldea, the land of their birth.

16"And ¹when she saw them she ^alusted after them and sent messengers to them in Chaldea.

17"And the ^{1a}Babylonians came to her to the bed of love, and they defiled her with their harlotry. And when she had been defiled by them, ²she became disgusted with them.

18"And she ^auncovered her harlotries and uncovered her nakedness; then ¹I became ^bdisgusted with her, as ¹I had become disgusted with her ^csister.

19"Yet she multiplied her harlotries, remembering the days of her youth, when she played the harlot in the land of Egypt.

21"Thus you longed for the ^alewdness of your youth, when ¹the Egyptians handled your bosom because of the breasts of your youth.

22 ¶"Therefore, O Oholibah, thus says the Lord ¹God, 'Behold I will arouse your lovers against you, from whom ²you were alienated, and I will bring them against you from every side:

23 the ^{1a}Babylonians and all the ^bChaldeans, ^cPekod and Shoa and Koa, and all the ^{2d}Assyrians with them; desirable young men, governors and officials all of them, officers and ³men of renown, all of them riding on horses.

24 'And they will come against you with weapons, ^achariots, and ¹wagons, and with a company of peoples. They will set themselves against you on every side with buckler and shield and helmet; and I shall commit the ^bjudgment to them, and they will judge you according to their customs.

25 'And I will set My ^ajealousy against you, that they may deal with you in wrath. They will remove your nose and your ears; and your ¹survivors will fall by the sword. They will take your ^bsons and your daughters; and your ¹survivors will be consumed by the fire.

26 'They will also ^astrip you of your clothes and take away your ^bbeautiful jewels.

27 'Thus ¹I shall make your lewdness and your harlotry brought from the land of Egypt to cease from you, so that you will not lift up your eyes to them or remember Egypt anymore.'

30 'These things will be done to you because you have ^aplayed the harlot with the nations, because you have defiled yourself with their idols.

31 'You have walked in the way of your sister; therefore I will give ^aher cup into your hand.'

32 'Thus says the Lord God, 'You will ^adrink your sister's cup,

Which is deep and wide.

'You will be ^blaughed at and held in derision;

It contains much.

33 'You will be filled with ^adrunkenness and sorrow,

39 'For when they had slaughtered their children for their idols, they entered My ^asanctuary on the same day to profane it; and lo, thus they did within My house.

40 'Furthermore, ¹they have even sent for men who come from afar, to whom a messenger was sent; and lo, they came—for whom you bathed, ^apainted your eyes, and ^bdecorated yourselves with ornaments;

41 and you sat on a splendid couch with a ^btable arranged before it, on which you had set My ^cincense and My ^coil.

42 'And the sound of a ¹care-free multitude was with her; and ^bdrunkards were brought from the wilderness with men of the ²common sort. And they put ^cbracelets on ³the hands of the women and beautiful crowns on their heads.

44 'But they went in to her as they would go into a harlot. Thus they went in to Oholah and to Oholibah, the lewd women.

45 'But they, righteous men, will ^ajudge them with the judgment of adulteresses, and with the judgment of women who shed blood, because they are adulteresses and blood is on their hands.

49 'And your lewdness ¹will be ^arequited upon you, and you will bear the penalty of worshipping your idols; thus you will know that I am the Lord God.'

AND the word of the LORD came to me in the ninth year, in the tenth month, on the tenth of the month, saying,

2 "Son of man, write the name of the day, this very day. The king of Babylon ¹has ^alaid siege to Jerusalem this very day.

3 "And speak a ^aparable to the ^brebellious house, and say to them, 'Thus says the Lord ¹God,

17 "Groan silently; make no mourning for the dead. Bind on your turban, and put your shoes on your feet, and do not cover your mustache, and do not eat the bread of men."

18 So I spoke to the people in the morning, and in the evening my wife died. And in the morning I did as I was commanded.

19 And the people said to me, "Will you not tell us what these things that you are doing mean for us?"

20 Then I said to them, "The word of the LORD came to me saying,

21 'Speak to the house of Israel, "Thus says the Lord God, 'Behold, I am about to profane My sanctuary, the pride of your power, the desire of your eyes, and the delight of your soul; and your sons and your daughters whom you have left behind will fall by the sword.

heart's delight, their sons and their daughters,

26 that on that day he who escapes will come to you with information for your ears?

27 'On that day your mouth will be opened to him who escaped, and you will speak and be dumb no longer. Thus you will be a sign to them, and they will know that I am the LORD.' "

CHAPTER 25

AND the word of the LORD came to me saying,

2 "Son of man, set your face toward the sons of Ammon, and prophesy against them.

3 and say to the sons of Ammon, 'Hear the word of the Lord God! Thus says the Lord God, "Because you said, 'Aha!' against My sanctuary when it was profaned, and against the land of Israel when it was made desolate, and against the house of Judah when they went into exile,

4 therefore, behold, I am going to give you to the sons of the east for a possession, and they will set their encampments among you and make their dwellings among you; they will beat your fruit and drink your milk.

5 "And I shall make Rabbah a pasture for camels and the sons of Ammon a resting place for flocks. Thus you will know that I am the LORD."

6 'For thus says the Lord God, "Because you have clapped your hands and stamped your feet and rejoiced with all the scorn of your soul against the land of Israel,

7 therefore, behold, I have stretched out My hand against you, and I shall give you for spoil to the nations. And I shall cut you off from the peoples and make you perish from the lands; I shall destroy you. Thus you will know that I am the LORD."

8 ¶ Thus says the Lord God,
"Because Moab and Seir say,
'Behold, the house of Judah is like all the nations.'

9 therefore, behold, I am going to ¹deprive the flank of Moab of its cities, of its cities which are on its ²frontiers, the glory of the land. ^aBeth-jeshimoth, ^bBaal-meon, and ^cKiriathaim.

10 and I will give it for a possession, along with the sons of Ammon, to the ^asons of the east, that the sons of Ammon may not be remembered among the nations.

11 "Thus I will execute judgments on Moab, and they will know that I am the Lord."

12 9 Thus says the Lord God,
"Because ^aEdom has acted against the house of Judah by taking vengeance, and has incurred grievous guilt, and avenged themselves upon
them."

13 therefore, thus says the Lord God, "I will also ^astretch out My hand against Edom and ^bcut off man and beast from it. And I will lay it waste; from ^cTe-man even to ^dDedan they will fall by the sword.

14 "And I will lay My vengeance on Edom by the hand of My people Israel. Therefore, they will act in Edom according to My anger and according to My wrath; thus they will know My vengeance," declares the Lord God.

15 9 Thus says the Lord God,
"Because the Philistines have acted in *revenge and have taken vengeance with scorn of soul to destroy with everlasting enmity."

16 therefore, thus says the Lord God, "Behold, I will stretch out My hand against the Philistines, even cut off the ^bCherethites and destroy the remnant of the seacoast.

17 And I will execute great vengeance on them with wrath.

ful rebukes; and they will know that I am the LORD when I lay My vengeance on them." "

CHAPTER 26

NOW it came about in the eleventh year, on the first of the month, that the word of the LORD came to me saying,

2nd Son of man, because ^aTyre has said concerning Jerusalem, 'Aha, the ^bgateway of the peoples is broken; it has ^copened to me. I shall be filled, now that she is laid waste.'

3 therefore, thus says the Lord
 'God, 'Behold, I am against you,
 O Tyre, and I will bring up ^amany nations against you, as the ^bsea brings up its waves.

4 And they will destroy the walls of Tyre and break down her towers; and I will scrape her debris from her and make her a bare rock.

5 'She will be a place for the spreading of nets in the midst of the sea, for I have spoken,' declares the Lord God, 'and she will become a spoil for the nations.

6 'Also her daughters who are on the mainland will be slain by the sword, and they will know that I am the Lord.'"

79 For thus says the Lord God, "Behold, I will bring upon Tyre from the north Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, ^aking of kings, with horses, ^bchariots, cavalry, and ^{1a}a great army.

8th He will slay your daughters 1 on the mainland with the sword; and he will make 4 siege walls against you, cast up a 6 mound against you, and raise up a large shield against you.

9' And the blow of his battering rams he will direct against your walls, and with his 'axes he will break down your towers.

THE word of the LORD came again to me saying,

CHAPTER 29

IN the ^atenth year, in the tenth month, on the twelfth of the month, the word of the LORD came to me saying,

2 "Son of man, set your face against ^aPharaoh, king of Egypt and prophesy against him and against all ^bEgypt.

3 "Speak and say, 'Thus say the Lord ¹God,

"Behold, I am against you Pharaoh, king of Egypt. The great ^{2a}monster that lies in the midst of his ³rivers,

That ^bhas said, 'My Nile is mine, and I myself have made it.'

4 "And I shall put ^ahooks in your jaws,

And I shall make the fish of your ¹rivers cling to your scales.

And I shall bring you up out of the midst of your ¹rivers,

And all the fish of your ¹rivers will cling to your scales.

5 "And I shall ^aabandon you to the wilderness, you and all the fish of your ¹rivers:

You will fall on the ²open field; you will not be brought together or ^{3b}gathered.

I have given you for ^cfood to the beasts of the earth and to the birds of the sky.

6 "Then all the inhabitants of Egypt will know that I am the LORD,

Because they have been only a ^astaff made of reed to the house of Israel.

7 "When they took hold of you with the hand,

You ^abroke and tore all their ¹hands;

And when they leaned on you,

You broke and made all their loins ²quake."

8 "Therefore, thus says the Lord God, "Behold, I shall ^abring upon you a sword, and I shall cut off from you man and beast.

9 "And the ^aland of Egypt will become a desolation and waste. Then they will know that I am the LORD.

^a Because ^byou ^bsaid, 'The Nile is mine, and I have made it,'

10 therefore, behold, I am ^aagainst you and against your ^brivers, and I will make the land of Egypt an utter waste and desolation, from Migdol to Syene and even to the border of ²Ethiopia.

11 "A man's foot will ^anot pass through it, and the foot of a beast will not pass through it, and it will not be inhabited for forty years.

12 "So I shall make the land of Egypt a desolation in the ^amidst of desolated lands. And her cities, in the midst of cities that are laid waste, will be desolate forty years; and I shall ^bscatter the Egyptians among the nations and disperse them among the lands."

13 ¶ "For thus says the Lord God, "At the end of forty years I shall ^agather the Egyptians from the peoples ^bamong whom they were scattered.

14 "And I shall turn the fortunes of Egypt and shall make them return to the land of ^aPathros, to the land of their origin; and there they will be a lowly kingdom.

15 "It will be the ^alowest of the kingdoms; and it will never again lift itself up above the nations. And I shall make them so small that they will not ^brule over the nations.

I will darken over you
And will set darkness on your land,"

Declares the Lord God.

9 "I will also ^atrouble the hearts of many peoples, when I ^bbring your destruction among the nations, into lands which you have not known.

10 "And I will make many peoples ^aappalled at you, and their kings shall be horribly afraid of you when I brandish My sword before them; and ^bthey shall tremble every moment, every man for his own life, on the day of your fall."

11 ¶ For ^athus says the Lord God, "The sword of the king of Babylon shall come upon you.

12 "By the swords of the mighty ones I will cause your multitude to fall; all of them are ^atyrants of the nations,

And they shall ^bdevastate
the pride of Egypt,
And all its multitude shall be destroyed.

13 "I will also destroy all its cattle from beside many waters;

And ^athe foot of man shall

And the hoofs of beasts shall not muddy them.

14 "Then I will make their wa-

LORD came to me saying,

18 "Son of man, ^awail for the down, her and the daughters of the powerful nations, to the multitude around her grave; all of them slain, fallen by the sword, who went down uncircumcised to the ^blower parts of the earth, who instilled their terror in the ^cland of the living, and 26 ¶ "Meshech, ^bTubal and all their multitude are there; their graves ¹surround them. All of them were slain by the sword ^cuncircumcised, though they instilled their terror in the land of the living.

27 "Nor do they lie beside the fallen ¹heroes of the uncircumcised, who went down to Sheol with their weapons of war, and whose swords were laid under their heads; but the punishment for their ^ciniquity rested on their bones, though the terror of these ¹heroes was once in the land of the living.

28 "But in the midst of the uncircumcised you will be broken and lie with those slain by the sword.

29 ¶ "There also is ^aEdom, its kings, and all its ¹princes, who ²for all their might are laid with those slain by the sword; they will lie with the uncircumcised, and with those who go down to the pit.

30 ¶ "There also are the ¹chiefs of the ^anorth, all of them, and all the ^bSidonians, who in spite of the terror resulting from their might, in shame went down with the slain. So they lay down uncircumcised with those slain by the sword, and bore their disgrace with those who go down to the pit.

CHAPTER 33

AND the word of the LORD came to me saying,

2 "Son of man, speak to the ^asons of your people, and say to them, 'If I bring a sword upon a land, and the people of the land take one man from among them and make him their watchman

3 and he sees the sword coming upon the land, and he ^ablows on the trumpet and warns the people,

4 then he who hears the sound of the trumpet and ^adoes not take warning, and a sword comes and takes him away, his ^bblood will be on his own head.

5 'He heard the sound of the trumpet, but did not take warning; his blood will be on himself. But had he taken warning, he would have ^adelivered his life.

6 'But if the watchman sees the sword coming and does not blow the trumpet, and the people are not warned, and a sword comes and takes a person from them, he is ^ataken away ¹in his iniquity; but his ^bblood I will require from the watchman's hand.'

7 ¶ "Now as for you, son of man, I have ¹appointed you a watchman for the house of Israel; so you will hear a ²message from My mouth, and give them ^bwarning from Me.

8 "When I say to the wicked, 'C wicked man, you shall ^asurely die,' and you do not speak to warn the wicked from his way that wicked man shall die in his iniquity, but his blood I will require from your hand.

9 "But if you on your part warn a wicked man to turn from his way, and he ^adoes not turn from his way, he will die in his iniquity; but you have ^bdelivered your life.

10 ¶ "Now as for you, son of man, say to the house of Israel, 'Thus you have spoken, saying, "Surely our transgressions and our sins are upon us, and we are ^arotting away in them; ^bhow then can we ¹survive?"'

11 "Say to them, '^aAs I live!' declares the Lord ¹God, 'I take ^bno pleasure in the death of the wicked, but rather that the wicked ^cturn from his way and live. ^dTurn back, turn back from your evil ways! Why then will you die, O house of Israel?'

12 "And you, son of man, say to ¹your fellow citizens, 'The ^arighteousness of a righteous man will not deliver him in the day of his transgression, and as for the wickedness of the wicked, he will ^bnot stumble because of it in the day when he turns from his wickedness; whereas a righteous man will not be able to live ²by his righteousness on the day when he commits sin.'

13 "When I say to the righteous he will surely live, and he so trusts in his righteousness that he ^acommits iniquity, none of his righteous deeds will be remembered; but in that same iniquity of his which he has committed he will die.

14 "But when I say to the wicked, 'You will surely die,' and he ^aturns from his sin and practices ^bjustice and righteousness,

15 if ^a wicked man restores a pledge, ^apays back what he has taken by robbery, walks by the ^bstatutes ¹which ensure life without committing iniquity, he will surely live; he shall not die.

16 "^aNone of his sins that he has committed will be remembered against him. He has practiced justice and righteousness; he will surely live.

17 ¶ "Yet ¹your fellow citizens say, 'The way of the Lord is not right,' when it is their own way that is not right.

18 "When the righteous turns from his righteousness and ^acommits iniquity, then he shall die in ¹it.

19 "But when the wicked turns from his wickedness and practices justice and righteousness, he will live by them.

20 "Yet you say, '^aThe way of the Lord is not right.' O house of Israel, I will judge each of you according to his ways."

21 ¶ Now it ^acame about in the ^btwelfth year of our exile, on the fifth of the tenth month, that the ¹refugees from Jerusalem came to me, saying, "'The city has been ²taken.'

22 Now the ^ahand of the LORD had been upon me in the evening, before the ¹refugees came. And He ^bopened my mouth ²at the time they came to me in the morning; so my mouth was ^copened, and I was no longer ³speechless.

23 ¶ Then the word of the LORD came to me saying,

24 "Son of man, they who ^alive in these waste places in the land of Israel are saying, '^bAbraham was only one, yet he possessed the land; so to ^cus who are many the land has been given as a possession.'

25 "Therefore, say to them, 'Thus says the Lord God, "You eat meat with the ^ablood in it, lift up your eyes to your idols as you shed blood. ^bShould you then possess the land?'

26 "You ¹arely on your sword, you commit abominations, and each of you defiles his neighbor's wife. Should you then possess the land?"'

27 "Thus you shall say to them, 'Thus says the Lord God, "As I live, surely those who are

THEN the word of the LORD came to me saying,

CHAPTER 37

THE ^ahand of the LORD was upon me, and He ^bbrought me out ^bby the Spirit of the LORD and set me down in the middle of the ^cvalley; and it was full of bones.

2 And He caused me to pass among them round about, and behold, there were very many on the surface of the valley; and lo, they were very dry.

3 And He said to me, "Son of man, ^acan these bones live?" And I answered, "O Lord ¹God, Thou knowest."

4 Again He said to me, ^a"Prophecy over these bones, and say to them, 'O dry bones, ^bhear the word of the LORD.'"

5 "Thus says the Lord God to these bones, 'Behold, I will cause ^bbreath to enter you that you may come to life.'

6 'And I will put sinews on you, make flesh grow back on you, cover you with skin, and put breath in you that you may come alive; and you will ^aknow that I am the LORD.'"

7 [¶] So I prophesied ^aas I was commanded; and as I prophesied, there was a ¹noise, and behold, a rattling; and the bones came together, bone to its bone.

8 And I looked, and behold, sinews were on them, and flesh grew, and skin covered them; but there was no breath in them.

9 Then He said to me, "Prophecy to the breath, prophecy, son of man, and say to the breath, 'Thus says the Lord God, "Come from the four winds, O breath, and ^abreathe on these slain, that they ^bcome to life.'"

10 So I prophesied as He commanded me, and the ^abreath came into them, and they came to life, and stood on their feet, an ^bexceedingly great army.

11 [¶] Then He said to me, "Son of man, these bones are the ^awhole house of Israel; behold, they say, 'Our ^bbones are dried up, and our hope has perished. We are ¹completely ^ccut off.'

12 "Therefore prophecy, and say to them, 'Thus says the Lord God, "Behold, I will open your graves and ^acause you to come up out of your graves, My people; and I will bring you into the land of Israel.'

14 "And I will ^aput My ¹Spirit within you, and you will come to life, and I will place you on your own land. Then you will know that I, the LORD, have spoken and done it," declares the LORD.'"

15 [¶] The word of the LORD came again to me saying,

16 "And you, son of man, take for yourself ^aone stick and write on it, 'For ^bJudah and for the sons of Israel, his companions'; then take another stick and write on it, 'For ^cJoseph, the stick of Ephraim and all the house of Israel, his companions.'

17 "Then ^ajoin them for yourself one to another into one stick, that they may become one in your hand.

18 "And when the sons of your people speak to you saying, 'Will you not declare to us ^awhat you mean by these?'

19 say to them, 'Thus says the Lord God, "Behold, I will take the stick of Joseph, which is in the hand of Ephraim, and the tribes of Israel, his companions; and I will put them with it, with the stick of Judah, and make them one stick, and they will be one in My hand.'"

20 "And the sticks on which you write will be in your hand before their eyes.

21 "And say to them, 'Thus says the Lord God, "Behold, I will ^atake the sons of Israel from among the nations where they have gone, and I will gather them from every side and bring them into their own land;

22 and I will make them ^aone nation in the land, on the mountains of Israel; and ^bone king will be king for all of them; and they will no longer be two nations, and they will no longer be divided into two kingdoms.

slaughter the burnt offering and the sacrifice.

43 And the double hooks, one handbreadth in length, were installed in the house all around; and on the tables was the flesh of the offering.

44 ¶ And from the outside to the inner gate were chambers for the singers in the inner court, one of which was at the side of the north gate, with its front toward the south, and one at the side of the east gate facing toward the north.

45 And he said to me, "This is the chamber which faces toward the south, intended for the priests who keep charge of the temple;

46 but the chamber which faces toward the north is for the priests who keep charge of the altar. These are the sons of Zadok, who from the sons of Levi come near to the LORD to minister to Him."

47 And he measured the court, a perfect square, a hundred cubits long and a hundred cubits wide; and the altar was in front of the temple.

48 ¶ Then he brought me to the porch of the temple and measured each side pillar of the porch, five cubits on each side; and the width of the gate was three cubits on each side.

49 The length of the porch was twenty cubits, and the width eleven cubits; and at the stairway by which it was ascended were columns belonging to the side pillars, one on each side.

CHAPTER 41

THEN he brought me to the nave and measured the side pillars; six cubits wide on each side was the width of the side pillar.

2 And the width of the entrance was ten cubits, and the sides of the entrance were five cubits on each side. And he measured the length of the nave, forty cubits, and the width, twenty cubits.

3 Then he went inside and measured each side pillar of the doorway, two cubits, and the doorway, six cubits high; and the width of the doorway, seven cubits.

4 And he measured its length, twenty cubits, and the width, twenty cubits, before the nave; and he said to me, "This is the most holy place."

5 ¶ Then he measured the wall of the temple, six cubits; and the width of the side chambers, four cubits, all around about the house on every side.

6 And the side chambers were in three stories, one above another, and thirty in each story; and the side chambers extended to the wall which stood on their inward side all around, that they might be fastened, and not be fastened into the wall of the temple itself.

7 And the side chambers surrounding the temple were wider at each successive story. Because the structure surrounding the temple went upward by stages on all sides of the temple, therefore the width of the temple increased as it went higher; and thus one went up from the lowest story to the highest by way of the second story.

8 I saw also that the house had a raised platform all around; the foundations of the side chambers were a full rod of six long cubits in height.

9 The thickness of the outer wall of the side chambers was five cubits. But the free space between the side chambers belonging to the temple was twenty cubits in width all around the temple on every side.

11 And the doorways of the side chambers toward the free space consisted of one doorway toward the north and another doorway toward the south; and the width of the free space was five cubits all around.

12 ¶ And the building that was in front of the separate area at the side toward the west was seventy cubits wide; and the wall of the building was five cubits thick all around, and its length was ninety cubits.

13 Then he measured the temple, a hundred cubits long; the separate area with the building and its walls were also a hundred cubits long.

14 Also the width of the front of the temple and that of the separate areas along the east side totaled a hundred cubits.

15 ¶ And he measured the length of the building along the front of the separate area behind it, with a gallery on each side, a hundred cubits; he also measured the inner nave and the porches of the court.

16 The thresholds, the blatted windows, and the galleries round about their three stories, opposite the threshold, were paneled with wood all around, and from the ground to the windows (but the windows were covered),

17 over the entrance, and to the inner house, and on the outside, and on all the wall all around inside and outside, by measurement.

18 And it was carved with cherubim and palm trees; and a palm tree was between cherub and cherub, and every cherub had two faces.

20 From the ground to above the entrance *cherubim and *palm trees were ¹carved, as well as on the wall of the nave.

21 ¶ The *doorposts of the ^hnave were square; as for the front of the sanctuary, the appearance of one doorpost was like that of the other.

22 The *altar was of wood, three cubits high, and its length two cubits; its corners, its ¹base, and its ²sides were of wood. And he said to me, "This is the ^htable that is before the LORD."

23 And the *nave and the ^hsanctuary each had a double ^hdoor.

24 And each of the doors had two leaves, two ¹swinging leaves; two leaves for one door and two leaves for the other.

25 Also there were ¹carved on them, on the doors of the nave, *cherubim and *palm trees like those ¹carved on the walls; and there was a ^{2b}threshold of wood on the front of the porch outside.

26 And there were ^{1a}latticed windows and ^hpalm trees on one side and on the other, on the sides of the ^hporch; thus were the ^hside chambers of the house and the ²thresholds.

CHAPTER 42

THEN he ^abrought me out into the ^houter court, the way ^ctoward the north; and he brought me to the ^hchamber which was opposite the ^eseparate area and opposite the ^hbuilding toward the north.

2 Along the length, which was a ^ahundred cubits, was the north door; the width was fifty cubits.

3 Opposite the ^atwenty cubits which belonged to the inner court, and opposite the ^hpavement which belonged to the outer court, was ^{1c}gallery corresponding to ¹gallery in three stories.

4 And before the ^achambers was an inner walk ten cubits wide, a way of one hundred cubits; and their openings were on the north.

5 Now the upper chambers were ¹smaller because the ^{2a}galeries took more space away from them than from the lower and middle ones in the building.

6 For they were in ^athree stories and had no pillars like the pillars of the courts; therefore the upper chambers were ¹set back from the ground upward, more than the lower and middle ones.

7 As for the ^aouter wall by the side of the chambers, toward the outer court facing the chambers, its length was fifty cubits.

8 For the length of the chambers which were in the outer court was fifty cubits; and behold, the length of those facing the temple was a ^ahundred cubits.

9 And below these chambers was the ^aentrance on the east side, as one enters them from the outer court.

10 ¶ In the ¹thickness of the ^awall of the court toward the east, facing the ^hseparate area and facing the building, there were ^cchambers.

11 And the ^away in front of them was like the appearance of the chambers which were on the north, according to their length so was their width; and all their exits were both according to their arrangements and openings.

12 And corresponding to the openings of the chambers which were toward the south was an opening at the head of the way, the way in front of the ^awall

14 "When the priests enter, then they shall not go out into the outer court from the sanctuary ¹without ^alaying there their ^bgarments in which they minister, for they are holy. They shall put on other garments; then they shall approach that which is for the people."

15 ¶ Now when he had finished measuring the inner house, he brought me out by the way of the ^agate which faced toward the east, and measured it all around.

16 He measured on the east side with the measuring reed five hundred reeds, by the ^ameasuring reed.

17 He measured on the north side five hundred reeds by the measuring reed.

18 On the south side he measured five hundred reeds with the measuring reed.
